Tax Credit Repeal Move In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee voted today to recommend outright repeal of the 7 per cent investment tax credit and moved on to consider extension of the income tax surcharge.

Acting Chairman Hale Boggs, D-La., told newsmen that—as President Richard M. Nixon recommended — the investment credit repeal was voted without exceptions.

However, Boggs said the committee wrote into the bill a special fast depreciation provision to encourage investment in equipment to abate air and water pollution.

A vote on the surtax was again predicted late today. There has been a strong push in the committee to extend it for less than a year. Nixon's recommendation was to continue the surcharge at 10 per cent for six months from the June 30 expiration date, then another six months at 5 per cent.

Boggs' report indicated that committee members seeking to continue some investment credit for small businesses and elements of the transportation industry had lost.

The credit permits businesses to recover up to 59.7 per cent of their investment in equipment.

The committee also voted for the relatively noncontroversial proposal to postpone for a year reduction of excise taxes on automobiles and telephone service, Boggs said.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said meanwhile that the President has received assurance of both Republican and Democratic leaders in the House—and he believes in the Senate—that they will go all out to get an extension of the surtax.

Upton Successor Wins Full Support

JACK G. NIXON
To planning commission

Jack G. Nixon, San Rafael insurance man who lives in Marinwood, will succeed Dr. William F. Upton on the Marin County Plannning Commission.

The long awaited decision came today on a motion by Supervisor chairman John F. McInnis, a second by Supervisor Louis H. Baar and by a unanimous vote of the supervisors.

Supervisors Michael Wornum and Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. said they "find it difficult to vote against Dr. Upton" but explained they would abide by the recommendation of McInnis since the appointment is in his supervisorial district (first district).

"This is not a vote against Dr. Upton," said McInnis. He explained the only reason he did not reappoint Dr. Upton is that "I wish to bring a younger person for a perhaps more vigorous approach and in my opinion representative of the newer element in Marin County."

McInnis had asked various organizations from Santa Venetia to Lucas Valley to recommend someone to replace Dr. Upton. The organizations had favored the retention of Dr. Upton, but submitted two other names at the request of McInnis — architect William B. Reiner and management consultant Edward M. Lewis of Los Ranchitos.

McInnis said he had hoped to name Lewis, but during the past two weeks, Lewis withdrew because of the pressure of his work.

McInnis said this left Nixon as his only choice. Reiner's name did not even come up during this morning's dicussion.

Nixon was one of McInnis' key campaign leaders in his 1966 supervisorial race, in which

Diver Vanishes At Stinson Beach

A young San Francisco skin diver disappeared and apparently drowned last night about 300 yards off Stinson Beach when he presumable became entangled in heavy kelp beds.

The Marin County Sheriff's Department searched today for the body of Gerry Allen Brey, 26, who disappeared about 6:30 p.m.

Brey's wife, Carla, told deputies that she was watching her husband from the shore when he dove in the vicinity of the kelp beds and then didn't surface.

Warren's Rules Bid Turned Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court justices have turned down a bid by Chief Justice Earl Warren that they bind themselves immediately to stiff new rules on off-bench activities.

A majority of the justices decided, instead, to defer action until October when the court will meet with a new chief justice at the helm.

Warren reported, in a 113-word statement, the results of his efforts to have the justices comply with the new rules. He said he took up the subject with them at a conference in the Supreme Court last Friday.

The new rules, laid down June 10 by the U.S. Judicial Conference, forbid all federal judges except members of the Supreme Court to accept outside fees. The rules also require all federal judges—again with the exception of the Supreme Court justices—to file beginning next year annual reports of their investments and other assets.

Warren called a judicial committee into action to work on the rules on May 16, the day after Justice Abe Fortas quit the court under fire for having considered a $20,000 annual fee from the Wolfson Family Foundation.

Warren was understood to be deeply interested in having the code imposed quickly and before his service as chief justice ends early this summer.

Nixon Going On TV And Radio

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon will hold a television-radio news conference Thursday at 7 p.m. EDT, the White House announced today.

The question and answer session, the first such to be broadcast live since April 18, will follow a meeting tomorrow of the National Security Council to discuss "certain aspects" of planned talks with the Soviet Union on limitation of strategic arms.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon planned to make no opening statement at the news conference, to be held in the East Room of the White House.

Sabella Verdict: Guilty

By MARY LEYDECKER

A Marin Superior Court jury of seven men and five women yesterday found Daniel-Thomas Stathos and Kenneth Lee Harnal, both 22, guilty of kidnaping and robbing restaurant owner Luciano A. Sabella last November.

Stathos of Pacifica was also convicted of taking part in the armed robbery of the Greenbrae Lanes in October.

The jury found the pair guilty of being armed when carrying out the Sabella crime, which eliminates the possibility of probation for the convicted men.

During the two-week trial a former confederate of Stathos and Harnal, Walter John Hoefler, a one-time Larkspur doughnut baker, who is now serving a sentence at San Quentin, testified that Stathos and Harnal of San Francisco carried out the Sabella crime with him.

He also described the armed robbery of the bowling alley, which he said he and Stathos committed.

Although Stathos, who acted as his own attorney during most of the trial, and public defender. Jerome C. Durham, who represented Harnal, tried to convince the jury that testimony by Hoefler and his wife, Darlene, was not believable, the jury evidently disagreed.

Also testifying at the trial in Judge Samuel W. Gardiner's courtroom was Sabella, who identified Harnal and said that he thought Stathos was the man who entered his house wearing a stocking over his head.

The three men forced their way into the Sabella home in Peacock Gap at gunpoint and after spending several hours with Sabella and his terrified wife, handcuffed her to a piano leg and forced Sabella to drive to the restaurant with them.

The trial was halted Friday when Stathos apparently took an overdose of drugs and could not be awakened. Later in the day he was taken from the jail to Marin General Hospital where he was treated in the intensive care unit until regaining consciousness.

Judge Gardiner told the jurors when they returned the verdict after five hours of deliberation and having testimony reread to them that both Stathos and Harnal had wanted to plead guilty at different times during the trial.

He had not allowed them to do so, he said, because of fear of prejudicing the jury against the other man.

Judge Gardiner set sentencing for Stathos and Harnal for June 30.

President Backs Elected Leaders

By BONNIE BARD

Sonoma State College President Ambrose R. Nichols Jr. today defended newly elected student government officers who are ex-convicts, but promised a crackdown on the "offensive" student newspaper.

The election which saw James G. Gillette, Black Student Union leader elected student body president, was validated by Nichols on June 6. Many students had complained of irregularities in voting and asked Nichols to declare the election void.

In the final election, Gillette, 35, defeated Jon Owen of Novato, who had won the previous general and runoff elections which were invalidated by the student board of directors. All other previous winners were also defeated in the final balloting.

Nichos said he had not found sufficient evidence of improprieties and declared Gillette the official winner.

Gillette, of Cotati, served a prison term for smuggling marijuana from Nogales, Mex., and is now on parole. He also served a term for non-support of a former wife and children. Nichols said that Gillette is attending college with the sanction of his probation officer.

Irwin T. Moore, newly elected student body vice president, also has an arrest record, although the president did not report on the exact charges.

"Since before their involvement in student government, the college has sought to encourage and assist Mr. Gillette, Mr. Moore and other minority and disadvantaged students to obtain a college education," Nicholas said.

"It is the position of the college that such students must have the same rights and opportunities as all other students to engage in student activities, including student government. It is the hope of the college that all the new student officers will only be judged on their performance," Nichols said.

Students who lost in the final election are reportedly considering court action to overturn the vote or may organize a recall election when the fall semester begins in September.

Park Backers Brand Reagan As 'Fascist'

BERKELEY (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan employed "the big lie in the style of Hitler" in his comments about the controversial People's Park issue, several angry young men asserted yesterday.

"He's trying to say, as they did in fascist Germany, that the whole issue is law and order," said Art Goldberg.

Goldberg appeared at a news conference with four other members of the People's Park Negotiating Committee in response to statements Reagan made Friday before the Commonwealth Club of California in San Francisco.

"He's trying to isolate the young and their struggle from the rest of the people in the state," Goldberg said of Reagan.

"And in the process he has radicalized and unified students everywhere and has created the nation's most powerful student movement, here in California."

Goldberg is a former University of California law student and was active in the 1964 Free Speech Movement.

He also was a spokesman for dissidents during mass marches following a bloody confrontation May 15 after the university put up a fence around U.C. land that young people tried to claim for a park. More than 130 were injured, one fatally.

Goldberg disputed Reagan's assertion that those in the park movement were not productive members of the community.

"Reagan feels that to be productive you can't be creative, such as in planting music and those other things the young consider important," Goldberg declared.

Another committee member, Frank Bardacke, outlined what he said were "big lies:"

"He said police were caught in the crossfire. Nonsense. No demonstrators carried guns."

"He said there is no shortage of parks in Berkeley. Well, there are none in the area south of the campus."

"He said a cop was being stoned to death. The media and I didn't see that."

"He said sheriff's deputies had to walk over fallen bodies of Berkeley policemen. No one reported that.

"He said a mail truck was commandeered and its mail tossed out by the marchers. I checked with the post office, and they had no report of such an incident."

16,000 To Other Bases In Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 16,000 soldiers and Marines being withdrawn from Vietnam will be redeployed to Okinawa, Hawaii and Japan, the Pentagon announced today.

Another 8,000 soldiers, including 2,000 mobilized National Guard and reservists, will be returned to the United States to be disbanded and 1,200 Navy men will be distributed throughout the Pacific Command and the United States.

The Pentagon said the 8,000-man Ninth Marine Regimental Landing Team will move to Okinawa, the 7,400-man First Brigade of the Ninth Infantry Division and the division headquarters will go to Hawaii, and a Marine fighter squadron of about 400 men will be sent to Iwakuni, Japan, in July and August.

DETAILS PLANS

The new announcement completed details of the 25,000-man troop withdrawal announced by President Richard M. Nixon at Midway 10 days ago.

At the same time, the Pentagon identified the 20 Army reserve and National Guard units being brought home for demobilization. They are support type outfits from 17 states. None are from California.

Posting of two-thirds of the 25,000 troops being withdrawn on Okinawa, Hawaii and Japan will serve to replenish the reserve of U.S. forces in the Pacific which was depleted starting in 1965 to fight the war in Vietnam.

That reserve is normally held in readiness for emergencies anywhere in the Far East, including Korea and Thailand.

There were reports a small force of Marines already had arrived in Okinawa.

OKINAWA BOUND

Daniel Z. Henkin, the Pentagon's top spokesman, said he did not know whether those Marines were the advance guard of the withdrawal, but added: "I wouldn't be surprised to see some small advance parties go to both Okinawa and Hawaii" to prepare for the larger movement.

Henkin said that, according to general guidelines, Army units being returned from Vietnam

Gun Purchase Bill Endorsed

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill that would allow Californians to buy rifles and shotguns in the adjacent states of Oregon, Nevada and Arizona was endorsed today by the Senate Judiciary Committee and sent to the floor.

The Assembly-passed measure by Assemblyman Floyd L. Wakefield, R-South Gate, would allow Californians to bring the guns back into the state.

Federal law forbids out-of-state gun buying, except if the legislatures of bordering states grant approval. The three other states have already approved the arrangement with California.

Cranston Urges A Flexible Approach To U.S. Diplomacy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Alan Cranston today pushed for a more flexible approach for diplomatic recognition of nations—including Red China—since a "lost signal, a missed statement of intention, a simple misunderstanding might well lead to a devastated planet."

The freshman Democrat from California testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the resolution he is co-sponsoring that says:

"It is the sense of the Senate that when the United States has recognizes a foreign government and exchanges diplomatic representatives with it, this does not imply that the United States necessarily approves of the form, ideology or policy of that foreign government."

Committee chairman Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., endorsed the resolution when it was introduced May 27, saying the measure could open the way for eventual recognition of Communist China.

In his prepared testimony, Cranston, reviewed U.S. recognition doctrine from Jefferson's time—"whether or not a country existed"—through Wilson's criterion of the Democratic legitimacy for recognition to Dulles' suggestion that recognition implys moral approval.

Cranston—he does not favor recognition of Red China at this time—argued in addition that "this resolution does not necessarily lead to close and intimate cooperation with a particular foreign government." Also:

"The evidence is overwhelming that withholding recognition from governments of which we disapprove, and with whom our relations are particularly hostile, has failed totally to advance our values or to achieve any other significant and enduring purposes.

"It prevents us not only from exerting influence, but from gaining insight . . . It is," he went on, "a matter of crucial importance in the years ahead for our country to develop a recognition policy which will improve communications with those who would be our enemies—not to make communication more difficult."

"It is the sense of the Senate that when the United States has recognizes a foreign government and exchanges diplomatic representatives with it, this does not imply that the United States necessarily approves of the form, ideology or policy of that foreign government."

Committee chairman Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., endorsed the resolution when it was introduced May 27, saying the measure could open the way for eventual recognition of Communist China.

In his prepared testimony, Cranston, reviewed U.S. recognition doctrine from Jefferson's time—"whether or not a country existed"—through Wilson's criterion of the Democratic legitimacy for recognition to Dulles' suggestion that recognition implys moral approval.

Cranston—he does not favor recognition of Red China at this time—argued in addition that "this resolution does not necessarily lead to close and intimate cooperation with a particular foreign government." Also:

"The evidence is overwhelming that withholding recognition from governments of which we disapprove, and with whom our relations are particularly hostile, has failed totally to advance our values or to achieve any other significant and enduring purposes.

"It prevents us not only from exerting influence, but from gaining insight . . . It is," he went on, "a matter of crucial importance in the years ahead for our country to develop a recognition policy which will improve communications with those who would be our enemies—not to make communication more difficult."

Gun Purchase Bill Endorsed

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill that would allow Californians to buy rifles and shotguns in the adjacent states of Oregon, Nevada and Arizona was endorsed today by the Senate Judiciary Committee and sent to the floor.

The Assembly-passed measure by Assemblyman Floyd L. Wakefield, R-South Gate, would allow Californians to bring the guns back into the state.

Federal law forbids out-of-state gun buying, except if the legislatures of bordering states grant approval. The three other states have already approved the arrangement with California.

Moon Training

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Neil A. Armstrong, commander of the Apollo 11 mission, has completed a series of flights in a landing trainer and says he feels ready to try the touchdown on the moon.

Armstrong flew the lunar landing training vehicle LLTV three times yesterday, each time reaching 300 feet in altitude before practicing the powered descent he'll use next month to reach the moon's surface.

Wall Anniversary

BERLIN (AP) — West Germans today observed the 16th anniversary of the East German uprising against Communist rule with wreath-laying ceremonies along the Berlin Wall, commemorative speeches and memorial fires on rivers and hills within view of their East German neighbors.

Property Taken

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Iraqi government has confiscated the properties and possessions of nine Iraqis accused of spying for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, the Iraqi News Agency reported today.

Among the nine was a Lebanon-based Iraqi millionaire, Lutfi Obeidi, charged with operating a chain of business firms in the middle East and Africa as a cover for the CIA.

Tourist Killed

TEL AVIV (AP) — Iraqi shellfire killed one American woman tourist and wounded another today along the Israeli-Jordanian ceasefire line, the Israeli army reported.

A spokesman identified the woman killed as Shirley Anderson, 25, New York City.

The woman wounded was identified as Eileen Bonnet of Lodi. Miss Bonnett received a broken arm in the attack.

Officials said a 122mm shell fired by Iraqi troops in Jordan hit a taxi which the tourists took to Kallia, a tourist and health resort near the Dead Sea, 15 miles east of Jerusalem.

Hippies Reign

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Some 500 hippies and University of Michigan students took over a street of Ann Arbor yesterday and enjoyed an evening of dancing, drinking, fireworks and motorcycle stunt riding.

The young people banded together when a policeman tried to ticket a motor cyclist for stunt riding, and, once together, decided to take over the whole block.

Within minutes the uniformed policeman retreated and the street was theirs — barricades were thrown up and wine was passed around.

The top police official there, Ann Arbor Det. Lt. Eugene Staudenmeier, watched the affair in relative calm.

Fall In Tomb

SEGOVIA, Spain (AP) — Three women fell in a tomb today when a marble gravestone collapsed under them as they were watching the burial of 13 victims of Sunday's restaurant collapse near Madrid. The women were pulled out uninjured. Fifty-two persons were killed in the restuarant cave-in. The others were buried in their hometowns across Spain.

West German Auto Deaths Off

BONN — Fatal traffic accidents in the Federal Republic of Germany have dropped for the first time in twenty-five years, the Inter Nations Press Service reports.

A total of 16,698 persons died in 1968 as a result of injuires suffered in highway accidents, compared to 17,084 in 1967.

This downward trend has continued this year despite the growing number of vehicles on German roads.

Transportation Minister Georg Leber is confident that new legislation, to go into effect August 1, will further reduce highway deaths.

Applicants for drivers' licenses will be required to take special post-accident training which includes marking the scene of the accident, reducing the injured and providing first aid.

Applicants for truck licenses will have to pass the German Red Cross' first aid test.

Splitting Of State Favored

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — This city's governing body is in favor of splitting California in half.

By an 8-3 vote yesterday the board of supervisors favored a bill setting up two states — Northern California and Southern California.

However, nearly all the supervisors agreed the proposal had little chance of passing the Legislature.

"There is a serious question raised here," said Supervisor Jack Morrison. "In the long run, I think, the idea of splitting the state would work to the disadvantage of San Francisco.

"Our community of interest is with the large cities, such as Los Angeles."

Officer Keeps Mum On Collision

SUBIC BAY, Philippines (UPI)—The officer in charge of the USS Frank E. Evans when it collided with an Australian aircraft carrier refused today to testify before a board of inquiry without "full constitutional rights."

Lt. (j.g.) Ronald C. Ramsey, 24, of Long Beach, informed the board of his decision through his legal counsel, Lt. Frederick F. Tilton of Mariemont, Ohio, on the eighth day of hearings into the cause of the crash that killed 74 Americans.

Tilton said he advised Ramsey not to testify because his requests to see the testimony of previous witnesses, to recall witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses had been denied.

"Mr. Ramsey, after careful consideration of this advice, declines to make a statement at this time, reserving, of course, the right to testify before any board or formal board hereinafter convened which has the authority to grant him his full constitutional rights," Tilton said.

The board of three U.S. Navy and three Australian Navy officers, called to determine the facts and not guilt adjourned for a closed meeting. A spokesman said no more witnesses would be called today.

The board on Saturday said it did not have the authority to grant Ramsey's requests and warned him he was suspected of "negligently hazarding" the Evans in the collision.

Ramsey was within his rights in refusing to testify. The fact-finding board cannot force him to give his account of what happened in the minutes before the June 3 tragedy in the South China Sea.

Albania Move

TOKYO (AP) — Albania, Communist China's staunchest ally in Europe, has recognized the Viet Cong's provisional revolutionary government in South Vietnam, Hanoi's official Vietnam New Agency reported today.

Explosion Vigil At Berkeley Lab

BERKELEY (AP) — Police and firemen stood by a chemistry laboratory for more than 12 hours waiting for an explosion that never came.

They were summoned when an experiment at a University of California lab went awry last night, posing a threat of an explosion with the force of a half-stick of dynamite.

At 3 a.m. firemen reported the chance of an explosion "about nil," and all except campus police were withdrawn. Firemen said air whipping in through open doors and windows had apparently cooled the flammable boron compound involved.

About 20 persons in the lab, on the fifth floor of Latimer Hall, and several hundred persons in the building were evacuated when trouble developed in the experiment.

Francis Wang, 30, a doctor of philosophy candidate from Formosa, was working with 50 grams of diaborane, a highly flamable jet fuel, when a crack developed in a glass pipe and a small fire was ignited, authorities said.

Sacramento's Oak Park Area Is Calm

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Oak Park District, scene of sniper attacks and gun fights Sunday, was calm last night after the area's young Negroes were urged by two elected Negro officials to "cool it."

Squads of shotgun-armed police stood by several blocks away in case trouble broke out. But up to midnight there had been none of the violence which characterized Sunday's clashes.

More than a dozen persons were struck by shotgun pellets and bullets Sunday night but only two were seriously wounded. Police using tear gas raided the Oak Park headquarters of the Black Panther party.

Police Capt. J. B. Guthrie said Negro Assemblyman Willie Brown Jr. D—San Francisco, and Negro City Councilman Roy McGhee toured Oak Park yesterday asking for calm. They worked independently of police, Guthrie said.

Antiwar Protests Appear Not To Alarm Mrs. Nixon

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) Pat Nixon received a generally warm welcome at the start of her West Coast tour and appeared not to notice three antiwar demonstrations.

She went to street gardens, classrooms and the edge of the Negro slums yesterday to salute volunteer workers at the start of her initial official trip as First Lady.

There was a paper shower of protest from antiwar demonstrators at upstairs windows of a building which houses FISH, a 24-hour emergency help center Mrs. Nixon came to visit.

The paper ships read: "If this was napalm you would be dead."

Some of the demonstration participants, from the Portland Resistance, have been volunteers at the emergency center themselves and have their headquarters in the same 100-year-old church building.

While Mrs. Nixon heard from the emergency center leaders how hundreds of volunteers help their neighbors with food, fuel and all sorts of aid, a printed banner was waved in back of the room, saying:

"How many people will be fed today by your visit? How many people will still be allowed to starve? 70 million a day spent on Vietnam. Why?"

Samantha Egger Is Sued For Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tom Stern, American actor-producer, has sued Samantha Eggar, British actress, for divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty.

In his complaint filed yesterday, Stern, 37, asked custody of their children, Nicholas, 3, and Jenna Louise, 2. He described Miss Eggar, 30, as an unfit mother and said she had threatened to take the children abroad and hide them. The petition said she had cached $500,000 in European banks.

Marines Drive Off Attackers

SAIGON (AP) — Three hundred North Vietnamese troops firing rifles, machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades attacked a U.S. Marine base camp near Da Nang early today for the third time in a week. Like the other two times they were repulsed.

Field reports said the North Vietnamese hit the night camp of a 5th Marine regiment unit 22 miles southwest of Da Nang despite a 7,000-man allied sweep in the area. Thirty-one North Vietnamese were reported killed while Marine casualties were one dead and 49 wounded.

The Marines called for artillery help and an Air Force twin-engine plane armed with three machine guns spewed out 18,000 rounds a minute on the attackers.

"No enemy were reported to have penetrated the perimeter," a spokesman for the U.S. Command said. Two North Vietnamese soldiers were captured, he added.

The camp came under similar attack last Tuesday and again last Thursday, costing the North Vietnamese 58 men killed. Marine casualties were three killed and 31 wounded in those two attacks.

The camp is near An Hoa, one corner of a 200-square mile triangle where 7,000 U.S. and South Korean Marines and South Vietnamese rangers and infantrymen have been conducting a sweep called Operation Pipestone Canyon for the past three weeks.

The Caspian Sea is the largest inland salt lake in the world.

Call For Unity In Fighting Of Imperialism

MOSCOW (AP) — The international Communist conference held in the Kremlin since June 5 ended today with official acceptance of a call for Communist unity against imperialism.

An announcement did not disclose how many of the 75 parties attending the meeting had signed a 42-page final document.

It said the parties of Australia, Italy, San Marino and the French island Reunion had expressed full support for only that section of the document dealing with the struggle against imperialism. They withheld support for other sections analyzing the problems of communism and the world.

It also said the party of the Dominican Republic, which complained during the conference that the document was not revolutionary enough, had declined to sign.

Nongraded Classes Pact Is Reached

Mill Valley's controversy over nongraded classes at Old Mill School ended in a compromise last night.

More than 200 persons crowded into Park School auditorium for what could have turned out to be a heated debate over the issue.

Supt. James R. Collins of the Mill Valley School District took most of the steam out of the session when he reported his plan to have both graded and nongraded classes at the school in 1969-70.

Parents opposing the 1968-69 system of having "multiaged and multilevel groupings," presented a petition with 118 signatures asking for an alternative program.

They asked for "a more structured classroom method of teaching where children are instructed directly in an academic curriculum which stresses English grammar and composition, spelling and reading and mathematics and science."

Collins explained at the meeting of the district board that there would be graded classes, kindergarden through fifth grade, at the school with basic curriculum.

He conceded there have been dissatisfactions "on the part of some people in the Old Mill School area regarding the organization of the school program." He also reported that the program has "wide support," and hoped that the "plan would prevent any further polarization."

Parents were urged to notify the Old Mill School office which program they preferred for their children.

Several speakers felt this was the fairest method, both for those who want "structured classroons" and those who want "less structured classroons."

One woman asked: "What if the district doesn't have enough kids for a structured class?"

Collins said there probably will be some cases where parents who chose the nongraded program "won't get it," but the nongraded classes will be based on an "individualized approach."

Another woman said she hoped the parents who make the selections, "will consult with their children first."

One woman called for expanding the nongraded system throughout the district, but Collins said he wouldn't "rush into a districtwide program" without more knowledge and teacher support for such a move.

Collins reported that by latest count 62 families favored the nongraded program and 42 the graded program, and Trustee John K. Robinson noted that only one quarter of the parents have responded to date. Apparently, he said, there "are many to whom this is not a great issue."

Collins reported that he had received 29 letters supporting the nongraded system, and Mrs. Ann K. Jenks, who presented the petition, said it represented 71 families.

Mill Valley Trustees Eye Budget Drop Of $85,659

Mill Valley School District trustees, cut off at the pockets by voters two weeks ago, last night looked at a reduced budget for next year and thought about cuts.

Voters rejected the district's bid for a 75-cent increase in the district's general purpose tax rate limit, and the backlash showed up in the budget.

Supt. James A. Collins presented a tentative 1969-70 budget of $2,902,666, as compared to $2,988,325 last year, a drop of $85,659.

He noted the proposed budget dropped the single-session kindergarden program, one teacher to a class, and restored the double-session plan, one teacher to two classes.

Board president Joseph E. Bodovitz said all steps weren't backward, since the district didn't plan to increase class sizes and would keep reading specialists.

There was some sentiment from the audience to cut bus service, and Trustee William L. Clark suggested that proponents of such a move "see what support" they could get in the community.

Bodovitz, painting a gloomy financial picture for the next school year, 1970-71, suggested the board appoint a citizens committee to study finances.

Collins said there could be an increase in override taxes, but the district's general purpose tax rate is limited to $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation. (The district's total tax rate for 1968-69 is $3.135.)

Collins pointed out that the budget doesn't include filling two vacancies for librarians, a vacancy for a foreign language teacher or a vacancy for a principal.

There wouldn't be any sabbatical leaves or consultants or in-service eduacation for teachers, he said.

The largest single cut, $76,000, would be in kindergarten.

Collins listed possible cuts totaling $396,700, and said $130,000 in cuts were required.

The proposed budget includes a proposed 4 per cent cost-of-living raise in the teachers' salary schedule and full health insurance for their dependents, a matter still under negotiation, with teachers asking 6 per cent.

Three In Theft Ring Sentenced

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three truck drivers, convicted as members of a waterfront theft ring which stole $250,000 in servicemen's home-bound packages, have drawn federal prison terms.

U.S. District Court Judge William Sweigert yesterday sentenced Carl Mitchell, 23, Mountain View, and Lawrence Saros, 32, San Francisco, to three-year terms, and because of "less involvement," Robert Visser, 23, San Bruno, to one year.

George Campusano, 27, goes on trial today on the same charges. Robert Caravelli, 29, Grass Valley, earlier had pleaded guilty and was given a one-year sentence.

The five were employed by a private trucking firm which hauled mail under contract from the water front to postal facilities.

Agreement Is Still Lacking On Salaries

The Mill Valley School District board and the teachers' negotiating council have been unable to agree on a salary schedule raise for the 1969-70 school year.

Teachers are seeking a 6 per cent cost of living increase while the board is offering 4 per cent, Supt. James A. Collins reported last night.

Any increase would be in addition to automatic annual step raises.

The board also is offering health insurance for teachers' dependents, the equivalent of a 1.5 per cent pay hike, he said.

Negotiations, previously conducted between Collins, as the board's representative, and the teachers' negotiating council in closed session, were aired at an open board session last night.

Origianlly the teacters sought an 8 per cent increase, Collins reported.

The Mill Valley School District board also:

PRINCIPALS — Approved assignment of Robert DeVilbiss, principal at Strawberry Point School, as principal of Tamalpais Valley School to succeed Gene W. Bradford, who resigned, and assignment of Logan Miles, principal of Homestead School, as principal of both Homestead and Strawberry Point Schools for the 1969-70 school year.

HIRING — Approved hiring of four intern teachers for Edna Maguire School, Marita Hayhurst, Keith Wilson, Stacia Horn and Laurie Kirk, at $6,000 a year; Calvin Nicholson, custodian at Edna Maguire School, $483 a month and 41 teachers and 55 teacher aides for summer school.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation of William Mancebo, custodian at Tamalapais Valley School, who is retiring after 13 yars with the district.

LEAVES — Granted leaves for 1969-70 to Carol Cunningham, kindergater teacher at Marin Terrace School, and Joyce Blesi, foreign language teacher at Edna Maguire School.

WATER MAIN — Approved paying $14,000 as its share of the cost of a water main and fire plugs to serve the site of the new middle school site at Project 17.

AUDITOR — Hired Sleezer and Eckhoff, certified public accountants, of San Rafael for the district's 1968-69 audit at a cost of $950.

FUND TRANSFERS — Approved the transfer of $29,780 from undistributed reserve to cover various expenditures during the year, including emergency repairs leaving $24,666 in the reserve.

MORAL GUIDELINES — Announced there wouldn't be any discussion of the moral guidelines received by the state Board of Education, until the guidelines, which haven't been accepted by the state board, have a formal status.

LETTERS — Received a letter from a parent who removed her child from Edna Maguire School complaining about the educational program there, a letter from a resident objecting to a sixth grade books and the attire of teachers at Strawberry Point School, and a letter for appreication of the work of the staff at Strawberry Point School.

Relocating Utililty Lines Wins Approval

The Rohnert Park City Council last night approved plans for relocating utility lines on the west side of Highway 101 so the state Division of Highways can begin work on the new freeway interchange.

City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan said wood utility poles would be relocated along an easement of the new freeway right-of-way obtained by the state. Under the plan, high voltage lines would remain on poles, but primary and secondary power lines would be undergrounded along the new frontage road now under construction.

Relocation costs will be paid by the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and by Sonoma County using state funds.

The Rohnert Park City Council Also:

HORSES — Heard continued opposition to a proposed ordinance prohibiting horses, cows and sheep on public streets. Horse owners complained that it is often necessary to bring animals from pasture for grooming. Other residents complained that animals on streets create a nuisance. The council will review a revised ordinance at the June 30 meeting.

SUBDIVISION — Heard a report that Young America Homes plans a new subdivision of single-family homes, apartments and townhouses in the El Colegio area east of the railroad. The plans will be reviewed at an adjourned council meeting Monday at 8 p.m.

COMMISSION — Reappointed all seven members to one-year terms on the recreation commission. They are Ronald E. Rasmussen, J. Hayes Hunter, Edward Bishop, Elmer Hamann, Dr. Willard Peterson, Nore Thiesfeld and Michael Crowley.

Hub Board To Hear Report Card Report

The San Anselmo School District board will hear a report on a proposed primary grades report card at its 7:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow at Red Hill School. Now rather brief in its detail, the proposed card is to be similar to those given out in grades four through six.

The board will also consider adoption of 1969-70 salary schedules.

TWO MEN SAY THEY STILL WANT TO PAY

Mill Valley School District may have the start of an innovation in school financing — voluntary taxation.

Supt. James A. Collins reported to the district board last night that two residents, Robert E. Burton of 114 Hazel Avenue and Johnathan Sharp of 141 Cascade Drive, are willing to donate $35 each, the amount they would have been taxed if the district's tax rate measure had passed two weeks ago.

Board President Joseph E. Bodovitz said the board is getting legal advice on exactly how such donations should be handled.

Trustees also received a letter from a resident proposing that people pay school taxes in proportion to the number of children they have in schools.

Homes Entered

Three Rohnert Park homes were burglarized yesterday afternoon apparently the work of youngsters, Police Chief Robert Dennett said. Small change totaling $3 was taken from homes on Alma and Adele drives and on Burton Avenue.

Rock Concert Friday Night

A rock concert will be held at the Unitarian Center in Terra Linda Friday to raise funds for a new coffee house program for youth.

Youth Power, a Marin youth service organization, will sponsor the rock concert from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the center, 240 Channing Way.

Jeffrey De Lone, publicity chairman, announced a working blues band from Terra Linda, called "Rush," and "Annie's Little Band" from Belvedere will provide the music. They will be joined by other rock groups.

"We're trying to get matching funds for the $375 that the county supervisors set aside for Youth Power," said De Lone. "We hope to re-open a coffee house somewhere in the Terra Linda area."

The coffee house at the Unitarian Center, which met on Wednesday nights, folded about two months ago.

Council Studies Novato Budget

The Novato City Council last night juggled maintenance positions, saving approximately $500, and then added $20,000 to the street overlay program during its second study of the public works budget for fiscal 1969-70, according to City Mgr. Charles A. Brown.

The manager had requested a maintenance supervisor for eight months of the fiscal year, figuring that it would take four months to recruit one. The council cut out this position, but approved hiring a maintenance man for Pioneer Memorial Park. The difference in the salaries would subtract about $500 from the parks maintenance budget of $31,645, making it $31,145.

The budget contains $137,200 in street overlay from gasoline tax money. It also contains $25,000 for additional street overlay, the funds to come from unallocated reserved. The council added another $20,000 to this last night, making $45,000 for street overlay from the reserves.

The council discussed, but took no action on increasing the tax rate by approximately 11 cents per $100 assessed valuation to raise an additional $55,000 for street overlay, Brown reported.

The council adjourned to 8 p.m. today in the community house to study the parks and recreation budget. It has scheduled the first public hearing on the budget for 8 p.m. tomorrow at the community house.

One-Year Term For Drug User

James A. Sprague, 24, of San Rafael, who has a long history of arrests on drug charges, yesterday was ordered to serve one year in the county jail by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court.

Sprague had earlier pleaded guilty to possession of marijuana and being under the influence of heroin.

The judge also placed him on three years probation.

The supervisors this morning also named a Mexican-American and a Yurok Indian to the Marin County Human Rights Commission.

The Indian is Harry D. Williams of 10 Cypress Drive, Fairfax, who is the famed Stanford mascot, Prince Lightfoot. The Mexican-American is Anthony Medrano, instructor at Tamalpais High School.

Wornum was the lone dissenter on the choice of Williams, who preferred to hold the position open for an appointment of a candidate recommended by Marin City organizations or to consider a representative of the hippie element in the county as suggested by Margaret V. Azevedo, president of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs.

However, Baar moved for both Williams and Medrano and got a 4-1 vote, with Wornum explaining he favors Medrano but wanted the other post held open.

Two other human rights commissioners, James Quiett of Marin City and Charles B. Weers of Novato, were reappointed by unanimous vote.

The supervisors this morning held firm on their decision not to increase county supplementation for welfare recipients on grounds that the state should provide more aid since the courts have knocked out the residency requirement for welfare aid.

Vereena d'Angeli, vice president of the Social Workers Union, and Lottie Hall, cochairman of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children Task Force, protested that the county supplementation is badly needed. They were backed by Randall Serrurier, field representative for the Social Workers Union Local 535, AFL-CIO, and several mothers.

Marin Man Still Held In Tokyo

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese narcotics officials said today they were still holding a Mill Valley music teacher for questioning about marijuana they said was found in his possession four days ago.

The officials said Thompson V. Chesnut, 50, of 129 Eldridge Avenue, was taken into custody Friday at Tokyo International Airport after custom agents found about 2.2 ounces of marijuana, worth about $147 locally, in his luggage.

They said preliminary investigations had been completed and they were preparing to interrogate Chesnut.

Chesnut, who arrived from Hong Kong, described himself as a music teacher on a round-the-world tour, the officials said. They said he told them he obtained the marijuana in Tanzania.

Chesnut is former music director of the Ross School District and also taught at the College of Marin.

Tiburon Board Denies Variance

The Tiburon Board of Adjustments yesterday denied a request from Lawrence Olin for a variance to reduce required setbacks for several lots at Reedlands Woods unit one.

The board first gave partial approval for a variance on one lot, then, after Olin demanded action on another 10, refused to take action, reported development administrator Phil V. Scott.

The board after reconsidered and denied the variance request because no plot plans were submitted and Olin was seeking a "blanket variance," Scott said.

Scott said Olin sought the denial to permit him to appeal to higher city agencies.

Innocent Plea To Drug Possession

Ronald Joseph Campagna, 21, of San Anselmo pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to raising marijuana at his home at 47 Rosemont Avenue. A preliminary hearing was set for July 10.

The case of a co-defendant, Terry Eugene Elliott, 19, has been transferred to Marin Juvenile Court.

for inactivation will include men who have nearly completed their one-year war tours or whose service obligation is expiring.

The Second Brigade of the Ninth Division and some nondivisional Army units are coming home to be taken off the active rolls of regular Army outfits.

The Third Brigade of the Ninth Infantry Division will remain in Vietnam.

The equipment of the units to be inactivated will be left in Vietnam, mostly for the South Vietnamese forces, Henkin indicated.

The Marine regiment going to Okinawa will leave Vietnam with virtually all its present men, Henkin said. This suggested a much smaller turnover in the Marine regiment than in the Army brigades being brought out.

The 18 Army reserve units and two National Guard outfits leaving Vietnam will move initially to an Army post near their home station for processing, then to their home armory or reserve center for demobilization.

All members of the 20 units, whether or not they went with the unit to Vietnam, will be released from active duty at the same time as their unit, the Pentagon said.

Withdrawal of the 2,000 Army guardsmen and reservists by the end of August will leave about 10,000 mobilized citizen-soldiers still in the war zone.

The Air Force virtually completed the return from Vietnam and Korea of six National Guard fighter squadrons called to active duty after last year's enemy winter offensive and the North Korean seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo.

All of the 38,000 Army, Air Force and Navy Reserve and National Guard troops called to active duty last year will be out of uniform by Christmas according to plans.

Marin City Woman Charged

Alice Faye Grinner, 20, of Marin City was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on charges of possession of a check with intent to defraud, credit card forgery, possessing lost property, possessing marijuana and resisting arrest.

Miss Grinner was arrested Friday after a struggle in a Sausalito clothing shop which ensued when she allegedly tried to pay for clothing with someone else's credit card.

Her case was continued until Monday for entry of plea.

No Complaint; Teen Realeased

No complaint was issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against a young man arrested Saturday on suspicion of possessing stolen property.

Released was Tim Mark O'Brien, 18, of San Rafael. He had been accused of trying to sell a Mill Valley woman stereo equipment stolen last week.

Plea Monday On Two Drug Charges

Edward T. Chorovsky, 23, of San Francisco was arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on felony charges of possession of marijuana and benzedrine. His case was continued until Monday for entry of plea.

Chorovsky was arrested Sunday by the California Highway Patrol after they investigated his stopped auto on Highway 101 near Ignacio.

One Apartment Pldn Is Liked

The Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee yesterday approved plans for one apartment development but rejected a second because its plans were "amateurish."

The committee approved plans for a 10-unit development by Herman Bauer at 79 Ethel Avenue subject to submission of plans for lighting and landscaping. The committee lauded Bauer for superior planning.

At the same time, the committee rejected plans for a seven-unit project just outside the city limits on East Blithedale Avenue. The proposed development by Lawrence Lok, referred to the committee by county planners, was turned down because of a lack of adequate drawings and "amateurish" plot and building plans, according to the Mill Valley Planning Commission office.

Hashish Case Hearing Is Set

A preliminary hearing was set yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for July 17 for two of the men arrested May 27 in a raid on a house near Inverness where drug agents said they confiscated over $100,000 worth of hashish.

Eric Gerald Monde, 21, and Craig Ritchie Westling, 22, both of Inverness entered innocent pleas of possession of the drug for sale yesterday and had a preliminary hearing set.

The cases of James Willard Clapp, 21, of La Habra, and John Brad McCall, 22, of Mill Valley, accused of sale of hashish, have not been set yet.

A fifth defendant, Joann Myers, 19, of San Francisco, was told to return to court June 20 to see if her case will be accepted by juvenile court.

Council Studies Novato Budget

The Novato City Council last night juggled maintenance positions, saving approximately $500, and then added $20,000 to the street overlay program during its second study of the public works budget for fiscal 1969-70, according to City Mgr. Charles A. Brown.

The manager had requested a maintenance supervisor for eight months of the fiscal year, figuring that it would take four months to recruit one. The council cut out this position, but approved hiring a maintenance man for Pioneer Memorial Park. The difference in the salaries would subtract about $500 from the parks maintenance budget of $31,645, making it $31,145.

The budget contains $137,200 in street overlay from gasoline tax money. It also contains $25,000 for additional street overlay, the funds to come from unallocated reserved. The council added another $20,000 to this last night, making $45,000 for street overlay from the reserves.

The council discussed, but took no action on increasing the tax rate by approximately 11 cents per $100 assessed valuation to raise an additional $55,000 for street overlay, Brown reported.

The council adjourned to 8 p.m. today in the community house to study the parks and recreation budget. It has scheduled the first public hearing on the budget for 8 p.m. tomorrow at the community house.

One-Year Term For Drug User

for inactivation will include men who have nearly completed their one-year war tours or whose service obligation is expiring.

The Second Brigade of the Ninth Division and some non-divisional Army units are coming home to be taken off the active rolls of regular Army outfits.

The Third Brigade of the Ninth Infantry Division will remain in Vietnam.

The equipment of the units to be inactivated will be left in Vietnam, mostly for the South Vietnamese forces, Henkin indicated.

The Marine regiment going to Okinawa will leave Vietnam with virtually all its present men, Henkin said. This suggested a much smaller turnover in the Marine regiment than in the Army brigades being brought out.

The 18 Army reserve units and two National Guard outfits leaving Vietnam will move initially to an Army post near their home station for processing, then to their home armory or reserve center for demobilization.

All members of the 20 units, whether or not they went with the unit to Vietnam, will be released from active duty at the same time as their unit, the Pentagon said.

Withdrawal of the 2,000 Army guardsmen and reservists by the end of August will leave about 10,000 mobilized citizen-soldiers still in the war zone.

The Air Force virtually completed the return from Vietnam and Korea of six National Guard fighter squadrons called to active duty after last year's enemy winter offensive and the North Korean seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo.

All of the 38,000 Army, Air Force and Navy Reserve and National Guard troops called to active duty last year will be out of uniform by Christmas according to plans.

Marin City Woman Charged

Alice Faye Grinner, 20, of Marin City was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on charges of possession of a check with intent to defraud, credit card forgery, possessing lost property, possessing marijuana and resisting arrest.

Miss Grinner was arrested Friday after a struggle in a Sausalito clothing shop which ensued when she allegedly tried to pay for clothing with someone else's credit card.

Her case was continued until Monday for entry of plea.

No Complaint; Teen Realeased

No complaint was issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against a young man arrested Saturday on suspicion of possessing stolen property.

Released was Tim Mark O'Brien, 18, of San Rafael. He had been accused of trying to sell a Mill Valley woman stereo equipment stolen last week.

Plea Monday On Two Drug Charges

Edward T. Chorovsky, 23, of San Francisco was arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on felony charges of possession of marijuana and benzedrine. His case was continued until Monday for entry of plea.

Chorovsky was arrested Sunday by the California Highway Patrol after they investigated his stopped auto on Highway 101 near Ignacio.

One Apartment Pldn Is Liked

The Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee yesterday approved plans for one apartment development but rejected a second because its plans were "amateurish."

The committee approved plans for a 10-unit development by Herman Bauer at 79 Ethel Avenue subject to submission of plans for lighting and landscaping. The committee lauded Bauer for superior planning.

At the same time, the committee rejected plans for a seven-unit project just outside the city limits on East Blithedale Avenue. The proposed development by Lawrence Lok, referred to the committee by county planners, was turned down because of a lack of adequate drawings and "amateurish" plot and building plans, according to the Mill Valley Planning Commission office.

Hashish Case Hearing Is Set

A preliminary hearing was set yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for July 17 for two of the men arrested May 27 in a raid on a house near Inverness where drug agents said they confiscated over $100,000 worth of hashish.

Eric Gerald Monde, 21, and Craig Ritchie Westling, 22, both of Inverness entered innocent pleas of possession of the drug for sale yesterday and had a preliminary hearing set.

The cases of James Willard Clapp, 21, of La Habra, and John Brad McCall, 22, of Mill Valley, accused of sale of hashish, have not been set yet.

A fifth defendant, Joann Myers, 19, of San Francisco, was told to return to court June 20 to see if her case will be accepted by juvenile court.

Bill On Finances To Senate Floor

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee today unanimously endorsed a bill requiring full disclosure of the financial worth by nearly every public official in California.

The measure by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh was sent to the full Senate, where a final vote could be taken as early as next week.

Committee Passes Cigarette Ban Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to ban all cigarette advertising in California was approved by the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee today.

The measure by Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, was sent to the floor of the Senate on a unanimous voice vote.

New Chairman Due For Commission

The Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commission will elect a new chairman at its 8 p.m. meeting Thursday at Tiburon City Hall.

The panel also will receive reports on a proposed park site and a drug abuse workshop and consider action on the Paradise Drive sidewalk.

Pleads Innocent

Andrew Lawrence Stitch, 18, of San Rafael pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to stealing a $350 guitar from a San Rafael music store on May 21.

A preliminary hearing was set for June 30.

Historic Sanctuary

Over 90 years ago, Marin pioneers dedicated beautiful Mount Tamalpais Cemetery as a resting place for their loved ones. Close to the heart of the county, this lovely 50-acre site is a natural sanctuary—abounding in trees and views typical of the county. Here every type of final resting place is available, including ground interment, mausoleum entombment and cremation. We cordially invite your visit. Our staff is always ready to answer your questions.

Paper Discloses New Minuteman Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — An additional $400 million order has been placed for the same, substandard Minuteman II guidance system with the same firm that produced the device in the first place, the Washington Post said in its editions today.

The system, produced by the Autonetics Division of North American Rockwell, does not perform as long as it was supposed to, and some officials said the only solution was to order additional units to take up the slack, the newspaper reported.

The units guide the missiles to their targets 6,000 to 7,000 miles away.

In each silo the missile guidance system is to run continuously so that there can be an instant firing. How long each device should operate is classified, but sources indicated the Autonetics product did not even come close to Air Force standards.

In the spring of 1967, the Pentagon estimated the "brains" of the missile were breaking down more than four times as quickly as planned. Each unit costs about $1 million.

A. Ernest Fitzgerald, the Air Force deputy for financial management, said in a memo last week that his private consulting firm turned up "technical trouble" in the units as early as September 1963.

One task force formed to tackle the problem and propose solutions said, in part, that financial cuts in the Minuteman budget had damaged Autonetics' performance.

However, in a letter Dec. 15, 1967, Fitzgerald wrote to Lt. Gen. J. W. O'Neill, commander of the Air Force Space and Missile System Organization, saying:

"Attributing the Autonetics quality problem to a shortage of money is, in my opinion, deceitful and hypocritical. In actuality, the experience illustrates the shallowness of substance inherent in the unlimited funds theory. The real problem lies in quality of people and organization and in management discipline."

As far as is known, four attempts to launch Minutemen from their home silos have failed. One failure was blamed on guidance problems. However, the Air Force has test-fired the Minuteman successfully numerous times from Vandenberg Air Force Base, California.

Final Plans Adopted For Boat Launch

The Petaluma City Council last night approved final plans for the Petaluma River boat launching facility.

City engineer David Young estimated the cost of the project at $136,000 and said the state Department of Harbors and Watercraft would pay the full amount, but that the city would be responsible for construction of the new access road on Petroleum Avenue off Lakeville Highway. He estimated road construction at $32,300.

Young said bids would be received by City Clerk Lillian Nommsen on July 16. He hoped the contract could be awarded next month so that all heavy earth work could be finished before the rainy season begins.

The launch ramp, located south of the Highway 101 river overcrossing, will be built to allow boat launching at extreme low tide. Young said the launch will be 36 feet long and would permit four boats to be launched at one time.

Also included in the project is a parking lot, restrooms and boat washing facilities. A float will be located at one side, but Young said if the bids are low enough, the state would approve the placement of a second float on the other side of the launch.

The Petaluma City Council also:

DRAINAGE — Received letter from the Bernard E. Eldredge School Parents and Teachers Together group, complaining about a drainage problem on Maria Drive. Youngs said plans are under way to prevent sidewalks from being covered during the rainy season.

PLAN LINES — Received a request from attorney Robert W. Mackey for action on plans by Sonoma Ventures to build a subdivision on Keokuk Street. The council determined the plans could not be weighed until plan lines for the widening of Keokuk and Liberty streets and Magnolia Avenue are adopted. A public hearing for that purpose was set for July 21 at 7:30 p.m.

AMBULANCE — Received a letter from William C. McCulloch suggesting that ambulance service provided by the city be replaced with a private service. Councilmen Albert L. Battaglia, David W. Brainerd and John W. Cavanagh Jr. were asked to investigate.

PARADE — Granted the request of the chamber of commerce to hold the annual Sonoma-Marin Fair parade at 1 p.m. on June 29 from Fifth and D streets to the fairgrounds.

GIFT — Receive a gift of $50 from the Petaluma Garden Club to be used for city beautification.

BUDGET — Reviewed brieflv the water department budget and set extended talks for tomorrow at 4 p.m.

Autobahn Set For Lengthening

BONN (GF) — West Germany's famous expressway networks, the Autoban—now about 2,800 miles long is to be doubled in length by 1985.

The decision, recently announced in Bonn, foresees expenditures of $22.5 billion for the massive project which will be carried out in the framework of three five-year plans. Taxes on petroleum products are expected to cover about half of the construction costs.

The Autobahn was begun during the 1930s and has been continuously increased since the end of World War II. But traffic is so heavy today that Bonn's transport ministry has announced trucks will not be able to use it on most weekends during the coming summer school vacation when tourist travel will be heaviest.

John L. Lewis In Resting Place

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The remains of union leader John L. Lewis were buried early today in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Springfield.

Lewis was buried next to his wife, with only family members attending.

Oak Ridge Cemetery also is the site of Abraham Lincoln's tomb.

Lewis, who headed the United Mine Workers of America for some 40 years, died June 11 in Washington, D.C. He was 89.

Tam Fire Board Passes Budget

The Tamalpais Fire District board adopted a final 1969-70 budget of $177,698 last night, an increase of $21,299 over last year.

Salaries accounted for $125,156 of the total, compared to $88,000 last year. Chief Richard K. Oswald said district employees will get a 5 per cent raise in July and another 5 per cent in January, bringing the district pay scale closer to parity with the other four Southern Marin fire departments. The district also has hired two more men for a total of 11 firefighters compared to nine last year.

Other figures in the new budget are $35,450 for maintenance, $9.902 of capital improvements with $8.000 in reserve.

The board also accepted the resignation of Director Morris Batz, who is leaving the district. The board will seek applications from Tamalpais Valley residents to succeed Batz, chairman Carl H. Modell siad.

The Tamalpais Fire Protection District board also:

HIRING — Hired two teenagers as summer employees to augment the staff during fire season. They are Glenn C. Phillips of 761 Bay Road and David H. Irving of 511 Shasta Way, both 17.

LEAVE — Granted a 60-day leave of absence to fireman Larry Robinson.

RADIO — Was told the department's base radio has been relocated on Vernal Hill for better radio coverage of the district.

Novato Parks Priorities Set

The list of park priorities and a possible bond issue were discussed last night by the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission, reported Edward W. Adams parks and recreation director.

The commission has listed priorities in this order: Pioneer Memorial Park, Novato Creek Park, Olive School playground park, Mc Clay Road Park, second swimming pool, Lions Park and San Marin Park.

The city council had asked the commission for a suggested park and recreation bond issue to be submitted to the voters. The commission did not agree on it last night but decided further study would be necessary, Adams said.

Commissioner Martin White said, "It takes 34 per cent to defeat us and they (34 per cent) are dedicated to the firm principle of progress at no cost.

Adams reported on the progress of pioneer Memorial Park. He said completion of the first phase was set for the middle of September.

Powell Plans To Take 'Pulse'

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell said today he expects to confer with the Democratic congressional leadership to "feel the pulse" following the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on his exclusion from the House.

Powell told newsmen he was to go to Washington today and meet with the leadership tomorrow. He has no appointments, he said, "But I'm sure we can get together."

Powell said "there was dancing in the streets last night in Harlem," after the court ruled the U.S. House of Representatives violated his constitutional rights in denying him a seat in Congress in 1967.

Petaluma Man To Be Sentenced June 23

Sentencing for Johnny Slaughter Jr., 19, of Petaluma, who pleaded guilty to burglarizing a San Rafael doctor's office April 10, has been set for June 23 in Marin Superior Court.

Friday Slaughter asked Judge Joseph G. Wilson to place him in jail in the meantime as he had no place to stay.

Park Suspect

Richard Elmer Coffman, 40, of 508 Petaluma Boulevard South, Petaluma, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of child molesting after adults in the area of Mc Near Park told police they saw Coffman holding several young girls on his lap on a park bench at 11:30 a.m.

He was scheduled for arraignment today in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court.

Mayors Seek Better System On Taxation

Mayors and representatives of 10 of Marin's 11 cities agreed unanimously by straw vote yesterday that the sheriff's patrol division costs of $960,472 should be borne solely by the unincorporated area taxpayers.

They also agreed unanimously in favor of a possible fire district for the unincorporated area in which structural fire tax would be levied according to relative benefits.

They voted 6 to 4, with the City of Tiburon representative absent, favoring a plan whereby the cities would chip in $31,000 on a prorated basis toward county animal control.

Voting yes were San Rafael, Novato, Corte Madera, Larkspur, Sausalito and Belvedere. Voting no were Mill Valley, Ross, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Corte Madera Town Council last night approved appropriation of $1,400 as the town's share.

All agreed that cities and towns are victims of double taxes and went on record to request the City-County Services Committee, meeting last night, and the board of supervisors to "work diligently" toward correcting city-county tax inequities.

"All we can do is keep hammering away," said Larkspur Mayor Neil R. Brixon who called the special meeting held at Corte Madera's Edgewater Inn.

Brixon said the views do not legally constitute the reflection of cities as a whole but that he hopes a vote may be taken at the June 25 meeting of the Marin County Council of Mayors and Councilmen to be carried to the supervisors.

Novato City Mgr. Charles A. Brown won support on a suggestion that the council meet each year with the supervisors prior to budget session to discuss county budget items that affect cities.

Sausalito Councilman George C. Hoffman said the public must be educated about city-county tax inequities and Brixon proposed the inequities be spelled out and a complete history be made available to the press.

"We're not being an effective lobby," said Mayor Dean N. Meyer of Mill Valley who claimed that the supervisors represent the city as well as the county dweller with 80 per cent of their constituents living in cities.

The board of supervisors on June 4 approved a total county fire department budget of $665,657. Of this, the county administrator recommended that $395,057 be designated "structural fire protection" and this be borne by unincorporated areas not covered by city or fire districts. This would have meant about 58 cents in a tax rate for the unincorporated areas instead of this year's 20 cents.

The supervisors decided this would be too much and, instead of $395,057, designated $200,000 as the "structural fire protection" portion — or about 30 cents on the tax rate.

Bids Opened For Lighting

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Sonoma County supervisors yesterday opened bids on lighting for the Petaluma War Memorial Building and approved plans for improvements to Adobe and Frates roads near Petaluma.

Apparent low bidder for the installation of new parking lot lights at the memorial building was Petty and Mapes Electrical Co. of Santa Rosa with $4,644. Second of the four bids was the Standard Electric Co. of Santa Rosa with $4,800.

Bids for the widening of Frates Road between state Highway 116 and Adobe Road and for the widening of Adobe Road near Frates Road will be opened on July 15 at 3 p.m. The project was estimated to cost $190,000.

James Meredith Found Guilty

NEW YORK (AP) — James Meredith, a Negro prominent in civil rights campaigns, has been found guilty of harassing the white tenants of an apartment building he owns in an attempt to force rent increases.

Meredith, whose enrollment in the University of Mississippi in 1962 led to rioting and federal troop intervention, was not in court yesterday when the conviction was registered. He could be sentenced to a $250 fine or 15 days in jail.

Tenants testified that Meredith cut off hot water and elevator service in the six-story building to enforce a demand for a 15 per cent rent hike.

New "Sleep + Aspirin" tablets help you pop right off to Sound Safe Sleep

WITHOUT HABIT-FORMING SLEEPING PILLS

(Special)...A New York chemist has perfected a remarkable "Asper-Sleep" formula which unites in one small tablet 3 safe aids to sound, refreshing sleep. No other sleeping tablets offer more comfort . . . yet are not habit-forming!

Never before has there been such a combination to help you relieve the problem of sleeplessness — to bring restful sleep without habit-forming drugs. No prescription is needed—just ask for "Asper-Sleep Tablets". For 100% safe sleep take as directed.

The reason you can fall asleep so fast and sleep like a log is that each Asper-Sleep tablet contains these 3 ingredients:

(1) An anti-histamine which (in a test by doctors) proved as effective as a usual dose of phenobarbitol...yet Asper-Sleep is mild, safe.

(2) A sedative with gentle soothing properties — to help you relax from simple everyday nervous tensions.

(3) Last but not least, Asper-Sleep contains analgesic, pain-relieving aspirin. This curbs the miseries of common headaches, colds and minor arthritis, rheumatism, muscular and menstrual aches and pains—to help you sleep when these disturbances are keeping you awake.

So get your sleep tonight without the depressing after-effects of habit-forming drugs. Asper-Sleep contains no barbiturates. You pop off to sleep, wake up "bright-eyed and bushy-tailed" not dull or dopey. During the night you are relaxed yet responsive to emergencies.

Money back guarantee: Unless Asper-Sleep brings you better, faster sleep than any sleeping tablet you have ever taken . . . return the partly used bottle and get all your money back. Ask for Asper-Sleep tablets at druggists. 89¢.

Paper Discloses New Minuteman Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — An additional $400 million order has been placed for the same, substandard Minuteman II guidance system with the same firm that produced the device in the first place, the Washington Post said in its editions today.

The system, produced by the Autonetics Division of North American Rockwell, does not perform as long as it was supposed to, and some officials said the only solution was to order additional units to take up the slack, the newspaper reported.

The units guide the missiles to their targets 6,000 to 7,000 miles away.

In each silo the missile guidance system is to run continuously so that there can be an instant firing. How long each device should operate is classified, but sources indicated the Autonetics product did not even come close to Air Force standards.

In the spring of 1967, the Pentagon estimated the "brains" of the missile were breaking down more than four times as quickly as planned. Each unit costs about $1 million.

A. Ernest Fitzgerald, the Air Force deputy for financial management, said in a memo last week that his private consulting firm turned up "technical trouble" in the units as early as September 1963.

One task force formed to tackle the problem and propose solutions said, in part, that financial cuts in the Minuteman budget had damaged Autonetics' performance.

However, in a letter Dec. 15, 1967, Fitzgerald wrote to Lt. Gen. J. W. O'Neill, commander of the Air Force Space and Missile System Organization, saying:

"Attributing the Autonetics quality problem to a shortage of money is, in my opinion, deceitful and hypocritical. In actuality, the experience illustrates the shallowness of substance inherent in the unlimited funds theory. The real problem lies in quality of people and organization and in management discipline."

As far as is known, four attempts to launch Minutemen from their home silos have failed. One failure was blamed on guidance problems. However, the Air Force has test-fired the Minuteman successfully numerous times from Vandenberg Air Force Base, California.

Final Plans Adopted For Boat Launch

The Petaluma City Council last night approved final plans for the Petaluma River boat launching facility.

City engineer David Young estimated the cost of the project at $136,000 and said the state Department of Harbors and Watercraft would pay the full amount, but that the city would be responsible for construction of the new access road on Petroleum Avenue off Lakeville Highway. He estimated road construction at $32,300.

Young said bids would be received by City Clerk Lillian Nommsen on July 16. He hoped the contract could be awarded next month so that all heavy earth work could be finished before the rainy season begins.

The launch ramp, located south of the Highway 101 river overcrossing, will be built to allow boat launching at extreme low tide. Young said the launch will be 36 feet long and would permit four boats to be launched at one time.

Also included in the project is a parking lot, restrooms and boat washing facilities. A float will be located at one side, but Young said if the bids are low enough, the state would approve the placement of a second float on the other side of the launch.

The Petaluma City Council also:

DRAINAGE — Received letter from the Bernard E. Eldredge School Parents and Teachers Together group, complaining about a drainage problem on Maria Drive. Youngs said plans are under way to prevent sidewalks from being covered during the rainy season.

PLAN LINES — Received a request from attorney Robert W. Mackey for action on plans by Sonoma Ventures to build a subdivision on Keokuk Street. The council determined the plans could not be weighed until plan lines for the widening of Keokuk and Liberty streets and Magnolia Avenue are adopted. A public hearing for that purpose was set for July 21 at 7:30 p.m.

AMBULANCE — Received a letter from William C. McCulloch suggesting that ambulance service provided by the city be replaced with a private service. Councilmen Albert L. Battaglia, David W. Brainerd and John W. Cavanagh Jr. were asked to investigate.

PARADE — Granted the request of the chamber of commerce to hold the annual Sonoma-Marin Fair parade at 1 p.m. on June 29 from Fifth and D streets to the fairgrounds.

GIFT — Receive a gift of $50 from the Petaluma Garden Club to be used for city beautification.

BUDGET — Reviewed brieflv the water department budget and set extended talks for tomorrow at 4 p.m.

Autobahn Set For Lengthening

BONN (GF) — West Germany's famous expressway networks, the Autoban—now about 2,800 miles long is to be doubled in length by 1985.

The decision, recently announced in Bonn, foresees expenditures of $22.5 billion for the massive project which will be carried out in the framework of three five-year plans. Taxes on petroleum products are expected to cover about half of the construction costs.

The Autobahn was begun during the 1930s and has been continuously increased since the end of World War II. But traffic is so heavy today that Bonn's transport ministry has announced trucks will not be able to use it on most weekends during the coming summer school vacation when tourist travel will be heaviest.

John L. Lewis In Resting Place

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The remains of union leader John L. Lewis were buried early today in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Springfield.

Lewis was buried next to his wife, with only family members attending.

Oak Ridge Cemetery also is the site of Abraham Lincoln's tomb.

Lewis, who headed the United Mine Workers of America for some 40 years, died June 11 in Washington, D.C. He was 89.

Tam Fire Board Passes Budget

The Tamalpais Fire District board adopted a final 1969-70 budget of $177,698 last night, an increase of $21,299 over last year.

Salaries accounted for $125,156 of the total, compared to $88,000 last year. Chief Richard K. Oswald said district employees will get a 5 per cent raise in July and another 5 per cent in January, bringing the district pay scale closer to parity with the other four Southern Marin fire departments. The district also has hired two more men for a total of 11 firefighters compared to nine last year.

Other figures in the new budget are $35,450 for maintenance, $9,902 of capital improvements with $8,000 in reserve.

The board also accepted the resignation of Director Morris Batz, who is leaving the district. The board will seek applications from Tamalpais Valley residents to succeed Batz, chairman Carl H. Modell siad.

The Tamalpais Fire Protection District board also:

HIRING — Hired two teenagers as summer employees to augment the staff during fire season. They are Glenn C. Phillips of 761 Bay Road and David H. Irving of 511 Shasta Way, both 17.

LEAVE — Granted a 60-day leave of absence to fireman Larry Robinson.

RADIO — Was told the department's base radio has been relocated on Vernal Hill for better radio coverage of the district.

Novato Parks Priorities Set

The list of park priorities and a possible bond issue were discussed last night by the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission, reported Edward W. Adams parks and recreation director.

The commission has listed priorities in this order: Pioneer Memorial Park, Novato Creek Park, Olive School playground park, Mc Clay Road Park, second swimming pool, Lions Park and San Marin Park.

The city council had asked the commission for a suggested park and recreation bond issue to be submitted to the voters. The commission did not agree on it last night but decided further study would be necessary, Adams said.

Commissioner Martin White said, "It takes 34 per cent to defeat us and they (34 per cent) are dedicated to the firm principle of progress at no cost.

Adams reported on the progress of pioneer Memorial Park. He said completion of the first phase was set for the middle of September.

Powell Plans To Take 'Pulse'

BIMINI Bahamas (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell said today he expects to confer with the Democratic congressional leadership to "feel the pulse" following the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on his exclusion from the House.

Powell told newsmen he was to go to Washington today and meet with the leadership tomorrow. He has no appointments, he said, "But I'm sure we can get together."

Powell said "there was dancing in the streets last night in Harlem," after the court ruled the U.S. House of Representatives violated his constitutional rights in denying him a seat in Congress in 1967.

Petaluma Man To Be Sentenced June 23

Sentencing for Johnny Slaughter Jr., 19, of Petaluma, who pleaded guilty to burglarizing a San Rafael doctor's office April 10, has been set for June 23 in Marin Superior Court.

Friday Slaughter asked Judge Joseph G. Wilson to place him in jail in the meantime as he had no place to stay.

Park Suspect

Richard Elmer Coffman, 40, of 508 Petaluma Boulevard South, Petaluma, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of child molesting after adults in the area of Mc Near Park told police they saw Coffman holding several young girls on his lap on a park bench at 11:30 a.m.

He was scheduled for arraignment today in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court.

Mayors Seek Better System On Taxation

Mayors and representatives of 10 of Marin's 11 cities agreed unanimously by straw vote yesterday that the sheriff's patrol division costs of $960,472 should be borne solely by the unincorporated area taxpayers.

They also agreed unanimously in favor of a possible fire district for the unincorporated area in which structural fire tax would be levied according to relative benefits.

They voted 6 to 4, with the City of Tiburon representative absent, favoring a plan whereby the cities would chip in $31,000 on a prorated basis toward county animal control.

Voting yes were San Rafael, Novato, Corte Madera, Larkspur, Sausalito and Belvedere. Voting no were Mill Valley, Ross, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Corte Madera Town Council last night approved appropriation of $1,400 as the town's share.

All agreed that cities and towns are victims of double taxes and went on record to request the City-County Services Committee, meeting last night, and the board of supervisors to "work diligently" toward correcting city-county tax inequities.

"All we can do is keep hammering away," said Larkspur Mayor Neil R. Brixon who called the special meeting held at Corte Madera's Edgewater Inn.

Brixon said the views do not legally constitute the reflection of cities as a whole but that he hopes a vote may be taken at the June 25 meeting of the Marin County Council of Mayors and Councilmen to be carried to the supervisors.

Novato City Mgr. Charles A. Brown won support on a suggestion that the council meet each year with the supervisors prior to budget session to discuss county budget items that affect cities.

Sausalito Councilman George C. Hoffman said the public must be educated about city-county tax inequities and Brixon proposed the inequities be spelled out and a complete history be made available to the press.

"We're not being an effective lobby," said Mayor Dean N. Meyer of Mill Valley who claimed that the supervisors represent the city as well as the county dweller with 80 per cent of their constituents living in cities.

The board of supervisors on June 4 approved a total county fire department budget of $665,657. Of this, the county administrator recommended that $395,057 be designated "structural fire protection" and this be borne by unincorporated areas not covered by city or fire districts. This would have meant about 58 cents in a tax rate for the unincorporated areas instead of this year's 20 cents.

The supervisors decided this would be too much and, instead of $395,057, designated $200,000 as the "structural fire protection" portion — or about 30 cents on the tax rate.

Bids Opened For Lighting

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Sonoma County supervisors yesterday opened bids on lighting for the Petaluma War Memorial Building and approved plans for improvements to Adobe and Frates roads near Petaluma.

Apparent low bidder for the installation of new parking lot lights at the memorial building was Petty and Mapes Electrical Co. of Santa Rosa with $4,644. Second of the four bids was the Standard Electric Co. of Santa Rosa with $4,800.

Bids for the widening of Frates Road between state Highway 116 and Adobe Road and for the widening of Adobe Road near Frates Road will be opened on July 15 at 3 p.m. The project was estimated to cost $190,000.

James Meredith Found Guilty

NEW YORK (AP) — James Meredith, a Negro prominent in civil rights campaigns, has been found guilty of harassing the white tenants of an apartment building he owns in an attempt to force rent increases.

Meredith, whose enrollment in the University of Mississippi in 1962 led to rioting and federal troop intervention, was not in court yesterday when the conviction was registered. He could be sentenced to a $250 fine or 15 days in jail.

Tenants testified that Meredith cut off hot water and elevator service in the six-story building to enforce a demand for a 15 per cent rent hike.

New "Sleep + Aspirin" tablets help you pop right off to Sound Safe Sleep
WITHOUT HABIT-FORMING SLEEPING PILLS

(Special)...A New York chemist has perfected a remarkable "Asper-Sleep" formula which unites in one small tablet 3 safe aids to sound, refreshing sleep. No other sleeping tablets offer more comfort . . . yet are not habit-forming!

Never before has there been such a combination to help you relieve the problem of sleeplessness — to bring restful sleep without habit-forming drugs. No prescription is needed — just ask for "Asper-Sleep Tablets". For 100% safe sleep take as directed.

The reason you can fall asleep so fast and sleep like a log is that each Asper-Sleep tablet contains these 3 ingredients:

(1) An anti-histamine which (in a test by doctors) proved as effective as a usual dose of phenobarbitol...yet Asper-Sleep is mild, safe.

(2) A sedative with gentle soothing properties — to help you relax from simple everyday nervous tensions.

(3) Last but not least, Asper-Sleep contains analgesic, pain-relieving aspirin. This curbs the miseries of common headaches, colds and minor arthritis, rheumatism, muscular and menstrual aches and pains—to help you sleep when these disturbances are keeping you awake.

So get your sleep tonight without the depressing after-effects of habit-forming drugs. Asper-Sleep contains no barbiturates. You pop off to sleep, wake up "bright-eyed and bushy-tailed" not dull or dopey. During the night you are relaxed yet responsive to emergencies.

Money back guarantee: Unless Asper-Sleep brings you better, faster sleep than any sleeping tablet you have ever taken . . . return the partly used bottle and get all your money back. Ask for Asper-Sleep tablets at druggists. 89¢.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Film Star Omar Sharif Is Player Of Daring Quality

Everybody knows that contract bridge favors agressive bidders, but not everybody has the courage to practice what we all preach. Film star Omar Sharif is said to approach a bridge hand as though it were a girl (they say that courage and a healthy bank balance are useful in this sport also, but what does a poor bridge columnist know about this?), and perhaps his daring bid in today's hand proves the allegation.

RIGHT GUESS

Who has the nerve to bid three no-trump when vulnerable against a vulnerable opponent who has opened with two no-trump? If you've guessed that Sharif did it, you're right.

The scene was an international bridge tournament in Beirut, recently, and Sharif knew that his partner had a long club suit for his overcall of three clubs. Sharif had 11 high-card points, expected his partner to hold 8 or 9, and knew that West needed all the remaining high cards of the deck for his opening bid of two no-trump. East would never get in to make any embarrassing leads through the South hand.

GOOD CLUBS

If North had really good clubs, Sharif would be able to run about seven club tricks as the nucleus of his game in no-trump. If North's clubs were ragged he would surely have a couple of side cards, and West would be unable to develop the setting trick in a hurry.

WORKS AS EXPECTED

It worked as Sharif expected. West's opening lead of the jack of diamonds went to dummy's king, and Sharif led a low club to the ace. When the jack dropped, Sharif knew that the suit would run since West would not have opened two no-trump with a singleton in clubs.

Sharif switched to a low spade, and West could take only his three aces. Sharif took the rest, making his game with an overtrick. Faint heart ne'er won three no-trump.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ A J
♥ A Q J 7
♦ A J 10 8 3
♣ Q J

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one diamond.

The hand is a trifle light for an opening bid of two no-trump, and the doubleton Q-J of clubs is a doubtful holding for such a bid. Avoid making a bid that is doubtful on two counts. (In the recent international tournament in Beirut, West actually bid 2 no-trump, but he lived to regret it — and so might you.)

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, June 17, the 168th day of 1969 with 197 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1775 a group of 3,500 British soldiers attacked one thousand American patriots on Bunker Hill near Boston. The British lost more than 1,000 men, the Americans 441.

In 1928 Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly across the Atlantic. The plane was piloted by Wilmer Stultz.

In 1967 Red China announced it had exploded a hydrogen bomb.

In 1968 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that an 1866 law bars the color line in housing sales and rentals.

A thought for the day: Sir John Suckling said: "Women are the baggage of life; they are troublesome, and hinder us in the great march, yet we cannot be without them."

Demo Meeting Is Postponed

The monthly meeting tonight of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee has been postponed to 8 p.m. next Tuesday in Room 206 of the County Courthouse, San Rafael.

Committee secretary J. Michael Anthony said the meeting was postponed because several members were planning to work today in the special assembly election in Monterey County.

Sausalitans Face A Tax Rate Hike

With only a few major items left to be discussed — one of them administrative salaries — Sausalito School District taxpayers currently face a 35-cent tax rate hike based on a tentative working budget studied last night by district trustees.

The budget, prepared by Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato, included a 7.5 per cent pay raise for all district employees even though administrative salaries have not been discussed in budget sessions.

The working budget currently is $1,429,926 and, if adopted, would carry a $3.39 per $100 assessed valuation tax rate, up 35-cents from this year's $3.04.

Trustees will meet again next Monday in special session to discuss administrative salaries. The district's teachers and classified personnel have already accepted the 7.5 per cent salary increase.

One administrator has indicated he probably won't accept a 7.5 per cent increase.

James T. Toliver, Jr., who serves as a sepcial assistant to the principal of the Martin Luther King School, has told the board by letter that he wants a $2,500-a-year increase.

Toliver is currently paid $12,500 a year. He told the board that the minimum he would accept for next year would be $14,000 on a 9.5 month scale and $15,000 on an 11-month schedule.

"Next year the Martin Luther King School will have a new principal. I can easily visualize an increase in my duties and job responsibilities until he has settled in," Toliver wrote the board.

The board took no action on Toliver's request, but asked him to meet in closed session with the trustees next Monday night.

(Discussion of Toliver's salary in closed session would be in violation of the Ralph M. Brown Act, which says that salaries must be discussed in public sessions and is not proper cause for a closed session.)

Amato said today it was his understanding the board was going to discuss Toliver's salary in public session but would discuss his job responsibilitites and his position in the chain-of-command at the Martin Luther King School during closed session.

(The Brown Act says that closed sessions may be held only to hire, fire or hear charges against an employee or to instruct salary negotiators.)

Panther Breakfast Assault Dies

What began as another full-blown assault on Black Panther breakfasts withered and died quickly last night after Sausalito School District board chairman Bruce E. Woelfel limited discussion because he was "tired of hearing criticism from persons who offered no positive alternatives."

The Black Panther breakfasts were not an agenda item, but Woelfel opened the matter up for discussion because the board received 19 letters from district residents protesting the Panthers' presence on school grounds.

About 35 persons attended the meeting, but only five or six spoke in opposition tot he Panther breakfasts. An equal number supported them and urged the board to allow them to continue next year when school resumed.

COMPLAINTS

Woelfel allowed opponents of the breakfasts to speak once and then cut off discussion, after they voiced previously aired complaints that no political group should be allowed to use school facilities.

"We have formed a committee to study the breakfasts and any of you who have suggestions or want to help the committee are urged to do so," Woelfel told the audience.

"The Panthers have indicated they want out of the breakfasts and want it taken over by the community, so you who are opposed tot he Panthers being on campus should be eager to help get the community involved sot hey (the Panthers) can get out," Woelfel said.

Trustee Martha Freebairn-Smith, who heads the committee, said it had not met but would do so during the summer and have recommendations ready before the beginning of next school year.

SENTIMENT

Several persons in the audience suggested that the 19 letters which the board received represented a "letter campaign" and therefore were not indicative of true public sentiment on the issue.

Several others, however, insisted that the letter writers were "sincere individuals concerned about intimidation of their children in the schools."

All of the letters came in during a three-day period, June 9-12. All protested the use of school facilities on a continuing basis by any political party.

Judge Refuses Immunity For Black Panthers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A federal judge refused yesterday to grant members of the Black Panther Party immunity from testifying before a grand jury investigating activities of the militant Negro group.

The decision by U.S. District Judge Oliver J. Carter could mean that the Black Panthers must testify after the grand jury reconvenes tomorrow in San Francisco.

Carter said he "will enter an appropriate order" following another hearing on the matter at 10 a.m.

U.S. Attorney Cecil Poole has already asked the court to order the witnesses to answer questions which they had sought to avoid by asking immunity.

60-Day Sentence In Assault Case

Clarence Ronnie Striplin, 20, of Marin City yesterday was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court for assaulting a policeman and possessing stolen property.

Striplin will be eligible for work furlough, Judge Wilson said, so that he may keep the job he has had for several months with the county.

The youth had last month pleaded guilty to hitting Sausalito patrolman Stephen M. Willis on Sept. 25, 1968 during a fracas at a Sausalito coffee shop. He also admitted having stolen credit cards with him when arrested.

Marin Girls In Honor Band

Two San Rafael High School students will be members of an 80-piece California Honor Band that will tour Europe this summer under sponsorship of the World Horizons Institute.

The two are Shelley Hodgen, clarinet, and Linda Soares, bassoon. Together with the other honor musicians chosen on the basis of technical proficiency in statewide competition, they will study and play concerts in Rome, Florence, Vienna and Paris.

An 84-piece honor orchestra will also go to Europe for study and concerts under the same sponsorship.

Bid Fails In Lowering Density For Apartments

The San Rafael City Council last night refused to rezone a lot on Picnic Avenue to lower density to prevent construction of 40 apartment units.

The matter was before the council on appeal from the planning commission, which had rejected the rezoning 7-0. The council simply refused to act, leaving the commission's decision to stand. All four members present (Fred E. Jensen) was absent) spoke against the rezoning.

MANY SPEAKERS

A parade of speakers for and against appeared before the council. Many Picnic Valley residents and some from other parts of the city urged the rezoning, contending that the development would create major traffic hazards, congestion, and a burden on Laurel Dell primary and intermediate schools.

Appearing against the change were Glenn Adair, secretary-manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce; Carl S. Brown, executive vice president of Associated Home Builders of Marin; Louis Del Valle, a nearby resident; N. C. Green, president of the Building and Construction Trades Council; Norman Traverso, executive secretary of the Marin Property Owners Association; Robert A. Roumiguiere, real estate broker, Norman Campbell, a Bret Harte resident, and Edmund T. Ghirardo, applicant for the apartment permit. All stressed that to change zoning that has stood for 10 years after plans have been submitted for development would be unethical and make it impossible for land buyers to rely on zoning in San Rafael.

Adair read a letter from Stanley S. Goldsmith, chamber of commerce president, reporting "a letter from one of the home owners which can only be considered as threatening" because the chamber opposed the rezoning before the planning commission.

Councilmen Fred C. Robbins Jr. and John A. Miskimen both said they thought the zoning for 40 units on the lot was improper and would not approve such density if it came before the council as a new matter, but neither could they justify changing the zoning under the circumstances.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini told the zoning advocates he could see no justification for the change, pointing out that the 40-unit zoning has been well known, was adopted originally without protest, and was the basis of several plans approved without protest (none of which, however, resulted in building) before Ghirardo's application. Councilman Harry A. Barbier posed the question, "How could anyone come in and look at zoning on a piece of property and buy it" if zoning were subject to change in such manner?

UP IN AIR

The decision left Ghirardo's application somewhat up in the air. Originally, he could have gone ahead with 40 units under one roof with only architectural approval by the plannning commission. He chose instead a plan for a cluster development, requiring a use permit. The council last month denied the use permit, and City Atty. David Menary said the same plans could not be resubmitted.

Mayor Bettini advised Ghirardo to try to work out some plan changes to meet part of the neighbors' objections and start a new application on its way.

SAN RAFAEL COUNCIL SETS BUDGET TALKS

San Rafael city councilmen will be meeting every Monday night for the next four weeks as they tackle the fiscal 1970 city budget.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen reported last night the preliminary budget is at last almost ready and "I'll have it in your hands by the end of the week."

Mayor C. Paul Bettini then set budget meetings for Monday and July 14 at 7:30 p.m. One June 30 at 8 p.m., the council will meet with the county board of supervisors for further discussion of city purchase of the courthouse square. July 7 and 8 p.m. will be a regular council meeting.

Pay raises for city employees will be taken up first at next Monday's budget session.

Woman Says She Kicked Drug Habit

A 20-year-old woman who said she has broken her drug habit during 53 days in jail was given a chance yesterday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court to prove it.

He sentenced Ray Lynn Dozier to time served and placed her on two years probation.

The young woman, who pleaded guilty last month to forging a stolen welfare check, had a history of drug use.

Still awaiting trial on a similar charge of forging a money order are Juanita Litteral and Eugene Rudnick, 19, of 103 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael.

Miss Dozier was told by Judge Wilson to stay away from the Litterals and to make restitution for the amount of the check.

He ordered her released to take a job in Burlingame.

The check and money order figuring in the two cases were both allegedly received from former mailman Warren Sielsky, who has pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court to a charge of mail embezzlement in connection with the theft of more than 3,000 pieces of mail.

Sielsky lives with the Litteral family at 9 Taylor Street, San Rafael.

Final Mutiny Trial Is Going

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The final trial in the Presidio mutiny case may be over by late Friday.

Various defense motions were to be argued today in the trials of Pvts. Michael E. Murphy, 19, Concord, and Lawrence J. Zaino, 21, Toledo, Ohio. They were among 27 GIs who were charged with mutiny following a sit-down demonstration in the Presidio stockade last Oct. 14.

Three defendants escaped and are believed to be living in Canada. The other 22 defendants were convicted at four separate trials.

The current defendants were separated when Zaino was ordered to tke a sanity test and Murphy was hospitalized with hepatitis.

Architect Hired To Plan Three Projects

The San Rafael City Council last night hired an architect to do preliminary planning for three city projects and go ahead with final plans for relocation of the city corporation yard.

On suggestion of Mayor C. Paul Bettini, architect Robert W. F. Severin was hired at $1,500 to do preliminary plans for a new firehouse, a recreation center, and the corporation yard. The council then authorized City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to have Severin proceed on final plans for the corporation yard as soon as his preliminary work is completed.

Mayor Bettini said all councilmen except John A. Miskimen, who was absent at the time, agreed earlier that the corporation yard should be relocated on the unsold part of the city's Francisco Boulevard-canal property. About half the property has been sold to two automobile dealers.

The mayor also revived another project — the proposed 18-hole municipal golf course north of the Civic Center. Four consultants had sumbitted proposals for feasibility studies.

Councilman Harry A Barbier said, "First we should decide whether we are going to put it to a vote of the people." However, other council members said the study should come first, and Barbier went along in unanimous approval to hire EBS Management Consultants (a subsidiary of Ebasco Services) to make the study at a fee not to exceed $3,000. Ebasco Services (itself a subsidiary of Electric Bond & Share) made the preliminary study on location and design of the present city hall.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

STREET RESURFACING — Awarded a contract for resurfacing of various city streets to Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, lowest of five bidders at $37,124. Bids ranged upward to $46,830 by Reichhold & Jurkovich of Santa Rosa. The low bid was below the city engineer's estimate.

STREET ABANDONMENT — Abandoned a portion of the land set aside for Northgate Drive to realign access to the Holiday Inn.

PARKING VARIANCE — Granted Sanford L. Harris Jr. permission to remodel his garage at 224 Humboldt Avenue into living space, parking his car in the yard. The request was unusual in that it had strong support from Harris's neighbors, and no opposition.

OVERNIGHT PARKING — Heard Harold Barling of 1543 Fourth Street complain that the city's ordinance against overnight parking "is being enforced only in the downtown area" and should either be repealed or enforced uniformly. City Clerk W. C. Cornwell said he had had many phone calls on the matter. Discussion of repeal or revision was put on the agenda for the July 21 council meeting.

REZONING — Adopted ordinances rezoning two lots on East Crescent Avenue; zoning three previously unclassified lots on Oakmont Drive and Oakmont Court for single-family homes, and changing the zoning ordinance to give the city clerk power to set public hearings.

OPPORTUNITY COUNCIL — Put over until July 7 appointment of a city representative on the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council

BID CALL — Called for bids on road materials for next fiscal year, to be opened July 7.

PENSION INCREASE — Approved a cost-of-living increase in the pensions of retired city employees, made possible by new legislation. Cost to the city will be $1,796, reported James H. McCown, finance officer.

ABATEMENT — Adopted a resolution for razing the former Dexter Rambler building at Fourth and H streets, condemned as a public nuisance, and called for bids on the demolishing to be opened July 7. Cost will become a lien against the property.

TAPE RECORDER — Authorized City Clerk Cornwell to purchase a tape recorder for the planning commission.

POLITICAL SIGNS — Noting that two defeated city council candidates have not yet removed all their political signs, instructed City Manager Andersen to put pressure on them to do so.

EMPLOYEES — Hired Jesse Wiles as police patrolman at $670 per month, and promoted Harry A. Barbier Jr. from dispatcher to radio telephone operator in the police department at $551. Councilman Barbier, the young man's father, absented himself during this vote.

All actions were unanimous by the council members present. Fred E. Jensen, who is ill, was absent.

Message Linking Sugar To Heart Disease Is Hit

BERKELEY (UPI) — The controversial message of British nutritionist John Yudkin is decidedly sour — sugar may be the main dietary cause of coronary heart disease.

Yudkin, a researcher at the University of London, theorized at a nutritian seminar yesterday at the University of California that coronary heart disease appears to be an affliction of affluence.

He said man has not been able to adapt to the metabolic changes resulting from a sugar-rich diet. Experiments show, Yudkin said, humans on a diet of high refined sugar consumption increase by a third the level of insulin in the blood.

Other specialists at the conference called Yudkin's theory "extremely controversial."

While diet probably plays a major part in developing heart disease, they said, so do cigarette smoking, obesity, stress and heredity. They believe the only diet factor scientifically established as being of importance is the consumption of saturated fats and cholesterol.

Profits Sent To Washington

The profitw of two Marin bake sales, $266, have been sent to the National Park Service to be used for acquisition of more land for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

The sales were held in April and May by a group headed by two girls from San Rafael High School, Tami Patterson of Inverness and Newtza Cornelius of San Rafael.

Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, reported yesterday the check was sent to Rep. Roy A. Taylor, D—N. C., chairman of a subcommittee on National Parks and Recreation of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs.

The subcommittee thanked the group for its donation and forwarded it to the National Park Service.

Bussing Costs Hiked 5 Cents

OAKLAND (UPI) — Crossing the bridge from Oakland and the East Bay to San Francisco will cost a nickel more for Alameda-Contra Costa bus riders effective July 1.

The transit district's board of directors voted last night to raise the transbay bus ride fare to 55 cents.

Local fares will remain at 25 cents, but tokens and ticket books will go to four for $1 instead of the current five for $1.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Film Star Omar Sharif Is Player Of Daring Quality

Everybody knows that contract bridge favors agressive bidders, but not everybody has the courage to practice what we all preach. Film star Omar Sharif is said to approach a bridge hand as though it were a girl (they say that courage and a healthy bank balance are useful in this sport also, but what does a poor bridge columnist know about this?), and perhaps his daring bid in today's hand proves the allegation.

RIGHT GUESS

Who has the nerve to bid three no-trump when vulnerable against a vulnerable opponent who has opened with two no-trump? If you've guessed that Sharif did it, you're right.

The scene was an international bridge tournament in Beirut, recently, and Sharif knew that his partner had a long club suit for his overcall of three clubs. Sharif had 11 high-card points, expected his partner to hold 8 or 9, and knew that West needed all the remaining high cards of the deck for his opening bid of two no-trump. East would never get in to make any embarrassing leads through the South hand.

GOOD CLUBS

If North had really good clubs, Sharif would be able to run about seven club tricks as the nucleus of his game in no-trump. If North's clubs were ragged he would surely have a couple of side cards, and West would be unable to develop the setting trick in a hurry.

WORKS AS EXPECTED

It worked as Sharif expected. West's opening lead of the jack of diamonds went to dummy's king, and Sharif led a low club to the ace. When the jack dropped, Sharif knew that the suit would run since West would not have opened two no-trump with a singleton in clubs.

Sharif switched to a low spade, and West could take only his three aces. Sharif took the rest, making his game with an overtrick. Faint heart ne'er won three no-trump.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ A J
♥ A Q J 7
♦ A J 10 8 3
♣ Q J

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one diamond.

The hand is a trifle light for an opening bid of two no-trump, and the doubleton Q-J of clubs is a doubtful holding for such a bid. Avoid making a bid that is doubtful on two counts. (In the recent international tournament in Beirut, West actually bid 2 no-trump, but he lived to regret it — and so might you.)

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, June 17, the 168th day of 1969 with 197 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1775 a group of 3,500 British soldiers attacked one thousand American patriots on Bunker Hill near Boston. The British lost more than 1,000 men, the Americans 441.

In 1928 Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly across the Atlantic. The plane was piloted by Wilmer Stultz.

In 1967 Red China announced it had exploded a hydrogen bomb.

In 1968 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that an 1866 law bars the color line in housing sales and rentals.

A thought for the day: Sir John Suckling said: "Women are the baggage of life; they are troublesome, and hinder us in the great march, yet we cannot be without them."

Demo Meeting Is Postponed

The monthly meeting tonight of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee has been postponed to 8 p.m. next Tuesday in Room 206 of the County Courthouse, San Rafael.

Committee secretary J. Michael Anthony said the meeting was postponed because several members were planning to work today in the special assembly election in Monterey County.

Sausalitans Face A Tax Rate Hike

With only a few major items left to be discussed — one of them administrative salaries — Sausalito School District taxpayers currently face a 35-cent tax rate hike based on a tentative working budget studied last night by district trustees.

The budget, prepared by Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato, included a 7.5 per cent pay raise for all district employees even though administrative salaries have not been discussed in budget sessions.

The working budget currently is $1,429,926 and, if adopted, would carry a $3.39 per $100 assessed valuation tax rate, up 35-cents from this year's $3.04.

Trustees will meet again next Monday in special session to discuss administrative salaries. The district's teachers and classified personnel have already accepted the 7.5 per cent salary increase.

One administrator has indicated he probably won't accept a 7.5 per cent increase.

James T. Toliver, Jr., who serves as a sepcial assistant to the principal of the Martin Luther King School, has told the board by letter that he wants a $2,500-a-year increase.

Toliver is currently paid $12,500 a year. He told the board that the minimum he would accept for next year would be $14,000 on a 9.5 month scale and $15,000 on an 11-month schedule.

"Next year the Martin Luther King School will have a new principal. I can easily visualize an increase in my duties and job responsibilities until he has settled in," Toliver wrote the board.

The board took no action on Toliver's request, but asked him to meet in closed session with the trustees next Monday night.

(Discussion of Toliver's salary in closed session would be in violation of the Ralph M. Brown Act, which says that salaries must be discussed in public sessions and is not proper cause for a closed session.)

Amato said today it was his understanding the board was going to discuss Toliver's salary in public session but would discuss his job responsibilitites and his position in the chain-of-command at the Martin Luther King School during closed session.

(The Brown Act says that closed sessions may be held only to hire, fire or hear charges against an employee or to instruct salary negotiators.)

Panther Breakfast Assault Dies

What began as another full-blown assault on Black Panther breakfasts withered and died quickly last night after Sausalito School District board chairman Bruce E. Woelfel limited discussion because he was "tired of hearing criticism from persons who offered no positive alternatives."

The Black Panther breakfasts were not an agenda item, but Woelfel opened the matter up for discussion because the board received 19 letters from district residents protesting the Panthers' presence on school grounds.

About 35 persons attended the meeting, but only five or six spoke in opposition tot he Panther breakfasts. An equal number supported them and urged the board to allow them to continue next year when school resumed.

COMPLAINTS

Woelfel allowed opponents of the breakfasts to speak once and then cut off discussion, after they voiced previously aired complaints that no political group should be allowed to use school facilities.

"We have formed a committee to study the breakfasts and any of you who have suggestions or want to help the committee are urged to do so," Woelfel told the audience.

"The Panthers have indicated they want out of the breakfasts and want it taken over by the community, so you who are opposed tot he Panthers being on campus should be eager to help get the community involved sot hey (the Panthers) can get out," Woelfel said.

Trustee Martha Freebairn-Smith, who heads the committee, said it had not met but would do so during the summer and have recommendations ready before the beginning of next school year.

SENTIMENT

Several persons in the audience suggested that the 19 letters which the board received represented a "letter campaign" and therefore were not indicative of true public sentiment on the issue.

Several others, however, insisted that the letter writers were "sincere individuals concerned about intimidation of their children in the schools."

All of the letters came in during a three-day period, June 9-12. All protested the use of school facilities on a continuing basis by any political party.

Judge Refuses Immunity For Black Panthers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A federal judge refused yesterday to grant members of the Black Panther Party immunity from testifying before a grand jury investigating activities of the militant Negro group.

The decision by U.S. District Judge Oliver J. Carter could mean that the Black Panthers must testify after the grand jury reconvenes tomorrow in San Francisco.

Carter said he "will enter an appropriate order" following another hearing on the matter at 10 a.m.

U.S. Attorney Cecil Poole has already asked the court to order the witnesses to answer questions which they had sought to avoid by asking immunity.

60-Day Sentence In Assault Case

Clarence Ronnie Striplin, 20, of Marin City yesterday was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court for assaulting a policeman and possessing stolen property.

Striplin will be eligible for work furlough, Judge Wilson said, so that he may keep the job he has had for several months with the county.

The youth had last month pleaded guilty to hitting Sausalito patrolman Stephen M. Willis on Sept. 25, 1968 during a fracas at a Sausalito coffee shop. He also admitted having stolen credit cards with him when arrested.

Marin Girls In Honor Band

Two San Rafael High School students will be members of an 80-piece California Honor Band that will tour Europe this summer under sponsorship of the World Horizons Institute.

The two are Shelley Hodgen, clarinet, and Linda Soares, bassoon. Together with the other honor musicians chosen on the basis of technical proficiency in statewide competition, they will study and play concerts in Rome, Florence, Vienna and Paris.

An 84-piece honor orchestra will also go to Europe for study and concerts under the same sponsorship.

Bid Fails In Lowering Density For Apartments

The San Rafael City Council last night refused to rezone a lot on Picnic Avenue to lower density to prevent construction of 40 apartment units.

The matter was before the council on appeal from the planning commission, which had rejected the rezoning 7-0. The concil simply refused to act, leaving the commission's decision to stand. All four members present (Fred E. Jensen) was absent) spoke against the rezoning.

MANY SPEAKERS

A parade of speakers for and against appeared before the council. Many Picnic Valley residents and some from other parts of the city urged the rezoning, contending that the development would create major traffic hazards, congestion, and a burden on Laurel Dell primary and intermediate schools.

Appearing against the change were Glenn Adair, secretary-manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce; Carl S. Brown, executive vice president of Associated Home Builders of Marin; Louis Del Valle, a nearby resident; N. C. Green, president of the Building and Construction Trades Council; Norman Traverso, executive secretary of the Marin Property Owners Association; Robert A. Roumiguiere, real estate broker, Norman Campbell, a Bret Harte resident, and Edmund T. Ghirardo, applicant for the apartment permit. All stressed that to change zoning that has stood for 10 years after plans have been submitted for development would be unethical and make it impossible for land buyers to rely on zoning in San Rafael.

Adair read a letter from Stanley S. Goldsmith, chamber of commerce president, reporting "a letter from one of the home owners which can only be considered as threatening" because the chamber opposed the rezoning before the planning commission.

Councilmen Fred C. Robbins Jr. and John A. Miskimen both said they thought the zoning for 40 units on the lot was improper and would not approve such density if it came before the council as a new matter, but neither could they justify changing the zoning under the circumstances.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini told the zoning advocates he could see no justification for the change, pointing out that the 40-unit zoning has been well known, was adopted originally without protest, and was the basis of several plans approved without protest (none of which, however, resulted in building) before Ghirardo's application. Councilman Harry A. Barbier posed the question, "How could anyone come in and look at zoning on a piece of property and buy it" if zoning were subject to change in such manner?

UP IN AIR

The decision left Ghirardo's application somewhat up in the air. Originally, he could have gone ahead with 40 units under one roof with only architectural approval by the plannning commission. He chose instead a plan for a cluster development, requiring a use permit. The council last month denied the use permit, and City Atty. David Menary said the same plans could not be resubmitted.

Mayor Bettini advised Ghirardo to try to work out some plan changes to meet part of the neighbors' objections and start a new application on its way.

SAN RAFAEL COUNCIL SETS BUDGET TALKS

San Rafael city councilmen will be meeting every Monday night for the next four weeks as they tackle the fiscal 1970 city budget.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen reported last night the preliminary budget is at last almost ready and "I'll have it in your hands by the end of the week."

Mayor C. Paul Bettini then set budget meetings for Monday and July 14 at 7:30 p.m. One June 30 at 8 p.m., the council will meet with the county board of supervisors for further discussion of city purchase of the courthouse square. July 7 and 8 p.m. will be a regular council meeting.

Pay raises for city employees will be taken up first at next Monday's budget session.

Woman Says She Kicked Drug Habit

A 20-year-old woman who said she has broken her drug habit during 53 days in jail was given a chance yesterday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court to prove it.

He sentenced Ray Lynn Dozier to time served and placed her on two years probation.

The young woman, who pleaded guilty last month to forging a stolen welfare check, had a history of drug use.

Still awaiting trial on a similar charge of forging a money order are Juanita Litteral and Eugene Rudnick, 19, of 103 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael.

Miss Dozier was told by Judge Wilson to stay away from the Litterals and to make restitution for the amount of the check.

He ordered her released to take a job in Burlingame.

The check and money order figuring in the two cases were both allegedly received from former mailman Warren Sielsky, who has pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court to a charge of mail embezzlement in connection with the theft of more than 3,000 pieces of mail.

Sielsky lives with the Litteral family at 9 Taylor Street, San Rafael.

Final Mutiny Trial Is Going

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The final trial in the Presidio mutiny case may be over by late Friday.

Various defense motions were to be argued today in the trials of Pvts. Michael E. Murphy, 19, Concord, and Lawrence J. Zaino, 21, Toledo, Ohio. They were among 27 GIs who were charged with mutiny following a sit-down demonstration in the Presidio stockade last Oct. 14.

Three defendants escaped and are believed to be living in Canada. The other 22 defendants were convicted at four separate trials.

The current defendants were separated when Zaino was ordered to tke a sanity test and Murphy was hospitalized with hepatitis.

Architect Hired To Plan Three Projects

The San Rafael City Council last night hired an architect to do preliminary planning for three city projects and go ahead with final plans for relocation of the city corporation yard.

On suggestion of Mayor C. Paul Bettini, architect Robert W. F. Severin was hired at $1,500 to do preliminary plans for a new firehouse, a recreation center, and the corporation yard. The council then authorized City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to have Severin proceed on final plans for the corporation yard as soon as his preliminary work is completed.

Mayor Bettini said all councilmen except John A. Miskimen, who was absent at the time, agreed earlier that the corporation yard should be relocated on the unsold part of the city's Francisco Boulevard-canal property. About half the property has been sold to two automobile dealers.

The mayor also revived another project — the proposed 18-hole municipal golf course north of the Civic Center. Four consultants had sumbitted proposals for feasibility studies.

Councilman Harry A Barbier said, "First we should decide whether we are going to put it to a vote of the people." However, other council members said the study should come first, and Barbier went along in unanimous approval to hire EBS Management Consultants (a subsidiary of Ebasco Services) to make the study at a fee not to exceed $3,000. Ebasco Services (itself a subsidiary of Electric Bond & Share) made the preliminary study on location and design of the present city hall.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

STREET RESURFACING — Awarded a contract for resurfacing of various city streets to Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, lowest of five bidders at $37,124. Bids ranged upward to $46,830 by Reichhold & Jurkovich of Santa Rosa. The low bid was below the city engineer's estimate.

STREET ABANDONMENT — Abandoned a portion of the land set aside for Northgate Drive to realign access to the Holiday Inn.

PARKING VARIANCE — Granted Sanford L. Harris Jr. permission to remodel his garage at 224 Humboldt Avenue into living space, parking his car in the yard. The request was unusual in that it had strong support from Harris's neighbors, and no opposition.

OVERNIGHT PARKING — Heard Harold Barling of 1543 Fourth Street complain that the city's ordinance against overnight parking "is being enforced only in the downtown area" and should either be repealed or enforced uniformly. City Clerk W. C. Cornwell said he had had many phone calls on the matter. Discussion of repeal or revision was put on the agenda for the July 21 council meeting.

REZONING — Adopted ordinances rezoning two lots on East Crescent Avenue; zoning three previously unclassified lots on Oakmont Drive and Oakmont Court for single-family homes, and changing the zoning ordinance to give the city clerk power to set public hearings.

OPPORTUNITY COUNCIL — Put over until July 7 appointment of a city representative on the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council.

BID CALL — Called for bids on road materials for next fiscal year, to be opened July 7.

PENSION INCREASE — Approved a cost-of-living increase in the pensions of retired city employees, made possible by new legislation. Cost to the city will be $1,796, reported James H. McCown, finance officer.

ABATEMENT — Adopted a resolution for razing the former Dexter Rambler building at Fourth and H streets, condemned as a public nuisance, and called for bids on the demolishing to be opened July 7. Cost will become a lien against the property.

TAPE RECORDER — Authorized City Clerk Cornwell to purchase a tape recorder for the planning commission.

POLITICAL SIGNS — Noting that two defeated city council candidates have not yet removed all their political signs, instructed City Manager Andersen to put pressure on them to do so.

EMPLOYEES — Hired Jesse Wiles as police patrolman at $670 per month, and promoted Harry A. Barbier Jr. from dispatcher to radio telephone operator in the police department at $551. Councilman Barbier, the young man's father, absented himself during this vote.

All actions were unanimous by the council members present. Fred E. Jensen, who is ill, was absent.

Message Linking Sugar To Heart Disease Is Hit

BERKELEY (UPI) — The controversial message of British nutritionist John Yudkin is decidedly sour — sugar may be the main dietary cause of coronary heart disease.

Yudkin, a researcher at the University of London, theorized at a nutritian seminar yesterday at the University of California that coronary heart disease appears to be an affliction of affluence.

He said man has not been able to adapt to the metabolic changes resulting from a sugar-rich diet. Experiments show, Yudkin said, humans on a diet of high refined sugar consumption increase by a third the level of insulin in the blood.

Other specialists at the conference called Yudkin's theory "extremely controversial."

While diet probably plays a major part in developing heart disease, they said, so do cigarette smoking, obesity, stress and heredity. They believe the only diet factor scientifically established as being of importance is the consumption of saturated fats and cholesterol.

Profits Sent To Washington

The profitw of two Marin bake sales, $266, have been sent to the National Park Service to be used for acquisition of more land for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

The sales were held in April and May by a group headed by two girls from San Rafael High School, Tami Patterson of Inverness and Newtza Cornelius of San Rafael.

Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, reported yesterday the check was sent to Rep. Roy A. Taylor, D—N. C., chairman of a subcommittee on National Parks and Recreation of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs.

The subcommittee thanked the group for its donation and forwarded it to the National Park Service.

Bussing Costs Hiked 5 Cents

OAKLAND (UPI) — Crossing the bridge from Oakland and the East Bay to San Francisco will cost a nickel more for Alameda-Contra Costa bus riders effective July 1.

The transit district's board of directors voted last night to raise the transbay bus ride fare to 55 cents.

Local fares will remain at 25 cents, but tokens and ticket books will go to four for $1 instead of the current five for $1.

Election In Offing In Annexation Fuss

Corte Madera town councilmen at a public hearing last night listened to Paradise Drive residents object to annexation to the Corte Madera Sanitary District, then made it plain that an election was certainly in the offing for one group of them and very likely for another.

Sitting as the sanitary district board, the councilmen were weighing two annexations: one involving 49 property owners in the unincorporated Ranch Road area between Paradise Keys and Corte Madera town limits lying between Paradise drive and the bay; the other, involving 66 property owners uphill from Paradise Drive and within Tiburon city limits.

Annexation of the first group to the sanitary district having been made conditional on annexation to the City of Tiburon by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission, the district took that matter under submission after advising the property owners that an election would take place when and if they became part of Tiburon.

The second group was advised that an election on its annexation to the sanitary district would be called for at the district board's meeting July 7, at which time Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis is to report on whether the matter shall be put to voters now in the district as well as to the annexation-area voters.

Property owners' objections were based on claims that existing septic tanks were adequate, that cost estimates of sewering were too vague and that the expense would probably prove to be a crushing burden.

Maurice Scott of the Marin County Health Department told the residents that "sewage is running all over the place up there." He said that however adequate some septic tanks may be, there are at any given time several tanks failing. He called the situation a health hazard and cited a recent outbreak of hepatitis in Tomales, which he said was due to septic tank failure.

Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher, citing "very preliminary estimates" by the consulting firm of Brown and Caldwell, told the residents that the cost of sewering, varying somethat from property to property, might range from $3,500 in the unincorporated area to around $2,100 in the Tiburon section. There would also be annexation fees of about $250 and a $156 connecting fee, he said. Payment would be over a 15-year bonding period, he said.

Protests in the unincorporated area came from 12 of 49 owners, or 14 of 56 registered voters, with land valued at $32,996 out of a total assessed valuation of $174,812.

In the Tiburon area, there were 13 protesters among 66 property owners, or 18 of 72 registered voters, with land worth $53,159 out of a total of $264,476.

The protests amounting to 25 per cent or more of the voters prevented the sanitation district ordering the annexations without a vote.

Drugs Dealer Gets Probation

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court has placed a Fairfax man who pleaded guilty for the second time to drug sales on three year probation, noting he had already served 18 months in prison.

Oren Reginald Williams Jr., who had been described as a "big wheel trafficker in heavy drugs," had been granted a new trial by an appellate court which ruled that his earlier guilty plea had been coerced.

Before the second trial began this week, Williams admitted selling marijuana and amphetamine. Two additional counts of each offense were dismissed.

Vandals Hit Novato High School

Three 17-year-old youths were arrested last night shortly after Novato High School was entered and windows were smashed, fires set and a quantity of class pins stolen, police said.

Cited to juvenile authorities on suspicion of burglary and arson were Jeffry Wilson of 757 Diablo Avenue, Gary Radvany of 5 Shon Court and Richard Kenney of 15 Kristy Court, all Novato. They were released to their parents custody.

Officer Albert F. Anderson stopped the three at 2 a.m. after their car ran a red light at Highway 101 and Diablo Avenue. He said he found a large quantity of Novato High School class pins in the car.

A search of the school showed that 16 plate glass windows valued at more than $1,000 had been broken with beer bottles. The door to the associated student body room was broken and contents of files set afire inside cabinets and outside the administration building. Also set ablaze were papers on the bulletin board. All the fires went out, police said.

A spray can of black paint was used to paint obscenities on the school walls, police reported.

Golf Cart Stolen

The theft of a nelectric cart from the Indian Valley Golf Club was reported Sunday to the sheriff's department, officers said today.

Luggage Firm Billboards Doomed Along Highway 101

Two Corte Madera landmarks — the billboards of H. Koch and Sons, which dominate the Highway 101 approach to the town — were given their lumps last night by the Corte Madera Town Council, and their days appear numbered.

Stephen Dedina, attorney for the luggage manufacturing firm, argued to no avail that the billboards were needed, because smaller signs would cause drivers seeking the plant to slow down, thus endangering others on the freeway.

Equally unsuccessful was the argument that the town planning commission should not have made removal of the billboards a condition of approval of plans for a 72,000-square foot expansion of the plant.

Councilman Holmes B. Norville noted that billboards are illegal im Corte Madera, that these had been standing too long as it was, and that the power of the planning commission to impose conditions was often the most economical tool the town had to secure compliance.

Other councilmen agreed, but deferred action till their next meeting, July 7. They indicated they might then allow the billboards to remain a specified time after the council either adopts or rejects a revised sign ordinance currently being developed.

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

FIFER PUMP STATION — Acting as the Corte Madera Sanitary District board, accepted grant deeds and easements permitting the district to maintain and operate facilities serving Redwood High School and Fifer Industrial Park.

RETIREMENT FUND — Approved payment by the sanitary district of a lump sum of $18,867 into the city's retirement fund to bring four district employees into the city's fund, they having become city employees with the takeover of the district by the town.

SALARIES — Adopted a resolution setting sanitary district employees' pay as previously approved in budget sessions.

ZONING HEARING — Set for 7:30 p.m. July 7, a public hearing on an amendment to the zoning ordinance pertaining to conditional uses in residential districts.

BICYCLES — Referred recommendations of the town parks and recreation commission on bicycle paths to the town planning commission.

CELEBRATION — Accepted a report from the town police department that additional help might be needed in connection with Independence Day celebrations and agreed to spend up to $200 for such help.

TAMALPAIS DRIVE — Discussed briefly the esthetics of planting on the center strip of Tamalpais Drive, currently being improved, and indicated a preference for whatever would least interfere with views of Mount Tamalpais.

SOLICITORS ORDINANCE — Adopted an ordinance establishing permit procedures for transient vendors and setting forth circumstances under which door-to-door selling would be a nuisance.

BUSINESS FEES — Introduced an ordinance establishing a base $45 business license fee, plus $6 per employee in excess of five, and carrying a 5 per cent cost-of-living excalation clause.

CONSULTANT — Approved the Marin County Board of Supervisors selection of the firm of Stone and Youngsberg as financial consultants to the Corte Madera branch library.

PERSONNEL — Approved a three-year contract with Cooperative Personnel Services, a state agency, for conducting tests of town personnel and applicants for town jobs at a base cost of $35 per test.

SALARIES — Adopted an ordinance to permit a $30,000 blanket bond for town employees and $75,000 for town treasurer; to permit reimbursement of town officials and councilmen for meals taken within Marin while on official business; to pay time-and-a-half overtime to public works department employees.

MEETING — Appointed Councilman Byron D. White to represent the council at a meeting of the Marin County Housing Authority at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at San Rafael City Hall when the county's leased housing program will be discussed.

Red Expert To Teach Course

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (UPI) Herbert Aptheker, a leading Communist Party theoretician, will teach a course in Afro-American history at Bryn Mawr College in September.

Aptheker, as a visiting lecturer in the history department, will cover events from the 15th Century to the present, stressing the "intertwining of this history with the United States and world history."

The college catalogue said the course will concentrate on the "experiences, concepts, organizations and struggles of the black people in the United States."

SOUTHERN SONOMA

No fire calls.

Housing Plans To Be Aired

Proposed expansion of Marin low-rent and leased housing programs will be considered by the Marin County Housing Authority when it meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael City Council chamber.

The housing authority will consider resolutions authorizing an application for a 400-unit assistance program instead of the present 200, and to allow leasing 20 per cent instead of the present 10 per cent of units in apartment buildings or in a neighborhood.

The authority also will hear a report on the county fire department in Marin City.

San Francisco Opposes Bay Bills

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Board of Supervisors yesterday voted 10-1 to oppose two bills, one would grant the Bay Conservation and Development Commission extensive controls over shoreline property, and one that would allow the Association of Bay Area Governments to appoint directors of a strong regional government agency.

Because the proposal doesn't call for direct election of office holders by the public, Suprevisor James Mailliard said, "Its decisions could have disastrous effects on San Francisco."

Twenty Years Of Historical Digging Lead To Marin Book

By ANNE BARDWELL

A need for reference points and just plain curiosity led Tiburon's Louise Teather into a life of historical research.

The latest result of Mrs. Teather's quest for knowledge of past times is a new book, "Island of Six Names," the history of Belvedere Island from 1834 to 1890. Available through the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the book profits will go to the society.

THE BOOK, which Mrs. Teather insists on calling a booklet — not because of its content but rather because of its 48 pages and soft cover — particularly focuses on Israel Kashow, an early Belvedere settler who had the entire island at his disposal from 1855 until 1885 when John Reed's heirs finally reclaimed it.

The story told in "Island of Six Names" is based on two years of research, much of it original, by Mrs. Teather in such dusty places as old newspaper files at the San Francisco Library, the Bancroft Library at the University of California at Berkeley, and the Marin County Recorder's office.

"I've always had a difficult time remembering dates," Mrs. Teather says. "I suppose that is one of the things that whetted my interest in research . . to learn it for myself and be able to tell the story to others."

MRS. TEATHER believes everyone looks for reference points, thing that connect what they are doing or where they are living, for example, with past events. The retelling of history, particularly if the story recounts some little known fact or unusual anecdote, provides these reference points — and a great deal of satisfaction to Mrs. Teather.

A modest person, she is not used to the sometimes attendant glories of authorship, such as autograph parties, even though she has published many articles and booklets, in her 20 year career in journalism.

Born in Kentucky, Mrs. Teather worked for several years as women's page editor on a paper in Toledo, Ohio. After the paper folded, she came west and settled into public relations work in San Francisco where she met her husband, David H. Teather, a contractor who is also a Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commissioner. They have one son, Jeff, who attends Sonoma State College.

She also has edited a San Francisco wine magazine, written free lance articles for various newspapers and magazines and served as the Tiburon Peninsula correspondent for the Independent-Journal from 1952 to 1957.

IN 1949 she started her search into the little known history of Southern Marin, particularly the Tiburon Peninsula. In the course of her studies she has pieced together and published the history of the Tiburon Oceanographic Center, the Northwestern Pacif-c Railroad in Tiburon, Main Street, Old St. Hilary's Church and, of course, Belvedere.

In her home on Paradise Drive overlooking Angel Island, Belvedere, Tiburon, the bay and San Francisco, Mrs. Teather keeps files containing miscellaneous bits of information on any number of other subjects she thinks someday might be of interest.

She is generous with her research, always willing to share her knowledge with others searching for some obscure fact for a project or just for curiosity's sake.

Her story of Belvedere came out of such a collaboration. In 1966, Mrs. Teather and others, particularly Suzanna Dakin, concerned that the only history of the Tiburon Peninsula, "Shark Point, High Point," written by the 1954-58 students at Reed School, was out of print with its type destroyed, agreed to collaborate on a new history of the area.

EACH OF THE participants was to concentrate on one aspect of history and Mrs. Teather was assigned early settlers. The project was delayed when Mrs. Dakin was killed in an airplane crash in December, 1966, but Mrs. Teather continued with her research, became fascinated with Israel Kashow and ended up with her new "booklet."

She has no specific plans for future historical projects. Rather, "I'll just wait and see what I start being curious about next." And, whatever it is, those also interested in Marin's history know that it will eventually produce a fascinating story.

DIGGING THROUGH the dusty files of old newspapers, records and early day maps, Mrs. David H. Teather has written a history of Belvedere Island titled "Island of Six Names." Available through the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the book profits will go to the society.

French First Lady One Of Paris Chic

By RODNEY ANGOVE

PARIS (AP) — France's new first lady is a willowy blonde of aristocratic tastes who looks at least 10 years younger than her age, 57. And is regarded as one of the best-dressed women in Paris.

Claude Pompidou, the wife of newly elected President Georges Pompidou, is expected to bring a big change to the austere Elysee Palace.

The stiff, formal dinner parties given by President Charles de Gaulle and his wife Yvonne are likely to give way to a more relaxed atmosphere. Young artists and intellectuals are among Claude Pompidou's close friends and undoubtedly will become frequent guests.

THE CHANGE is expected to be similar to that in the White House in 1961, when Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower were replaced by John and Jacqueline Kennedy. Pompidou gave some indication of this when he told a recent interviewer: "We do not believe in too much protocol. We'll let other people worry about that."

Claude married Georges in 1935 while he was a schoolteacher in Marseille.

Always considered a strong-willed and ambitious woman, she is credited by friends as one of the driving forces behind her husband's rapid rise to prominence.

Claude was born in Chateau Contier, a small country town in western France. Her father, Dr. Pierre Cahour, was general practitioner there, an outwardly irascible man with a heart of gold who habitually refused all payment from his poorer patients.

DR. CAHOUR was an agnostic and free-thinker who raised Claude and her younger sister Jacqueline with an iron hand. Their mother died in the catastrophic influenza epidemic of 1919, when the girls were not yet in their teens.

Dr. Cahour sent them to Paris University, arguing that since he was too poor to provide them with a dowry they could at least study to earn their own living— a rare attitude in rural France before World War II.

One of Claude's fellow students was a brilliant young African from Senegal, then a French colony. The friend, Leopold Sedar Senghor became his country's first president when it achieved independence in 1958.

Claude and Senghor were constant companions for a while and their colleagues assumed they intended to marry. But Senghor had another friend, Georges Pompidou.

ONE SUNDAY he invited Pompidou for a country outing with the two sisters. Jacqueline was Georges' blind date, but it was with Claude that he fell in love.

Senghor has remained one of their closest friends. Sometimes they jokingly recall that Claude might have become first lady of Senegal in 1958.

It took Pompidou four years

Boning Up On Parliamentary Rules For Smoother Meetings Come Fall

By BETTY FROST

In Britain's Parliament in the 13th Century a member pleaded, "My lord, I move you to consider." Another member added, "I, too, move you to consider."

Thus, according to the legend, related by Price Hall of El Verano, Sonoma County, to his class on "Organization and Procedure in Public Meetings," began the tradition of the motion and the second to the motion used in orderly meetings.

FOURTEEN MEN and women are attending the sessions, given as a public service by Hall, in the conference room of the Tiburon Branch of the Franciscan Savings and Loan Co., of which Hall is manager.

They meet from 10 to 11 a.m. Monday mornings and represent a variety of organizations including the League of Women Voters, State Employees Association, the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the Baptist Theological Seminary, the Toastmistress Club, a professional women's group and the Sausalito Woman's Club.

At the last session, the third in the current series, officers for a non-existent organization, the "Beach Road Regulars," were elected. In the workshop those attending learned to nominate, second the nomination, establish voting rules and function in the various offices.

From a very tentative beginning, with the students shyly standing by, waiting for their neighbors to make the first move, the session wound up in lively participation, with interested questions to the instructor about procedures.

PURPOSES FOR the course, Hall said, are to explain the reasons for and use of rules of order, duties of officers and organizational procedures.

"I also think it would be helpful to untangle the web of confusion enmeshing the many ramifications and translations of Robert's Rules of Order which leave many excellent ideas unexpressed at public and organization meetings," he said.

The instructor brings to his class past experience as Toastmaster president, Optimist

MRS. BARNEY NORWITT

Mrs. Barney Norwitt Tops Easter Seal Unit

The Marin Easter Seal Auxiliary will begin its fourth year of operation with Mrs. Barney Norwitt of Tiburon as president. A charter member, she has contributed much to the success of the comparatively new organization, having served as vice president, treasurer and fund-raising chairman.

A Marin resident for 13 years, Mrs. Norwitt is also second vice president of the Mannequin League of Marin. Tennis, painting, collecting antiques and gourmet cooking are among the many interests of Barbara Norwitt.

Her husband is active in land development in Marin and in the automotive business in San Francisco. One son, 16-year-old Bruce, attends Redwood High School.

Barbara is already making plans for the year's fund-raising events. There will be a beauty booth at the Fairfax Fair on Sept. 20 and 21, and a "Day at the Races" in March.

The Marin Easter Seal Auxiliary, with 24 members, has in three years contributed almost $2,000 to the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Marin. The money has been used for speech therapy scholarships, camperships and the purchase of equipment for the speech and language department of the Easter Seal Society.

Other officers elected are Mmes. Ronald Fein, vice president; Stephen Spelman, secretary; Martin Vermuellen, treasurer; Esther Wagner, corresponding secretary, and Emmett Stevenson, historian.

Weight Control Classes Planned In North Marin

A summer weight control class has been scheduled by the Marin County Heart Association for homemakers of Northern Marin.

The Grace Lutheran Church in Novato will be setting for the weight classes during the eight-week course, starting June 26 and continuing on Thursday mornings from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Instruction will focus on food preparation around the whole meal pattern, and learning to adapt recipes for appealing meals while holding to low calorie count.

The 1200-calorie base used in the weight control series instructed by Mrs. Pamela Gilroy, dietitian, requires written physician approval.

Classes are open to both men and women. Class members will weigh in and chart progress throughout the eight-week course. Anticipated weight loss is 1½ pounds per week.

Advance registrations can be made with the Marin County Heart Association in San Rafael, or upon class opening.

NORWEGIAN FILM starlet Wencke Myhre is learning to fly an airplane so it will be easier for her to keep her worldwide appointments. She is training at Hamburg airport and is among a large group of women working for pilot licenses in West Germany. The female pilots are criticizing domination of flying by men and demand that women be allowed to participate in the 1970 European championships.

Equality Is Sought In Skies

HAMBURG, Germany (GF) — West Germany's organized lady pilots are demanding equality in the skies. At the first annual meeting of their German Association for Women Pilots 35 of the country's 280 females with pilot licenses sternly criticized domination of flying by men.

The women recalled their sex is allowed to participate in only one major competitive rally in all Europe — an annual event held in Hanover which receives second-rate attention.

Headed by two German lady pilot world record holders Hanna Reitsch, 57, and Elly Beinhorn, 61, the group demanded women be allowed to take part in the 1970 European championships.

Meanwhile, the ranks of women working for their pilot licenses in the country is increasing—and even foreign girls are among them. One of the latest is Norwegian film starlet Wencke Myhre, who'd like to learn to fly in order to facilitate keeping her worldwide appointments.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Why Should Girls Continue To Write Unanswered Letters?

DEAR HELEN:

I read about all the "Dear John" letters fellows in Veitnam are getting. But how about the Janes who write faithfully and never receive an answer?

I had a crush on this guy four years ago but never got to know him because he was married. Then we met accidentally, and I heard he was divorced. We dated until he went overseas, He asked me to write.

I've sent him about 25 letters, cookies, candy, cakes, a ring, puzzles and a color picture of me, which he asked for in one of the three letters he wrote to me. He hardly ever writes to his family — maybe once every four months — so I guess I am selfish to complain, but don't you think he should at least thank me for the gifts or let me know he got them? I haven't heard from him now in over eight months. His last letter said if I really care for him as I say, maybe we could work something out.

Now I hear that he has extended his stay in Vietnam for six more months. He's 24, I'm 22 and very much in love. Should I keep hoping — and writing?—T.Y.

DEAR T:

No. This man is either inconsiderate or disinterested, and either way, he's a poor risk. I'll bet his ex-wife agrees with me.

Why not, instead, write to someone who will appreciate you? See below. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Our company over here in 'Nam receives very little mail. It would sure boost our morale if some of your readers would write to us. We'd like to know we aren't forgotten. Some of us don't have too many people at home, and I guess you know how bad mail call can be, when you aren't called.

Would you please ask people to write:

TO THE TIGERS,
Company C, 3d Battalion
21st Infantry
196th Infantry Brigade
American Division
APO San Francisco, Calif., 96256

Letters will be distributed to all the men in our company, and we promise to answer them. Thank you. — R. W. S.

DEAR READERS:

Okay girls, start writing. The Tigers need your support. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I used to have a great boy friend. He was honest, kind, generous and just plain good. But my Mom didn't like him.

Anyway, he came over one day, and Mom told him I was pregnant. He never spoke to me again. How can I prove my innocence when my own mother lies about me? You might say "Time will," but not these days. She mentioned abortion too. — LIED ABOUT

DEAR L. A.:

I can't believe any mother would be so low. Before I make a judgment I'd like to hear her side of the story. Surely there's something you've left out. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I was amused by the girl who made a Voodoo doll in the image of her girl friend, stuck pins in it and broke out in measles. What she did was nonsense, but when properly employed, by a skilled practitioner, the power of Voodoo is not to be scoffed at. A victim of Voodoo wanga gets acute psychological grilling, intensified by his belief in magic and the many death warnings he receives — usually dead birds or animals. The pressure mounts until he actually wills himself to die. This girl should leaf through William Seabrook's "Magic Island" (about Haiti) and she will find that it takes much more than she thinks to practice the art of Great Spirit. — A MEMBER OF THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

McCall-Goecker Vows Said In Marin Church

Ens. and Mrs. Stephen McCall Lind (Terry Ann Goecker) are on a wedding trip driving through Canada and the eastern United States to their first home in Pensacola, Fla. The couple were wed Saturday at Holy Innocents Episcopal Church in Corte Madera.

Laura Louis Goecker was her sister's maid of honor. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Clark Goecker of Berkeley; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John Lanham of Kirkland, Wash,; and Karen Cichy of Larkspur were bridesmaids.

Thomas Leach of Olympia, Wash., was best man, and Donald Sampson of Salem, Ore., Lt. John Lanham and Clark Goecker ushered guests to their seats.

A reception at the Elks Club in San Rafael followed the ceremony.

Terry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Goecker of Greenbrae. She was graduated from Redwood High School and College of Marin. Her grandparents are Mrs. Gustav Barth of Walnut Creek, Louis A. Pacheco of San Anselmo and Jess A. Prince of Burlingame.

The bridegroom's parents are Capt. and Mrs. Irving L. Lind of Olympia, Wash. He is a graduate of San Rafael Military Academy and the U. S. Naval Academy and has been assigned to flight training in Pensacola.

League Elects New President

Travel, cooking, bridge, swimming and tennis are what the new president of the Family Service League enjoys most. She is Mrs. Robert Verner Dermott of San Rafael, a five-year member of the league, which is an auxiliary to the Family Service Agency.

Nancy Dermott has served as the league's membership, hospitality and Christmas card chairman and has also been chairman of the Marin A.M. Series, a morning program of speakers. The series will begin its second year in the fall. Speakers next year will include Winston S. Churchill, Betty Furness and Philip Burton. Memberships in the 1969-70 A.M. Series for the six programs are now being sold, she says.

The league also operates a thirft shop in Mill Valley.

The new president is active in the Parent-Teacher Association, Women's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society and the Children's Hospital Auxiliary. She and her husband, a physician, have lived in Marin 10 years. They have a daughter, Corrine Ann, 9, and a son, Jeffrey Michael, 6 years old.

Nancy Dermott also enjoys sewing and gardening — and golf, when she gets the chance.

Gilardi-French Nuptials Planned At Mission San Luis Rey Aug. 30

Mrs. Richard Lockhart French of Fallbrook has announced the engagement of her daughter Cindy to Dennis Andrew Gilardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Noah Gilardi of Larkspur.

Cindy is the daughter of the late Richard L. French and sister of Mrs. Robert Burton and Shelly and Richard French Jr., all of Fallbrook, and Mrs. Thomas Cole of Piedmont. Mrs. Shelton French of San Francisco is her grandmother.

Dennis is the brother of Richard Gilardi of San Rafael, Stephen Gilardi Jr., with the Army in Germany, and Joan Gilardi of Larkspur.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Redwood High School. She attended Palomar College in San Marcos and Bay Cities College in San Francisco. Marin Catholic High School, College of Marin and St. Mary's College are the future bridegroom's schools. He will enter Santa Clara University School of Business in the fall to study for a master's degree.

The couple plan an Aug. 30 wedding at Mission San Luis Rey.

Judith Cox Bride Of William Kelley

At home in San Francisco following their June 7 marriage and a wedding trip to the Grand Tetons in Wyoming are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kelley Jr. (Judith Ann Cox). The wedding was performed at St. Paulus Lutheran Church in San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Cox of Novato, and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. William T. Kelley of San Rafael.

Pat Brugman of San Francisco was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sisters, Sue Kelley of Berkeley and Pat Kelley of San Jose, and Suzanne Montali of San Francisco were bridesmaids.

Peter Wall of Manhattan Beach was best man, and Tom Wule of San Francisco, Bill Jensen of San Ramon and Jack Rainey of San Rafael ushered.

A reception at the Officers Club at Ft. Mason in San Francisco followed the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from high school in South Plainfield, N. J., and Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N. J. She is employed by McKinsey and Company Inc. in San Francisco. E. Randolph Cox of Novato is her brother.

A graduate of Ventura High School and San Jose State College, the bridegroom is employed by Dean Witter and Company in San Francisco. Steve Kelley of San Rafael is his brother and Sue, Pat and Debbie Kelley are his sisters.

to overcome the resistance of the choleric Dr. Cahour, who felt the young student-teacher did not have a sufficiently promising career to marry his pretty daugher. When Dr. Cahour died in 1962, his son-in-law had become prime minister of France.

The Pompidous have one son, Alain, who is studying medicine.

As Pompidou's career skyrocketed, Claude took to the social whirl of Paris with gusto. At one time, the Pompidou's were prominent figures in Paris night life and the summer jet set at St. Tropez. But soon after Pompidou became prime minister in 1962, the couple disappeared from their jet set haunts.

Election In Offing In Annexation Fuss

Corte Madera town councilmen at a public hearing last night listened to Paradise Drive residents object to annexation to the Corte Madera Sanitary District, then made it plain that an election was certainly in the offing for one group of them and very likely for another.

Sitting as the sanitary district board, the councilmen were weighing two annexations: one involving 49 property owners in the unincorporated Ranch Road area between Paradise Keys and Corte Madera town limits lying between Paradise drive and the bay; the other, involving 66 property owners uphill from Paradise Drive and within Tiburon city limits.

Annexation of the first group to the sanitary district having been made conditional on annexation to the City of Tiburon by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission, the district took that matter under submission after advising the property owners that an election would take place when and if they became part of Tiburon.

The second group was advised that an election on its annexation to the sanitary district would be called for at the district board's meeting July 7, at which time Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis is to report on whether the matter shall be put to voters now in the district as well as to the annexation-area voters.

Property owners' objections were based on claims that existing septic tanks were adequate, that cost estimates of sewering were too vague and that the expense would probably prove to be a crushing burden.

Maurice Scott of the Marin County Health Department told the residents that "sewage is running all over the place up there." He said that however adequate some septic tanks may be, there are at any given time several tanks failing. He called the situation a health hazard and cited a recent outbreak of hepatitis in Tomales, which he said was due to septic tank failure.

Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher, citing "very preliminary estimates" by the consulting firm of Brown and Caldwell, told the residents that the cost of sewering, varying somethat from property to property, might range from $3,500 in the unincorporated area to around $2,100 in the Tiburon section. There would also be annexation fees of about $250 and a $156 connecting fee, he said. Payment would be over a 15-year bonding period, he said.

Protests in the unincorporated area came from 12 of 49 owners, or 14 of 56 registered voters, with land valued at $32,996 out of a total assessed valuation of $174,812.

In the Tiburon area, there were 13 protesters among 66 property owners, or 18 of 72 registered voters, with land worth $53,159 out of a total of $264,476.

The protests amounting to 25 per cent or more of the voters prevented the sanitation district ordering the annexations without a vote.

Drugs Dealer Gets Probation

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court has placed a Fairfax man who pleaded guilty for the second time to drug sales on three year probation, noting he had already served 18 months in prison.

Oren Reginald Williams Jr., who had been described as a "big wheel trafficker in heavy drugs," had been granted a new trial by an appellate court which ruled that his earlier guilty plea had been coerced.

Before the second trial began this week, Williams admitted selling marijuana and amphetamine. Two additional counts of each offense were dismissed.

Vandals Hit Novato High School

Three 17-year-old youths were arrested last night shortly after Novato High School was entered and windows were smashed, fires set and a quantity of class pins stolen, police said.

Cited to juvenile authorities on suspicion of burglary and arson were Jeffry Wilson of 757 Diablo Avenue, Gary Radvany of 5 Shon Court and Richard Kenney of 15 Kristy Court, all Novato. They were released to their parents custody.

Officer Albert F. Anderson stopped the three at 2 a.m. after their car ran a red light at Highway 101 and Diablo Avenue. He said he found a large quantity of Novato High School class pins in the car.

A search of the school showed that 16 plate glass windows valued at more than $1,000 had been broken with beer bottles. The door to the associated student body room was broken and contents of files set afire inside cabinets and outside the administration building. Also set ablaze were papers on the bulletin board. All the fires went out, police said.

A spray can of black paint was used to paint obscenities on the school walls, police reported.

Golf Cart Stolen

The theft of a nelectric cart from the Indian Valley Golf Club was reported Sunday to the sheriff's department, officers said today.

Luggage Firm Billboards Doomed Along Highway 101

Two Corte Madera landmarks — the billboards of H. Koch and Sons, which dominate the Highway 101 approach to the town — were given their lumps last night by the Corte Madera Town Council, and their days appear numbered.

Stephen Dedina, attorney for the luggage manufacturing firm, argued to no avail that the billboards were needed, because smaller signs would cause drivers seeking the plant to slow down, thus endangering others on the freeway.

Equally unsuccessful was the argument that the town planning commission should not have made removal of the billboards a condition of approval of plans for a 72,000-square foot expansion of the plant.

Councilman Holmes B. Norville noted that billboards are illegal im Corte Madera, that these had been standing too long as it was, and that the power of the planning commission to impose conditions was often the most economical tool the town had to secure compliance.

Other councilmen agreed, but deferred action till their next meeting, July 7. They indicated they might then allow the billboards to remain a specified time after the council either adopts or rejects a revised sign ordinance currently being developed.

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

FIFER PUMP STATION — Acting as the Corte Madera Sanitary District board, accepted grant deeds and easements permitting the district to maintain and operate facilities serving Redwood High School and Fifer Industrial Park.

RETIREMENT FUND — Approved payment by the sanitary district of a lump sum of $18,867 into the city's retirement fund to bring four district employees into the city's fund, they having become city employees with the takeover of the district by the town.

SALARIES — Adopted a resolution setting sanitary district employees' pay as previously approved in budget sessions.

ZONING HEARING — Set for 7:30 p.m. July 7, a public hearing on an amendment to the zoning ordinance pertaining to conditional uses in residential districts.

BICYCLES — Referred recommendations of the town parks and recreation commission on bicycle paths to the town planning commission.

CELEBRATION — Accepted a report from the town police department that additional help might be needed in connection with Independence Day celebrations and agreed to spend up to $200 for such help.

TAMALPAIS DRIVE — Discussed briefly the esthetics of planting on the center strip of Tamalpais Drive, currently being improved, and indicated a preference for whatever would least interfere with views of Mount Tamalpais.

SOLICITORS ORDINANCE — Adopted an ordinance establishing permit procedures for transient vendors and setting forth circumstances under which door-to-door selling would be a nuisance.

BUSINESS FEES — Introduced an ordinance establishing a base $45 business license fee, plus $6 per employee in excess of five, and carrying a 5 per cent cost-of-living excalation clause.

CONSULTANT — Approved the Marin County Board of Supervisors selection of the firm of Stone and Youngsberg as financial consultants to the Corte Madera branch library.

PERSONNEL — Approved a three-year contract with Cooperative Personnel Services, a state agency, for conducting tests of town personnel and applicants for town jobs at a base cost of $35 per test.

SALARIES — Adopted an ordinance to permit a $30,000 blanket bond for town employees and $75,000 for town treasurer; to permit reimbursement of town officials and councilmen for meals taken within Marin while on official business; to pay time-and-a-half overtime to public works department employees.

MEETING — Appointed Councilman Byron D. White to represent the council at a meeting of the Marin County Housing Authority at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at San Rafael City Hall when the county's leased housing program will be discussed.

Red Expert To Teach Course

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (UPI) Herbert Aptheker, a leading Communist Party theoretician, will teach a course in Afro-American history at Bryn Mawr College in September.

Aptheker, as a visiting lecturer in the history department, will cover events from the 15th Century to the present, stressing the "intertwining of this history with the United States and world history."

The college catalogue said the course will concentrate on the "experiences, concepts, organizations and struggles of the black people in the United States."

SOUTHERN SONOMA

No fire calls.

Housing Plans To Be Aired

Proposed expansion of Marin low-rent and leased housing programs will be considered by the Marin County Housing Authority when it meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael City Council chamber.

The housing authority will consider resolutions authorizing an application for a 400-unit assistance program instead of the present 200, and to allow leasing 20 per cent instead of the present 10 per cent of units in apartment buildings or in a neighborhood.

The authority also will hear a report on the county fire department in Marin City.

San Francisco Opposes Bay Bills

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Board of Supervisors yesterday voted 10-1 to oppose two bills, one would grant the Bay Conservation and Development Commission extensive controls over shoreline property, and one that would allow the Association of Bay Area Governments to appoint directors of a strong regional government agency.

Because the proposal doesn't call for direct election of office holders by the public, Supervisor James Mailliard said, "Its decisions could have disastrous effects on San Francisco."

Graduates Of Tomales Are Married

Church of the Assumption in Tomales was the setting June 7 for the marriage of Cheryl A. Crawford and William A. Crayne.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Crawford of Lagunitas, and the bridegroom is the son of the Donald Craynes of Tomales.

Denise Williams of Petaluma was maid of honor, and the bridegroom's brother, Richard Crayne of Tomales, was best man.

A reception in Occidental followed the ceremony.

Cheryl and William are both graduates of Tomales High School. She attended College of Marin, and he was enrolled at Santa Rosa Junior College before joining the Navy.

Darryl L. and Carryl A. Crawford are the bride's brother and sister.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the couple will live in Davisville, R.I., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Navy Sea Bees.

Parliamentary Classes

Club lieutenant governor for a four-county district, county and state committeeman of major political parties and extensive convention participation.

The group will consider parliamentary protocol for meetings ranging in size from small board meetings to national conventions.

"AFTER MORE than 30 years of experience in political meetings, I have noted the importance of procedures and the interchange of respect where meetings are conducted by the rule," Hall said. "The lack of discipline in the 'hey, how about' approach also means less interest than when a motion is made by a member which immediately involves everyone attending."

With the number of women's organizations holding regular meetings in Marin County, it is not surprising that in this first course in parliamentary procedure ever given in Tiburon there are 11 women attending with three men enrolled.

A second course in September will be considered, Hall indicated, if the response warrants it. There is no fee for the series.

Twenty Years Of Historical Digging Lead To Marin Book

By ANNE BARDWELL

A need for reference points and just plain curiosity led Tiburon's Louise Teather into a life of historical research.

The latest result of Mrs. Teather's quest for knowledge of past times is a new book, "Island of Six Names," the history of Belvedere Island from 1834 to 1890. Available through the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the book profits will go to the society.

THE BOOK, which Mrs. Teather insists on calling a booklet — not because of its content but rather because of its 48 pages and soft cover — particularly focuses on Israel Kashow, an early Belvedere settler who had the entire island at his disposal from 1855 until 1885 when John Reed's heirs finally reclaimed it.

The story told in "Island of Six Names" is based on two years of research, much of it original, by Mrs. Teather in such dusty places as old newspaper files at the San Francisco Library, the Bancroft Library at the University of California at Berkeley, and the Marin County Recorder's office.

"I've always had a difficult time remembering dates," Mrs. Teather says. "I suppose that is one of the things that whetted my interest in research . . to learn it for myself and be able to tell the story to others."

MRS. TEATHER believes everyone looks for reference points, thing that connect what they are doing or where they are living, for example, with past events. The retelling of history, particularly if the story recounts some little known fact or unusual anecdote, provides these reference points — and a great deal of satisfaction to Mrs. Teather.

A modest person, she is not used to the sometimes attendant glories of authorship, such as autograph parties, even though she has published many articles and booklets, in her 20 year career in journalism.

Born in Kentucky, Mrs. Teather worked for several years as women's page editor on a paper in Toledo, Ohio. After the paper folded, she came west and settled into public relations work in San Francisco where she met her husband, David H. Teather, a contractor who is also a Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commissioner. They have one son, Jeff, who attends Sonoma State College.

She also has edited a San Francisco wine magazine, written free lance articles for various newspapers and magazines and served as the Tiburon Peninsula correspondent for the Independent-Journal from 1952 to 1957.

IN 1949 she started her search into the little known history of Southern Marin, particularly the Tiburon Peninsula. In the course of her studies she has pieced together and published the history of the Tiburon Oceanographic Center, the Northwestern Pacif-c Railroad in Tiburon, Main Street, Old St. Hilary's Church and, of course, Belvedere.

In her home on Paradise Drive overlooking Angel Island, Belvedere, Tiburon, the bay and San Francisco, Mrs. Teather keeps files containing miscellaneous bits of information on any number of other subjects she thinks someday might be of interest.

She is generous with her research, always willing to share her knowledge with others searching for some obscure fact for a project or just for curiosity's sake.

Her story of Belvedere came out of such a collaboration. In 1966, Mrs. Teather and others, particularly Suzanna Dakin, concerned that the only history of the Tiburon Peninsula, "Shark Point, High Point," written by the 1954-58 students at Reed School, was out of print with its type destroyed, agreed to collaborate on a new history of the area.

EACH OF THE participants was to concentrate on one aspect of history and Mrs. Teather was assigned early settlers. The project was delayed when Mrs. Dakin was killed in an airplane crash in December, 1966, but Mrs. Teather continued with her research, became fascinated with Israel Kashow and ended up with her new "booklet."

She has no specific plans for future historical projects. Rather, "I'll just wait and see what I start being curious about next." And, whatever it is, those also interested in Marin's history know that it will eventually produce a fascinating story.

DIGGING THROUGH the dusty files of old newspapers, records and early day maps, Mrs. David H. Teather has written a history of Belvedere Island titled "Island of Six Names." Available through the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the book profits will go to the society.

French First Lady One Of Paris Chic

By RODNEY ANGOVE

PARIS (AP) — France's new first lady is a willowy blonde of aristocratic tastes who looks at least 10 years younger than her age, 57. And is regarded as one of the best-dressed women in Paris.

Claude Pompidou, the wife of newly elected President Georges Pompidou, is expected to bring a big change to the austere Elysee Palace.

The stiff, formal dinner parties given by President Charles de Gaulle and his wife Yvonne are likely to give way to a more relaxed atmosphere. Young artists and intellectuals are among Claude Pompidou's close friends and undoubtedly will become frequent guests.

THE CHANGE is expected to be similar to that in the White House in 1961, when Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower were replaced by John and Jacqueline Kennedy. Pompidou gave some indication of this when he told a recent interviewer: "We do not believe in too much protocol. We'll let other people worry about that."

Claude married Georges in 1935 while he was a schoolteacher in Marseille.

Always considered a strong-willed and ambitious woman, she is credited by friends as one of the driving forces behind her husband's rapid rise to prominence.

Claude was born in Chateau Contier, a small country town in western France. Her father, Dr. Pierre Cahour, was general practitioner there, an outwardly irascible man with a heart of gold who habitually refused all payment from his poorer patients.

DR. CAHOUR was an agnostic and free-thinker who raised Claude and her younger sister Jacqueline with an iron hand. Their mother died in the catastrophic influenza epidemic of 1919, when the girls were not yet in their teens.

Dr. Cahour sent them to Paris University, arguing that since he was too poor to provide them with a dowry they could at least study to earn their own living— a rare attitude in rural France before World War II.

One of Claude's fellow students was a brilliant young African from Senegal, then a French colony. The friend, Leopold Sedar Senghor became his country's first president when it achieved independence in 1958.

Claude and Senghor were constant companions for a while and their colleagues assumed they intended to marry. But Senghor had another friend, Georges Pompidou.

ONE SUNDAY he invited Pompidou for a country outing with the two sisters. Jacqueline was Georges' blind date, but it was with Claude that he fell in love.

Senghor has remained one of their closest friends. Sometimes they jokingly recall that Claude might have become first lady of Senegal in 1958.

It took Pompidou four years

Boning Up On Parliamentary Rules For Smoother Meetings Come Fall

By BETTY FROST

In Britain's Parliament in the 13th Century a member pleaded, "My lord, I move you to consider." Another member added, "I, too, move you to consider."

Thus, according to the legend, related by Price Hall of El Verano, Sonoma County, to his class on "Organization and Procedure in Public Meetings," began the tradition of the motion and the second to the motion used in orderly meetings.

FOURTEEN MEN and women are attending the sessions, given as a public service by Hall, in the conference room of the Tiburon Branch of the Franciscan Savings and Loan Co., of which Hall is manager.

They meet from 10 to 11 a.m. Monday mornings and represent a variety of organizations including the League of Women Voters, State Employees Association, the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the Baptist Theological Seminary, the Toastmistress Club, a professional women's group and the Sausalito Woman's Club.

At the last session, the third in the current series, officers for a non-existent organization, the "Beach Road Regulars," were elected. In the workshop those attending learned to nominate, second the nomination, establish voting rules and function in the various offices.

From a very tentative beginning, with the students shyly standing by, waiting for their neighbors to make the first move, the session wound up in lively participation, with interested questions to the instructor about procedures.

PURPOSES FOR the course, Hall said, are to explain the reasons for and use of rules of order, duties of officers and organizational procedures.

"I also think it would be helpful to untangle the web of confusion enmeshing the many ramifications and translations of Robert's Rules of Order which leave many excellent ideas unexpressed at public and organization meetings," he said.

The instructor brings to his class past experience as Toastmaster president, Optimist

Weight Control Classes Planned In North Marin

A summer weight control class has been scheduled by the Marin County Heart Association for homemakers of Northern Marin.

The Grace Lutheran Church in Novato will be setting for the weight classes during the eight-week course, starting June 26 and continuing on Thursday mornings from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Instruction will focus on food preparation around the whole meal pattern, and learning to adapt recipes for appealing meals while holding to low calorie count.

The 1200-calorie base used in the weight control series instructed by Mrs. Pamela Gilroy, dietitian, requires written physician approval.

Classes are open to both men and women. Class members will weigh in and chart progress throughout the eight-week course. Anticipated weight loss is 1½ pounds per week.

Advance registrations can be made with the Marin County Heart Association in San Rafael, or upon class opening.

Equality Is Sought In Skies

HAMBURG, Germany (GF) — West Germany's organized lady pilots are demanding equality in the skies. At the first annual meeting of their German Association for Women Pilots 35 of the country's 280 females with pilot licenses sternly criticized domination of flying by men.

The women recalled their sex is allowed to participate in only one major competitive rally in all Europe — an annual event held in Hanover which receives second-rate attention.

Headed by two German lady pilot world record holders Hanna Reitsch, 57, and Elly Beinhorn, 61, the group demanded women be allowed to take part in the 1970 European championships.

Meanwhile, the ranks of women working for their pilot licenses in the country is increasing—and even foreign girls are among them. One of the latest is Norwegian film starlet Wencke Myhre, who'd like to learn to fly in order to facilitate keeping her worldwide appointments.

NORWEGIAN FILM starlet Wencke Myhre is learning to fly an airplane so it will be easier for her to keep her worldwide appointments. She is training at Hamburg airport and is among a large group of women working for pilot licenses in West Germany. The female pilots are criticizing domination of flying by men and demand that women be allowed to participate in the 1970 European championships.

MRS. BARNEY NORWITT

Mrs. Barney Norwitt Tops Easter Seal Unit

The Marin Easter Seal Auxiliary will begin its fourth year of operation with Mrs. Barney Norwitt of Tiburon as president.

A charter member, she has contributed much to the success of the comparatively new organization, having served as vice president, treasurer and fund-raising chairman.

A Marin resident for 13 years, Mrs. Norwitt is also second vice president of the Mannequin League of Marin. Tennis, painting, collecting antiques and gourmet cooking are among the many interests of Barbara Norwitt.

Her husband is active in land development in Marin and in the automotive business in San Francisco. One son, 16-year-old Bruce, attends Redwood High School.

Barbara is already making plans for the year's fund-raising events. There will be a beauty booth at the Fairfax Fair on Sept. 20 and 21, and a "Day at the Races" in March.

The Marin Easter Seal Auxiliary, with 24 members, has in three years contributed almost $2,000 to the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Marin. The money has been used for speech therapy scholarships, camperships and the purchase of equipment for the speech and language department of the Easter Seal Society.

Other officers elected are *Mmes. Ronald Fein, vice presi*dent; Stephen Spelman, secretary; Martin Vermuellen, treasurer; Esther Wagner, corresponding secretary, and Emmett Stevenson, historian.

A $4.7 Million Budget Proposed For Marin Muni Water District

A 1969-70 budget of $4.7 million, with capital expenditures cut back drastically, was proposed for the Marin Municipal Water District yesterday by William R. Seeger, district general manager.

At the same time, he told the district board it would take $10 to $15 million to rehabilitate the district's present system and $30 million to bring in future water supplies to Marin from the Russian River area.

Details of the budget will not be presented until the board's next meeting June 25, Seeger said, but he did reveal that a major project to bring in added water from San Geronimo to the Fairfax-San Anselmo area will be put off for at least a year.

No rate increase will be asked, Seeger said, but he warned that a future rate increase along with a major bond issue probably will be needed in the near future to meet water needs of Marin.

The district's expenditure budget for the current year is $4.5 million.

Seeger said he anticipates a 4 per cent increase in revenues in the fiscal year beginning July 1, but he also expects a boost of 7 per cent in operating expenses.

The major casualty of the resulting belt-tightening will be a major new water line from White's Hill to the Hub to supply added water from Kent Lake and Nicasio Reservoir.

The $1 million project originally was slated to begin in fiscal 1970, which starts next month, with half of the project being done then and half the following year. Seeger indicated the project now may be done all in one year, but the starting date will depend on the future money situation.

He advised the board that the district should revert to short-term loans instead of new bond issues to finance necessary improvements in facilities, partly because of the public's apparent reluctance to approve any bond issues and partly because of the tightening money market.

Seeger also told the board he is preparing a major report — due in several months — on the district's future needs. The installation of the White's Hill-Hub line should give the district a respite of at least two years before the district has to begin purchasing water from the North Marin County Water District, a tie-in that would cost an estimated $1.5 million.

A bond issue to finance piping water in from the Russian River is at least three years away, and possibly longer, he said. He estimated that the first phase of importing water from the north would cost $6 million.

Marin Municipal Water District Board Also:

SIERRA CLUB — Denied, over the objection of director William C. Herup, a request by the Sierra Club to hold moonlight hikes on district land on Mount Tamalpais June 21 and 26. Seeger recommended rejection chiefly because of increased fire hazards.

PAYMENT — Approved semi-final progress payment and accepted a completion notice on three rehabilitation programs in San Anselmo and Fairfax to Maggiora and Ghilotti, Inc. of Corte Madera.

TV — Granted a request by the San Francisco Archdiocese for space in the district's radio shack on Mount Tamalpais and installation of a whip antenna on the district's television broadcasts to Catholic schools in San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

PIPELINE — Approved the $11,979 pipeline extension agreement with the Pell Development Co. for the Pell Apartments in Larkspur and agreed to pay the $3,500 cost of increasing the size of the pipeline from eight to 12 inches.

LEASE — Renewed a greens cutting lease with Western Evergreen Co. for a fee of $1,000 for operations in the Kent Lake area.

BIDS — Accepted bids fo $9,159 from the Thatcher Body Co. for a crane and two-yard dump body and $350 plus $80 installation from McPhail's Inc. for a furnace in the district's Lagunitas keeper's house.

VARIANCE — Denied a request for a time extension on a water project at Forest Way, near Marin Avenue, in Tamalpais Valley by Bette W. Roberts.

Two Men Hurt On Bridgeway

Two men received minor injuries yesterday in a collision on Bridgeway near Pine street, Sausalito police said.

Richard D. Blacow, 39, of 1219 Bridgeway, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a scalp cut. Fragdi Zeitoun, 29, of 115 Elinor Avenue, Mill Valley, was treated for a cut chin.

Police said the accident occurred at 12:05 a.m. when Blacow, operator of Rico's Restaurant, pulled onto Bridgeway from Rico's driveway into the path of Zeitoun's car.

Discussion Set On Examinations For County Jobs

Should examinations for county employment be tailored so that minorities and other disadvantaged applicants will have a better chance of qualifying?

This is one of the questions that will be discussed by the Marin County Personnel Commission at its meeting Thursday at 3 p.m. in Room 426 at the Civic Center.

The commission, headed by Bella Aaron, will also discuss the county's grievance procedure and how it applies to employee organizations that enter into collective bargaining agreements with the county.

The commission's updated rules and regulations will come up for official adoption.

Personnel Director Maren Rinne will report on the present status of the collective bargaining negotiations with the Social Workers and Probation Workers Union, Local 535, AFL-CIO. Of the five employee groups, the social workers and the probation workers are the only ones who have not yet signed a contract for 1969-70 fiscal year.

HELEN HELP US!

Why Should Girls Continue To Write Unanswered Letters?

DEAR HELEN:

I read about all the "Dear John" letters fellows in Veitnam are getting. But how about the Janes who write faithfully and never receive an answer?

I had a crush on this guy four years ago but never got to know him because he was married. Then we met accidentally, and I heard he was divorced. We dated until he went overseas. He asked me to write.

I've sent him about 25 letters, cookies, candy, cakes, a ring, puzzles and a color picture of me, which he asked for in one of the three letters he wrote to me. He hardly ever writes to his family — maybe once every four months — so I guess I am selfish to complain, but don't you think he should at least thank me for the gifts or let me know he got them? I haven't heard from him now in over eight months. His last letter said if I really care for him as I say, maybe we could work something out.

Now I hear that he has extended his stay in Vietnam for six more months. He's 24, I'm 22 and very much in love. Should I keep hoping — and writing?—T.Y.

DEAR T:

No. This man is either inconsiderate or disinterested, and either way, he's a poor risk. I'll bet his ex-wife agrees with me.

Why not, instead, write to someone who will appreciate you? See below. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Our company over here in 'Nam receives very little mail. It would sure boost our morale if some of your readers would write to us. We'd like to know we aren't forgotten. Some of us don't have too many people at home, and I guess you know how bad mail call can be, when you aren't called.

Would you please ask people to write:

TO THE TIGERS,
Company C, 3d Battalion
21st Infantry
196th Infantry Brigade
American Division
APO San Francisco, Calif., 96256

Letters will be distributed to all the men in our company, and we promise to answer them. Thank you. — R. W. S.

DEAR READERS:

Okay girls, start writing. The Tigers need your support. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I used to have a great boy friend. He was honest, kind, generous and just plain good. But my Mom didn't like him.

Anyway, he came over one day, and Mom told him I was pregnant. He never spoke to me again. How can I prove my innocence when my own mother lies about me? You might say "Time will," but not these days. She mentioned abortion too. — LIED ABOUT

DEAR L. A.:

I can't believe any mother would be so low. Before I make a judgment I'd like to hear her side of the story. Surely there's something you've left out. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I was amused by the girl who made a Voodoo doll in the image of her girl friend, stuck pins in it and broke out in measles. What she did was nonsense, but when properly employed, by a skilled practitioner, the power of Voodoo is not to be scoffed at. A victim of Voodoo wanga gets acute psychological grilling, intensified by his belief in magic and the many death warnings he receives — usually dead birds or animals. The pressure mounts until he actually wills himself to die. This girl should leaf through William Seabrook's "Magic Island" (about Haiti) and she will find that it takes much more than she thinks to practice the art of Great Spirit. — A MEMBER OF THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA.

McCall-Goecker Vows Said In Marin Church

Ens. and Mrs. Stephen McCall Lind (Terry Ann Goecker) are on a wedding trip driving through Canada and the eastern United States to their first home in Pensacola, Fla. The couple were wed Saturday at Holy Innocents Episcopal Church in Corte Madera.

Laura Louis Goecker was her sister's maid of honor. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Clark Goecker of Berkeley; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John Lanham of Kirkland, Wash,; and Karen Cichy of Larkspur were bridesmaids.

Thomas Leach of Olympia, Wash., was best man, and Donald Sampson of Salem, Ore., Lt. John Lanham and Clark Goecker ushered guests to their seats.

A reception at the Elks Club in San Rafael followed the ceremony.

Terry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Goecker of Greenbrae. She was graduated from Redwood High School and College of Marin. Her grandparents are Mrs. Gustav Barth of Walnut Creek, Louis A. Pacheco of San Anselmo and Jess A. Prince of Burlingame.

The bridegroom's parents are Capt. and Mrs. Irving L. Lind of Olympia, Wash. He is a graduate of San Rafael Military Academy and the U. S. Naval Academy and has been assigned to flight training in Pensacola.

Judith Cox Bride Of William Kelley

At home in San Francisco following their June 7 marriage and a wedding trip to the Grand Tetons in Wyoming are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kelley Jr. (Judith Ann Cox). The wedding was performed at St. Paulus Lutheran Church in San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Cox of Novato, and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. William T. Kelley of San Rafael.

Pat Brugman of San Francisco was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sisters, Sue Kelley of Berkeley and Pat Kelley of San Jose, and Suzanne Montali of San Francisco were bridesmaids.

Peter Wall of Manhattan Beach was best man, and Tom Wule of San Francisco, Bill Jensen of San Ramon and Jack Rainey of San Rafael ushered.

A reception at the Officers Club at Ft. Mason in San Francisco followed the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from high school in South Plainfield, N. J., and Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N. J. She is employed by McKinsey and Company Inc. in San Francisco. E. Randolph Cox of Novato is her brother.

A graduate of Ventura High School and San Jose State College, the bridegroom is employed by Dean Witter and Company in San Francisco. Steve Kelley of San Rafael is his brother and Sue, Pat and Debbie Kelley are his sisters.

League Elects New President

Travel, cooking, bridge, swimming and tennis are what the new president of the Family Service League enjoys most. She is Mrs. Robert Verner Dermott of San Rafael, a five-year member of the league, which is an auxiliary to the Family Service Agency.

Nancy Dermott has served as the league's membership, hospitality and Christmas card chairman and has also been chairman of the Marin A.M. Series, a morning program of speakers. The series will begin its second year in the fall. Speakers next year will include Winston S. Churchill, Betty Furness and Philip Burton. Memberships in the 1969-70 A.M. Series for the six programs are now being sold, she says.

The league also operates a thirft shop in Mill Valley.

The new president is active in the Parent-Teacher Association, Women's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society and the Children's Hospital Auxiliary. She and her husband, a physician, have lived in Marin 10 years. They have a daughter, Corrine Ann, 9, and a son, Jeffrey Michael, 6 years old.

Nancy Dermott also enjoys sewing and gardening — and golf, when she gets the chance.

MRS. ROBERT DERMOTT

Gilardi-French Nuptials Planned At Mission San Luis Rey Aug. 30

Mrs. Richard Lockhart French of Fallbrook has announced the engagement of her daughter Cindy to Dennis Andrew Gilardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Noah Gilardi of Larkspur.

Cindy is the daughter of the late Richard L. French and sister of Mrs. Robert Burton and Shelly and Richard French Jr., all of Fallbrook, and Mrs. Thomas Cole of Piedmont. Mrs. Shelton French of San Francisco is her grandmother.

Dennis is the brother of Richard Gilardi of San Rafael, Stephen Gilardi Jr., with the Army in Germany, and Joan Gilardi of Larkspur.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Redwood High School. She attended Palomar College in San Marcos and Bay Cities College in San Francisco. Marin Catholic High School, College of Marin and St. Mary's College are the future bridegroom's schools. He will enter Santa Clara University School of Business in the fall to study for a master's degree.

The couple plan an Aug. 30 wedding at Mission San Luis Rey.

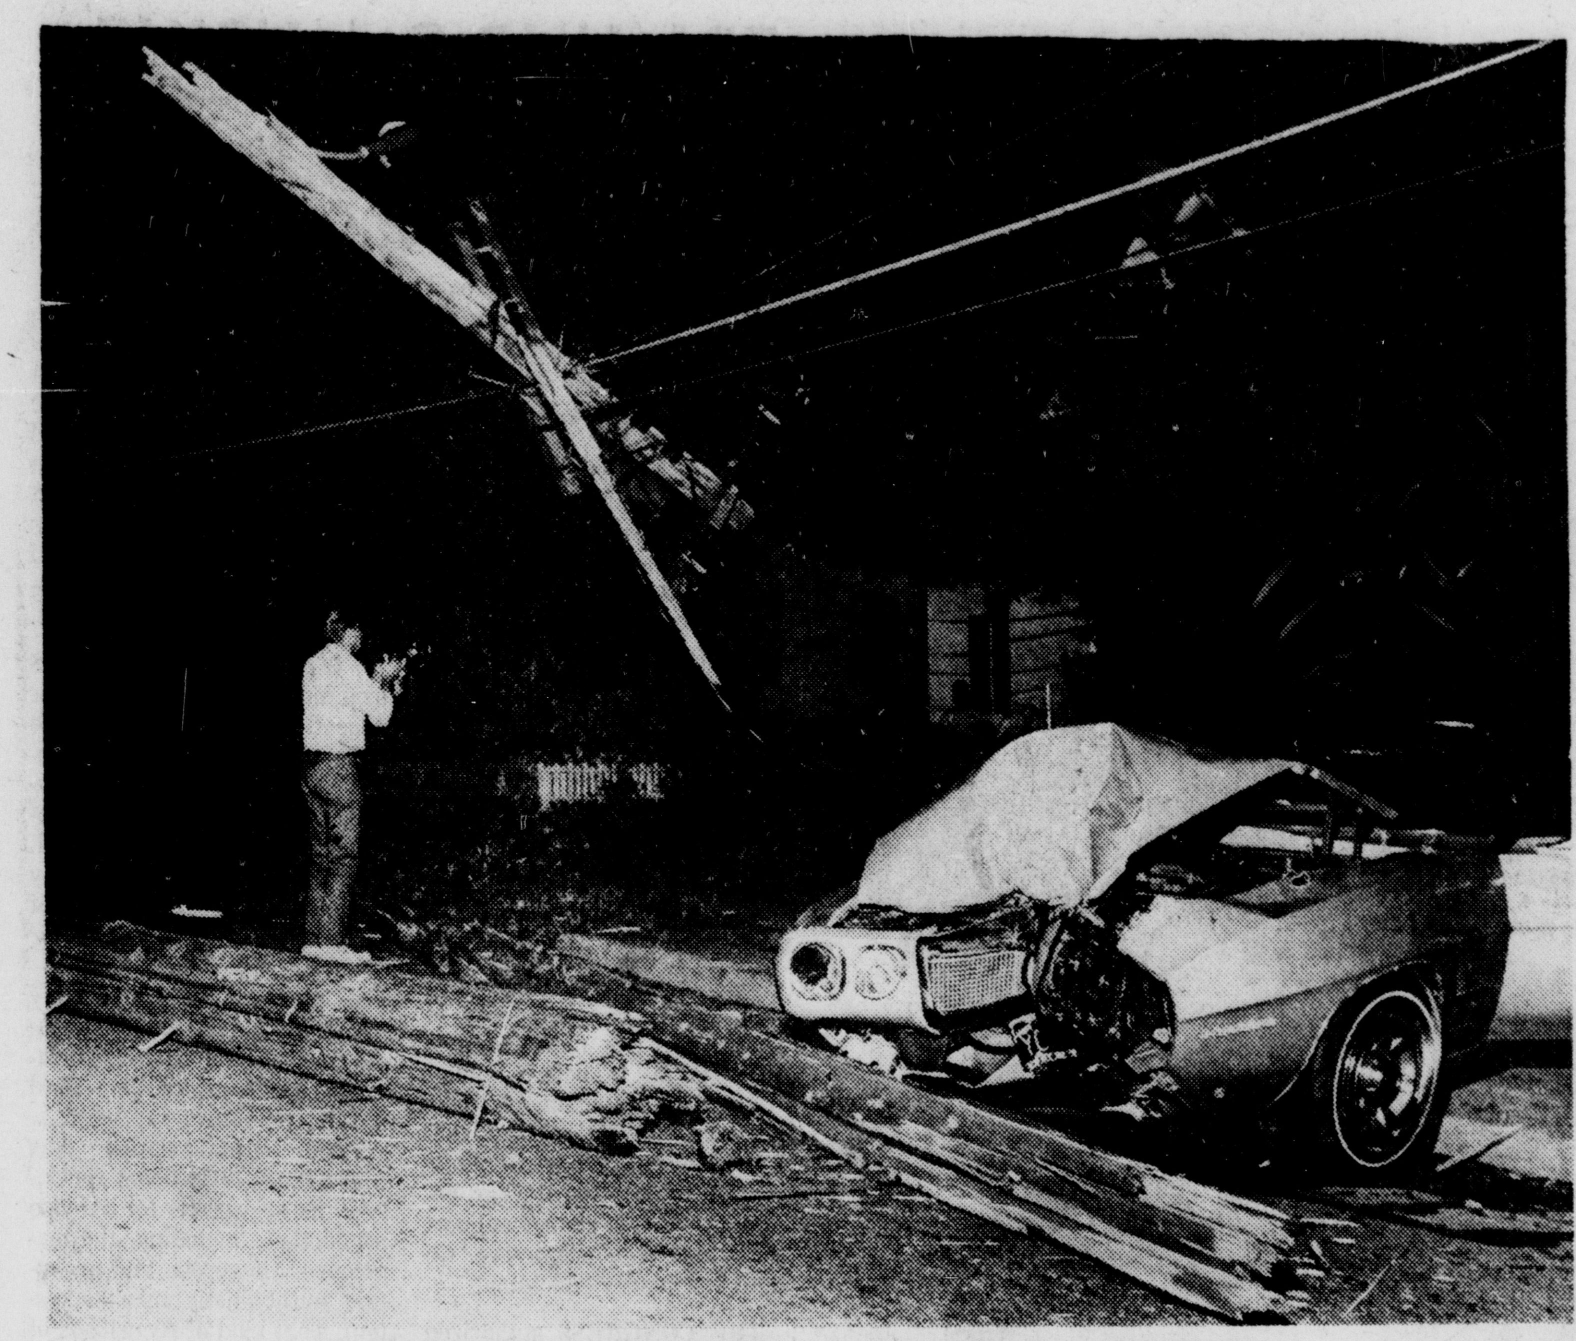
THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1969



TWO INJURED, POLE SNAPPED

Two persons were injured about 10:30 p.m. yesterday when their 1969 Pontiac ran into a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. pole on Fifth Avenue just west of Scenic Avenue in San Rafael. The driver, Henry K. W. Fincher, 19, of 722 Drake Avenue, Marin City and a student at the College of Marin, was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts. Donna Marie Tarabella, 20, of 201 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, suffered a concussion and a broken back and is listed in fair condition today at Marin General. San Rafael police had no details of the accident. A PG&E worker in the background inspects the damaged pole and hot electrical lines on the ground. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Fairfax Asks 'How' On Teen Interest

By SUZANNE WOOD

The people of Fairfax apparently want greater youth participation in city government, but the problem may be getting the young people interested in the idea.

About 25 adults and one conspicuously lonely young person turned out for a meeting last night at the Fairfax Women's Club to discuss establishing a youth commission for the city.

The meeting, unlike the lively and much larger gathering there last week, was calm and all present seemed to agree that youth participation in city government—not just recreational planning — may be a needed and desirable thing.

Ideas in the 90-minute meeting ranged from establishing a youth commission to the suggestion of a teen-age voice on the city council. But all the discussion ultimately revolved back to the same point: Do the youth want more participation and how?

But only 15-year-old Steve Jensen, of San Anselmo and coordinator of the rather small and loosely structured Fairfax Teen Club, was present to answer, and he was put on the spot several times in trying to speak for all the youth.

Jensen, who is promoter of the teen dances held in the Fairfax Pavilion, has had his share of city problems since Memorial Day when trouble, stemming from overcrowded conditions, broke out and caused the dance to be shut down.

Various ways of creating youth participation were suggested.

"Why don't we involve them in city government by putting one on the council?" asked W. M. Cummings of 165 Frustruck Avenue, adding that there was little that occurred which wouldn't "profit by the view of a young person."

"They been listening to me all their lives and now I'd like to listen to more of their views," Cummings continued. He noted the young person would not be expected to carry a vote on the council because of the legality involved with age.

Cummings' suggestion brought no real opposition, but some like audience member Priscilla Grey seemed to think the routine business of city council "would bore the kids."

Jensen said he had received a better perspective of the operation of city government by his attendance lately of several meetings, but he later quipped he'd rather be on the parks and recreation commission than the city council.

"The purpose (of a young person on the council) is not just to learn about city government but to provide for them a position from which they can be more effectively heard," Cummings told the group.

Then the group moved on to what would create youth interest in the idea and what was relevant to them. Jensen said that a present recreational activities are their primary concern.

Joseph Kriegel of 351 Olema Drive suggested that a representative on the school board might hold more interest for students than the city council.

Mayor Francis J. O'Connell said the timing was bad since school had closed but he suggested a town meeting which would be well publicized to young people who could express their feelings about greater youth participation. No definite meeting was set.

Meanwhile, however, the park and recreation commission will discuss the topic at its next meeting July 1.

Kentfield Sets Vote On Tax Hike

An election to increase the tax rate in the Kentfield School District will be held Oct. 7, the district board decreed last night.

The amount of the increase will be set at a meeting at 8 p.m. July 7 in Wolfe Grade School, said Dist. Supt. Anthony G. Bacich. The district tax rate, including overrides, is now $3.34 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Bacich said the extra funds will be needed to maintain the present school program for the 1970-71 year. Trustees have adopted a preliminary 1969-70 budget of $1,331,171, which sharply reduces maintenance costs and eliminates nearly all capital outlay items.

CONTRACT

In other business last night, trustees approved raises for six district administrators, including Bacich, who was given a new four-year contract at $20,700 a year. Bacich's present four-year contract, which has a year to run, calls for an annual wage of $20,000.

Other pay raises approved were: Roy L. Smith, principal at Greenbrae School, $16,600 from $16,000; Gene L. Hendsch, Wolfe Grade School principal, same; Dr. Robert E. Shore, principal of the seventh and eighth grades at Adeline E. Kent School, $16,000 from $15,800; Warren English, principal of kindergarten through sixth grade at Kent School, $14,800 from $13,500, and Jack D. Williams, district guidance counselor, $17,000 from $16,400.

The Kentfield School District board also:

NONGRADED — Approved extension of the nongraded program to Greenbrae and Wolfe Grade schools with provision for periodic review.

MUSEUM — Renewed an agreement with the Louise M. Boyd Marin Museum of Science for use of its materials and facilities.

TEACHER— Hired Gloria Fan Wong as a teacher at $7,865 a year.

A TRUSTEE'S VIEWS

College Unrest Not Red-Linked

What colleges are experiencing today is not a worldwide conspiracy inspired and financed by the Communists.

Rather, "it is a movement made difficult by a most articulate minority which lashes out in its fury and frustrations and seeks to destroy the very establishments of society that make possible their right to protest and dissent."

Elizabeth M. Deedy, Marin Junior College District trustee, asserted these views at a breakfast talk today to an audience of about 100 before the Marin County Real Estate Board.

She continued, saying, "they (the minority students) strike out in anger on conditions that should be changed. They rebel at the academic requirements for which they cannot see immediate need."

She said that in many cases these young people do not know where they want to go nor what they want to achieve in life.

Campuses face problems in developing and using procedures to avoid disruption while allowing rightful, legal dissent, Mrs. Deedy commented.

Deedy told the brokers: "We hear from the extreme right. We hear from the extreme left. Now we need to hear from the majority."

She said the district needs financial help for construction of its second campus at Novato and facilities on the Kentfield campus; for district operation and for financial aid to students.

She asked the brokers for greater support on an annual basis to help students saying, "Education is still the most effective and lasting way to build America better."

Speaking on the topic, "To Hell With Glocca Morra — How Are Things At College of Marin?" Mrs. Deedy ended her address saying, "I hope you will never say 'To hell with the College of Marin'."

Arson Check In $22,000 House Fire

Fire last night destroyed the $22,000 newly built but unoccupied home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Angress on Shoreline Highway, two miles north of Marshall in West Marin.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said this morning that there is a storng possibility of arson since the vacant building does not have electricity or gas yet.

The blaze was first spotted about 11:15 p.m. by a neighbor's child and almost simultaneously by Angress from his ranch home on Shoreline Highway. Mrs. Angress said she and her husband had been working at the new house until about 9 p.m.

The exterior of the woodframe house had been completed with only interior work remaining. The contractor for the two-level home which had been under construction for about three weeks was Ed Vaccha of Point Reyes. The new house was more than half destroyed when firemen arrived. Two trucks and two men responded from the Tamalpais station and the same from the Point Reyes station. There are no nearby homes. Firemen tried to control the spread of fire to grassy areas.

Mrs. Angress said that she and her husband discovered a pack of cigarettes this morning near the site. Neither she nor Angress smokes.

Sirhan's Mother Visits Again

Mary Sirhan, mother of convicted assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan, today completed her third visit in as many days with her son at San Quentin.

The tiny, white-haired woman said Sirhan was "not happier" at San Quentin but that he "had more freedom and got along better with officials" than at Los Angeles County Jail where he was held for a year.

Mrs. Sirhan was expected to return today to Los Angeles.

Prisoners are allowed four visits per month from relatives. With Mrs. Sirhan was her son Munir, 21.

Teachers Threatening Sanctions Over Pay

Novato teachers and Novato Unified School District Board today are deadlocked over salary and fringe benefits for the coming year with the teachers threatening sanctions against the district, according to Supt. James G. Bunker.

In a closed meeting last night, the board rejected the latest proposal of the teachers, who in turn, through their negotiating council, today rejected the counter-proposal made to them after the closed meeting, Bunker said.

The Novato Teachers Association, an affiliate of the California Teachers Association, is considering an imposition of sanctions against the district, said Donald White, NTA president.

The school board had offered an across-the-board salary schedule increase of 4 per cent for certificated personnel and $15 per month fringe benefits. The fringe benefits average 1.5 per cent, Bunker said. The schedule increase would be in addition to the automatic annual step increases built into the schedule.

The NTA accepted this proposal but in its acceptance, said that any further income to the district over the preliminary budget estimate should be divided 70 per cent for certificated salaries and 30 per cent to restore items cut from the budget to provide the 4 per cent hike.

This was rejected by the board.

The counter-proposal of the board last night was that it would add another 1 per cent to the 4 per cent, if additional money came to the district after it has restored $135,000 in cuts to the budget.

The NTA said that their last request was in direct line with an agreement made last fall in which teachers' salaries would have first priority in the budget this year, according to White.

The board last night granted the nonteaching personnel a 5 per cent across-the-board pay increase and $10 fringe benefits.

Speaking on the teacher requests, Bunker said that this was the board's final offer, so there will not be any further negotiations.

Practical Nurse's Trial Opens

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Trial opened today in Sonoma County Superior Court of Vera Mae Walsh, former Fairfax practical nurse, charged with involuntary manslaughter and forgery.

The trial was transferred yesterday to the court of Judge Joseph P. Murphy Jr. after Mrs. Walsh, through attorney Albert Rizzo, disqualified Judge Lincoln F. Mahan.

Mrs. Walsh, 42, is accused of killing her patient, Mrs. Gloria Giannis, who died Jan 5. from an overdose of drugs at the women's Santa Rosa apartment.

She is also accused of forging Mrs. Giannis's name after her death to two checks totaling $135.

John W. Hawkes, Sonoma County assistant district attorney, said he expects the trial to last two weeks.

Mrs. Walsh is to be sentenced June 30 in Marin Superior Court for the theft of valuables from the home of a Fairfax couple by whom she was employed.

Brawling Case Counts Halted

Seven juveniles arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon were released yesterday in Central Sonoma Municipal Court and no complaints filed against them.

The youngsters had been arrested Saturday after three Cotati men were stabbed in a brawl at the Seahorse Tavern, 7665 Old Redwood Highway, Cotati.

Released were Fred Gilbert, 18; Melvin J. Hearne, 18; Letonia Leaks, 18; Marzette Gilbert, 17; Leon O. Wiggins, 19, all of San Francisco; and Rose May Smith, 20, and Olie May Smith, 18, both of Santa Rosa.

Tam High Board Approves 5 Pct. Salary Increase

The Tamalpais High School District board last night, over protest of several teachers, approved a 5 per cent across-the-board salary schedule raise for district employees for 1969-70.

The action means an approximate $600 per year increase per person plus the automatic annual step raise. It increases the salary range from the current $6,770 to $13,900 schedule to $7,370 to $14,500.

Trustees also increased medical and dental insurance benefits.

William B. Wilkinson, chairman of the teachers' negotiating council, asked the board to defer action on salaries to June 30 in order to allow more discussion but the board rejected this proposal.

The board, reported administrative assistant Edward J. Neumeir, said it must act as it did in order to balance the budget and maintain the necessary reserve.

Trustees also adopted a tentative 1969-70 budget of $9,142,561, a drop of $38,775 from the current budget of $9,181,336. The board also agreed that its goal is to maintain a $1.3 million reserve over the next two years to avoid deficit financing.

A publication budget hearing was set for 8 p.m., July 7 at the district office at which time trustees expect to cut the budget.

The Tamalpais High School District board also:

NEW PRINCIPAL — Deferred to July 7 action on selection procedure for a permanent principal at Tamalpais High School.

DISCIPLINE STUDY — Accepted a discipline study committee report from chairman Ellen Bickley and said action would be cousidered after review by the district's administrative council.

NUMERICAL CONTROL — Awarded a $8,334 contract to BHS Machinery Co., South San Francisco, for numerical control equipment for Redwood High School.

DEAN OF BOYS — Named Norman L. Cady, Tamalpais High physical education teacher and coach, acting dean of boys at Tamalpais for 1969-70, to succeed Henry A. Marshall who will be acting assistant principal.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE — Granted a medical leave of absence to Adrian Cobb, Sir Francis Drake High science teacher, and maternity leave to Sandra Gariffo, Tamalpais High English teacher, both for 1969-70.

EMPLOYED — Hired Jess M. Payan to teach physical education, Redwood High School, $13,165; Kenneth D. Peterson, Opportunity School teacher, $9,160; Burton H. Greene, Opportunity School teacher, $9,065; Marilee E. Ruta, Opportunity School teacher, $8,355; Jess Racines, physical education, Tamalpais; no salary determined, and Roland L. Carr, mathematics teacher, Tamalpais, $12,720.

WORKSHOP MEETING — Set 8 p.m. Monday to meet in the district office to discuss a management evaluation report prepared by Arthur B. Little Co. of San Francisco.

Bridge Widening Bid Of $39,215

Widening of Sutro Avenue bridge in Novato will cost just under $40,000, according to bids opened yesterday at the Civic Center.

Mountain States Construction Co. of Concord offered to do the job for $39,215, the lowest of three bids which ranged to a high of $49,454.

A concrete culvert will be built as an extension of the existing Sutro Avenue Bridge over Novato Creek, between Novato Boulevard and Center Road.

The bid was to be considered by the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

Another project to be considered today was the addition of 16 parking spaces and overlay of the existing parking lot at Marin Juvenile Hall in Lucas Valley. William K. McLellan of San Anselmo, lowest of six bidders, would do the work for $4,057.60.

Hub Variance Requests Denied

An application by Tor J. Nielsen for a variance to build a carport within the required front and sideyard setback at his home at 20 Tamalpais Avenue was denied by a 6-0 vote of the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night.

Also rejected, by a 5-1 vote, was an application by John C. Poppy of 462 Laurel Avenue for a variance to construct a storage room in his garage. Commissioner Allen J. Creighton dissented.

The commission approved the serving of beer in a Mexican restaurant in a remodeled building at 330 San Anselmo Avenue.

The resignation of Commissioner Joseph Gue, who is moving to Sleepy Hollow, was announced last night.

Novato Man Is Arraigned

William Harvey Koontz, 23, of 1000 Eighth Street, Novato, was arraigned yesterday in Marin Superior Court on a charge of possessing marijuana.

His case was continued until June 30 for entry of plea.

Koontz was arrested March 18 by the California Highway Patrol.

Terra Linda Services Tax Rate May Climb

The Terra Linda Community Services District tax rate, which is 84 cents this year, may go up to 90 cents per $100 of assessed valuation because the fiscal 1970 budget is up about $3,000 to $63,000.

This was disclosed last night at a meeting of the CSD board of directors. Chairman Neal D. Harding announced that a public hearing on the budget will be held at 9 p.m. June 26 in the Terra Linda firehouse.

Teens Face Charges On Drug Passing

Two young men, who attempted to smuggle narcotics into Marin County Jail during the weekend, face new charges and will be arraigned today in Municipal Court on various drug counts.

David Brian Dennison, 19, of San Rafael, who is serving a sentence for burglary, tried to bring hashish tablets into jail after returning from a doctor's appointment Saturday, jailors said.

During a routine skin search the tables wrapped in cellophane were discovered in a body cavity, according to deputies.

Dennison will be charged with two felony counts of possession of drugs and smuggling them into jail.

On Sunday, Kevin Wiley Good, 18, of Mill Valley, who is spending weekends in jail for a traffic offense, reported to the jail carrying a package of cigarettes in which a marijuana cigarette wa shidden among the regular ones, deputies said.

Good will be charged with possession of marijuana and attempted smuggling, according to the district attorney's office.

Clothes, Bike Are Stolen

San Rafael police today reported a theft in the parking lot of the Bermuda Palms, 737 Francisco Boulevard Saturday night.

Police say clothes at an undetermined value were stolen from the car of Douglas E. Mounton of Alberta, Canada after the window was pried open with the radio aerial.

Police also reported the theft of a 20-inch bike belonging to Kevin J. Holtziner of 14 Anchorage Court, San Rafael. The bike, valued at $45, was reported stolen Saturday from outside Longs Drug Store at Northgate Shopping Center.

Bethel 48 Job's Daughters Will install Lynn Prosser Saturday

Lynn V. Prosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Prosser of Terra Linda, will be installed honored queen of Bethel 48, International Order of Jobs Daughters, on Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple in San Rafael.

Installing the honored queen will be Susan Owens, assisted by Jonna Peden, Ellen Ostern, Elizabeth Denison, Virginia Tabor, Verna Easom, Diana Bertch and Mrs. Barbara Kriletcih.

LYNN PROSSER

Other selected officers to be installed are Nanette Hedrick, senior princess; Susan Holman, junior princess; Patricia Eklund, guide; and Pamela Holman, marshal.

Appointive officers are Kathy Heaney; Debbie Linde, treasurer; Becky Mishler, recorder; Shirley Peck, musician; Priscilla Bertch, librarian; Helen Castle, senior custodian; Carol Newman, junior custodian; Janice Eikington, inner guard; Katy Wiechert, outer guard; and Beth Thompson, Debbie Burns, Kathy Burke, Cindy Morrill and Claudia Woodland, messengers.

Members of the bethel choir are Krissy Adamson, Lynn Burton, Cheryl Cazneaux, Kathy Connell, Toni Collins, Anne Cooper, Debbie Daunt, Pat Dodge, Quannah Dodge, Melanie Fickbohm, Colleen Heaney, Diane Inman, Tia Kant, Sandra Koenig, Jayne Leedy, Karen Riley, Sharon Vinvilione, Cynthia Weichert und Darlene Weitbrecht.

Mrs. Thelma Tabor is guardian of Bethel 48 and Henry Aubel is associate guardian.

A reception and dance will follow the installation.

RETIRING DEPUTY Mrs. Jack Benz, member of St. Anselm's Young Ladies Institute, will be honored Thursday evening, at a party following the 8:15 p.m. meeting of Rosarium Institute 175, Young Ladies' Institute, in St. Patrick's Center, Larkspur.

Mrs. Edward Albertoni, chairman of the evening, and her committee, Mrs. Ralph Astengo and Mrs. David Miller Jr., will welcome all institute members.

THE SAUSALITO Yacht Club Women's Auxiliary will sponsor a San Francisco Ice House tour tomorrow as a benefit for the club's junior sailing program.

The Ice House, located on the corner of Union and Sansome streets, is a renovated old San Francisco building on the city's historic waterfront. It has been called the most beautiful showcase of decorative furnishings in the world.

Chairman for the tour, which will be limited to 100 people, is Mrs. Joseph Fontana.

Those wishing to join a car pool will meet at the Sausalito Yacht Clubhouse at 9:30 a.m. and the tour of the Ice House will start at 10 a.m. Cocktails and canapes will be served.

Auxiliary president Mrs. S. C. Stapp, 49 Cloudview Road, Sausalito, is reservations chairman.

THE MONTHLY luncheon meeting of the Marin County Association of Delta Gamma Alumnae will be held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Harry T. Magill, 450 Ridge Road in Novato. Swimming will begin at 11 a.m. and at noon there will be a talk by Dick Ford, dance instructor.

Mr. Ford recently completed a pilot dance program for visually handicapped teenagers. Delta Gamma Alumnae funds were used to finance the pilot program and the discussion will include an analysis of the project.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Magill.

MRS. WALTER LONG, retiring president of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley, will entertain her board of directors at a noon luncheon at her home in Greenbrae on Thursday.

Mrs. Long was honored by her board of directors at a luncheon on June 5 given at the Mill Valley home of her vice president, Mrs. George Gustafson.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S Club of Marin will meet Friday at 11:45 a.m. at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera. Mrs. Margaret Williams will demonstrate the choice and use of fragrances.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Paul S. Allen, wife of a retired college president. Special music will be by Carol Tomlinson, a junior high school student and violinist with the honor orchestra.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Werner Erhard in Corte Madera or Mrs. Donald Wernstrum in Novato.

THREE MARINITES are on the committee for the La Fiesta Queso y Vino to be held by the San Francisco Bay Area Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta sorority Saturday. Mmes. E. Gordon Foster of Tiburon, Robert O'Neill of Sausalito and James D. Fritz of Novato are working on the wine and cheese tasting party, set for 4 to 6 p.m., and followed by a Mexican dinner.

The event will be held at the Woodside estate of the Robert Ericksons. A mariachi group will entertain after the dinner.

Others attending will be Miss Andree Mola of Corte Madera and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Souza of Tiburon.

Graduates Of Tomales Are Married

Church of the Assumption in Tomales was the setting June 7 for the marriage of Cheryl A. Crawford and William A. Crayne.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Crawford of Lagunitas, and the bridegroom is the son of the Donald Craynes of Tomales.

Denise Williams of Petaluma was maid of honor, and the bridegroom's brother, Richard Crayne of Tomales, was best man.

A reception in Occidental followed the ceremony.

Cheryl and William are both graduates of Tomales High School. She attended College of Marin, and he was enrolled at Santa Rosa Junior College before joining the Navy.

Darryl L. and Carryl A. Crawford are the bride's brother and sister.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the couple will live in Davisville, R.I., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Navy Sea Bees.

Parliamentary Classes

Club lieutenant governor for a four-county district, county and state committeeman of major political parties and extensive convention participation.

The group will consider parliamentary protocol for meetings ranging in size from small board meetings to national conventions.

"AFTER MORE than 30 years of experience in political meetings, I have noted the importance of procedures and the interchange of respect where meetings are conducted by the rule," Hall said. "The lack of discipline in the 'hey, how about' approach also means less interest than when a motion is made by a member which immediately involves everyone attending."

With the number of women's organizations holding regular meetings in Marin County, it is not surprising that in this first course in parliamentary procedure ever given in Tiburon there are 11 women attending with three men enrolled.

A second course in September will be considered, Hall indicated, if the response warrants it. There is no fee for the series.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

It's Blackmail To Most Of Us, But To Some . . .

The New York State Investigation Commission, probing infiltration of the Mafia into legitimate businesses, recently explored the affairs of Nylo-Thane Plastics Corp. of Farmingdale, N. Y.

Maurice Minuto, head of Nylo-Thane, testified that one day in August, 1967, he received an after-hours office visit from a half-dozen thugs, armed with knives and a silencer-equipped pistol. They forced him to hand over $25,000 in company funds, he said.

MINUTO DID NOT call the police. Instead, next day he called "Gentleman John" Masiello, a Mafia big shot. Gentleman John told him to go to Royal National Bank of New York and borrow $50,000.

Minuto did as he was told. Then Gentleman John instructed him to turn over $49,000 to Setmar Holding Corp., a company which Gentleman John controlled. Minuto did. Presumably he got to keep $1,000 for himself.

Since Minuto now was aware of how things were done, it was not necessary to have thugs call on him with knives and pistols any more. But during the next few months, he paid more than $240,000 to Gentleman John, to Gentleman John's son, John Masiello Jr., and to ANR Leasing Corp., which Gentleman John controlled. All this money was borrowed from Royal National Bank, which apparently found Minuto and Nylo-Thane Plastics very good risks.

THIS TESTIMONY, along with similar testimony from other New York businessmen, has put both state and federal investigators to work trying to build cases not only of extortion but of illegal lending practices and other peccadillos. It has also brought down the wrath of the House Banking Committee.

Nobody has made Maurice Minuto a hero for paying blackmail.

THERE IS LITTLE discernible difference between what Minuto did and what a score or more of college and university presidents across the nation have done during the academic year just closed. Faced by demands accompanied by threats, they have granted what the blackmailers dictated, from separate black studies departments to discontinuance of ROTC to admission of unqualified students.

Strangely, these presidents have in most cases received wide acclaim from so-called "liberals" for paying this blackmail.

PERHAPS THE COLLEGE presidents saw nothing wrong in it; they may be believers in a philosophy espoused by one of their own coterie, Dr. Donald R. Cressley, professor of sociology at University of California at Santa Cruz.

In his recent book, "Theft of the Nation," Cressley, commenting that "a little cold-blooded appeasement is not necessarily a bad thing, especially when our side is losing," suggested that federal and state officials should make deals with the Cosa Nostra (he didn't call it paying blackmail) to keep it out of legitimate business (like Nylo-Thane Plastics, for instance).

It is, wrote Cressley, "not inconceivable that the Cosa Nostra would give up its political involvements and its illegal operation of legitimate businesses . . . if it could be assured that it would be permitted to keep the profits, after payment of taxes, on bet-taking."

THIS, WE SUPPOSE, is "the new morality."

Mr. Minuto, meet Dr. Cressley!

AN EDUCATOR'S VIEW

'New Left' Gets Its Lessons From Old Leftists On Faculties

By JOHN W. GILBAUGH
Professor of Education
San Jose State College

The eyes of the nation continue to be focused on the University of California at Berkeley. And well they should be, for what happens at Berkeley could occur anywhere. The People's Park struggle provides the current vehicle for radical student confrontation, and another test for an innovative revolutionary procedure. Berkeley has served as the proving grounds for techniques of revolution. After the "bugs" are removed the procedures are then applied on other campuses across the country.

The student uprisings are not spontaneous. They have been in the planning stages for years. Let us take a look at some statements made by one Dr. James O'Connor, an associate professor of economics at San Jose State College. On May 20, Dr. O'Connor addressed between 400 and 500 students at the University of California's Santa Cruz campus. According to Mel Baughman, a Santa Cruz Sentinel staff writer who covered the meeting, O'Connor told the students, "The struggle over People's Park in Berkeley establishes precedent for building a socialist revolution in the future."

Baughman further stated that O'Connor told the audience of the spread of Marxist economists, sociologists, and philosophers in colleges and universities and high schools across the land.

"THIS MEANS," O'Connor said, "that it's going to be a different ball game in the 1970s. . . .

The ruling class in the United States is no longer fit to rule because they no longer have any ideas. They have no concept of how to use society to advance human values . . . The ruling class can't save America, and by America, I mean us. Only we in the movement can save us." He quoted statements by Fidel Castro during the Communist revolution in Cuba to make his point, Baughman reported.

"We need a socialist blueprint for the future that will end the United States an an imperialist and capitalistic country. We must get rid of the capitalistic mode of production in the United States . . .This is an ideological struggle," O'Connor said, "and we must fight in day-to-day confrontations in every conceivable way to make this struggle succeed."

BUT O'CONNOR is not a Johnny-Come-Lately in the "movement." Alice Widener, publisher of U.S.A. Magazine, in covering the second annual conference of Socialist Scholars in 1966, provided a detailed account on Socialist ideology as advocated by leaders of the movement. And she supplied a roster of names which reads like a "Who's Who Among Socialist Scholars in American Colleges and Universities." On the Widener list, which contained 54 names of "official" participants in the conference, were several from California colleges and universities. They were Franz Schurmann and James Petras from the University of California, Berkeley, and Dr. James O'Connor from San Jose State College. Dr. Nathan Hare, who was listed as attending from Howard University, has since moved to San Francisco State College.

Widener reported:

HOW DO FACULTY members like O'Connor get appointed to public, tax-supported colleges and university faculties? This writer served as dean of the college at San Jose State College when O'Connor was recommended by the department of economics faculty for appointment. After a thorough investigation which verified O'Connor's philosophy, I vetoed his proposed appointment. Nevertheless, with the same information at his disposal, Dr. Robert D. Clark, president of San Jose State College, appointed O'Connor and giving him two salary increments above the normal appointment level.

Withholding Tax Skilfully Laid Trap

You're so right, Mr. (William T.) Bagley. We must mechanize the collection of taxes. Your crafty system of picking our pockets works beautifully and painlessly. In certain states, for example, it's not only Washington, but the state and the city also that withhold. Works like a charm. And it makes the raising of taxes so simple — right?

I've written Governor Reagan supporting his one-man stand against this deceptive system. He'd like to hear from the rest of us who recognize this plot for what it is — the politician's dream of the perfect state. The money just rolls in, every month, with every employer an income tax collector.

The politicians' most effective argument for withholding: "But there are so many who don't pay any tax, don't you want every one to pay? Why, we'll pick up another $20 million." (Or is it $200 million?) The implication: we who do pay will get a reduction.

A skilfully laid trap.

Children Watch Lewd Film Previews

The other evening my husband and I took our four children to the Auto-Movies drive-in theater in Petaluma.

We were both absolutely shocked at what we saw on the screen for the coming attractions. I was always under the impression there was a law on pornography. It does not seem as though this law is being enforced these days.

One of the pictures was "The Killing of Sister George" and the other was "Vixen." The management of this theater suggested these pictures be seen by no one under 16 years of age. Yet they showed the previews for these films to an audience of mostly children. . .

I do not consider myself to be old fashioned or a Puritan of any kind, but these pictures are nothing but obscene and leave nothing to the imagination.

I feel that if they are allowed to show these things on the screen, that soon we will have no morals left and that nothing about love and marriage (will be) sacred.

What do you think may happen to the emotions of a couple of 16 or 17 year old kids out on a date after seeing these type films? . . .

I feel there must be many other parents who feel the same, and would like to see something done about the way our moral codes are decaying.

School Spending Without Discussion

I am very concerned about procedures followed on money items at San Rafael Board of Education meetings. Appalled, more closely approximates my feelings. The largest single item on your tax bill was to be voted into effect without prior hearing or examination by the board. I am referring to the proposed salary increases and health benefit increases. Even more appalling, after delaying adoption one week, the board and administration did not discuss the increases, and how they were arrived at. No wonder the taxpayers take out their frustrations at the polls (until 1971 when AB 272 takes that away from you too).

Did you know that the proposed health plan for each San Rafael school employee will cost $33 per month, up from $21.50 this year and $10.50 last year? Is your health plan paid by your employer as generous?

Did you know that the top teacher salary now is not the talked-of $12,600, but $13,450 (plus additional for department heads, extra duty, etc.)? School year is 179 teaching days. The proposed schedule goes to $14,296 (plus). The increase for any teacher, not at the top of any scale, is not 6 per cent but 10 per cent. For example, a teacher at $8,600 this year would receive $9,450, next, or approximately 10 per cent. . .

Another puzzling aspect: If the board and administration are so concerned about the cost of living, why will non-teaching employees, most of whom receive substantially less than teachers, receive a 5 per cent increase, compared to the teachers' 6 per cent?

TRY AND STOP ME

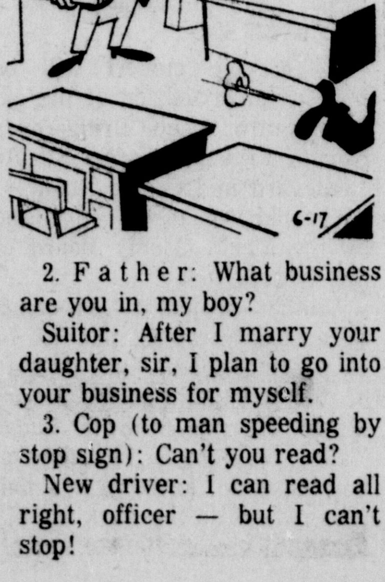
By BENNETT CERF

JOEY ADAMS tells of a boss who went on an efficiency kick and tacked up signs all over the office reading "Do It Now." Within four hours, the cashier absconded with the money in the safe, the secretary eloped with the boss' son, the office boy threw a bottle of ink into the electric fan, and the entire office staff went off to the ball game.

HOW MUCH has college humor changed in the past four or five decades? The following jokes appeared in the Columbia Jester and the Penn Punch Bowl in the '20s and '30s:

1. Judge: You admit you hooked the overcoat and now you request that I reduce the fine. What are your grounds?

Prisoner: It cost me eight bucks to have the sleeves shortened.



2. Father: What business are you in, my boy?

Suitor: After I marry your daughter, sir, I plan to go into your business for myself.

3. Cop (to man speeding by stop sign): Can't you read?

New driver: I can read all right, officer — but I can't stop!

Education Cuts Show How Priorities Are Out Of Line

Americans have understood the values of education as the foundation of economic advancement and the bulwark of freedom. Because of this understanding, we moved early to establish universal, free and compulsory public education at the elementary and secondary level. Later we incorporated features of public education in colleges, universities and technical training programs beyond the high school.

As state and local budgets have been squeezed by larger numbers of students and increased educational costs, the national government has responded with grant-in-aid legislation covering educational programs from Headstart through graduate school. Federal aid to education, which was once a major source of controversy, is now accepted as essential to better quality education. Unfortunately, the education budget request submitted by the Nixon administration for the fiscal year beginning July 1 do not support the kind of commitment we need for quality education.

THE CONGRESS authorized $8.9 billion for education programs next year. The U.S. Office of Education cut its request to $4.6 billion. The administration trimmed it further to $3.2 billion — less than half the estimated need.

Cuts in individual programs are even worse. The estimated annual need for construction of higher education facilities is about $4 billion, half of which could be met as a federal share under the Higher Education Act. The Congress authorized one billion dollars for fiscal year 1970 for two and four year colleges and graduate facilities. The amount contained in the revised budget is $65,-850,00 — less than 5 per cent of the authorization. No construction funds are provided for four-year undergraduate facilities. No funds are provided for graduate facilities.

The administration has crippled library service programs in its budget request. Support for library services in public and private elementary and secondary schools has been eliminated; general support for public library services have been cut in half and funds for construction of public libraries have been cut out.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S arguments for budget cuts for education are geared to the debate over inflation. Construction funds are being "deferred." But educational opportunities cannot be deferred. Poor schools, inadequately trained teachers and a lack of books are lost opportunities for children and young people — lost opportunities which may not be regained. Cheating students out of the kind of educational opportunities they need is false economy.

The administration has made much of national security in its arguments for defense production, including the expensive, dangerous and uncertain anti-ballistic missile system. That kind of security is of dubious value in the face of our growing need for well trained and well educated young men and women.

The education budget cuts provide another example of our distorted national priorities. We can send men to the moon, but we cannot spare enough money to educate young people to live in the society which makes moon travel possible. We can pour billions into complicated weapons systems, but we cannot afford to provide books for those who must develop the wisdom to avoid war and preserve freedom. Slowly, but steadily, the issue of national priorities is advancing as one of the major tests of the Nixon administration and the Congress. In my view, those priorities must be revised, soon.

Sihanouk Not Deceived, But Takes Devious Course

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

". . . short of being mentally deranged, a prince and former king must be well aware that the first concern of the Communists is to get rid of the king and natural elite of any country they succeed in laying hands on . . . I have no particular liking for Communism . . ."—Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia, July, 1958.

DESPITE a reputation as an erratic weathervane, the Cambodian chief of state never has had illusions about Communism or its ambitions.

But as he announced discovery of various plots against his regime, laying them one time to the U.S. Counter-Intelligence Agency (CIA) and another to the Communists, he also believed the Viet Cong were winning the battle for South Vietnam. For this, he blamed U.S. policy.

In September, 1963, he declared in an interview:

"The fate of South Vietnam appears to me to be sealed. That of my own country certainly will be also some time later."

HIS ANNOUNCED decision last week to renew the diplomatic relations he broke with the United States on May 3, 1965, marks another zig in the zig-zag course he has followed throughout the years of the Vietnam conflict, and it still must be viewed with reservations.

He announced a similar decision last April 16 only to reverse himself two weeks later, apparently under Communist pressure.

It was in early fall of 1968, late September and October, that Sihanouk first admitted what American military commanders had been saying for years, that the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were using Cambodia as a sanctuary.

IN A SPEECH Sihanouk declared that the Communists were disregarding their pledges to recognize the integrity of Cambodia's frontiers and were sending their troops into the northern provinces of Ratanakiri and Mondulkiri. His secretary of state for national security added a third, Svayrieng province.

The first two are thinly populated states opposite South Vietnam's central highlands. The third embraces the so-called parrot's beak which juts into South Vietnam less than 40 miles from Saigon.

At the same time, reports multiplied of increased activity of native Khmer Communists in provinces to the west close to Thailand. Sihanouk said they were financed from Peking and Hanoi.

SIHANOUK once described Cambodia as "like a stack of hay placed between two other stacks already set on fire."

These are the fires which threaten him now. American helicopter gunships attack Communist bases in Cambodia with no protest from Sihanouk. Cambodian recognition of Communist East Germany is an attempt to gain support from the Soviet Union against the threat from his neighbors. And renewal of relations with the United States is a backfire against broken promises.

A $4.7 Million Budget Proposed For Marin Muni Water District

A 1969-70 budget of $4.7 million, with capital expenditures cut back drastically, was proposed for the Marin Municipal Water District yesterday by William R. Seeger, district general manager.

At the same time, he told the district board it would take $10 to $15 million to rehabilitate the district's present system and $30 million to bring in future water supplies to Marin from the Russian River area.

Details of the budget will not be presented until the board's next meeting June 25, Seeger said, but he did reveal that a major project to bring in added water from San Geronimo to the Fairfax-San Anselmo area will be put off for at least a year.

No rate increase will be asked, Seeger said, but he warned that a future rate increase along with a major bond issue probably will be needed in the near future to meet water needs of Marin.

The district's expenditure budget for the current year is $4.5 million.

Seeger said he anticipates a 4 per cent increase in revenues in the fiscal year beginning July 1, but he also expects a boost of 7 per cent in operating expenses.

The major casualty of the resulting belt-tightening will be a major new water line from White's Hill to the Hub to supply added water from Kent Lake and Nicasio Reservoir.

The $1 million project originally was slated to begin in fiscal 1970, which starts next month, with half of the project being done then and half the following year. Seeger indicated the project now may be done all in one year, but the starting date will depend on the future money situation.

He advised the board that the district should revert to short-term loans instead of new bond issues to finance necessary improvements in facilities, partly because of the public's apparent reluctance to approve any bond issues and partly because of the tightening money market.

Seeger also told the board he is preparing a major report — due in several months — on the district's future needs. The installation of the White's Hill-Hub line should give the district a respite of at least two years before the district has to begin purchasing water from the North Marin County Water District, a tie-in that would cost an estimated $1.5 million.

A bond issue to finance piping water in from the Russian River is at least three years away, and possibly longer, he said. He estimated that the first phase of importing water from the north would cost $6 million.

Marin Municipal Water District Board Also:

SIERRA CLUB — Denied, over the objection of director William C. Herup, a request by the Sierra Club to hold moonlight hikes on district land on Mount Tamalpais June 21 and 26. Seeger recommended rejection chiefly because of increased fire hazards.

PAYMENT — Approved semi-final progress payment and accepted a completion notice on three rehabilitation programs in San Anselmo and Fairfax to Maggiora and Ghilotti, Inc. of Corte Madera.

TV — Granted a request by the San Francisco Archdiocese for space in the district's radio shack on Mount Tamalpais and installation of a whip antenna on the district's television broadcasts to Catholic schools in San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

PIPELINE — Approved the $11,979 pipeline extension agreement with the Pell Development Co. for the Pell Apartments in Larkspur and agreed to pay the $3,500 cost of increasing the size of the pipeline from eight to 12 inches.

LEASE — Renewed a greens cutting lease with Western Evergreen Co. for a fee of $1,000 for operations in the Kent Lake area.

BIDS — Accepted bids fo $9,159 from the Thatcher Body Co. for a crane and two-yard dump body and $350 plus $80 installation from McPhail's Inc. for a furnace in the district's Lagunitas keeper's house.

VARIANCE — Denied a request for a time extension on a water project at Forest Way, near Marin Avenue, in Tamalpais Valley by Bette W. Roberts.

Two Men Hurt On Bridgeway

Two men received minor injuries yesterday in a collision on Bridgeway near Pine street, Sausalito police said.

Richard D. Blacow, 39, of 1219 Bridgeway, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a scalp cut. Fragdi Zeitoun, 29, of 115 Elinor Avenue, Mill Valley, was treated for a cut chin.

Police said the accident occurred at 12:05 a.m. when Blacow, operator of Rico's Restaurant, pulled onto Bridgeway from Rico's driveway into the path of Zeitoun's car.

Discussion Set On Examinations For County Jobs

Should examinations for county employment be tailored so that minorities and other disadvantaged applicants will have a better chance of qualifying?

This is one of the questions that will be discussed by the Marin County Personnel Commission at its meeting Thursday at 3 p.m. in Room 426 at the Civic Center.

The commission, headed by Bella Aaron, will also discuss the county's grievance procedure and how it applies to employee organizations that enter into collective bargaining agreements with the county.

The commission's updated rules and regulations will come up for official adoption.

Personnel Director Maren Rinne will report on the present status of the collective bargaining negotiations with the Social Workers and Probation Workers Union, Local 535, AFL-CIO. Of the five employee groups, the social workers and the probation workers are the only ones who have not yet signed a contract for 1969-70 fiscal year.

The Dedication That Wasn't; The Fiesta That Got Too Big

What happened to the proposed dedication of Novato's Pioneer Memorial Park?

The Novato Civic Foundation has spearheaded the work on the park. Members of the foundation were holding a fund raising event at the park on June 7. They planned ahead that it would be a good time for dedication of the park.

Jack Holsclaw, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, said the commission confirmed that dedication date at least a month ahead of time.

Edwin V. Grundstrom, past president of the foundation, said that Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director, on June 2 told him that all arrangements had been made.

On Tuesday before the proposed dedication, the city council had not been asked to the affair. Mayor Harley A. McAskill, who was supposed to make the dedicatory address, had not been asked.

Later the program was changed to an open house fund raising event, without the dedication.

HOLSCLAW LAST WEEK thought that the park had been dedicated, because he had been out of town on June 7 and did not know about the last-minute change.

David Price Jones, president of the civic foundation, said that apparently no one had been placed in charge of it, so the plans had not been carried out.

The dedication has now been set for about Sept. 20 when the first phase of the park will be completed.

"This may be better because people can then see the park as it is going to be," Jones said. He added that the civic foundation raised nearly $1,000 for the park at the open house anyway and has purchased all the pipe necessary for the water system at a great reduction from Johns Manville Co.

IT IS TOO EARLY to fully evaluate this year's Western Weekend country fair celebration in Novato. Much depends on the success of this for future celebrations.

The Western Weekend celebration started as a parade by Novato Horsemen's Association members to their arena on Bugeia Lane for an amateur rodeo.

Then the Jaycees took over the celebration. The parade grew and other events added. The celebration grew until the Jaycees could no longer handle it and participating civic organizations went together to form a nonprofit corporation for it.

The celebration attracted crowds from all over the Bay Area, with the parade being the biggest drawing card. It also attracted some undesireable elements, such as the Gypsy Jokers motorcycle club.

This posed such a police problem that attendance dropped off because of feared trouble with the motorcyclists.

So this year, the format was changed into a country fair type celebration with that added to the name. It was hoped to make it more of a family type community celebration again.

If this succeeds as hoped, the pattern is set for the future. If not, it will be interesting to see what the leaders can find for a community celebration.

Language School Elects Officers

Gerhard Schmidt-Petersen of Santa Venetia has been re-elected president of the German Language School of Marin.

Other officers elected are:

Joseph Augustin of Petaluma, first vice president; Horst Krueger of Petaluma, second vice president; Mrs. Joachin Scholz of San Rafael, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Herbert Knappe of Fairfax, financial secretary; Vinzenz Hake of San Rafael, treasurer, and Mrs. F. Henning Bauer of Mill Valley, chairman of the parent advisory board.

The German Language School of Marin holds classes for ages three through adult on Saturday mornings at the Santa Venetia Middle School, North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia.

Sentence Date Set For Kentfield Man

Bart J. Bruno, 23, of Kentfield will appear in Marin Superior Court next Monday for setting of a sentencing date. He has pleaded guilty to possessing marijuana in his car on April 26.

Bruno was arrested when he stopped on Shoreline Highway to pick up a hitchhiker and a sheriff's deputy told him to move his car off the road. While making a license check, the deputy noticed marijuana in the glove compartment.

What To Do About Teddy When Mama Keeps Calling Up?

WASHINGTON — The problem of what to do about Teddy Kennedy is still haunting the Republicans. The strategy to hit him head-on almost worked. But what they failed to count on was Mrs. Rose Kennedy, Senator Kennedy's mother.

When Senator Dirksen attacked Kennedy on the floor of the Senate for Kennedy's remarks about the Vietnamese war, Dirksen received a telephone call from Mrs. Kennedy thanking him for "the gracious and temperate" tone of his speech.

The unflappable Dirksen became flapped and after exchanging some kind words walked out into the hall and told Senator Kennedy, "Your mother just called me to thank me for my speech."

LAST WEEK Senator Kennedy and Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina had a bitter exchange on the floor over Justice Douglas. As of this writing Mrs. Kennedy hasn't called Senator Thurmond, but I can imagine how the conversation will go when she does.

"Hello Senator Thurmond. This is Mrs. Rose Kennedy, Teddy's mother."

"How do you do, Mrs. Kennedy."

"I just wanted to thank you for the nice way you treated Teddy on the floor of the Senate the other day."

"You're very kind, but I'm afraid I lost my temper and said some mean things."

"GRACIOUS, NO. I thought you were very temperate. You did bring up the business at Harvard when Teddy was a student and had someone else take his test, but I thought you did it in a very nice way, and then you dropped it. A more petty man might have stayed with the subject for a long time."

"Well, I'm not a mean man, Mrs. Kennedy, but Teddy really got me riled when he corrected my pronunciation of Jose Figueres, former president of Costa Rica."

"Teddy's always doing things like that. I've told him since he was a little boy that people pronounce Spanish words differently in different parts of the country, but he seems to forget. Your pronunciation is beautiful, senator, and I'm going to speak to Teddy about it."

"THAT'S VERY kind of you, Mrs. Kennedy. I hope you realize there was nothing personal in our exchange. I was just trying to make a point about Justice Douglas' association with a private foundation and Teddy kept interrupting me on the floor."

"If I've told Teddy once, I've told him a hundred times not to interrupt when somebody else is speaking. I assure you he didn't learn that habit at home."

"I appreciate that, Mrs. Kennedy, and I must say in the heat of battle we do lose our tempers. I wasn't questioning Justice Douglas' character. I was dealing with the issues of the foundations."

"I know you weren't. I told Teddy you would never make a vicious attack on anybody. It's not in your nature as a southern gentleman."

"THAT'S MIGHTY kind of you to say that, ma'am. I do pride myself on my kindness."

"Of course, you've got to understand Teddy's problem. Everybody is picking on him, and he's very sensitive to the way people criticize him. Thank goodness for men like you and Senator Dirksen who refuse to get on the bandwagon."

"I don't know what to say, Mrs. Kennedy. I'm all choked up."

"You don't have to say anything. I know you will never say anything about Teddy that would hurt his mother."

"No, ma'am. You can be assured of that."

Thurmond hangs up and calls Senator Dirksen and says, "Everett, we've been had."

Teen Faces Sentence On Drug Charge

Sentencing for Robert Andrew Enos, 18, who has pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to being in a place where narcotics were used, has been set for July 11.

Enos earlier had been accused of a felony charge of possessing marijuana in a car on April 14. He was arrested after Larkspur police noticed a strong odor of the weed coming from the car.

Bennett Wins Fight Against Gas Company

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former California Public Utilities Commissioner William M. Bennett has won his lonely fight against the El Paso Natural Gas Co. and a couple of states

The Supreme Court ruled yesterday by a 4-2 count that El Paso must get rid of its Northwest division by immediate cash sale, instead of the stock transfer that El Paso had proposed to use for selling the facilities to Colorado Interstate Gas Co.

It thus upheld Bennett's single-handed appeal to the high court, which he took after the Justice Department and other participants backed out.

Bennett, a resident of Kentfield, appointed to the utilities commission by Gov. Edmund G. Brown and replaced by Gov. Ronald Reagan, filed the suit, he said, in an attempt to generate more competition and create the effect of lowering natural gas prices in northern California.

Bennett said here after yesterday's verdict that "it's a victory for the people of the State of California, and a great euphoria of happiness to me."

The fight was over some gas wells in the northwest and Canada and a pipeline that goes through Washington, Oregon, and the mountain states. Bennett hopes that the pipeline can be brought into California and put under control of an aggressive company to get competition going between the Northwest firm and El Paso, which now supplies most of California's gas.

Other government agencies consented to the sale of the line to Colorado Interstate, but Bennett objected and spoke to the court as a consumer spokesman.

He asserted Colorado Interstate has shown it is not an aggressive firm and that under the sale, it would have a monopoly position in the Mountain States similar to El Paso's in the Southwest.

Senate Demos Will Delay ABM Action For Reactions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders have decided to postpone Senate action on the controversial Safeguard missile defense system until members can reassess home-state sentiment during a July 4 recess.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, a Safeguard supporter, suggested the postponement yesterday. He told colleagues privately that when he brings a military procurement bill before the Senate containing Safeguard authorization he wants to keep it there without a break until there is a showdown vote.

Concurring in this, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, a Safeguard critic, said in an interview he thinks it would be a mistake to bring the bill up and then to have to lay it aside for the holiday, which starts July 3.

What effect the delay in Senate action on the ABM might have on the trend of public opinion remains to be seen.

Mansfield conceded that a week of appearances in Montana left him confused about public reaction. Montana has been designated as one of the two sites for the ABM installations.

"There is more interest among the people of my state in farm prices, with wheat selling below corn, and they are jittery about what the new 8.5 per cent interest rate is going to do to them," Mansfield said. "ABM comes in about third in their interests.

"I have had about 500 letters on ABM, 450 of them opposing it. But on the other hand a recognized polling agency reports that the people of Montana are two to one in favor of ABM."

Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., said he came away from a recent visit to North Dakota, which would house the other missile site, with the impression that 75 per cent of the people favor ABM. He is an ABM backer.

Trial Delayed

A jury trial for Philip Charles Verheyden, 22, of Corte Madera, who is accused of four felony credit card forgeries and bad check charges, yesterday was set for the week of Oct. 20 in Marin Superior Court.

A free booklet to answer your questions about Annuities

There comes a time in most men's lives when a guaranteed income is more important than the hope of capital gain.

And that's exactly what annuities from Manufacturers Life offer. They provide an automatic, guaranteed income for life.

People have asked us many questions about annuities in the past. Important questions such as: Can I arrange for some of the money to be returned to my estate if I die early? Is there an annuity that will transfer the income to my wife if she outlives me? How do annuities affect my income tax? Is an annuity a practical way of supplementing Social Security and other retirement income?

To provide you with the answers we have published an easy-to-read, easy-to-understand booklet called "Annuities . . . the key to a golden age." It's yours for the asking, without obligation. Just fill in and return the coupon below. And if you would like to discuss annuities with someone, you couldn't find a better person to talk to than the Man from Manufacturers.

TWO INJURED, POLE SNAPPED

Two persons were injured about 10:30 p.m. yesterday when their 1969 Pontiac ran into a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. pole on Fifth Avenue just west of Scenic Avenue in San Rafael. The driver, Henry K. W. Fincher, 19, of 722 Drake Avenue, Marin City and a student at the College of Marin, was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts. Donna Marie Tarabella, 20, of 201 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, suffered a concussion and a broken back and is listed in fair condition today at Marin General. San Rafael police had no details of the accident. A PG&E worker in the background inspects the damaged pole and hot electrical lines on the ground. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Fairfax Asks 'How' On Teen Interest

By SUZANNE WOOD

The people of Fairfax apparently want greater youth participation in city government, but the problem may be getting the young people interested in the idea.

About 25 adults and one conspicuously lonely young person turned out for a meeting last night at the Fairfax Women's Club to discuss establishing a youth commission for the city.

The meeting, unlike the lively and much larger gathering there last week, was calm and all present seemed to agree that youth participation in city government—not just recreational planning — may be a needed and desirable thing.

Ideas in the 90-minute meeting ranged from establishing a youth commission to the suggestion of a teen-age voice on the city council. But all the discussion ultimately revolved back to the same point: Do the youth want more participation and how?

But only 15-year-old Steve Jensen, of San Anselmo and coordinator of the rather small and loosely structured Fairfax Teen Club, was present to answer, and he was put on the spot several times in trying to speak for all the youth.

Jensen, who is promoter of the teen dances held in the Fairfax Pavilion, has had his share of city problems since Memorial Day when trouble, stemming from overcrowded conditions, broke out and caused the dance to be shut down.

Various ways of creating youth participation were suggested.

"Why don't we involve them in city government by putting one on the council?" asked W. M. Cummings of 165 Frustruck Avenue, adding that there was little that occurred which wouldn't "profit by the view of a young person."

"They been listening to me all their lives and now I'd like to listen to more of their views," Cummings continued. He noted the young person would not be expected to carry a vote on the council because of the legality involved with age.

Cummings' suggestion brought no real opposition, but some like audience member Priscilla Grey seemed to think the routine business of city council "would bore the kids."

Jensen said he had received a better perspective of the operation of city government by his attendance lately of several meetings, but he later quipped he'd rather be on the parks and recreation commission than the city council.

"The purpose (of a young person on the council) is not just to learn about city government but to provide for them a position from which they can be more effectively heard," Cummings told the group.

Then the group moved on to what would create youth interest in the idea and what was relevant to them. Jensen said that a present recreational activities are their primary concern.

Joseph Kriegel of 351 Olema Drive suggested that a representative on the school board might hold more interest for students than the city council.

Mayor Francis J. O'Connell said the timing was bad since school had closed but he suggested a town meeting which would be well publicized to young people who could express their feelings about greater youth participation. No definite meeting was set.

Meanwhile, however, the park and recreation commission will discuss the topic at its next meeting July 1.

Practical Nurse's Trial Opens

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Trial opened today in Sonoma County Superior Court of Vera Mae Walsh, former Fairfax practical nurse, charged with involuntary manslaughter and forgery.

The trial was transferred yesterday to the court of Judge Joseph P. Murphy Jr. after Mrs. Walsh, through attorney Albert Rizzo, disqualified Judge Lincoln F. Mahan.

Mrs. Walsh, 42, is accused of killing her patient, Mrs. Gloria Giannis, who died Jan 5. from an overdose of drugs at the women's Santa Rosa apartment.

She is also accused of forging Mrs. Giannis's name after her death to two checks totaling $135.

John W. Hawkes, Sonoma County assistant district attorney, said he expects the trial to last two weeks.

Mrs. Walsh is to be sentenced June 30 in Marin Superior Court for the theft of valuables from the home of a Fairfax couple by whom she was employed.

Brawling Case Counts Halted

Seven juveniles arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon were released yesterday in Central Sonoma Municipal Court and no complaints filed against them.

The youngsters had been arrested Saturday after three Cotati men were stabbed in a brawl at the Seahorse Tavern, 7665 Old Redwood Highway, Cotati.

Released were Fred Gilbert, 18; Melvin J. Hearne, 18; Letonia Leaks, 18; Marzette Gilbert, 17; Leon O. Wiggins, 19, all of San Francisco; and Rose May Smith, 20, and Olie May Smith, 18, both of Santa Rosa.

Tam High Board Approves 5 Pct. Salary Increase

The Tamalpais High School District board last night, over protest of several teachers, approved a 5 per cent across-the-board salary schedule raise for district employees for 1969-70.

The action means an approximate $600 per year increase per person plus the automatic annual step raise. It increases the salary range from the current $6,770 to $13,900 schedule to $7,370 to $14,500.

Trustees also increased medical and dental insurance benefits.

William B. Wilkinson, chairman of the teachers' negotiating council, asked the board to defer action on salaries to June 30 in order to allow more discussion but the board rejected this proposal.

The board, reported administrative assistant Edward J. Neumeir, said it must act as it did in order to balance the budget and maintain the necessary reserve.

Trustees also adopted a tentative 1969-70 budget of $9,142,561, a drop of $38,775 from the current budget of $9,181,336. The board also agreed that its goal is to maintain a $1.3 million reserve over the next two years to avoid deficit financing.

A publication budget hearing was set for 8 p.m., July 7 at the district office at which time trustees expect to cut the budget.

The Tamalpais High School District board also:

NEW PRINCIPAL — Deferred to July 7 action on selection procedure for a permanent principal at Tamalpais High School.

DISCIPLINE STUDY — Accepted a discipline study committee report from chairman Ellen Bickley and said action would be counsidered after review by the district's administrative council.

NUMERICAL CONTROL — Awarded a $8,334 contract to BHS Machinery Co., South San Francisco, for numerical control equipment for Redwood High School.

DEAN OF BOYS — Named Norman L. Cady, Tamalpais High physical education teacher and coach, acting dean of boys at Tamalpais for 1969-70, to succeed Henry A. Marshall who will be acting assistant principal.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE — Granted a medical leave of absence to Adrian Cobb, Sir Francis Drake High science teacher, and maternity leave to Sandra Gariffo, Tamalpais High English teacher, both for 1969-70.

EMPLOYED — Hired Jess M. Payan to teach physical education, Redwood High School, $13,165; Kenneth D. Peterson, Opportunity School teacher, $9,160; Burton H. Greene, Opportunity School teacher, $9,065; Marilee E. Ruta, Opportunity School teacher, $8,355; Jess Racines, physical education, Tamalpais; no salary determined, and Roland L. Carr, mathematics teacher, Tamalpais, $12,720.

WORKSHOP MEETING — Set 8 p.m. Monday to meet in the district office to discuss a management evaluation report prepared by Arthur B. Little Co. of San Francisco.

Bridge Widening Bid Of $39,215

Widening of Sutro Avenue bridge in Novato will cost just under $40,000, according to bids opened yesterday at the Civic Center.

Mountain States Construction Co. of Concord offered to do the job for $39,215, the lowest of three bids which ranged to a high of $49,454.

A concrete culvert will be built as an extension of the existing Sutro Avenue Bridge over Novato Creek, between Novato Boulevard and Center Road.

The bid was to be considered by the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

Another project to be considered today was the addition of 16 parking spaces and overlay of the existing parking lot at Marin Juvenile Hall in Lucas Valley. William K. McLellan of San Anselmo, lowest of six bidders, would do the work for $4,057.60.

Hub Variance Requests Denied

An application by Tor J. Nielsen for a variance to build a carport within the required front and sideyard setback at his home at 20 Tamalpais Avenue was denied by a 6-0 vote of the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night.

Also rejected, by a 5-1 vote, was an application by John C. Poppy of 462 Laurel Avenue for a variance to construct a storage room in his garage. Commissioner Allen J. Creighton dissented.

The commission approved the serving of beer in a Mexican restaurant in a remodeled building at 330 San Anselmo Avenue.

The resignation of Commissioner Joseph Gue, who is moving to Sleepy Hollow, was announced last night.

Novato Man Is Arraigned

William Harvey Koontz, 23, of 1000 Eighth Street, Novato, was arraigned yesterday in Marin Superior Court on a charge of possessing marijuana.

His case was continued until June 30 for entry of plea.

Koontz was arrested March 18 by the California Highway Patrol.

Terra Linda Services Tax Rate May Climb

The Terra Linda Community Services District tax rate, which is 84 cents this year, may go up to 90 cents per $100 of assessed valuation because the fiscal 1970 budget is up about $3,000 to $63,000.

This was disclosed last night at a meeting of the CSD board of directors. Chairman Neal D. Harding announced that a public hearing on the budget will be held at 9 p.m. June 26 in the Terra Linda firehouse.

Kentfield Sets Vote On Tax Hike

An election to increase the tax rate in the Kentfield School District will be held Oct. 7, the district board decreed last night.

The amount of the increase will be set at a meeting at 8 p.m. July 7 in Wolfe Grade School, said Dist. Supt. Anthony G. Bacich. The district tax rate, including overrides, is now $3.34 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Bacich said the extra funds will be needed to maintain the present school program for the 1970-71 year. Trustees have adopted a preliminary 1969-70 budget of $1,331,171, which sharply reduces maintenance costs and eliminates nearly all capital outlay items.

CONTRACT

In other business last night, trustees approved raises for six district administrators, including Bacich, who was given a new four-year contract at $20,700 a year. Bacich's present four-year contract, which has a year to run, calls for an annual wage of $20,000.

Other pay raises approved were: Roy L. Smith, principal at Greenbrae School, $16,600 from $16,000; Gene L. Hendsch, Wolfe Grade School principal, same; Dr. Robert E. Shore, principal of the seventh and eighth grades at Adeline E. Kent School, $16,000 from $15,800; Warren English, principal of kindergarten through sixth grade at Kent School, $14,800 from $13,500, and Jack D. Williams, district guidance counselor, $17,000 from $16,400.

The Kentfield School District board also:

NONGRADED — Approved extension of the nongraded program to Greenbrae and Wolfe Grade schools with provision for periodic review.

MUSEUM — Renewed an agreement with the Louise M. Boyd Marin Museum of Science for use of its materials and facilities.

TEACHER— Hired Gloria Fan Wong as a teacher at $7,865 a year.

A TRUSTEE'S VIEWS

College Unrest Not Red-Linked

What colleges are experiencing today is not a worldwide conspiracy inspired and financed by the Communists.

Rather, "it is a movement made difficult by a most articulate minority which lashes out in its fury and frustrations and seeks to destroy the very establishments of society that make possible their right to protest and dissent."

Elizabeth M. Deedy, Marin Junior College District trustee, asserted these views at a breakfast talk today to an audience of about 100 before the Marin County Real Estate Board.

She continued, saying, "they (the minority students) strike out in anger on conditions that should be changed. They rebel at the academic requirements for which they cannot see immediate need."

She said that in many cases these young people do not know where they want to go nor what they want to achieve in life.

Campuses face problems in developing and using procedures to avoid disruption while allowing rightful, legal dissent, Mrs. Deedy commented.

Deedy told the brokers: "We hear from the extreme right. We hear from the extreme left. Now we need to hear from the majority."

She said the district needs financial help for construction of its second campus at Novato and facilities on the Kentfield campus; for district operation and for financial aid to students.

She asked the brokers for greater support on an annual basis to help students saying, "Education is still the most effective and lasting way to build America better."

Speaking on the topic, "To Hell With Glocca Morra — How Are Things At College of Marin?" Mrs. Deedy ended her address saying, "I hope you will never say 'To hell with the College of Marin'."

Teachers Threatening Sanctions Over Pay

Novato teachers and Novato Unified School District Board today are deadlocked over salary and fringe benefits for the coming year with the teachers threatening sanctions against the district, according to Supt. James G. Bunker.

In a closed meeting last night, the board rejected the latest proposal of the teachers, who in turn, through their negotiating council, today rejected the counter-proposal made to them after the closed meeting, Bunker said.

The Novato Teachers Association, an affiliate of the California Teachers Association, is considering an imposition of sanctions against the district, said Donald White, NTA president.

The school board had offered an across-the-board salary schedule increase of 4 per cent for certificated personnel and $15 per month fringe benefits. The fringe benefits average 1.5 per cent, Bunker said. The schedule increase would be in addition to the automatic annual step increases built into the schedule.

The NTA accepted this proposal but in its acceptance, said that any further income to the district over the preliminary budget estimate should be divided 70 per cent for certificated salaries and 30 per cent to restore items cut from the budget to provide the 4 per cent hike.

This was rejected by the board.

The counter-proposal of the board last night was that it would add another 1 per cent to the 4 per cent, if additional money came to the district after it has restored $135,000 in cuts to the budget.

The NTA said that their last request was in direct line with an agreement made last fall in which teachers' salaries would have first priority in the budget this year, according to White.

The board last night granted the nonteaching personnel a 5 per cent across-the-board pay increase and $10 fringe benefits.

Speaking on the teacher requests, Bunker said that this was the board's final offer, so there will not be any further negotiations.

Teens Face Charges On Drug Passing

Two young men, who attempted to smuggle narcotics into Marin County Jail during the weekend, face new charges and will be arraigned today in Municipal Court on various drug counts.

David Brian Dennison, 19, of San Rafael, who is serving a sentence for burglary, tried to bring hashish tablets into jail after returning from a doctor's appointment Saturday, jailors said.

During a routine skin search the tables wrapped in cellophane were discovered in a body cavity, according to deputies.

Dennison will be charged with two felony counts of possession of drugs and smuggling them into jail.

On Sunday, Kevin Wiley Good, 18, of Mill Valley, who is spending weekends in jail for a traffic offense, reported to the jail carrying a package of cigarettes in which a marijuana cigarette wa shidden among the regular ones, deputies said.

Good will be charged with possession of marijuana and attempted smuggling, according to the district attorney's office.

Clothes, Bike Are Stolen

San Rafael police today reported a theft in the parking lot of the Bermuda Palms, 737 Francisco Boulevard Saturday night.

Police say clothes at an undetermined value were stolen from the car of Douglas E. Mounton of Alberta, Canada after the window was pried open with the radio aerial.

Police also reported the theft of a 20-inch bike belonging to Kevin J. Holtziner of 14 Anchorage Court, San Rafael. The bike, valued at $45, was reported stolen Saturday from outside Longs Drug Store at Northgate Shopping Center.

Arson Check In $22,000 House Fire

Fire last night destroyed the $22,000 newly built but unoccupied home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Angress on Shoreline Highway, two miles north of Marshall in West Marin.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said this morning that there is a storng possibility of arson since the vacant building does not have electricity or gas yet.

The blaze was first spotted about 11:15 p.m. by a neighbor's child and almost simultaneously by Angress from his ranch home on Shoreline Highway. Mrs. Angress said she and her husband had been working at the new house until about 9 p.m.

The exterior of the wood-frame house had been completed with only interior work remaining. The contractor for the two-level home which had been under construction for about three weeks was Ed Vaccha of Point Reyes. The new house was more than half destroyed when firemen arrived. Two trucks and two men responded from the Tamalpais station and the same from the Point Reyes station. There are no nearby homes. Firemen tried to control the spread of fire to grassy areas.

Mrs. Angress said that she and her husband discovered a pack of cigarettes this morning near the site. Neither she nor Angress smokes.

Sirhan's Mother Visits Again

Mary Sirhan, mother of convicted assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan, today completed her third visit in as many days with her son at San Quentin.

The tiny, white-haired woman said Sirhan was "not happier" at San Quentin but that he "had more freedom and got along better with officials" than at Los Angeles County Jail where he was held for a year.

Mrs. Sirhan was expected to return today to Los Angeles.

Prisoners are allowed four visits per month from relatives. With Mrs. Sirhan was her son Munir, 21.

It's Blackmail To Most Of Us, But To Some . . .

The New York State Investigation Commission, probing infiltration of the Mafia into legitimate businesses, recently explored the affairs of Nylo-Thane Plastics Corp. of Farmingdale, N. Y.

Maurice Minuto, head of Nylo-Thane, testified that one day in August, 1967, he received an after-hours office visit from a half-dozen thugs, armed with knives and a silencer-equipped pistol. They forced him to hand over $25,000 in company funds, he said.

MINUTO DID NOT call the police. Instead, next day he called "Gentleman John" Masiello, a Mafia big shot. Gentleman John told him to go to Royal National Bank of New York and borrow $50,000.

Minuto did as he was told. Then Gentleman John instructed him to turn over $49,000 to Setmar Holding Corp., a company which Gentleman John controlled. Minuto did. Presumably he got to keep $1,000 for himself.

Since Minuto now was aware of how things were done, it was not necessary to have thugs call on him with knives and pistols any more. But during the next few months, he paid more than $240,000 to Gentleman John, to Gentleman John's son, John Masiello Jr., and to ANR Leasing Corp., which Gentleman John controlled. All this money was borrowed from Royal National Bank, which apparently found Minuto and Nylo-Thane Plastics very good risks.

THIS TESTIMONY, along with similar testimony from other New York businessmen, has put both state and federal investigators to work trying to build cases not only of extortion but of illegal lending practices and other peccadillos. It has also brought down the wrath of the House Banking Committee.

Nobody has made Maurice Minuto a hero for paying blackmail.

THERE IS LITTLE discernible difference between what Minuto did and what a score or more of college and university presidents across the nation have done during the academic year just closed. Faced by demands accompanied by threats, they have granted what the blackmailers dictated, from separate black studies departments to discontinuance of ROTC to admission of unqualified students.

Strangely, these presidents have in most cases received wide acclaim from so-called "liberals" for paying this blackmail.

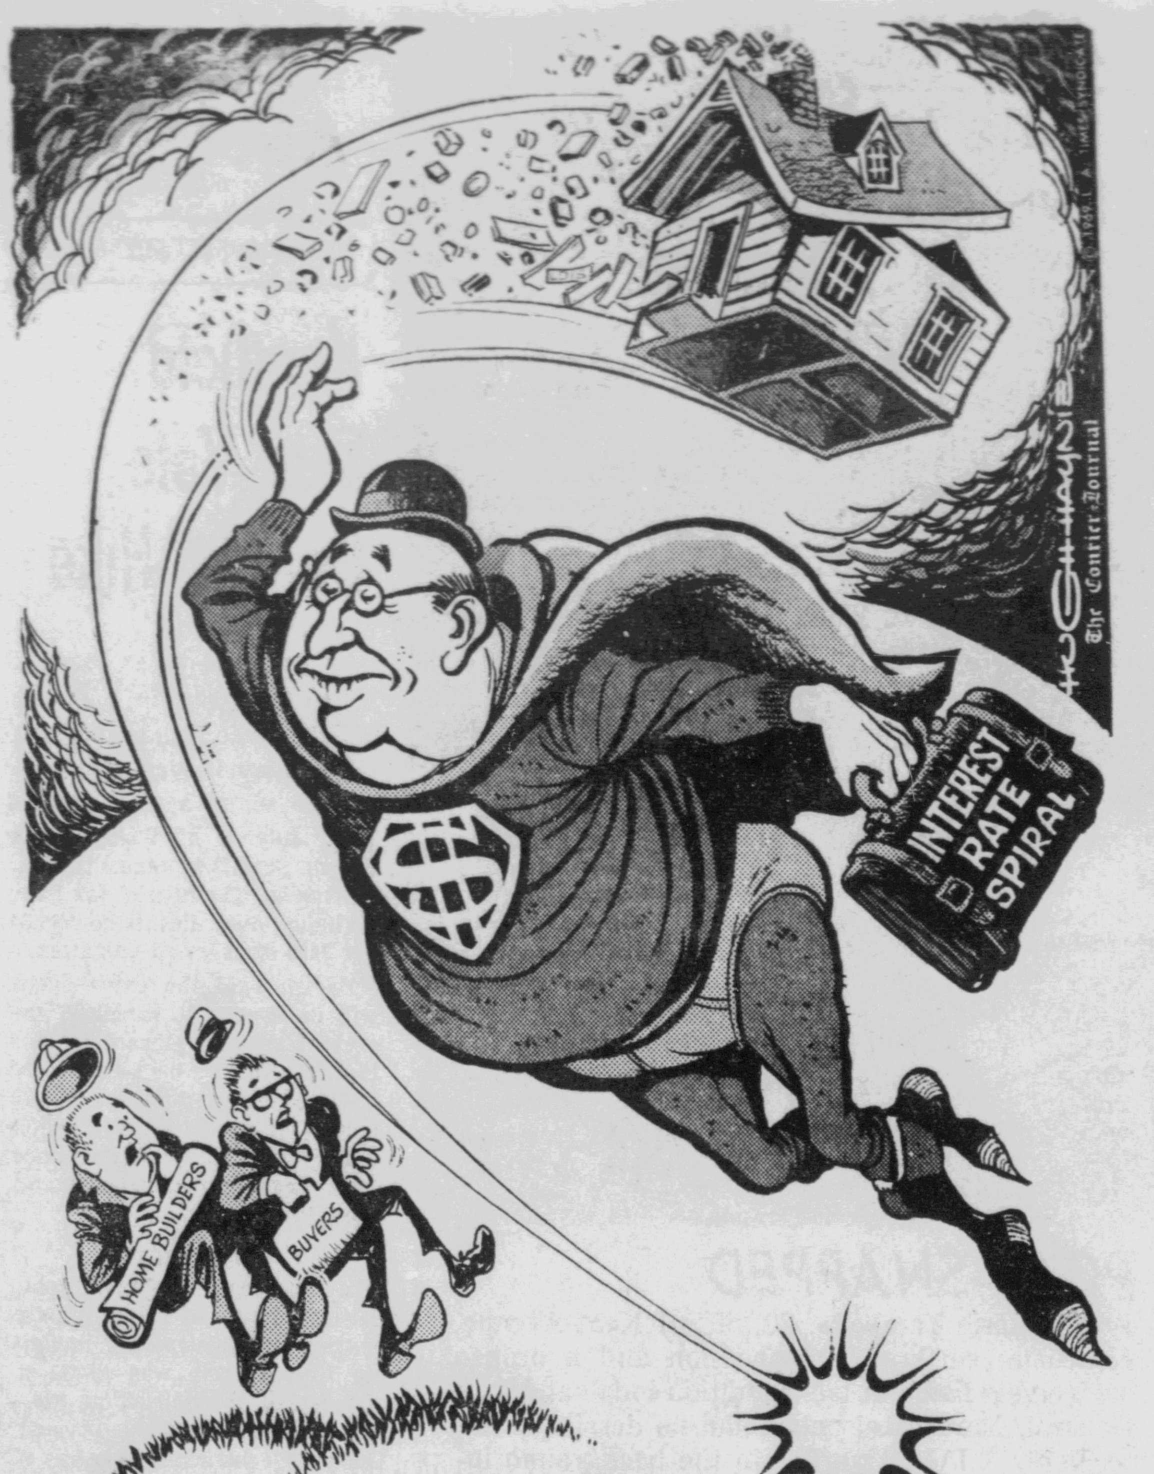
PERHAPS THE COLLEGE presidents saw nothing wrong in it; they may be believers in a philosophy espoused by one of their own coterie, Dr. Donald R. Cressley, professor of sociology at University of California at Santa Cruz.

In his recent book, "Theft of the Nation," Cressley, commenting that "a little cold-blooded appeasement is not necessarily a bad thing, especially when our side is losing," suggested that federal and state officials should make deals with the Cosa Nostra (he didn't call it paying blackmail) to keep it out of legitimate business (like Nylo-Thane Plastics, for instance).

It is, wrote Cressley, "not inconceivable that the Cosa Nostra would give up its political involvements and its illegal operation of legitimate businesses . . . if it could be assured that it would be permitted to keep the profits, after payment of taxes, on bet-taking."

THIS, WE SUPPOSE, is "the new morality."

Mr. Minuto, meet Dr. Cressley!



"It's a Hawk! It's a Buzzard! It's SUPERBANKER!"

AN EDUCATOR'S VIEW

'New Left' Gets Its Lessons From Old Leftists On Faculties

By JOHN W. GILBAUGH
Professor of Education
San Jose State College

The eyes of the nation continue to be focused on the University of California at Berkeley. And well they should be, for what happens at Berkeley could occur anywhere. The People's Park struggle provides the current vehicle for radical student confrontation, and another test for an innovative revolutionary procedure. Berkeley has served as the proving grounds for techniques of revolution. After the "bugs" are removed the procedures are then applied on other campuses across the country.

The student uprisings are not spontaneous. They have been in the planning stages for years. Let us take a look at some statements made by one Dr. James O'Connor, an associate professor of economics at San Jose State College. On May 20, Dr. O'Connor addressed between 400 and 500 students at the University of California's Santa Cruz campus. According to Mel Baughman, a Santa Cruz Sentinel staff writer who covered the meeting, O'Connor told the students, "The struggle over People's Park in Berkeley establishes precedent for building a socialist revolution in the future."

Baughman further stated that O'Connor told the audience of the spread of Marxist economists, sociologists, and philosophers in colleges and universities and high schools across the land.

"THIS MEANS," O'Connor said, "that it's going to be a different ball game in the 1970s. . . .

The ruling class in the United States is no longer fit to rule because they no longer have any ideas. They have no concept of how to use society to advance human values . . . The ruling class can't save America, and by America, I mean us. Only we in the movement can save us." He quoted statements by Fidel Castro during the Communist revolution in Cuba to make his point, Baughman reported.

"We need a socialist blueprint for the future that will end the United States an an imperialist and capitalistic country. We must get rid of the capitalistic mode of production in the United States . . .This is an ideological struggle," O'Connor said, "and we must fight in day-to-day confrontations in every conceivable way to make this struggle succeed."

BUT O'CONNOR is not a Johnny-Come-Lately in the "movement." Alice Widener, publisher of U.S.A. Magazine, in covering the second annual conference of Socialist Scholars in 1966, provided a detailed account on Socialist ideology as advocated by leaders of the movement. And she supplied a roster of names which reads like a "Who's Who Among Socialist Scholars in American Colleges and Universities." On the Widener list, which contained 54 names of "official" participants in the conference, were several from California colleges and universities. They were Franz Schurmann and James Petras from the University of California, Berkeley, and Dr. James O'Connor from San Jose State College. Dr. Nathan Hare, who was listed as attending from Howard University, has since moved to San Francisco State College.

Widener reported:

HOW DO FACULTY members like O'Connor get appointed to public, tax-supported colleges and university faculties? This writer served as dean of the college at San Jose State College when O'Connor was recommended by the department of economics faculty for appointment. After a thorough investigation which verified O'Connor's philosophy, I vetoed his proposed appointment. Nevertheless, with the same information at his disposal, Dr. Robert D. Clark, president of San Jose State College, appointed O'Connor and giving him two salary increments above the normal appointment level.

Bible Quoted For Unbeliever

In reference to Mr. Fred MacDonald's letter to the editor (June 12):

"The fool hath said in his heart there is no God." — Psalm 14:1, Psalm 53:1, King James Version.

Withholding Tax Skilfully Laid Trap

You're so right, Mr. (William T.) Bagley. We must mechanize the collection of taxes. Your crafty system of picking our pockets works beautifully and painlessly. In certain states, for example, it's not only Washington, but the state and the city also that withhold. Works like a charm. And it makes the raising of taxes so simple — right?

I've written Governor Reagan supporting his one-man stand against this deceptive system. He'd like to hear from the rest of us who recognize this plot for what it is — the politician's dream of the perfect state. The money just rolls in, every month, with every employer an income tax collector.

The politicians' most effective argument for withholding: "But there are so many who don't pay any tax, don't you want every one to pay? Why, we'll pick up another $20 million." (Or is it $200 million?) The implication: we who do pay will get a reduction.

A skilfully laid trap.

Children Watch Lewd Film Previews

The other evening my husband and I took our four children to the Auto-Movies drive-in theater in Petaluma.

We were both absolutely shocked at what we saw on the screen for the coming attractions. I was always under the impression there was a law on pornography. It does not seem as though this law is being enforced these days.

One of the pictures was "The Killing of Sister George" and the other was "Vixen." The management of this theater suggested these pictures be seen by no one under 16 years of age. Yet they showed the previews for these films to an audience of mostly children. . .

I do not consider myself to be old fashioned or a Puritan of any kind, but these pictures are nothing but obscene and leave nothing to the imagination.

I feel that if they are allowed to show these things on the screen, that soon we will have no morals left and that nothing about love and marriage (will be) sacred.

What do you think may happen to the emotions of a couple of 16 or 17 year old kids out on a date after seeing these type films? . . .

I feel there must be many other parents who feel the same, and would like to see something done about the way our moral codes are decaying.

School Spending Without Discussion

I am very concerned about procedures followed on money items at San Rafael Board of Education meetings. Appalled, more closely approximates my feelings. The largest single item on your tax bill was to be voted into effect without prior hearing or examination by the board. I am referring to the proposed salary increases and health benefit increases. Even more appalling, after delaying adoption one week, the board and administration did not discuss the increases, and how they were arrived at. No wonder the taxpayers take out their frustrations at the polls (until 1971 when AB 272 takes that away from you too).

Did you know that the proposed health plan for each San Rafael school employee will cost $33 per month, up from $21.50 this year and $10.50 last year? Is your health plan paid by your employer as generous?

Did you know that the top teacher salary now is not the talked-of $12,600, but $13,450 (plus additional for department heads, extra duty, etc.)? School year is 179 teaching days. The proposed schedule goes to $14,296 (plus). The increase for any teacher, not at the top of any scale, is not 6 per cent but 10 per cent. For example, a teacher at $8,600 this year would receive $9,450, next, or approximately 10 per cent. . .

Another puzzling aspect: If the board and administration are so concerned about the cost of living, why will non-teaching employees, most of whom receive substantially less than teachers, receive a 5 per cent increase, compared to the teachers' 6 per cent?

TRY AND STOP ME

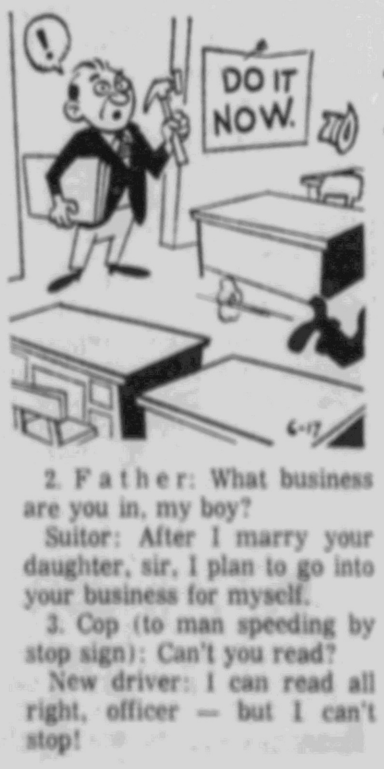
By BENNETT CERF

JOEY ADAMS tells of a boss who went on an efficiency kick and tacked up signs all over the office reading "Do It Now." Within four hours, the cashier absconded with the money in the safe, the secretary eloped with the boss' son, the office boy threw a bottle of ink into the electric fan, and the entire office staff went off to the ball game.

HOW MUCH has college humor changed in the past four or five decades? The following jokes appeared in the Columbia Jester and the Penn Punch Bowl in the '20s and '30s:

1. Judge: You admit you hooked the overcoat and now you request that I reduce the fine. What are your grounds?

Prisoner: It cost me eight bucks to have the sleeves shortened.



2. Father: What business are you in, my boy?

Suitor: After I marry your daughter, sir, I plan to go into your business for myself.

3. Cop (to man speeding by stop sign): Can't you read?

New driver: I can read all right, officer — but I can't stop!

Education Cuts Show How Priorities Are Out Of Line

Americans have understood the values of education as the foundation of economic advancement and the bulwark of freedom. Because of this understanding, we moved early to establish universal, free and compulsory public education at the elementary and secondary level. Later we incorporated features of public education in colleges, universities and technical training programs beyond the high school.

As state and local budgets have been squeezed by larger numbers of students and increased educational costs, the national government has responded with grant-in-aid legislation covering educational programs from Headstart through graduate school. Federal aid to education, which was once a major source of controversy, is now accepted as essential to better quality education. Unfortunately, the education budget request submitted by the Nixon administration for the fiscal year beginning July 1 do not support the kind of commitment we need for quality education.

THE CONGRESS authorized $8.9 billion for education programs next year. The U.S. Office of Education cut its request to $4.6 billion. The administration trimmed it further to $3.2 billion — less than half the estimated need.

Cuts in individual programs are even worse. The estimated annual need for construction of higher education facilities is about $4 billion, half of which could be met as a federal share under the Higher Education Act. The Congress authorized one billion dollars for fiscal year 1970 for two and four year colleges and graduate facilities. The amount contained in the revised budget is $65,850,00 — less than 5 per cent of the authorization. No construction funds are provided for four-year undergraduate facilities. No funds are provided for graduate facilities.

The administration has crippled library service programs in its budget request. Support for library services in public and private elementary and secondary schools has been eliminated; general support for public library services have been cut in half and funds for construction of public libraries have been cut out.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S arguments for budget cuts for education are geared to the debate over inflation. Construction funds are being "deferred." But educational opportunities cannot be deferred. Poor schools, inadequately trained teachers and a lack of books are lost opportunities for children and young people — lost opportunities which may not be regained. Cheating students out of the kind of educational opportunities they need is false economy.

The administration has made much of national security in its arguments for defense production, including the expensive, dangerous and uncertain anti-ballistic missile system. That kind of security is of dubious value in the face of our growing need for well trained and well educated young men and women.

The education budget cuts provide another example of our distorted national priorities. We can send men to the moon, but we cannot spare enough money to educate young people to live in the society which makes moon travel possible. We can pour billions into complicated weapons systems, but we cannot afford to provide books for those who must develop the wisdom to avoid war and preserve freedom. Slowly, but steadily, the issue of national priorities is advancing as one of the major tests of the Nixon administration and the Congress. In my view, those priorities must be revised, soon.

Sihanouk Not Deceived, But Takes Devious Course

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

". . . short of being mentally deranged, a prince and former king must be well aware that the first concern of the Communists is to get rid of the king and natural elite of any country they succeed in laying hands on . . . I have no particular liking for Communism . . ."—Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia, July, 1958.

DESPITE a reputation as an erratic weathervane, the Cambodian chief of state never has had illusions about Communism or its ambitions.

But as he announced discovery of various plots against his regime, laying them one time to the U.S. Counter-Intelligence Agency (CIA) and another to the Communists, he also believed the Viet Cong were winning the battle for South Vietnam. For this, he blamed U.S. policy.

In September, 1963, he declared in an interview:

"The fate of South Vietnam appears to me to be sealed. That of my own country certainly will be also some time later."

HIS ANNOUNCED decision last week to renew the diplomatic relations he broke with the United States on May 3, 1965, marks another zig in the zig-zag course he has followed throughout the years of the Vietnam conflict, and it still must be viewed with reservations.

He announced a similar decision last April 16 only to reverse himself two weeks later, apparently under Communist pressure.

It was in early fall of 1968, late September and October, that Sihanouk first admitted what American military commanders had been saying for years, that the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were using Cambodia as a sanctuary.

IN A SPEECH Sihanouk declared that the Communists were disregarding their pledges to recognize the integrity of Cambodia's frontiers and were sending their troops into the northern provinces of Ratanakiri and Mondulkiri. His secretary of state for national security added a third, Svayrieng province.

The first two are thinly populated states opposite South Vietnam's central highlands. The third embraces the so-called parrot's beak which juts into South Vietnam less than 40 miles from Saigon.

At the same time, reports multiplied of increased activity of native Khmer Communists in provinces to the west close to Thailand. Sihanouk said they were financed from Peking and Hanoi.

SIHANOUK once described Cambodia as "like a stack of hay placed between two other stacks already set on fire."

These are the fires which threaten him now. American helicopter gunships attack Communist bases in Cambodia with no protest from Sihanouk. Cambodian recognition of Communist East Germany is an attempt to gain support from the Soviet Union against the threat from his neighbors. And renewal of relations with the United States is a backfire against broken promises.

The Dedication That Wasn't; The Fiesta That Got Too Big

What happened to the proposed dedication of Novato's Pioneer Memorial Park?

The Novato Civic Foundation has spearheaded the work on the park. Members of the foundation were holding a fund raising event at the park on June 7. They planned ahead that it would be a good time for dedication of the park.

Jack Holsclaw, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, said the commission confirmed that dedication date at least a month ahead of time.

Edwin V. Grundstrom, past president of the foundation, said that Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director, on June 2 told him that all arrangements had been made.

On Tuesday before the proposed dedication, the city council had not been asked to the affair. Mayor Harley A. McAskill, who was supposed to make the dedicatory address, had not been asked.

Later the program was changed to an open house fund raising event, without the dedication.

HOLSCLAW LAST WEEK thought that the park had been dedicated, because he had been out of town on June 7 and did not know about the last-minute change.

David Price Jones, president of the civic foundation, said that apparently no one had been placed in charge of it, so the plans had not been carried out.

The dedication has now been set for about Sept. 20 when the first phase of the park will be completed.

"This may be better because people can then see the park as it is going to be," Jones said. He added that the civic foundation raised nearly $1,000 for the park at the open house anyway and has purchased all the pipe necessary for the water system at a great reduction from Johns Manville Co.

IT IS TOO EARLY to fully evaluate this year's Western Weekend country fair celebration in Novato. Much depends on the success of this for future celebrations.

The Western Weekend celebration started as a parade by Novato Horsemen's Association members to their arena on Bugeia Lane for an amateur rodeo.

Then the Jaycees took over the celebration. The parade grew and other events added. The celebration grew until the Jaycees could no longer handle it and participating civic organizations went together to form a nonprofit corporation for it.

The celebration attracted crowds from all over the Bay Area, with the parade being the biggest drawing card. It also attracted some undesireable elements, such as the Gypsy Jokers motorcycle club.

This posed such a police problem that attendance dropped off because of feared trouble with the motorcyclists.

So this year, the format was changed into a country fair type celebration with that added to the name. It was hoped to make it more of a family type community celebration again.

If this succeeds as hoped, the pattern is set for the future. If not, it will be interesting to see what the leaders can find for a community celebration.

Language School Elects Officers

Gerhard Schmidt-Petersen of Santa Venetia has been re-elected president of the German Language School of Marin.

Other officers elected are:

Joseph Augustin of Petaluma, first vice president; Horst Krueger of Petaluma, second vice president; Mrs. Joachin Scholz of San Rafael, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Herbert Knappe of Fairfax, financial secretary; Vinzenz Hake of San Rafael, treasurer, and Mrs. F. Henning Bauer of Mill Valley, chairman of the parent advisory board.

The German Language School of Marin holds classes for ages three through adult on Saturday mornings at the Santa Venetia Middle School, North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia.

Sentence Date Set For Kentfield Man

Bart J. Bruno, 23, of Kentfield will appear in Marin Superior Court next Monday for setting of a sentencing date. He has pleaded guilty to possessing marijuana in his car on April 26.

Bruno was arrested when he stopped on Shoreline Highway to pick up a hitchhiker and a sheriff's deputy told him to move his car off the road. While making a license check, the deputy noticed marijuana in the glove compartment.

What To Do About Teddy When Mama Keeps Calling Up?

WASHINGTON — The problem of what to do about Teddy Kennedy is still haunting the Republicans. The strategy to hit him head-on almost worked. But what they failed to count on was Mrs. Rose Kennedy, Senator Kennedy's mother.

When Senator Dirksen attacked Kennedy on the floor of the Senate for Kennedy's remarks about the Vietnamese war, Dirksen received a telephone call from Mrs. Kennedy thanking him for "the gracious and temperate" tone of his speech.

The unflappable Dirksen became flapped and after exchanging some kind words walked out into the hall and told Senator Kennedy, "Your mother just called me to thank me for my speech."

LAST WEEK Senator Kennedy and Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina had a bitter exchange on the floor over Justice Douglas. As of this writing Mrs. Kennedy hasn't called Senator Thurmond, but I can imagine how the conversation will go when she does.

"Hello Senator Thurmond. This is Mrs. Rose Kennedy, Teddy's mother."

"How do you do, Mrs. Kennedy."

"I just wanted to thank you for the nice way you treated Teddy on the floor of the Senate the other day."

"You're very kind, but I'm afraid I lost my temper and said some mean things."

"GRACIOUS, NO. I thought you were very temperate. You did bring up the business at Harvard when Teddy was a student and had someone else take his test, but I thought you did it in a very nice way, and then you dropped it. A more petty man might have stayed with the subject for a long time."

"Well, I'm not a mean man, Mrs. Kennedy, but Teddy really got me riled when he corrected my pronunciation of Jose Figueres, former president of Costa Rica."

"Teddy's always doing things like that. I've told him since he was a little boy that people pronounce Spanish words differently in different parts of the country, but he seems to forget. Your pronunciation is beautiful, senator, and I'm going to speak to Teddy about it."

"THAT'S VERY kind of you, Mrs. Kennedy. I hope you realize there was nothing personal in our exchange. I was just trying to make a point about Justice Douglas' association with a private foundation and Teddy kept interrupting me on the floor."

"If I've told Teddy once, I've told him a hundred times not to interrupt when somebody else is speaking. I assure you he didn't learn that habit at home."

"I appreciate that, Mrs. Kennedy, and I must say in the heat of battle we do lose our tempers. I wasn't questioning Justice Douglas' character. I was dealing with the issues of the foundations."

"I know you weren't. I told Teddy you would never make a vicious attack on anybody. It's not in your nature as a southern gentleman."

"THAT'S MIGHTY kind of you to say that, ma'am. I do pride myself on my kindness."

"Of course, you've got to understand Teddy's problem. Everybody is picking on him, and he's very sensitive to the way people criticize him. Thank goodness for men like you and Senator Dirksen who refuse to get on the bandwagon."

"I don't know what to say, Mrs. Kennedy. I'm all choked up."

"You don't have to say anything. I know you will never say anything about Teddy that would hurt his mother."

"No, ma'am. You can be assured of that."

Thurmond hangs up and calls Senator Dirksen and says, "Everett, we've been had."

Teen Faces Sentence On Drug Charge

Sentencing for Robert Andrew Enos, 18, who has pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to being in a place where narcotics were used, has been set for July 11.

Enos earlier had been accused of a felony charge of possessing marijuana in a car on April 14. He was arrested after Larkspur police noticed a strong odor of the weed coming from the car.

Bennett Wins Fight Against Gas Company

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former California Public Utilities Commissioner William M. Bennett has won his lonely fight against the El Paso Natural Gas Co. and a couple of states

The Supreme Court ruled yesterday by a 4-2 count that El Paso must get rid of its Northwest division by immediate cash sale, instead of the stock transfer that El Paso had proposed to use for selling the facilities to Colorado Interstate Gas Co.

It thus upheld Bennett's single-handed appeal to the high court, which he took after the Justice Department and other participants backed out.

Bennett, a resident of Kentfield, appointed to the utilities commission by Gov. Edmund G. Brown and replaced by Gov. Ronald Reagan, filed the suit, he said, in an attempt to generate more competition and create the effect of lowering natural gas prices in northern California.

Bennett said here after yesterday's verdict that "it's a victory for the people of the State of California, and a great euphoria of happiness to me."

The fight was over some gas wells in the northwest and Canada and a pipeline that goes through Washington, Oregon, and the mountain states. Bennett hopes that the pipeline can be brought into California and put under control of an aggressive company to get competition going between the Northwest firm and El Paso, which now supplies most of California's gas.

Other government agencies consented to the sale of the line to Colorado Interstate, but Bennett objected and spoke to the court as a consumer spokesman.

He asserted Colorado Interstate has shown it is not an aggressive firm and that under the sale, it would have a monopoly position in the Mountain States similar to El Paso's in the Southwest.

Senate Demos Will Delay ABM Action For Reactions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders have decided to postpone Senate action on the controversial Safeguard missile defense system until members can reassess home-state sentiment during a July 4 recess.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, a Safeguard supporter, suggested the postponement yesterday. He told colleagues privately that when he brings a military procurement bill before the Senate containing Safeguard authorization he wants to keep it there without a break until there is a showdown vote.

Concurring in this, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, a Safeguard critic, said in an interview he thinks it would be a mistake to bring the bill up and then to have to lay it aside for the holiday, which starts July 3.

What effect the delay in Senate action on the ABM might have on the trend of public opinion remains to be seen.

Mansfield conceded that a week of appearances in Montana left him confused about public reaction. Montana has been designated as one of the two sites for the ABM installations.

"There is more interest among the people of my state in farm prices, with wheat selling below corn, and they are jittery about what the new 8.5 per cent interest rate is going to do to them," Mansfield said. "ABM comes in about third in their interests.

"I have had about 500 letters on ABM, 450 of them opposing it. But on the other hand a recognized polling agency reports that the people of Montana are two to one in favor of ABM."

Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., said he came away from a recent visit to North Dakota, which would house the other missile site, with the impression that 75 per cent of the people favor ABM. He is an ABM backer.

Trial Delayed

A jury trial for Philip Charles Verheyden, 22, of Corte Madera, who is accused of four felony credit card forgeries and bad check charges, yesterday was set for the week of Oct. 20 in Marin Superior Court.

A free booklet to answer your questions about Annuities

There comes a time in most men's lives when a guaranteed income is more important than the hope of capital gain.

And that's exactly what annuities from Manufacturers Life offer. They provide an automatic, guaranteed income for life.

People have asked us many questions about annuities in the past. Important questions such as: Can I arrange for some of the money to be returned to my estate if I die early? Is there an annuity that will transfer the income to my wife if she outlives me? How do annuities affect my income tax? Is an annuity a practical way of supplementing Social Security and other retirement income?

To provide you with the answers we have published an easy-to-read, easy-to-understand booklet called "Annuities . . . the key to a golden age." It's yours for the asking, without obligation. Just fill in and return the coupon below. And if you would like to discuss annuities with someone, you couldn't find a better person to talk to than the Man from Manufacturers.

An extra large, level lot, 133x90, with a variety of fruit trees. This could be a very fine home — it has all the features. Large living room with fireplace. Formal dining room. Tile bathroom, large bdrms., and hardwood floors thruout. The full basement has an extra bathroom with a stall shower and 3 extra rooms that are not completed. This home needs a little clean-up work, but is very sound structurally, with an excellent foundation. The low price of $25,900 more than allows for the little work needed to make this an outstanding property. Close to commute and school.

An extra large, level lot, 133x90, with a variety of fruit trees. This could be a very fine home — it has all the features. Large living room with fireplace. Formal dining room. Tile bathroom, large bdrms., and hardwood floors thruout. The full basement has an extra bathroom with a stall shower and 3 extra rooms that are not completed. This home needs a little clean-up work, but is very sound structurally, with an excellent foundation. The low price of $25,900 more than allows for the little work needed to make this an outstanding property. Close to commute and school.

Compromise On Tax Rate Ceilings

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A compromise that would keep ceilings on school tax rates until 1973 unless they were replaced by a new system of state controls on school spending emerged without recommendation last evening from the Assembly Education Committee's subcommittee on school finance.

The subcommittee reported out an amended version of AB 5 by Assemblyman Robert H. Burke, R-Huntington Beach.

Burke's original bill was the same as SB 35 by Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, repealing 1967 legislation which removes all ceilings from school tax rates as of June 30, 1971. Another Assembly education subcommittee buried it and Schmitz's bill (which passed the Senate) by 4-3 vote early this month.

The amendments, proposed by Assemblyman James W. Dent, R-Concord, chairman of both subcommittees, provide: Date of expiration of ceilings would be changed from 1971 to June 30, 1973; the legislative analyst would be instructed to make recommendations by next January for legislation to change the controls from ceilings on tax rates to ceilings on expenditures per pupil.

The amended version now goes to the full Assembly Education Committee.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Governor

Dental—Signed a bill which establishes a procedure by which certain foreign-trained dental graduates will be permitted to take the state dental examination.

The Senate
Concurred in Assembly Amendments

Smut—Sets up a pandering concept in determining obscene advertising for pornographic publications. (SB63—Lagomarsino, R-Ojai. 25-0. To governor.)

Concurred in Conference Committee Amendments

Pornography—Sets up a separate standard to decide whether material is pornographic for children and adults. (SB62—Lagomarsino, R-Ojai. 25-0. To governor.)

Passed

Indians—Permits Indians to receive federal funds without subtracting the sum from any state public assistance they may have coming. (SB870—Moscone, D-San Francisco. 28-2. To Assembly.)

Employes—Provides that a state college professor who "resigns" by being absent 5 days without leave shall not be rehired for two years unless the resignation prescribed by law is set aside. (SB765—Schmitz, R-Tustin. 26-2. To Assembly.)

The Assembly
Rejected

Education — Authorizes the state to underwrite a student's education with a loan that he would repay after he graduated and began earning an income. (AB75—Collier, R-Los Angeles. 31-29.)

Wilson Pledge On The Market

EASTBOURNE, England (London Express) — A big new thrust to take Britain into the Common Market got under way yesterday with an open pledge from Prime Minister Harold Wilson of determination to "make up for lost time" now that General Charles De Gaulle no longer blocks British entry.

The prime minister's enthusiastic words came at the Socialist International's Eastbourne conference within 24 hours of the election of Georges Pompidou as France's new president, and they were in rapid response also to pleas made earlier in the day from the conference rostrum from two influential foreign ministers—Willi Brandt (West Germany) and Pietro Nenni (Italy) for immediate action to achieve British entry.

Grandt called for immediate talks between diplomats to pave the way for a "summit" conference between ministers of Britain and the six Common Market countries and Nenni insisted, "We must each of us know that the time for vetoes is over and cannot begin again."

One Acquitted In Slaying

LOS ANGELES (AP)—George Jordan Jr., 26, one of three men once accused of murder in the fatal stabbing of a University of Southern California freshman, has been acquitted.

Superior Court Judge George Dell ruled yesterday there was reasonable doubt that Jordan was an accomplice in the death of Brian Clay, 18, of Chicago, outside a fraternity house last Dec. 9.

George Williams, 21, was convicted of second-degree murder May 29 in the stabbing and will be sentenced tomorrow. A third defendant was released previously.

SMOULDERING ISSUE

Taco Bell Plans Spark Exchange

The Mill Valley City Council, arguing its way through a four-hour-and-15-minute meeting and only about a third of its agenda, last night approved a major road project and once again failed to settle the now six-months-old Taco Bell issue.

Left hanging at the marathon meeting were final action on the city's 1969-70 budget, a potentially touchy "anti-hippie" ordinance and a probably controversial appointment to the city human rights commission.

The council sputtered to a halt at 12:16 a.m. today after an occasionally testy meeting during which it voted to improve the East Blithedale Avenue-Camino Alto intersection and to upgrade Camino Alto to a four-lane road between Blithedale and Miller avenues.

The actions came after nearly two hours of discussion during which city engineer Stanley M. Bala justified the project with projected traffic figures as well as current traffic loads on the roads in and out of the city.

Councilman George Wickham voted for the improvement of the intersection, but opposed four-laning Camino Alto because he felt two lanes are sufficient.

No price tag was put on either project although Bala said federal funds are being sought for the intersection improvement.

In another lengthy debate, the council split 2-2 on whether to uphold its planning commission's denial of a use permit for a Taco Bell restaurant at 497 Miller Avenue.

In the occasionally heated discussion, Taco Bell's planned building was described by Ivan S. Poutiatine, chairman of the architectural advisory committee, which has repeatedly opposed the proposed drive-in, as "hokey pokey imitative architecture which purports to be imitative of early California." He said the firm's plan was a "travesty."

At another point, Councilman Jerome C. Hauke described Taco Bell representative Gary Graham of Los Angeles as "the most obnoxious of applicants I've ever seen." He opposed granting permission to build.

Earlier, Graham had told the council that Taco Bell would not change its building style, saying: "That is something that has to remain . . . as a corporate policy."

The architectural advisory committee, the planning commission and some of the council also objected to Taco Bell's plan for development of the rest of the site as not appropriate to the area.

Poutiatine told the council that Taco Bell repeatedly had been asked since its first application six months ago to come up with a master plan for the site but all the firm has produced has been "doodles . . . little squares on blue pieces of paper."

He added: "This business of 'we can't change our building' is some kind of corporate syndrome that Mill Valley doesn't have to accept." Finally, the council split on the proposed restaurant, with Hauke and Mayor Dean N. Meyer voting to uphold the planning commission.

The council then instructed Harvey E. Bragdon, planning director, to meet with Taco Bell representatives to see if a new design might be possible.

This sparked two testy exchanges. After Poutiatine said this was "not very smart" because "Mill Valley shouldn't provide free design services," Councilman Robert H. Andresen, who made the suggestion, and Meyer had a brief exchange during which Andresen said he fully expected Taco Bell to consult its own planners.

Graham, obviously angry, then began a statement during which he accused a "minority . . . some of them apparently not from Mill Valley" of keeping Taco Bell out of Mill Valley. He was unable to expand on the charge because he was gaveled to silence by Meyer despite his protest that Poutiatine had "been popping up" frequently during the meeting to give opposing views.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

MEETING — Set a special meeting to clean up its agenda, including action on the budget, for 8 p.m. Monday at the golf clubhouse.

APPEAL — Granted an appeal by Gene Addleman from denial of a variance to waive the required two off-street parking spaces on five lots on Cascade Way near the Dipsea Trail. The council was advised by its attorney that the city could not legally deny the variance because the lots were subject to legally nonconforming uses.

REZONING — Delayed until July 21 consideration of an ordinance rezoning the Gulf Oil Co. property at the corner of East Blithedale and Camino Alto to general commercial and to grant a use permit to Gulf.

SUBDIVISION — Approved a minor subdivision for Alvin Corkland of 630 West Blithedale Avenue.

EXTENSION — Approved paying an estimated $5,245 as the city's share of a new 10-inch water main along the Sycamore Avenue extension, the remainder being paid by the Marin Municipal Water District and the Mill Valley School District.

PARCEL — Approved a minor subdivision for Bank of America to subdivide a parcel containing 31.37 acres on Highway 101 frontage road into four lots and granted an exception to the requirements of the commercial-recreation district zoning to permit subdivision prior to submittal of a planned unit development.

Gov. Reagan Rescues Girl From His Swimming Pool

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Reagan pulled a seven-year-old girl from the swimming pool at his home after she submerged in water over her head, the governor's office said today.

Reagan, a lifeguard in his youth, jumped fully clothed into the pool Sunday to rescue Alicia Berry, daughter of Mrs. Marlene Murphy, a file clerk in the governor's office.

Mrs. Murphy and her daughter were among some 200 persons attending a governor's office staff party at the Reagan home.

Mrs. Murphy said Alicia, who doesn't swim, was at the side of the pool and reached to get on a plastic raft. Someone apparently got there first and Alicia went down in four feet of water, Mrs. Murphy reported.

A source in the governor's office confirmed that Reagan rescued the girl, but added, "We're not looking for any publicity . . . It was just something he did because he felt it needed to be done."

Mrs. Murphy said she didn't see the actual rescue because "it just happened so fast."

"He dived in clothed and all," Mrs. Murphy said of the governor.

She said her daughter came out "just gasping and spitting water," but wanted to go right back in. Reagan advised that Alicia should return to the pool, Mrs. Murphy said, so the girl wouldn't develop a fear of water.

Reagan was a lifeguard at a river park in Illinois during summers while he went to high school and college.

BCDC To Hear Platform Bid

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — An application to construct a platform in Suisun Bay for gas well operation will be considered by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission at 2 p.m. Thursday in Room 1194 of the State Building, 455 Golden Gate Avenue.

The platform, proposed by Standard Oil of California and Shell Oil Company, would serve two wells drilled within the last year under a lease from the State Lands Commission. Their application also is for permission to connect the wells to an existing pipeline approximately 800 feet south of Ryer Island, which is in Solano County, via an underwater pipe.

The platform would be about 1,200 feet west of the island.

The platform has the approval of the Army Corps of Engineers, and would require approval by the State Lands Commission if approved by the BCDC.

Prisoners Face Trial In August

Trials for two San Quentin inmates who allegedly fled while out of prison on the institution's new work furlough program yesterday were set in Marin Superior Court for the week of Aug. 14.

Charged with escape are William Jackson Arrowsmith, 25, and David Ralph Clutts, 31. Both pleaded innocent yesterday.

Apartment Burglary

Burglars pried open the front door of the apartment of Patricia Kielb at 777 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, Friday, and stole a portable television set, radio and a platinum wedding ring, sheriff's deputies said today.

Two Youths From Petaluma To Boys' State

Boys from two Petaluma high schools will be attending the 32nd annual Boys' State in Sacramento next week.

Chosen were Marc Nelson, a senior at Petaluma High School, and Steven Johnson, incoming student body president at St. Vincent De Paul High School.

Also active in school government, Nelson is a member of the track and football teams. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Nelson, 627 Baker Street.

Johnson is a member of the St. Vincent football and basketball teams in addition to his student government activities. He makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, 22 Burlington Drive, Petaluma.

Nelson and Johnson will represent the Petaluma American Legion Post No. 28 at the week-long activities.

Auto Air Bags For Collisions

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit firm has developed a new auto safety device, an air bag that inflates almost instantaneously when a vehicle is in a front-end collision.

The inflated bag presses the riders into their seats, preventing them from being thrown against the dashboard or other portion of the car interior.

The first generation device is intended only to protect passengers during head-on collisions, but the developer says more sophisticated devices could be built to protect passengers in cars hit from the side or rear.

October Trial Set In Credit Card Case

George Edward Taylor, 22, of Santa Venetia pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to two charges of signing another person's name to a credit card with intent to defraud.

A jury trial was set for the week of Oct. 26.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Cancer May Be Genetic Disease With Hidden Virus As Cause

VAN DELLEN

Cancer may be a genetic disease. Something changes the makeup of a cell from a peaceful, productive structure to a lawless malignant invader that multiplies.

In time, it grows large enough to form a tumor. Viruses are blamed because these are the only things known that can inject new coded information into a cell thus changing its growth pattern.

WE DO NOT KNOW what virus is responsible for cancer nor when it gets into the body to begin its dirty work. Does the virus carry the cancer gene and transmit it from parent to offspring? Does this type of virus exist? And if it does, must it emerge from hiding at a later date producing a tumor?

This may occur when the tissues are irritated (as by smoke) or changes occur in the hormonal or chemical composition of the body.

Others believe that the virus enters after birth.

IF AND WHEN the cancer virus is found, there is good possibility it will not be an ordinary critter. It must be unique to lie dormant in man for a long time. Viruses are implicated on the genetic level because they consist of a shell of protein enclosing a core of hereditary-containing material (DNA and RNA).

Scientists believe that a virus capable of causing leukemia or solid tumors enters a normal cell and passes along its genetic code so that the invaded cell will reproduce leukemic or cancer cells.

All of this is theoretical, but plausible enough to stimulate studies in this direction. Researchers may culture bacteria and viruses from an infection, but never from a malignancy.

ON THE OTHER HAND, many viruses induce leukemia and other cancers when injected into mice. But in most instances these critters cannot be recovered from the mice. Virus particles have been found in the blood of mice prior to the spontaneous development of leukemia.

Many authorities believe that only a few cancers will prove to be or viral origin. We hope not, because a viral cause may, perhaps, lead us to a preventive vaccine.

CURE IN THE OFFING

A reader writes: I've had rheumatoid arthritis for two years. Now for the first time the sedimentation rate is normal, although my hands and knees still bother me some. What would you say my chances are of conquering this disease and getting back to work?

REPLY

Excellent. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on this form of arthritis.

SUNBATHING DURING PREGNANCY

Mrs. J. writes: Is it safe for someone who is pregnant to lie in the sun for two hours every day?

REPLY

Yes, provided the skin is conditioned to this much sun and she is relaxed and comfortable. No need worrying about the offspring; he is in the shade.

BURSITIS AND CALCIUM

A. G. writes: Is bursitis of the shoulder caused by too much or too little calcium?

REPLY

Neither. Injury and infection are the most common causes. Calcium, the by-product of the irritation, is deposited in the affected area as part of the healing process.

WEARING RUBBER GLOVES

G.R. writes: Is it harmful to the skin to wear rubber gloves eight hours a day?

REPLY

Trial and error will answer this question. As a rule, wearing the gloves is less harmful than subjecting the hands to powerful irritants.

GENETIC COMBINATIONS

Mrs. S. writes: In a family we know, the daughter is unusually bright and the son is slightly retarded. How could this happen if both children have the same genes?

REPLY

Siblings do not have the same combination of genes. We have all heard the expression, "Susie (or John) inherited all the brains and John (or Susie) got left." The brain can also be damaged during pregnancy or at birth.

INHERITED PRESSURE

J. writes: My mother has low blood pressure and my father has hypertension. On which road am I likely to go?

REPLY

Your guess is as good as mine. A clew might come from your temperament—whether you resemble father or mother. Keep in mind that hypertension is more serious in men than women.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Assembly Approves Bill On Teacher Credentials

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly has approved a streamlined system of licensing school teachers in California.

It cleared to the Senate yesterday on a 43-14 vote a measure which rewrites the Fisher Act of 1961 under which the state established a complicated set of requirements of courses and credits for a teaching credential.

The bill by Assemblyman Leo Ryan, D-Burlingame, reduces the number of credentials available from 340 to four and transfers from the state Board of Education to a commission the issuance and renewal of credentials. The commission would be named by the governor.

Ryan told the Assembly that since the Fisher Act was established, the process of credentialling teachers had grown into a huge bureaucracy in the state Department of Education.

Ryan said his bill, drafted by a joint Senate-Assembly committee the past two years, would save $600,000 in salary costs.

CAMPUS PACKAGE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly's legislative package dealing with campus disturbances was before the Ways and Means Committee today.

The Assembly Education Committee approved yesterday an omnibus bill amending the education code. Its major provision would suspend for two years any state financial aid to students convicted after a hearing by school officials of disturbing peaceful conduct on campus.

The proposals parallel some of the legislation requested by Gov. Ronald Reagan to deal with campus unrest but in general are not as harsh as a series of bills that passed the Senate.

EXOTIC ANIMALS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate yesterday voted to ban importation into California of certain exotic wild animals which fail to pass physical examinations by local boards of health.

The measure by Democratic Sen. Walter W. Stiern, a Bakersfield veterinarian, was cleared to the Assembly on a 27-2 vote.

LOADED GUNS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting retired police officers, FBI agents or district attorney investigators to carry loaded guns ran into difficulty yesterday on the Senate floor.

However, the upper house unanimously cleared to the Assembly another bill which allows zookeepers and animal control officers to carry loaded weapons.

Both measures were authored by Sen. Robert S. Stevens, R-Los Angeles.

PROPERTY TAX

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—County supervisors, fearing the Legislature will "get their fingers in our pie", have voted to oppose a statewide collection of property taxes.

But the Supervisors Association Tax Committee yesterday endorsed other proposals in a $1 billion tax reform plan devised by a bi-partisan panel of six assemblymen.

The supervisors voiced concern a statewide property tax would limit their power. Counties now impose and collect the property tax.

Hitler Held Drug Addict By Britisher

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) — Nazi dictator Adolf Hitler suffered from heart disease and was a cocaine addict but was neither a victim of Parkinson's disease nor sexually impotent as legend has persisted, a British author said today.

David Irving wrote a report on Hitler's medical history and it appeared in the West German magazine Stern.

"He was addicted to medicaments and swallowed incredible quantities of pills and received injections and thereby incurred strychnine poisoning," Irving said.

The medical report was based on the papers of Hitler's personal physician Dr. Theodor Morell.

"On the basis of these contemporary documents a number of persistent rumors and legends can be quashed," Irving said.

"Hitler was neither venereally diseased nor impotent nor sexually abnormal in any way. Also, he did not suffer from Parkinson's disease (nervous paralysis). He also was neither paranoid (suffering from persecution complex) or schizoid (split) personality," Irving said.

Irving said Hitler was a narcotics (cocaine) addict.

As for Hitler's relations with women, they were "wholly normal," Irving said.

More Winners At Western Weekend Fair

More winners in Novato's Western Weekend Country Fair contests were reported yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce which sponsored the contests.

The Jaycees proved to be the stronger, pulling Chamber of Commerce members into Novato Creek in a tug-of-war. Both sides sat down in surprise when the rope suddenly broke, but it was tied and the contest resumed.

In the decorated horse and rider contest, Ann Sorum won first, Gayle Sorum, second and Carol Craft and Kathy Coffman, third. All were from Novato. The event drew 11 entries.

In the costumre parade Mrs. Charlotte Wagner and family of San Rafael won first Terry Bucher of Novato, second and Gae Mac Pherson, also of Novato, third.

The Edward B. MacGuire family of 33 Brown Drive, Novato, won a pony as a gate prize.

The Novato Fire Department won the waterball fight over Kentfield by a score of 7 to 3.

No Progress In Bus Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Federal mediator Roger Randall met for three hours yesterday with Greyhound bus line officials and striking mechanics, but reported no progress in settling their weeklong dispute.

Randall recessed the meeting without scheduling further discussions. He planned to meet today with Teamster garage employees, who aso have struck Greyhound's local maintenance garage.

The company said service was continuing, although the local Machinists Union sent pickets to garages in other cities, where buses are being serviced.

SNIFF AND BUY

Osmics, or odor engineering, has become another marketing trick. Bread is wrapped in wax paper scented with a freshly baked odor; mouse-traps are scented with cheddar cheese; a blend of banana oil, glue, leather, rubber, gasoline, plastic makes a car smell new.

WATER IS CHEAPER AT HOME

The new "old fashioned" soups may be nostalgic in flavor, but not in cost. "With water" soups are priced 2 to 3 times more than condensed soups, and contain only one-half the servings.

CHEESE QUIZ

1.—Soft cheeses like cream, cottage, Neufchatel and ricotta should be used within a week or two.
2.—Soft, well aged Cheddar melts more readily than less ripened cheese.

ANSWERS

1.—False. Soft cheese is the most perishable and should be used within a few days after purchase.
2.—True.

Compromise On Tax Rate Ceilings

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A compromise that would keep ceilings on school tax rates until 1973 unless they were replaced by a new system of state controls on school spending emerged without recommendation last evening from the Assembly Education Committee's subcommittee on school finance.

The subcommittee reported out an amended version of AB 5 by Assemblyman Robert H. Burke, R-Huntington Beach.

Burke's original bill was the same as SB 35 by Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, repealing 1967 legislation which removes all ceilings from school tax rates as of June 30, 1971. Another Assembly education subcommittee buried it and Schmitz's bill (which passed the Senate) by 4-3 vote early this month.

The amendments, proposed by Assemblyman James W. Dent, R-Concord, chairman of both subcommittees, provide: Date of expiration of ceilings would be changed from 1971 to June 30, 1973; the legislative analyst would be instructed to make recommendations by next January for legislation to change the controls from ceilings on tax rates to ceilings on expenditures per pupil.

The amended version now goes to the full Assembly Education Committee.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Governor

Dental—Signed a bill which establishes a procedure by which certain foreign-trained dental graduates will be permitted to take the state dental examination.

The Senate
Concurred in Assembly Amendments

Smut—Sets up a pandering concept in determining obscene advertising for pornographic publications. (SB63—Lagomarsino, R-Ojai. 25-0. To governor.)

Concurred in Conference Committee Amendnfents

Pornography—Sets up a separate standard to decide whether material is pornographic for children and adults. (SB62—Lagomarsino, R-Ojai. 25-0. To governor.)

Passed

Indians—Permits Indians to receive federal funds without subtracting the sum from any state public assistance they may have coming. (SB870—Moscone, D-San Francisco. 28-2. To Assembly.)

Employes—Provides that a state college professor who "resigns" by being absent 5 days without leave shall not be rehired for two years unless the resignation prescribed by law is set aside. (SB765—Schmitz, R-Tustin. 26-2. To Assembly.)

The Assembly
Rejected

Education — Authorizes the state to underwrite a student's education with a loan that he would repay after he graduated and began earning an income. (AB75—Collier, R-Los Angeles. 31-29.)

Wilson Pledge On The Market

EASTBOURNE, England (London Express) — A big new thrust to take Britain into the Common Market got under way yesterday with an open pledge from Prime Minister Harold Wilson of determination to "make up for lost time" now that General Charles De Gaulle no longer blocks British entry.

The prime minister's enthusiastic words came at the Socialist International's Eastbourne conference within 24 hours of the election of Georges Pompidou as France's new president, and they were in rapid response also to pleas made earlier in the day from the conference rostrum from two influential foreign ministers—Willi Brandt (West Germany) and Pietro Nenni (Italy) for immediate action to achieve British entry.

Grandt called for immediate talks between diplomats to pave the way for a "summit" conference between ministers of Britain and the six Common Market countries and Nenni insisted, "We must each of us know that the time for vetoes is over and cannot begin again."

One Acquitted In Slaying

LOS ANGELES (AP)—George Jordan Jr., 26, one of three men once accused of murder in the fatal stabbing of a University of Southern California freshman, has been acquitted.

Superior Court Judge George Dell ruled yesterday there was reasonable doubt that Jordan was an accomplice in the death of Brian Clay, 18, of Chicago, outside a fraternity house last Dec. 9.

George Williams, 21, was convicted of second-degree murder May 29 in the stabbing and will be sentenced tomorrow. A third defendant was released previously.

SMOULDERING ISSUE

Taco Bell Plans Spark Exchange

The Mill Valley City Council, arguing its way through a four-hour-and-15-minute meeting and only about a third of its agenda, last night approved a major road project and once again failed to settle the now six-months-old Taco Bell issue.

Left hanging at the marathon meeting were final action on the city's 1969-70 budget, a potentially touchy "anti-hippie" ordinance and a probably controversial appointment to the city human rights commission.

The council sputtered to a halt at 12:16 a.m. today after an occasionally testy meeting during which it voted to improve the East Blithedale Avenue-Camino Alto intersection and to upgrade Camino Alto to a four-lane road between Blithedale and Miller avenues.

The actions came after nearly two hours of discussion during which city engineer Stanley M. Bala justified the project with projected traffic figures as well as current traffic loads on the roads in and out of the city.

Councilman George Wickham voted for the improvement of the intersection, but opposed four-laning Camino Alto because he felt two lanes are sufficient.

No price tag was put on either project although Bala said federal funds are being sought for the intersection improvement.

In another lengthy debate, the council split 2-2 on whether to uphold its planning commission's denial of a use permit for a Taco Bell restaurant at 497 Miller Avenue.

In the occasionally heated discussion, Taco Bell's planned building was described by Ivan S. Poutiatine, chairman of the architectural advisory committee, which has repeatedly opposed the proposed drive-in, as "hokey pokey imitative architecture which purports to be imitative of early California." He said the firm's plan was a "travesty."

At another point, Councilman Jerome C. Hauke described Taco Bell representative Gary Graham of Los Angeles as "the most obnoxious of applicants I've ever seen." He opposed granting permission to build.

Earlier, Graham had told the council that Taco Bell would not change its building style, saying: "That is something that has to remain . . . as a corporate policy."

The architectural advisory committee, the planning commission and some of the council also objected to Taco Bell's plan for development of the rest of the site as not appropriate to the area.

Poutiatine told the council that Taco Bell repeatedly had been asked since its first application six months ago to come up with a master plan for the site but all the firm has produced has been "doodles . . . little squares on blue pieces of paper."

He added: "This business of 'we can't change our building' is some kind of corporate syndrome that Mill Valley doesn't have to accept." Finally, the council split on the proposed restaurant, with Hauke and Mayor Dean N. Meyer voting to uphold the planning commission.

The council then instructed Harvey E. Bragdon, planning director, to meet with Taco Bell representatives to see if a new design might be possible.

This sparked two testy exchanges. After Poutiatine said this was "not very smart" because "Mill Valley shouldn't provide free design services," Councilman Robert H. Andresen, who made the suggestion, and Meyer had a brief exchange during which Andresen said he fully expected Taco Bell to consult its own planners.

Graham, obviously angry, then began a statement during which he accused a "minority . . . some of them apparently not from Mill Valley" of keeping Taco Bell out of Mill Valley. He was unable to expand on the charge because he was gaveled to silence by Meyer despite his protest that Poutiatine had "been popping up" frequently during the meeting to give opposing views.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

MEETING — Set a special meeting to clean up its agenda, including action on the budget, for 8 p.m. Monday at the golf clubhouse.

APPEAL — Granted an appeal by Gene Addleman from denial of a variance to waive the required two off-street parking spaces on five lots on Cascade Way near the Dipsea Trail. The council was advised by its attorney that the city could not legally deny the variance because the lots were subject to legally nonconforming uses.

REZONING — Delayed until July 21 consideration of an ordinance rezoning the Gulf Oil Co. property at the corner of East Blithedale and Camino Alto to general commercial and to grant a use permit to Gulf.

SUBDIVISION — Approved a minor subdivision for Alvin Corkland of 630 West Blithedale Avenue.

EXTENSION — Approved paying an estimated $5,245 as the city's share of a new 10-inch water main along the Sycamore Avenue extension, the remainder being paid by the Marin Municipal Water District and the Mill Valley School District.

PARCEL — Approved a minor subdivision for Bank of America to subdivide a parcel containing 31.37 acres on Highway 101 frontage road into four lots and granted an exception to the requirements of the commercial-recreation district zoning to permit subdivision prior to submittal of a planned unit development.

Gov. Reagan Rescues Girl From His Swimming Pool

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Reagan pulled a seven-year-old girl from the swimming pool at his home after she submerged in water over her head, the governor's office said today.

Reagan, a lifeguard in his youth, jumped fully clothed into the pool Sunday to rescue Alicia Berry, daughter of Mrs. Marlene Murphy, a file clerk in the governor's office.

Mrs. Murphy and her daughter were among some 200 persons attending a governor's office staff party at the Reagan home.

Mrs. Murphy said Alicia, who doesn't swim, was at the side of the pool and reached to get on a plastic raft. Someone apparently got there first and Alicia went down in four feet of water, Mrs. Murphy reported.

A source in the governor's office confirmed that Reagan rescued the girl, but added, "We're not looking for any publicity . . . It was just something he did because he felt it needed to be done."

Mrs. Murphy said she didn't see the actual rescue because "it just happened so fast."

"He dived in clothed and all," Mrs. Murphy said of the governor.

She said her daughter came out "just gasping and spitting water," but wanted to go right back in. Reagan advised that Alicia should return to the pool, Mrs. Murphy said, so the girl wouldn't develop a fear of water.

Reagan was a lifeguard at a river park in Illinois during summers while he went to high school and college.

BCDC To Hear Platform Bid

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — An application to construct a platform in Suisun Bay for gas well operation will be considered by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission at 2 p.m. Thursday in Room 1194 of the State Building, 455 Golden Gate Avenue.

The platform, proposed by Standard Oil of California and Shell Oil Company, would serve two wells drilled within the last year under a lease from the State Lands Commission. Their application also is for permission to connect the wells to an existing pipeline approximately 800 feet south of Ryer Island, which is in Solano County, via an underwater pipe.

The platform would be about 1,200 feet west of the island.

The platform has the approval of the Army Corps of Engineers, and would require approval by the State Lands Commission if approved by the BCDC.

Prisoners Face Trial In August

Trials for two San Quentin inmates who allegedly fled while out of prison on the institution's new work furlough program yesterday were set in Marin Superior Court for the week of Aug. 14.

Charged with escape are William Jackson Arrowsmith, 25, and David Ralph Clutts, 31. Both pleaded innocent yesterday.

Apartment Burglary

Burglars pried open the front door of the apartment of Patricia Kielb at 777 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, Friday, and stole a portable television set, radio and a platinum wedding ring, sheriff's deputies said today.

Two Youths From Petaluma To Boys' State

Boys from two Petaluma high schools will be attending the 32nd annual Boys' State in Sacramento next week.

Chosen were Marc Nelson, a senior at Petaluma High School, and Steven Johnson, incoming student body president at St. Vincent De Paul High School.

Also active in school government, Nelson is a member of the track and football teams. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Nelson, 627 Baker Street.

Johnson is a member of the St. Vincent football and basketball teams in addition to his student government activities. He makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, 22 Burlington Drive, Petaluma.

Nelson and Johnson will represent the Petaluma American Legion Post No. 28 at the week-long activities.

Auto Air Bags For Collisions

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit firm has developed a new auto safety device, an air bag that inflates almost instantaneously when a vehicle is in a front-end collision.

The inflated bag presses the riders into their seats, preventing them from being thrown against the dashboard or other portion of the car interior.

The first generation device is intended only to protect passengers during head-on collisions, but the developer says more sophisticated devices could be built to protect passengers in cars hit from the side or rear.

October Trial Set In Credit Card Case

George Edward Taylor, 22, of Santa Venetia pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to two charges of signing another person's name to a credit card with intent to defraud.

A jury trial was set for the week of Oct. 26.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Cancer May Be Genetic Disease With Hidden Virus As Cause

VAN DELLEN

Cancer may be a genetic disease. Something changes the makeup of a cell from a peaceful, productive structure to a lawless malignant invader that multiplies.

In time, it grows large enough to form a tumor. Viruses are blamed because these are the only things known that can inject new coded information into a cell thus changing its growth pattern.

WE DO NOT KNOW what virus is responsible for cancer nor when it gets into the body to begin its dirty work. Does the virus carry the cancer gene and transmit it from parent to offspring? Does this type of virus exist? And if it does, must it emerge from hiding at a later date producing a tumor?

This may occur when the tissues are irritated (as by smoke) or changes occur in the hormonal or chemical composition of the body.

Others believe that the virus enters after birth.

IF AND WHEN the cancer virus is found, there is good possibility it will not be an ordinary critter. It must be unique to lie dormant in man for a long time. Viruses are implicated on the genetic level because they consist of a shell of protein enclosing a core of hereditary-containing material (DNA and RNA).

Scientists believe that a virus capable of causing leukemia or solid tumors enters a normal cell and passes along its genetic code so that the invaded cell will reproduce leukemic or cancer cells.

All of this is theoretical, but plausible enough to stimulate studies in this direction. Researchers may culture bacteria and viruses from an infection, but never from a malignancy.

ON THE OTHER HAND, many viruses induce leukemia and other cancers when injected into mice. But in most instances these critters cannot be recovered from the mice. Virus particles have been found in the blood of mice prior to the spontaneous development of leukemia.

Many authorities believe that only a few cancers will prove to be or viral origin. We hope not, because a viral cause may, perhaps, lead us to a preventive vaccine.

CURE IN THE OFFING

A reader writes: I've had rheumatoid arthritis for two years. Now for the first time the sedimentation rate is normal, although my hands and knees still bother me some. What would you say my chances are of conquering this disease and getting back to work?

REPLY

Excellent. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on this form of arthritis.

SUNBATHING DURING PREGNANCY

Mrs. J. writes: Is it safe for someone who is pregnant to lie in the sun for two hours every day?

REPLY

Yes, provided the skin is conditioned to this much sun and she is relaxed and comfortable. No need worrying about the offspring; he is in the shade.

BURSITIS AND CALCIUM

A. G. writes: Is bursitis of the shoulder caused by too much or too little calcium?

REPLY

Neither. Injury and infection are the most common causes. Calcium, the by-product of the irritation, is deposited in the affected area as part of the healing process.

WEARING RUBBER GLOVES

G.R. writes: Is it harmful to the skin to wear rubber gloves eight hours a day?

REPLY

Trial and error will answer this question. As a rule, wearing the gloves is less harmful than subjecting the hands to powerful irritants.

GENETIC COMBINATIONS

Mrs. S. writes: In a family we know, the daughter is unusually bright and the son is slightly retarded. How could this happen if both children have the same genes?

REPLY

Siblings do not have the same combination of genes. We have all heard the expression, "Susie (or John) inherited all the brains and John (or Susie) got left." The brain can also be damaged during pregnancy or at birth.

INHERITED PRESSURE

J. writes: My mother has low blood pressure and my father has hypertension. On which road am I likely to go?

REPLY

Your guess is as good as mine. A clew might come from your temperament—whether you resemble father or mother. Keep in mind that hypertension is more serious in men than women.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Assembly Approves Bill On Teacher Credentials

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly has approved a streamlined system of licensing school teachers in California.

It cleared to the Senate yesterday on a 43-14 vote a measure which rewrites the Fisher Act of 1961 under which the state established a complicated set of requirements of courses and credits for a teaching credential.

The bill by Assemblyman Leo Ryan, D-Burlingame, reduces the number of credentials available from 340 to four and transfers from the state Board of Education to a commission the issuance and renewal of credentials. The commission would be named by the governor.

Ryan told the Assembly that since the Fisher Act was established, the process of credentialling teachers had grown into a huge bureaucracy in the state Department of Education.

Ryan said his bill, drafted by a joint Senate-Assembly committee the past two years, would save $600,000 in salary costs.

CAMPUS PACKAGE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly's legislative package dealing with campus disturbances was before the Ways and Means Committee today.

The Assembly Education Committee approved yesterday an omnibus bill amending the education code. Its major provision would suspend for two years any state financial aid to students convicted after a hearing by school officials of disturbing peaceful conduct on campus.

The proposals parallel some of the legislation requested by Gov. Ronald Reagan to deal with campus unrest but in general are not as harsh as a series of bills that passed the Senate.

EXOTIC ANIMALS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate yesterday voted to ban importation into California of certain exotic wild animals which fail to pass physical examinations by local boards of health.

The measure by Democratic Sen. Walter W. Stiern, a Bakersfield veterinarian, was cleared to the Assembly on a 27-2 vote.

LOADED GUNS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting retired police officers, FBI agents or district attorney investigators to carry loaded guns ran into difficulty yesterday on the Senate floor.

However, the upper house unanimously cleared to the Assembly another bill which allows zookeepers and animal control officers to carry loaded weapons.

Both measures were authored by Sen. Robert S. Stevens, R-Los Angeles.

PROPERTY TAX

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—County supervisors, fearing the Legislature will "get their fingers in our pie", have voted to oppose a statewide collection of property taxes.

But the Supervisors Association Tax Committee yesterday endorsed other proposals in a $1 billion tax reform plan devised by a bi-partisan panel of six assemblymen.

The supervisors voiced concern a statewide property tax would limit their power. Counties now impose and collect the property tax.

Confusing Marin Football Schedule For 1969 Season

College of Marin will be "home" at Marin Catholic High School, Redwood High will be "home" at Tamalpais and Drake will be "home" at San Rafael High.

Sound confusing?

It's just what the football schedule for Marin County will be like in the fall.

College of Marin's stadium, scene of most of Marin County's football action in past years, is being leveled for construction of a science building. Marin's new athletic facilities will not be completed in time for the 1969 football season.

In the meantime, Tars' home games will be played at Marin Catholic High in Kentfield, less than two miles from the College of Marin campus.

As is the case of College of Marin, construction of new athletic facilities — football and baseball fields and a track — is going on at Marin Catholic. But unlike the situation at College of Marin, the Wildcats' playground is expected to be finished in another two months.

"We're confident it will be completed by the end of August," said Marin Catholic athletic director Gary Hughes. The bleachers used for the baseball and football fields are the same that came out of College of Marin's stadium, purchased from the college. Spectator capacity for football will be 2,000, and about 800 for baseball, said Hughes.

Marin Catholic, like Tam, Drake and Redwood, used the Marin college's stadium in past years.

"They've helped us so many years with the use of their facilities we are glad to be able to help them," said Hughes.

Marin Catholic and College of Marin games will be daylight affairs, as no lights are planned for installation.

San Rafael High School has the only lighted field available for football, and will get its share of use. Bob Muster, coach at San Rafael High, said there were 11 varsity football games played on the field last season, and there are 18 games planned so far this season.

Terra Linda High has been playing its "home" games on the San Rafael Bulldogs' field. Drake High of San Anselmo will be playing "home" games there too. Five, and possibly six, of Drake's games are planned under lights.

In addition to regular Marin County Athletic League games held on the San Rafael turf, the Kiwanis North-South All-Star game Aug. 21 will be played at the 4,500-seat capacity stadium.

Tamalpais High will be sharing its new field with Redwood, all those games daylight affairs as the Mill Valley school has no lighting facilities for 1,700 at Tam, with temporary bleachers of 500 capacity planned to be erected.

Novato and San Marin high schools will continue to use the Novato Hornets' field for their home games.

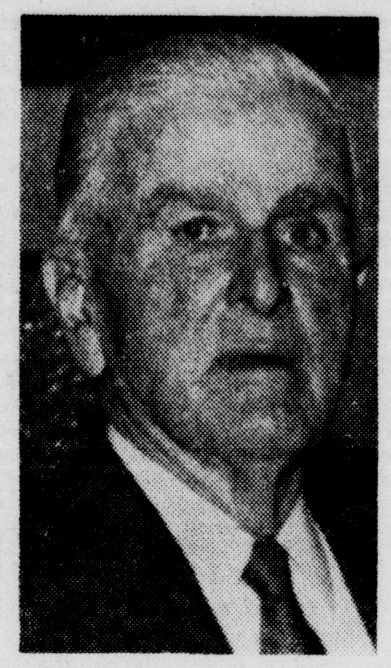
Walter Mails Incident In Canada Recalled

The display of the Canadian flag over Candlestick Park in honor of the Montreal Expos' weekend visit to San Francisco rekindled some old memories for Giants publicist Walter "The Great" Mails.

The former pitching hero, known as "Mighty Mouth" for his prolific after-dinner speaking engagements after his playing career, really put his foot in his mouth many years ago in Vancouver and, as a result, had to be escorted by police out of British Columbia.



WALTER MAILS

It happened in the 1920's when Mails was pitching for Seattle of the Pacific Coast League and the Rainiers were playing an exhibition game in Vancouver. As the team approached the ballpark, the impish Mails observed the British Flag flying over the stadium and quipped: "Hmm, this club must have won the pennant last year."

Well, everyone laughed and laughed execpt a young eavesdropper who took the remark as an insult to His Majesty's flag and who also just happened to be a cartoonist for the local daily.

Everyone had forgotten the incident until the next morning when the paper was delivered to Mails' hotel room and there, on the front page, he was flabbergasted to see himself stomping on the British flag in a not-so-funny cartoon.

Naturally, the local citizenry was so incensed that Walter The Great had to make a premature departure back to the friendly U.S.

Didn't Return Until 1950s

Mails avoided Vancouver for several years until the 1950s when a business commitment ended his exile. When a Vancouverite confronted him with the time-yellowed newspaper cartoon, the quick-thinking Mails laughed: "Aw, that was my father who said that."

SEVERAL SPORTS-MINDED individuals will huddle at Drake High School in San Anselmo tomorrow evening to discuss the feasibility of a sports complex in Marin County.

Carl J. Brown and Bob Fitzhenry of the Drake faculty, who are trying to get a ball rolling, envision a centrally-located stadium for a multitude of activities plus a championship swimming pool and tennis courts.

With only one lighted football stadium in the county (San Rafael High's), a new stadium would facilitate every school, not to mention numerous other functions.

Carney Campion of San Rafel, chairman of the Marin Athletic and Recreation Sponsors (MARS), which is seeking ways and means of promoting a swimming-tennis complex, will be on hand tomorrow night to coordinate his group's ideas with those of Brown and Fitzhenry.

Anyone else who'd like to chip in with some suggestions should attend the meeting at Room 104 at Drake High, 7 o'clock.

THOSE SOPHISTICATED and powerful Formula A cars that will headline this weekend's Continental Championship series at Sears Point Raceway will start arriving at the Sonoma County track tomorrow for some test runs over the tricky 12-turn, 2.5-mile circuit.

A's Sign 4 Rookies For Minor Leagues

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Athletics announced the signing of four rookies yesterday and said they would be sent to various farm clubs.

Bill Fitzgerald, a 6-4, 190-pound right handed Tulane University catcher from Metairie, La., was signed at a "substantial bonus" and will be sent to the Class AA Southern League team at Birmingham, Ala. Fitzgerald, 22, was captain and most valuable player on Tulane's 1969 team and batted .350.

Russell Almquist, of Northridge, Calif., and Bill Linehan of Peabody, Mass., both left handed pitchers, will be sent to the Northwest League's Tri-Cities team at Kennewick, Wash. Almquist, 19, attended Pierce Junior College and struck out 100 batters in 59 innings of American Legion League play. Linehan, 18, bats right but throws left handed and had a 10-2 record at Peabody High.

Joe Lasorsa, a 21-year-old right handed pitcher from Alston, Mass., struck out an average of 13 batters for every 9 innings he pitched for Boston University where he was named the most valuable player in the greater Boston College League. He will be sent to the Burlington, Iowa, Midwest League team.

Softball Schedule

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo, idle in softball wars for eight days, returns to action tomorrow night in a Santa Rosa League doubleheader against Windsor Merchants and Rose Bowl. The Treemen have a 24-17 won-lost record this season.

A's Green Happy To Return

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Second baseman Dick Green is happy to return to Kansas City but the fans would appreciate it more if his clutch fielding and hitting didn't come at the wrong time for the hometown Royals.

Green was one of the most popular players among local fans before the A's shifted operations from Kansas City to Oakland and despite the opposing uniform, he's still well liked.

But last night he robbed Jerry Adair of a hit in the ninth inning of the first game of the A's-Royals twi-night doubleeader, possibly taking away the winning run.

WINNING RUNS

Then, he smashed a double in the 13th to score Sal Bando and Danny Cater with what proved to be the winning Oakland run in the 7-5 contest.

The Royals won the nightcap 3-2 in 12 innings.

Chuck Dobson, 6-5, goes for Oakland and Dick Drago, 3-5, for the Royals in tonight's contest.

Green had two hits and drove in three runs in the opener and banged a solo homer in the second game for the A's only run in regulation play.

36 PLAYERS

Oakland's manager, Hank Bauer, used 19 players including six pitchers in the opening game while Joe Gordon of the Royals used 17 players including four pitchers.

Reggie Jackson slammed his 24th homer of the season in the third inning of the opener, his fourth in five games.

Cater led the A's 14-hit at-

HE'S BACK WITH A SMILE

Vince Lombardi was back as an active coach yesterday as he greeted more than 50 of his Washington Redskins to four days of skull sessions at Georgetown University. Lombardi, who guided the Green Bay Packers to two Super Bowl triumphs, looked happy to be back as he demonstrated his version of the handoff while Washington quarterback Sonny Jurgenson looked on with a grin. Terra Linda's Payan Moves To Redwood

The familiar sideline growl of Terra Linda High School football aide Jess Payan will have a new theater of operations next fall.

JESS PAYAN
Coach switches

Payan has moved to Redwood High School as head frosh grid coach and interim track coach. His hiring was confirmed last night at a meeting of the Tamalpais High School District.

He replaces young Gary Shaw, who has accepted a position as head track and cross-country coach at Hartnell Junior College in Salinas.

Payan has coached at Terra Linda for the past four years, acting as assistant varsity football coach and head baseball coach. He was unable to perform his baseball duties this spring because of illness after leading the Trojans to a Marin County Athletic League title in his first year as head coach in 1968.

Payan's forceful presence may bolster Redwood's football fortunes, which have not been up to past years of success, although the Giants did hand Terra Linda its only loss last year.

Terra Linda athletic director and head football coach Don Lucas expects the positions left vacant by Payan's departure to be filled soon. He also announced that Bob Pollitt has been moved from frosh grid coach up to head junior varisty grid coach.

Shaw, a rapidly-rising 24-year-old, was at Redwood for only a year but brought the Giants to another MCAL track and field title after two years at Santa Rosa Junior College.

Shaw replaces Ed Adams at Hartnell, who retired as track coach and athletic director.

Four Marin Players On Pro Draft List

Two Marin County high school seniors and a pair of collegiates who did their prep playing at Novato High were among the 1,147 players picked in the recent baseball draft.

Latest edition of the St. Louis Sporting News listed the draft picks, all 1,147 of them.

Highest to go was Russ Dillon, Novato High's southpaw pitcher, picked No. 4 by the Atlanta Braves for their Twin Falls farm club.

Mike Timmel, Terra Linda right-handed pitcher, was No. 15 pick by the St. Louis Cardinals, for Cedar Rapids team of Midwest League.

John Dolinsek, former Hornet now playing for Arizona State in the NCAA championships, was picked No. 8 by the Houston Astros, for the Cocoa team in the Florida State League.

In the special phase of the draft, for players who were previously drafted but didn't sign, former Novato star third baseman Tom Thomas was picked in the special phase second round by Chicago White Sox for Tucson of the Pacific Coast League. Thomas played for Menlo College last season, and was previously tabbed in the winter draft by California Anges.

RICK DENNING ON ALL-STAR NORTH TEAM

Rick Denning, three-times All-Marin County Athletic League player, has been added to the North Roster for Saturday's North-South All-Star baseball game at Candlestick Park.

The Marin Catholic High School graduate will be replacing shortstop Stan Papi of Fresno who signed a professional contract with the Houston Astros.

Also added to the North roster was outfielder Ken Robinson of Oakland High, replacing Ed Siracusa of Los Gatos, who is now under contract with Kansas City.

The game Saturday will be pitting the top players from Northern and Southern California high schools. Redwood High School coach Al Endriss is one of the North coaches.

THE GREAT SHIFT

McCovey Just Laughs It Off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"If I hit the ball out of the park," says Willie McCovey, "no shift will help unless they stack the outfielders on top of each other."

That was McCovey's whimsical approach to a shift devised by Cincinnati manager Dave Bristol in the Red's 8-6 victory over the San Francisco Giants yesterday.

The drastic alignment has shortstop Darrel Chaney shifting to left-center and third baseman Tony Perez playing near second base. McCovey faced it five times, walking twice and collecting a run-scoring single in the ninth.

FEAR

"We've been thinking about it for a while," explained Bristol, who plans to use the four-man outfield against McCovey tonight, when Juan Marichal 7-2 opposes George Culver, 4-4, in the second game of the series.

"I'd give McCovey four bunt singles before the game starts if he promises not to swing," said Bristol. "He hits the ball so hard, the percentages are with us to have four men in the outfield, trying to prevent an extra base hit."

McCovey, who leads the National League with 21 homers and is batting .353, shrugs off such attention.

NO BUNTS

"I wasn't watching the outfielders," offers McCovey. "I have enough trouble worrying about the pitchers. "And I'm not out to get four bunt singles—I've got to drive in runs for us to win."

The strategy worked in the eighth inning when McCovey ripped a liner to right fielder Bobby Tolan, standing near the foul line. The Giants followed with three straight singles, yet couldn't score.

McCovey's run-scoring single in the ninth, however, probably would have been an out under normal circumstances. It rolled softly up the middle and helped the Giants make it a tight finish with two runs scored in the inning.

13 HITS

While McCovey commanded much of the Reds' attention, Cincinnati's powerful batting order collected 13 hits to give ex-Giant Jack Fisher, 2-0, the victory over reliever Ron Kline, 1-4, making his first San Francisco appearance.

Alex Johnson led the way with four hits, boosting his average to .362. Johnson's two-run triple highlighted a three-run eighth-inning rally that gave reliever Clay Carroll an 8-4 cushion entering the bottom of the ninth.

Cincinnati overcame a 4-2 Giants' lead with a three run uprising in the sixth. Pete Rose's second run-scoring single of the game prefaced a two-run double by Tolan, which placed the Reds ahead for good.

BONDS, HUNT HR'S

The Giants collected 12 hits, three by Dave Marshall. Bobby Bonds and Ron Hunt belted solo homers for San Francisco. Caroll needed Wayne Granger's ninth-inning relief to nail down the victory.

Heart Attack Kills Driver

CALISTOGA (UPI) — Popular veteran race driver Dave Logan died of a massive heart attack, not injuries, just before his car crashed during a sprint race at the Napa Fairgrounds Saturday night.

An autopsy, revealed yesterday, pinpointed the cause of death of the 32-year-old driver from Clayton, Calif. He slumped over the steering wheel on the last lap during the featured race and the car smashed through a fence and clipped a tree.

Logan was found dead in the wreckage. He was the fourth driver to die on the half-mile fairgrounds track since sanctioned sprint car races started there in 1949.

Hitler Held Drug Addict By Britisher

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) — Nazi dictator Adolf Hitler suffered from heart disease and was a cocaine addict but was neither a victim of Parkinson's disease nor sexually impotent as legend has persisted, a British author said today.

David Irving wrote a report on Hitler's medical history and it appeared in the West German magazine Stern.

"He was addicted to medicaments and swallowed incredible quantities of pills and received injections and thereby incurred strychnine poisoning," Irving said.

The medical report was based on the papers of Hitler's personal physician Dr. Theodor Morell.

"On the basis of these contemporary documents a number of persistent rumors and legends can be quashed," Irving said.

"Hitler was neither venereally diseased nor impotent nor sexually abnormal in any way. Also, he did not suffer from Parkinson's disease (nervous paralysis). He also was neither paranoid (suffering from persecution complex) or schizoid (split) personality," Irving said.

Irving said Hitler was a narcotics (cocaine) addict.

As for Hitler's relations with women, they were "wholly normal," Irving said.

More Winners At Western Weekend Fair

More winners in Novato's Western Weekend Country Fair contests were reported yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce which sponsored the contests.

The Jaycees proved to be the stronger, pulling Chamber of Commerce members into Novato Creek in a tug-of-war. Both sides sat down in surprise when the rope suddenly broke, but it was tied and the contest resumed.

In the decorated horse and rider contest, Ann Sorum won first, Gayle Sorum, second and Carol Craft and Kathy Coffman, third. All were from Novato. The event drew 11 entries.

In the costumre parade Mrs. Charlotte Wagner and family of San Rafael won first Terry Bucher of Novato, second and Gae Mac Pherson, also of Novato, third.

The Edward B. MacGuire family of 33 Brown Drive, Novato, won a pony as a gate prize.

The Novato Fire Department won the waterball fight over Kentfield by a score of 7 to 3.

No Progress In Bus Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Federal mediator Roger Randall met for three hours yesterday with Greyhound bus line officials and striking mechanics, but reported no progress in settling their weeklong dispute.

Randall recessed the meeting without scheduling further discussions. He planned to meet today with Teamster garage employees, who aso have struck Greyhound's local maintenance garage.

The company said service was continuing, although the local Machinists Union sent pickets to garages in other cities, where buses are being serviced.

Giants Convinced Lanier Best Shortstop In N.L.

Hal Lanier established himself as the best shortstop in the National League last year. His fielding average of .979 led all shortstops in 1968. He handled 795 chances with only 17 errors.

This year Lanier is ranging the short patch from deep in the hole to behind second base. Some of his throws from the hole have been incredible. And his off-balance throws from behind second must be seen to be believed.

"Until I came to the Giants," said Clyde King, rookie manager of the team, "I used to think Gene Alley was the league's best shortstop. Now I know Lanier is."

KING HAS nothing but admiration for the way Lanier works at his job, especially Lanier's never-ending efforts to become as good a hitter as he is a fielder.

"Anybody who works as hard as he does has to succeed," said King who has used one or more starting players at every position except shortstop where Lanier has started every game, the only member of the team to play in every game.

SEVERAL TIMES King has sent pitch batters to the plate for Lanier but not recently. Lanier hit .438 (14-for-32) over a nine-game stretch May 28-June 8, boosting his season batting average from .207 to .250. During his nine-game streak he drove in four runs, his first RBIs since May 22.

A couple of years ago Lanier, a natural right-handed hitter, began hitting left-handed. After a brief experiment with switch-hitting, he abandoned it. Last July 28 he began switch-hitting again. This time he stuck with it and by September he looked comfortable from both sides of the plate. In September last season he hit .316.

THIS SPRING in the Cactus League exhibition games Lanier hit a creditable .267 with 15 RBIs. But after the season opened, he definitely was overanxious in the batter's box. He was swinging at bad pitches and he was running away from the plate. He wasn't staying put in the box and he wasn't staying with the pitch. He looked like a jumping jack in the box and his .192 batting average on May 1 looked awful.

Lanier was a deeply depressed young man at this period. But he did something about it. He had become a switch-hitter because he had seen what success Don Kessinger, the Cub shortstop, had with switch-hitting.

DURING THE first meeting of 1969 between the Giants and Cubs, Lanier asked Kessinger to look at his swing. Kessinger suggested a more level swing. Lanier achieved this by positioning his left elbow parallel to the ground. That was on May 9. A five-game hitting streak followed.

Kessinger's suggestion and the resulting five-game hitting streak certainly improved Lanier's mental attitude. But even before he received Kessinger's tip, Lanier was working himself out of his hitting problems. For one thing, he conquered his unconscious habit of jumping around in the batter's box. And he began to stay with pitches, waiting for them instead of lunging at them.

AS KING said, anyone who works as hard as Lanier does for success deserves it.

Beardall Wins Novato Race

The Marin Athletic Club put its personal stamp on the annual Novato Ridge Run last Saturday.

Daryl Beardall of the Marin Athletic Club took top individual honors, winning the 6.87-mile race in 37.07.5, to beat his old mark by a full minute, and the Marin Athletic Club took team honrs with 41 points, quite a bit ahead of runnerup Olympic Club, which had 78 points.

Mike Daley of the Redwood City Striders finished second in 37:49.0.

High school division honors went to Novato's Don Makela who finished eighth overall in 39:06.0.

Braves Reserves Do The Job

By ASSOCIATED PRES

Ift here's anything wrong with the Atlanta Braves' bench it must be termites in the wood.

It can't be the folks sitting on it, for there reclining in the Atlanta dugout last night were Hank Aaron, Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou while the regular bench-warmers were out on the field mauling Houston 6-2 and 8-4 in a twi-night double-header.

Aaron, who played in all of the Braves' first 58 games, and Cepeda, who missed only one, never budged, except for a few trips to the water cooler. Alou, who has been sidelined with a fractured hand, saw action late in each game for defensive purposes.

"I've always said we had a good bench and I think they proved that tonight," said manager Luman Harris after the Braves boosted their lead in the National League West to 2½ games over Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Elsewhere in the N.L., San Diego edged the Dodgers 3-2 in 13 innings, Concinnati outslugged the Giants 8-6, Pittsburgh nipped the Chicago Cubs 9-8 and St. Louis blanked Montreal 3-0. The New York Mets and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

While Aaron and Cepeda were enjoying the view as spectators, right fielder Mike Lum collected four hits and drove in a run and first baseman Tommie Aaron, Hank's kid brother, singled home a run in the first game and slammed his first homer of the season in the nightcap.

The key blows, however, were struck by Tony Gonzalez, acquired in a trade with San Diego over the weekend. Gonzalez smacked two home runs and drove in three runs in the opener as Phil Niekro became the major leagues' first 11-game winner.

Then, he drilled a two-run single that put Atlanta ahead in the second inning of the nightcap and before the side was out eight runs had crossed the plate. Rico Carty belted a three-run homer and Tommie Aaron's homer accounted for the final run.

Rookie Van Kelly, who went from Atlanta to San Diego in the Gonzalez deal, did the Dodgers in with a two-out, run-scoring double in the 13th, his first major league hit. Ed Spiezio and Ollie Brown homered for the Padres while Ken Boyer of the Dodgers sent the contest into overtime with a two-out pinch single in the ninth.

Rookie Al Oliver's two-run homer capped a three-run Pittsburgh rally in the eighth that enabled the Pirates to lick the Cubs. The Pirates took a 6-2 lead in the first but the Cubs battled back and went ahead 7-6 on Randy Hundley's two-run homer in the seventh. They scored again in the ninth before Steve Blass fanned rookie Rich Bladt with runners on second and third.

Nelson Briles spaced 10 hits and stranded 10 Montreal baserunners as the Cardinals made the most of four hits, including Vada Pinson's fourth homer and Julian Javier's third.

Tigers' McLain Wins His 10th

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Denny McLain, tough-talking 31-game winner of 1968, is taking as much pleasure in his 10-5 record this year as his 11-2 mark a year ago.

"What burns me is that so many guys, even in Detroit, said I might be a 5-10 pitcher at this stage of the season," said McLain, after pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 3-2 win over the New York Yankees last night. "I want to shove it down their throats."

McLain, who scored the 100th victory of his career, was touched for a first-inning run on two singles and a balk and a ninth-inning run on a double by Roy White and a single by Gene Michael.

TWO-RUN HOMER

The big blow in the Tigers' victory, which saddled Fritz Peterson with his seventh defeat, was a two-run homer by Al Kaline in the fourth inning.

The Minnesota Twins beat the California Angels, 8-2, as Rod Carew tied an American League record by stealing home for the sixth time in one season, the Chicago White Sox downed the Seattle Pilots, 8-3, the Boston Red Sox topped the Cleveland Indians, 8-5, and the Kansas City Royals scored a 12-inning victory, 3-2, after losing the first game to the Oakland Athletics, 7-5, in 13 innings.

Carew, who has been given the right to steal at will by Manager Billy Martin, executed consecutive double steals with Tony Oliva in the first inning as the Twins whisked off to a 3-0 lead. Carew's six steals of home equal the A.L. record set by Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers in 1915 and equalled by Bob Roth of the Cleveland Indians in 1917. Carew is one short of the major league mark set by Pete Reiser of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1946.

PERRY GOES ROUTE

Jim Perry went the route to pick up his fifth victory of the season for the Twins.

Billy Wynne allowed eight hits and hit a two-run single during a five-run third inning as the White Sox snapped a four-game losing streak. Luis Aparicio and Gail Hopkins each had two hits for the White Sox while Mike Hegan and Don Mincher had two each for the Pilots.

Reggie Smith hit a three-run homer in the seventh off Juan Pizarro and a solo homer in the ninth off Mike Paul to rally the Red Sox to their victory at Cleveland. Carl Yastrzemski hit his 18th homer for the Red Sox while Ken Harrelson drove in two runs for the Indians with a homer and a double.

Chinese Soccer Fans In Riot

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong Chinese soccer fans set rubbish fires, smashed car windows, and scuffled with police last night as England's touring Football Association team beat a Hong Kong Football Association eleven 6-0.

Hong Kong riot police, armed with batons and carrying woven bamboo shields, moved into the area and brought the trouble under control in about 40 minutes.

A police spokesman said one Hong Kong European resident was briefly hospitalized with "not too serious injuries" when attacked by several members of the mob, apparently irritated by the one-sided victory.

Upsets In NCAA Tourney

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The most form-shattering tournament in the 23-year history of the NCAA baseball College World Series headed toward the decisive stages today with dark-horses Tulsa and New York University the only teams remaining undefeated.

BEAT TEXANS

The Hurricanes, Missouri Valley Conference champions making their first tournament appearance, cooled off Texas 4-2 last night behind the two-hit pitching of Steve Rogers and Cliff Whitaker, who drove in four runs with a homer and single.

NYU, which is making its third tourney appearance but has never finished higher than fourth, unleashed a 12-hit attack to bury Massachusetts 9-2 in the other winners' bracket game.

The two unbeatens collide at 3 p.m. today, with the winner then sitting back to await the team that emerges from the losers' bracket.

TWO MORE

Two more teams were to be eliminated today.

Mississippi, which provided another shocker yesterday when it ousted top-ranked Southern Illinois University 8-1, took on Texas while Massachusetts played Arizona State in losers' games today which would sideline two more and reduce the field to four clubs.

Heavy Hitting In Rec Softball

Heavy hitting dominated the scene in San Rafael Recreation Department softball action yesterday at Albert Field.

In a 16-inch slow pitch game, Cliff's Chevron blasted Cal's Steakhouse, 10-4 on a 12-hit attack and the Marin Supply Company routed Stan's, 13-8, in a C division game that produced 23 hits.

SPORTS SHORTS

Moody Jumps Up On Money List

NEW YORK (AP) — Orville Moody leaped from 26th to eighth place on the Professional Golfers' Association's money winning list, thanks to his victory in the U.S. Open.

According to statistics released yesterday by the PGA, Moody's $30,000 Open first prize raised his earnings so far this year to $67,921. Before the Open, the former Army sergeant was 26th on the money list with $37,921 in 22 tournaments. He had finished in the top five in four events but had never won a tournament until the Open, the biggest of them all.

Moody, a graduate of the 1967 PGA player school, earned $12,950 last year and wound up 103rd on the annual list.

Gene Littler continued to lead the weekly dollar derby with $102,137.

The first seven positions were unchanged after the Open Sunday from the previous week's standings.

Lee Trevino is in second position with $83,942 followed by Gary Player, $80,156; Billy Casper, $79,254; Miller Barber, $75,361; Dave Hill, $73,725; George Archer, $69,557; Moody; Bruce Devlin, $67,614 and Deane Beam, $64,608.

CINCINNATI — Kathy Whitworth boosted her lead to nearly $6,000 int he Ladies Professional Golf Association money standings by winning the Patty Berg Classic Sunday.

TENNIS

LONDON — Seven of the world's top tennis stars announced they have formed an international association aimed at getting a say in whether South Africa competes in the Davis Cup tournament.

LONDON — Australia's Rod Laver defeated British Davis Cupper Peter Curtis, 6-4, 6-2 in the opening round of the Queen's Club tourney.

Junior Olympics Fund Campaign In Mill Valley

John Garber, recreation supervisor for the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department, announced yesterday the starting of a drive for $500 to send 50 Marin County boys and girls to Junior Olympic Track and Field Championships in Reno, Nev.

First three places in each age group event last Saturday at the Marin County Junior Olympics qualifies for the Reno meet, scheduled July 12-13.

William Kilday of San Rafael was the star of last Saturday's meet, setting a national record in boys age 12-13 division of the half mile in 2 minutes, 19.8 seconds.

Garber said persons wishing to contribute to the fund should get in touch with him at the recreation department office.

A Slow Start For Marin's Ken Johnson

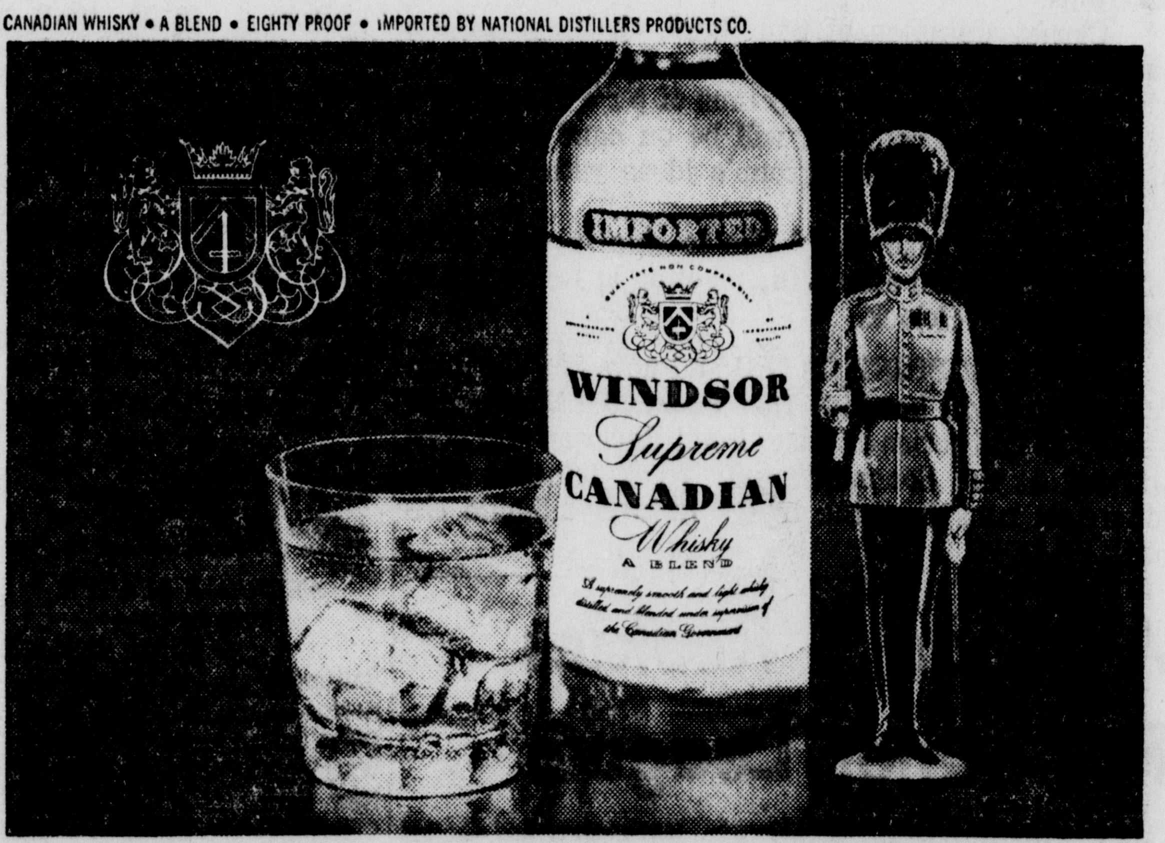
Ken Johnson, three-time All-Marin County Athletic League baseball pick from Redwood High School, is having another one of his slow starts.

Johnson, who traditionally has trouble getting under way with his bat early in the season, is in his second year with the New York Yankee organization, batting a cool .143 with Ft. Lauderdale in the Florida A League. He got his first two hits last week.

Meanwhile, Nick Willard of Novato saw no action for Bakersfield in the California League last week. He's batting .238 on the season.

Pitcher Bill Lee of Terra Linda is doing well in Pittsfield, Mass., in the Eastern AA League. He's got a 1.89 earned run average in eight games, having won four and lost two.

CANADIAN WHISKY • A BLEND • EIGHTY PROOF • IMPORTED BY NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS CO.



Introducing
The smoothest whisky ever to come out of Canada!

Compare Windsor with your usual American or Canadian whisky. Once you do, you'll never settle for less, or pay more!

Tonight, make the comparison: make one drink with your "usual," the other with Windsor. You'll be amazed at the sippin' smoothness of this remarkable new import. That's because only Windsor is made from hardy Canadian prairie grains and pure, clear glacial waters. And only Windsor is aged in Canada's mile-high, dry Rocky Mountain air. All this, yet Windsor is priced right in line with leading domestic whiskies because we import it, then bottle it here.

SNIFF AND BUY

Osmics, or odor engineering, has become another marketing trick. Bread is wrapped in wax paper scented with a freshly baked odor; mouse-traps are scented with cheddar cheese; a blend of banana oil, glue, leather, rubber, gasoline, plastic makes a car smell new.

WATER IS CHEAPER AT HOME

The new "old fashioned" soups may be nostalgic in flavor, but not in cost. "With water" soups are priced 2 to 3 times more than condensed soups, and contain only one-half the servings.

CHEESE QUIZ

1.—Soft cheeses like cream, cottage, Neufchatel and ricotta should be used within a week or two.
2.—Soft, well aged Cheddar melts more readily than less ripened cheese.

ANSWERS

1.—False. Soft cheese is the most perishable and should be used within a few days after purchase.
2.—True.

The Old Days Revisited; Fish Still Bite The Same

In the old days of the Richmond ferries and the docks and pilings down there off Point San Quentin, stripers used to be all around that area through May, June and July. Trolling the pilings at both the ferry pier and the Marin Rod and Gun Club pier was tops at times.

I used to fish the incoming tides, starting at the low. Minus tides were best. We used bug-eye jigs — reds, yellows, whites and greens usually two on a spreader leader. I think that attorneys Bill Weissich and Roger Garety and Warden H. O. Teets all caught their first limits of bass there, and Sam Knoles used to come down, satisfied to go after the others came in, and he mostly limited, too.

I went down there a few days ago on a minus tide and trolled exactly like we used to. A minus .9 tide, incoming water, the jigs, the whole bit. You know, we caught three fish that hit exactly like they used to. No other boats were out. What's happened to Barney Piambo, Duane from the Western and all the others? I did see Andy Pedroli, one of the old timers, come along, make two passes and then head up the bay. It should be good this week, and you don't have to get there early either.

I TOOK an early morning trip (5 a.m.) down to Fort Cronkhite and Lime Point the other day. Watched four fishermen take four bass, nothing too big.

It looked like Frank Allen out in a boat fly casting. Frank is one of the good anglers you don't hear much about. He never come in! I know he caught two fish, but when the tide changed, he took off out through the Golden Gate to try for salmon, I guess.

One morning a few years ago I went to the Richmond Bridge at low tide, about a half hour before legal fishing time. There was a boat anchored and a guy with a fly rod sitting there. He wasn't fishing, just waiting for the right time to arrive. I walked out on the bridge above him, said "hello," and after we talked awhile I told him I was a game warden. He was glad that he hadn't fished, and you know that fish were boiling all over the place. Later he caught three, released two of them and gave me one. He was fishing for fun! That's how I met Frank.

I WENT OVER to San Pablo Bay Saturday and ran into Ernest "Smiley" Eddings of Santa Venetia who had just come in from the pumphouse area with Bob Keefer and Mike LaFevre. Ernest was smiling, too; he had just landed a 34½-pound striper and a 30-pound sturgeon, and his two buddies had a sturgeon each and a 14-pound striper.

Maisie Martin of Santa Venetia was there, too, and seeing these fish she immediately left for home to get her husband, Manny, and their new "Thunderbird" boat in shape. I came by there the next day just as they were getting ready to leave. They had picked up two other customers by this time, Jeanne and Don Carter from Tampa, Fla., two green peas if I ever saw any.

Maisie, who invites everyone around to go fishing, then talked me into going for a couple of hours, too. After much persuasion, I went along to assist the new comers. You won't believe it, but, Jeanne, who talks like a "southern belle," started it out by saying, "Al, would you all bait my hook for me, please?" Oh Boy! With the crowd so thick in the back of this boat, I ended up baiting all the hooks except Manny's. He fished up forward, out of a hole in the canvas top of the boat. I think that from now on he won't let more than three people on his boat!

Anyway, the southern belle in five minutes hooked an 18-pound bass. You should have seen the action! She never put the rod down after that. I caught a 40-pound sturgeon on a new fly rod that didn't break; then Maisie hooked a big sturgeon. (Her biggest fish to date was 46 pounds.) Well this one, after Maisie shivered and her knees shook, was finally landed. It weighed 76 pounds on the Buck's Landing scales. And then Don hooked up wigh a 22-pound sturgeon which he soon landed.

Manny? He was up front, head up through the hole, and the wind blowing about 25 knots. You think he got a fish? Nope! The guy who owns the boat usually never gets anything. Last thing I heard, Manny was going fishing alone this week. "Friends? Ha, they can get their own boat." Those were his last words!

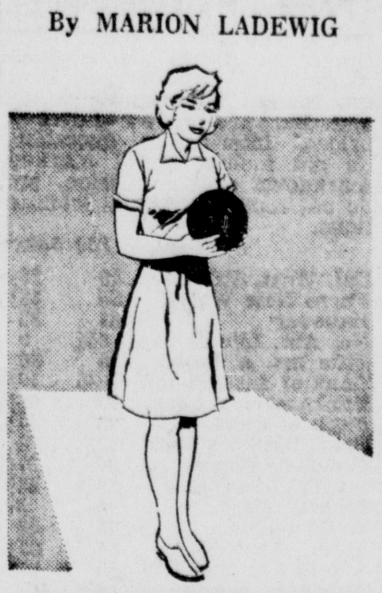
BOWLING TIPS

By MARION LADEWIG



As you stand in your starting position, allow your muscles to relax. A deep breath and very slow exhale might help. Tension has ruined many a bowler. Don't let it happen to you.

Drake Basketball Loop Under Way

Drake Summer League basketball action got under way yesterday with three adult league games at Drake High School.

In the top game of the set, San Rafael Travel nicked A and E Garage, 59-57, behind Dan O'Brien's 19 points. Dave Lee had 22 points for the losers.

In other games, the Olympic Club routed McArthur Brothers, 61-34, and Paradise Pharmacy whipped Taveggi-Brusati, 75-50, on Bob Heany's 16 points.

Marin Stars In National Net Tourney

A flock of Marin County tennis hopefuls will be entered in the 11th annual National Men's 35 hardcourt championships at the Mill Valley Tennis Club, set to start tomorrow at 9 a.m.

Two of them will clash in the second match of the day when Fred Brylka of San Rafael and John Williams of Mill Valley go at it at 9 a.m. Also playing at 9 a.m. will be Art Foff, Pete Werner and Larry Goldbeck, all of Mill Valley.

Going at 10 a.m. are John Olmsted, Keith Klussman, and Stan George of San Rafael and Ron Stuart of Corte Madera.

BIG TASK

George Hambruch of Tiburon gets the unenviable task of facing second-seeded Don Gale of Mountain View at 11 a.m. Competing at noon are George Husa of Terra Linda and Robert Seymour of Mill Valley.

Jack Barone and Leon Malherbe, both of Mill Valley, are involved in 1 p.m. matches.

Competition on opening day of the five-day tournament will continue through 5 p.m. with 40 matches scheduled.

Ickx Uninjured In Highway Crash

CHARTRES, France (AP) — Jackie Ickx of Belgium, who was a co-driver of the winning Ford GT in the LeMans 24-hour automobile race on Sunday, escaped uninjured from an accident as he was driving toward Paris yesterday. But his new car was badly damaged.

Ickx was forced to veer sharply to the right to avoid another car and ran into an electrical pole.

Scholarship For Drake Ace

Dave Alvarado, recent graduate of Drake High School and now serving a five-month hitch in the U.S. Coast Guard, stationed in Alameda, has been named Marin County winner of the Big Hand Scholarship.

It's the second scholarship won by Alvarado, a letter-winner in three sports at the San Anselmo school. Prior to his Big Hand athletic scholarship he had won a California State Academic scholarship.

SANTA CLARA-BOUND

Planning to attend University of Santa Clara in September after his release from active duty, Alvarado will get $500 per year for four years for the Big Hand aid, and approximately $1,300 per year for the academic scholarship.

The 18-year-old athlete played football, basketball and baseball at Drake. In addition to excelling in athletics, Dave has been in the Honor Society for four years and a member of the California Scholarship Federation two years. He was recently voted Outstanding Citizenship Award by the Drake High School faculty. He was also the Drake High School nominee for the Senior Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame award.

The Big Hand scholarship program was open only to San Francisco students in the past, but this year winners from Marin and Alameda counties have been added.

Confusing Marin Football Schedule For 1969 Season

College of Marin will be "home" at Marin Catholic High School, Redwood High will be "home" at Tamalpais and Drake will be "home" at San Rafael High.

Sound confusing?

It's just what the football schedule for Marin County will be like in the fall.

College of Marin's stadium, scene of most of Marin County's football action in past years, is being leveled for construction of a science building. Marin's new athletic facilities will not be completed in time for the 1969 football season.

In the meantime, Tars' home games will be played at Marin Catholic High in Kentfield, less than two miles from the College of Marin campus.

As is the case of College of Marin, construction of new athletic facilities — football and baseball fields and a track — is going on at Marin Catholic. But unlike the situation at College of Marin, the Wildcats' playground is expected to be finished in another two months.

"We're confident it will be completed by the end of August," said Marin Catholic athletic director Gary Hughes. The bleachers used for the baseball and football fields are the same that came out of College of Marin's stadium, purchased from the college. Spectator capacity for football will be 2,000, and about 800 for baseball, said Hughes.

Marin Catholic, like Tam, Drake and Redwood, used the Marin college's stadium in past years.

"They've helped us so many years with the use of their facilities we are glad to be able to help them," said Hughes.

Marin Catholic and College of Marin games will be daylight affairs, as no lights are planned for installation.

San Rafael High School has the only lighted field available for football, and will get its share of use. Bob Muster, coach at San Rafael High, said there were 11 varsity football games played on the field last season, and there are 18 games planned so far this season.

Terra Linda High has been playing its "home" games on the San Rafael Bulldogs' field. Drake High of San Anselmo will be playing "home" games there too. Five, and possibly six, of Drake's games are planned under lights.

In addition to regular Marin County Athletic League games held on the San Rafael turf, the Kiwanis North-South All-Star game Aug. 21 will be played at the 4,500-seat capacity stadium.

Tamalpais High will be sharing its new field with Redwood, all those games daylight affairs as the Mill Valley school has no lighting facilities for 1,700 at Tam, with temporary bleachers of 500 capacity planned to be erected.

Novato and San Marin high schools will continue to use the Novato Hornets' field for their home games.

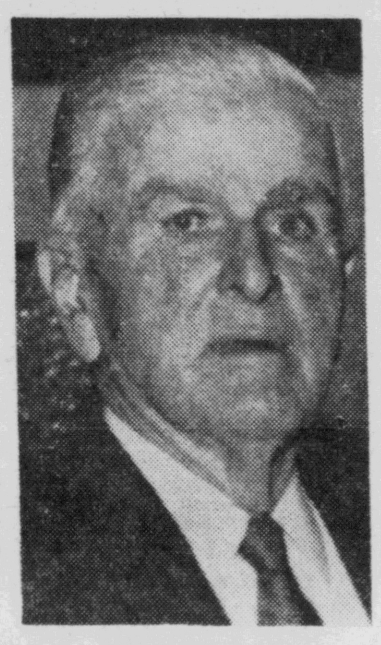
Walter Mails Incident In Canada Recalled

The display of the Canadian flag over Candlestick Park in honor of the Montreal Expos' weekend visit to San Francisco rekindled some old memories for Giants publicist Walter "The Great" Mails.

The former pitching hero, known as "Mighty Mouth" for his prolific after-dinner speaking engagements after his playing career, really put his foot in his mouth many years ago in Vancouver and, as a result, had to be escorted by police out of British Columbia.



WALTER MAILS

It happened in the 1920's when Mails was pitching for Seattle of the Pacific Coast League and the Rainiers were playing an exhibition game in Vancouver. As the team approached the ballpark, the impish Mails observed the British Flag flying over the stadium and quipped: "Hmm, this club must have won the pennant last year."

Well, everyone laughed and laughed execpt a young eavesdropper who took the remark as an insult to His Majesty's flag and who also just happened to be a cartoonist for the local daily.

Everyone had forgotten the incident until the next morning when the paper was delivered to Mails' hotel room and there, on the front page, he was flabbergasted to see himself stomping on the British flag in a not-so-funny cartoon.

Naturally, the local citizenry was so incensed that Walter The Great had to make a premature departure back to the friendly U.S.

Didn't Return Until 1950s

Mails avoided Vancouver for several years until the 1950s when a business commitment ended his exile. When a Vancouverite confronted him with the time-yellowed newspaper cartoon, the quick-thinking Mails laughed: "Aw, that was my father who said that."

SEVERAL SPORTS-MINDED individuals will huddle at Drake High School in San Anselmo tomorrow evening to discuss the feasibility of a sports complex in Marin County.

Carl J. Brown and Bob Fitzhenry of the Drake faculty, who are trying to get a ball rolling, envision a centrally-located stadium for a multitude of activities plus a championship swimming pool and tennis courts.

With only one lighted football stadium in the county (San Rafael High's), a new stadium would facilitate every school, not to mention numerous other functions.

Carney Campion of San Rafel, chairman of the Marin Athletic and Recreation Sponsors (MARS), which is seeking ways and means of promoting a swimming-tennis complex, will be on hand tomorrow night to coordinate his group's ideas with those of Brown and Fitzhenry.

Anyone else who'd like to chip in with some suggestions should attend the meeting at Room 104 at Drake High, 7 o'clock.

THOSE SOPHISTICATED and powerful Formula A cars that will headline this weekend's Continental Championship series at Sears Point Raceway will start arriving at the Sonoma County track tomorrow for some test runs over the tricky 12-turn, 2.5-mile circuit.

A's Green Happy To Return

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Second baseman Dick Green is happy to return to Kansas City but the fans would appreciate it more if his clutch fielding and hitting didn't come at the wrong time for the hometown Royals.

Green was one of the most popular players among local fans before the A's shifted operations from Kansas City to Oakland and despite the opposing uniform, he's still well liked.

But last night he robbed Jerry Adair of a hit in the ninth inning of the first game of the A's-Royals twi-night doubleeader, possibly taking away the winning run.

WINNING RUNS

Then, he smashed a double in the 13th to score Sal Bando and Danny Cater with what proved to be the winning Oakland run in the 7-5 contest.

The Royals won the nightcap 3-2 in 12 innings.

Chuck Dobson, 6-5, goes for Oakland and Dick Drago, 3-5, for the Royals in tonight's contest.

Green had two hits and drove in three runs in the opener and banged a solo homer in the second game for the A's only run in regulation play.

36 PLAYERS

Oakland's manager, Hank Bauer, used 19 players including six pitchers in the opening game while Joe Gordon of the Royals used 17 players including four pitchers.

Reggie Jackson slammed his 24th homer of the season in the third inning of the opener, his fourth in five games.

Cater led the A's 14-hit at-

A's Sign 4 Rookies For Minor Leagues

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Athletics announced the signing of four rookies yesterday and said they would be sent to various farm clubs.

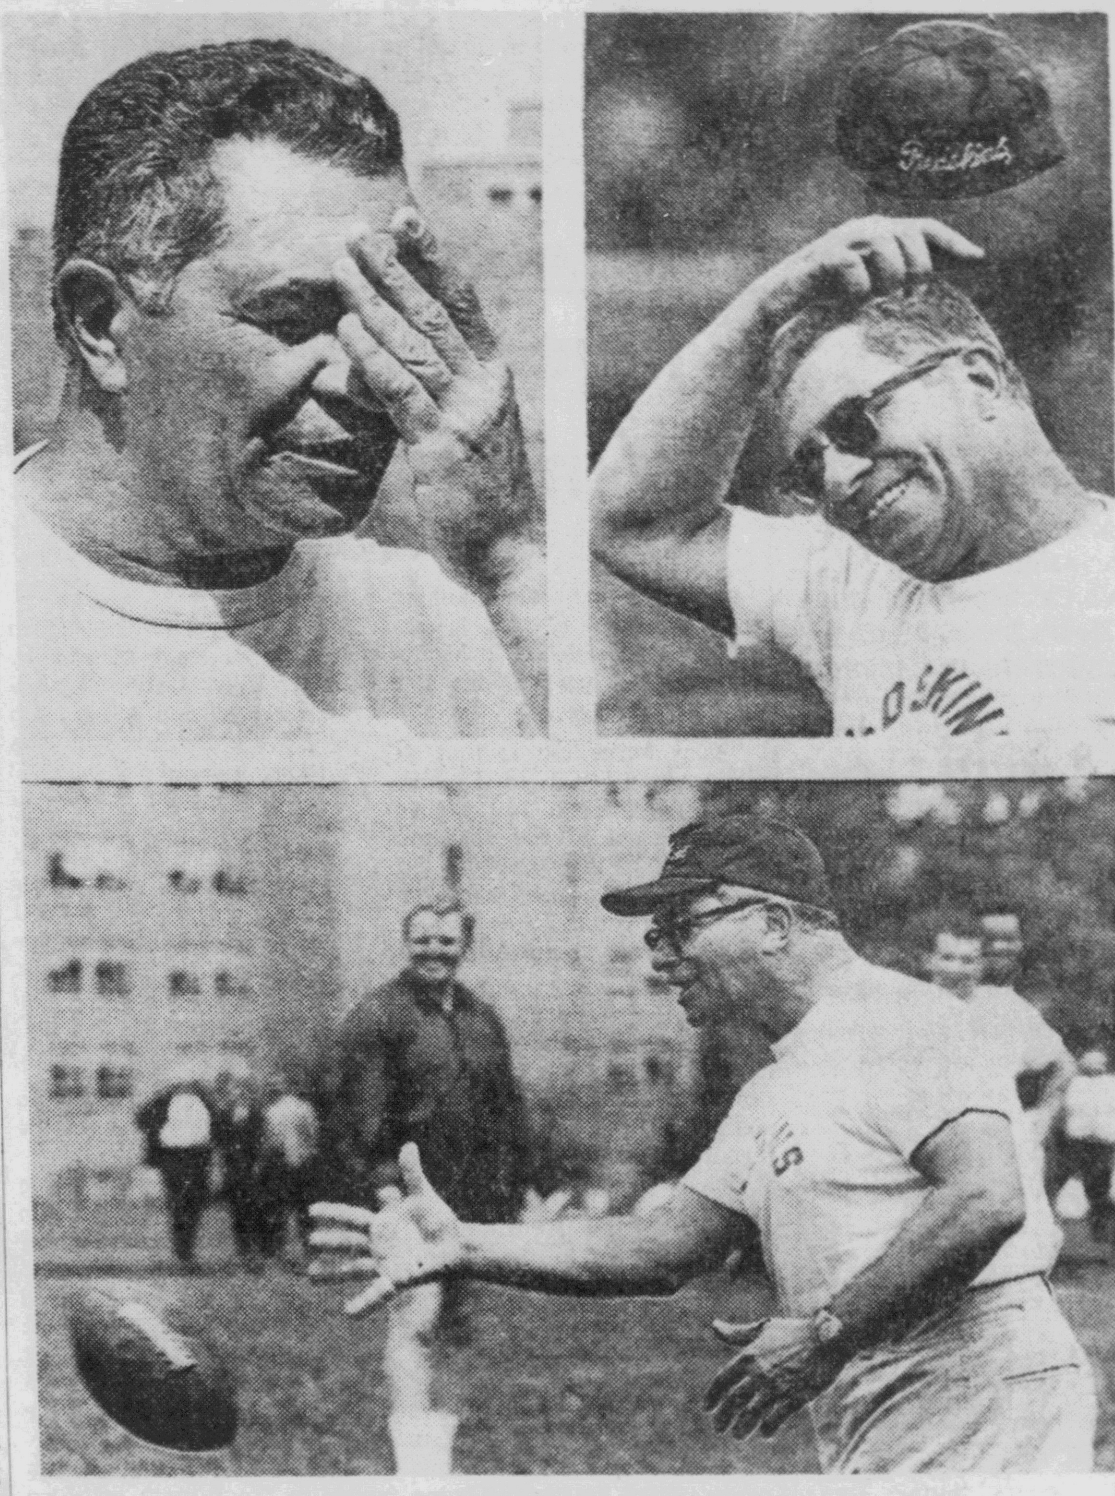
Bill Fitzgerald, a 6-4, 190-pound right handed Tulane University catcher from Metairie, La., was signed at a "substantial bonus" and will be sent to the Class AA Southern League team at Birmingham, Ala. Fitzgerald, 22, was captain and most valuable player on Tulane's 1969 team and batted .350.

Russell Almquist, of Northridge, Calif., and Bill Linehan of Peabody, Mass., both left handed pitchers, will be sent to the Northwest League's Tri-Cities team at Kennewick, Wash. Almquist, 19, attended Pierce Junior College and struck out 100 batters in 59 innings of American Legion League play. Linehan, 18, bats right but throws left handed and had a 10-2 record at Peabody High.

Joe Lasorsa, a 21-year-old right handed pitcher from Alston, Mass., struck out an average of 13 batters for every 9 innings he pitched for Boston University where he was named the most valuable player in the greater Boston College League. He will be sent to the Burlington, Iowa, Midwest League team.

Softball Schedule

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo, idle in softball wars for eight days, returns to action tomorrow night in a Santa Rosa League doubleheader against Windsor Merchants and Rose Bowl. The Treemen have a 24-17 won-lost record this season.



HE'S BACK WITH A SMILE

Vince Lombardi was back as an active coach yesterday as he greeted more than 50 of his Washington Redskins to four days of skull sessions at Georgetown University. Lombardi, who guided the Green Bay Packers to two Super Bowl triumphs, looked happy to be back as he demonstrated his version of the handoff while Washington quarterback Sonny Jurgenson looked on with a grin. Terra Linda's Payan Moves To Redwood

The familiar sideline growl of Terra Linda High School football aide Jess Payan will have a new theater of operations next fall.

Payan has moved to Redwood High School as head frosh grid coach and interim track coach. His hiring was confirmed last night at a meeting of the Tamalpais High School District.

He replaces young Gary Shaw, who has accepted a position as head track and cross-country coach at Hartnell Junior College in Salinas.

Payan has coached at Terra Linda for the past four years, acting as assistant varsity football coach and head baseball coach. He was unable to perform his baseball duties this spring because of illness after leading the Trojans to a Marin County Athletic League title in his first year as head coach in 1968.

JESS PAYAN
Coach switches

Payan's forceful presence may bolster Redwood's football fortunes, which have not been up to past years of success, although the Giants did hand Terra Linda its only loss last year.

Terra Linda athletic director and head football coach Don Lucas expects the positions left vacant by Payan's departure to be filled soon. He also announced that Bob Pollitt has been moved from frosh grid coach up to head junior varisty grid coach.

Shaw, a rapidly-rising 24-year-old, was at Redwood for only a year but brought the Giants to another MCAL track and field title after two years at Santa Rosa Junior College.

Shaw replaces Ed Adams at Hartnell, who retired as track coach and athletic director.

RICK DENNING ON ALL-STAR NORTH TEAM

Rick Denning, three-times All-Marin County Athletic League player, has been added to the North Roster for Saturday's North-South All-Star baseball game at Candlestick Park.

The Marin Catholic High School graduate will be replacing shortstop Stan Papi of Fresno who signed a professional contract with the Houston Astros.

Also added to the North roster was outfielder Ken Robinson of Oakland High, replacing Ed Siracusa of Los Gatos, who is now under contract with Kansas City.

The game Saturday will be pitting the top players from Northern and Southern California high schools. Redwood High School coach Al Endriss is one of the North coaches.

Four Marin Players On Pro Draft List

Two Marin County high school seniors and a pair of collegiates who did their prep playing at Novato High were among the 1,147 players picked in the recent baseball draft.

Latest edition of the St. Louis Sporting News listed the draft picks, all 1,147 of them.

Highest to go was Russ Dillon, Novato High's southpaw pitcher, picked No. 4 by the Atlanta Braves for their Twin Falls farm club.

Mike Timmel, Terra Linda right-handed pitcher, was No. 15 pick by the St. Louis Cardinals, for Cedar Rapids team of Midwest League.

John Dolinsek, former Hornet now playing for Arizona State in the NCAA championships, was picked No. 8 by the Houston Astros, for the Cocoa team in the Florida State League.

In the special phase of the draft, for players who were previously drafted but didn't sign, former Novato star third baseman Tom Thomas was picked in the special phase second round by Chicago White Sox for Tucson of the Pacific Coast League. Thomas played for Menlo College last season, and was previously tabbed in the winter draft by California Anges.

THE GREAT SHIFT

McCovey Just Laughs It Off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"If I hit the ball out of the park," says Willie McCovey, "no shift will help unless they stack the outfielders on top of each other."

That was McCovey's whimsical approach to a shift devised by Cincinnati manager Dave Bristol in the Red's 8-6 victory over the San Francisco Giants yesterday.

The drastic alignment has shortstop Darrel Chaney shifting to left-center and third baseman Tony Perez playing near second base. McCovey faced it five times, walking twice and collecting a run-scoring single in the ninth.

FEAR

"We've been thinking about it for a while," explained Bristol, who plans to use the four-man outfield against McCovey tonight, when Juan Marichal 7-2 opposes George Culver, 4-4, in the second game of the series.

"I'd give McCovey four bunt singles before the game starts if he promises not to swing," said Bristol. "He hits the ball so hard, the percentages are with us to have four men in the outfield, trying to prevent an extra base hit."

McCovey, who leads the National League with 21 homers and is batting .353, shrugs off such attention.

NO BUNTS

"I wasn't watching the outfielders," offers McCovey. "I have enough trouble worrying about the pitchers. "And I'm not out to get four bunt singles—I've got to drive in runs for us to win."

The strategy worked in the eighth inning when McCovey ripped a liner to right fielder Bobby Tolan, standing near the foul line. The Giants followed with three straight singles, yet couldn't score.

McCovey's run-scoring single in the ninth, however, probably would have been an out under normal circumstances. It rolled softly up the middle and helped the Giants make it a tight finish with two runs scored in the inning.

13 HITS

While McCovey commanded much of the Reds' attention, Cincinnati's powerful batting order collected 13 hits to give ex-Giant Jack Fisher, 2-0, the victory over reliever Ron Kline, 1-4, making his first San Francisco appearance.

Alex Johnson led the way with four hits, boosting his average to .362. Johnson's two-run triple highlighted a three-run eighth-inning rally that gave reliever Clay Carroll an 8-4 cushion entering the bottom of the ninth.

Cincinnati overcame a 4-2 Giants' lead with a three run uprising in the sixth. Pete Rose's second run-scoring single of the game prefaced a two-run double by Tolan, which placed the Reds ahead for good.

BONDS, HUNT HR'S

The Giants collected 12 hits, three by Dave Marshall. Bobby Bonds and Ron Hunt belted solo homers for San Francisco. Caroll needed Wayne Granger's ninth-inning relief to nail down the victory.

Heart Attack Kills Driver

CALISTOGA (UPI) — Popular veteran race driver Dave Logan died of a massive heart attack, not injuries, just before his car crashed during a sprint race at the Napa Fairgrounds Saturday night.

An autopsy, revealed yesterday, pinpointed the cause of death of the 32-year-old driver from Clayton, Calif. He slumped over the steering wheel on the last lap during the featured race and the car smashed through a fence and clipped a tree.

Logan was found dead in the wreckage. He was the fourth driver to die on the half-mile fairgrounds track since sanctioned sprint car races started there in 1949.

Japan Fund Shares Quoted Two Ways

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I noticed that Japan Fund has been hitting new highs while the rest of the market was declining. I can't seem to find much information on the company. Have you any? — R. P.

A. Japan Fund, a closed-end investment company, as of March 31, had more than half of its assets invested in electronics and construction companies. These two areas of the Japanese economy are expected to show the greatest percentage of growth in the next five years. The shares are trading at about a 27 per cent premium over net asset value. Since the first of the year, shares have moved up about 60 per cent primarily, reflecting new all-time highs in the Tokyo Stock Market.

In purchasing these shares you should take note of the fact that they are quoted two ways. Shares which are accompanied by American ownership certificates are not subject to the Interest Equalization Tax. The lower quotes are on foreign shares which are subject to the tax.

Q. I am retired with ample income. Two holdings, in spite of stock dividends, are off considerably from my purchase price. Should I hold or sell Cerro Corp. and Ronson Corp.? — R. D.

A. The future of Cerro Corp., because of its involvement in Peru and the attendant uncertainty of the political situation there, is clouded. Company President Koenig in an optimistic statement at the annual meeting predicted higher earnings for 1969 and a more favorable climate for foreign investment. I would be inclined to wait it out until nearer the year-end before possibly taking a tax-loss.

Ronson's President Aronson has predicted a record year for his company with sales reaching $102 million. Several very promising consumer products, absence of nonrecurring charges and greater efficiency from plant consolidation should also boost earnings. Five new consumer products, electric and flame, will be introduced in the last half of 1969. Gradual lomg-term growth should result in higher trading levels. Hold.

Skyscraper Will Keep Its Spire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Transamerica Corp. has shortened the height of its projected skyscraper here, but it still is designed to become one of the largest structures west of the Mississippi. A 220-foot spire is planned for the 45-floor building, which has been scaled down from 55 stories.

The change actually will increase the rentable area in the building, which will contain more than one half million feet of floor space.

The city planning commission has set June 26 for hearing a request by Transamerica to close a section of Merchant St. for access to the building by pedestrians only.

Bank Clearings Up In Marin

Marin County bank clearings for May were up substantially from 1968 figures for the fifth consecutive month this year.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reported unadjusted debits of $229,039,000, compared with $189,455,000 in May, 1968. Unadjusted deposits increased to $99,248,000 from $95,054,000 a year ago.

Seasonally adjusted debits, deposits and turnover ratios are not yet reported for Marin County.

Nine Businessmen Get Chamber Posts

Nine local businessmen have been elected directors of the Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau: Frank Bosl, Irving D. Chapman Sr., Jack Eddy, J. Galen Foster, Carlos R. Freitas, George Higgins, Edwin Johnson, T. J. McCall and E. Douglas Roberts. They will replace those on the 35-member board whose terms have expired.

Newly elected directors will be installed at the chamber's annual luncheon meeting June 19 at Holiday Inn, Terra Linda. Guest speaker at the meeting will be Leland L. Levinger, president of the Redwood Empire Association.

Three Florida Papers Change Hands

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — Universal Marion Corp. has announced it has exercised options to purchase three Florida weeklies and an automated printing plant.

The three papers are the Home News and the News Shopper, both in the Hialeah-Miami Springs area, and the Florida Business Leader.

Market Trading Is Active As Stocks Fall Off Again

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks sold off sharply today in active trading.

Concern over tight money weighed heavily on the list as Wall Street awaited the outcome of a vote by the House Ways and Means Committee on President Richard M. Nixon's request to extend the income tax surcharge beyond its June 30 expiration date.

Among the weakest issues were steels, chemicals, oils and electronics.

Superior Oil, down more than 5 yesterday, continued to work lower, losing several points.

The steel setback partially reflected a slowup in industry ordering. Motors and chemicals generally lost fractions.

Several airline stocks also backtracked after switching higher yesterday on possibility of a second round of fare increase this year.

ICC Approves Bekins Split

LOS ANGELES (BW) — The Bekins Co. (formerly Bekins Van & Storage Co.) has announced that the Interstate Commerce Commission has approved a 2-for-1 split in the outstanding shares of common stock.

Company shareholders and directors authorized the change in the stock structure of the company at the annual meeting on April 14, but approval by the ICC was required before the stock could be split.

The record date for the split is June 28.

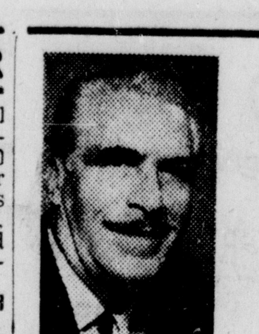
Branch Permit

The Redwood Bank, San Rafael, has received a permit from the State of California Banking Department to establish a new branch office in the Borel Shopping Center at 19th Avenue and El Camino Real, San Mateo.



OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

A Trip To Mexico Inspired New Hub Store: Suede Imports

A new store, Suede Imports, has opened at 747 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, and will retail both suede and other leather goods, mainly from Guadalajara.

Proprietor Milton Mason, who owns the property here and lives at the rear of the building, said this is a new venture for him, decided upon after making a trip to Mexico recently and seeing the high-grade leather goods available. His stocks are 80 per cent men's wear (jackets, shirts and vests) but he intends to build up the women's department. His ultimate goal is to develop a mail order business for this type of merchandise.

Assisted in the store by his son Milton Jr., he will also take some art objects to sell on consignment. Hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. The store is closed Sundays and Mondays.

SIX RESOURCEFUL San Rafael High School students (all girls), faced with a prospect of little or no summer employment, have ventured into business for themselves and opened a store in downtown San Rafael.

Their shop at 918 B Street, called Harvest, opened yesterday after several weeks of preparing merchandise to sell. Stocks, all hand-crafted items, include dresses and junior clothing, jewelry, candles, paintings, leather goods, wall hangings and stitchery.

The girls, either new seniors or new graduates of San Rafael High, are Kristy Allan, Tina Little and Debbie Epperson of San Rafael; and Terri Trombley, Karen Clipenger and Sandy Dugan of Terra Linda. They will fabricate some articles to order and keep store hours from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays.

THE REALTY FIRM of Nipper and Marchant has moved to its recently completed building at the corner of Second and E streets, San Rafael, closing out previous offices at 1340 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael and 208 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo. The office employs 13 salespeople besides Hugh G. (Bud) Marchant and A. N. (Al) Nipper themselves.

Along with another nearby building now under construction for Moore's Stationery, this may start a new business or professional trend for the area, which heretofore has been noted more for its service stations than anything else commercially.

ANOTHER AUTOMOBILE DEALER, Marin Bay Lincoln-Mercury, San Rafael, has taken on the Japanese Subaru minicar agency. Previously we announced an agency acquisition by Larry Brink Motors, Mill Valley.

Marin Bay has several models on hand and is especially featuring Subaru's mini-van in the 360 series.

BACK IN HOME CONSTRUCTION is Reuben Kaehler (formerly of Kaehler-Farrar Co.), now in the process of building 37 new dwellings in Santa Venetia in the $27,950-$28,950 range. Homes have three and four bedrooms, underground utilities and a number of new-style interior appointments.

The development is located about one and one-half miles out North San Pedro Road from the Highway — past the Santa Venetia Shopping Center. A furnished model home at 1635 Vendola Drive is open daily from noon to 6 p.m. Bernie Kerns, with Gallagher-Sturiale Realtors is the exclusive agent. The tract is known as Estancia Estates.

ROBERT F. WILLIAMS of Tiburon has been named Northern California regional vice president of Wofac Co., San Francisco, North American operations divison of Science Management Corp., a management consulting firm. From 1966 to 1968 he was a vice president with the Detroit Bank of the Commonwealth and before that he was 27 years with Ford Motor Co.

Giants Convinced Lanier Best Shortstop In N.L.

Hal Lanier established himself as the best shortstop in the National League last year. His fielding average of .979 led all shortstops in 1968. He handled 795 chances with only 17 errors.

This year Lanier is ranging the short patch from deep in the hole to behind second base. Some of his throws from the hole have been incredible. And his off-balance throws from behind second must be seen to be believed.

"Until I came to the Giants," said Clyde King, rookie manager of the team, "I used to think Gene Alley was the league's best shortstop. Now I know Lanier is."

KING HAS nothing but admiration for the way Lanier works at his job, especially Lanier's never-ending efforts to become as good a hitter as he is a fielder.

"Anybody who works as hard as he does has to succeed," said King who has used one or more starting players at every position except shortstop where Lanier has started every game, the only member of the team to play in every game.

SEVERAL TIMES King has sent pitch batters to the plate for Lanier but not recently. Lanier hit .438 (14-for-32) over a nine-game stretch May 28-June 8, boosting his season batting average from .207 to .250. During his nine-game streak he drove in four runs, his first RBIs since May 22.

A couple of years ago Lanier, a natural right-handed hitter, began hitting left-handed. After a brief experiment with switch-hitting, he abandoned it. Last July 28 he began switch-hitting again. This time he stuck with it and by September he looked comfortable from both sides of the plate. In September last season he hit .316.

THIS SPRING in the Cactus League exhibition games Lanier hit a creditable .267 with 15 RBIs. But after the season opened, he definitely was overanxious in the batter's box. He was swinging at bad pitches and he was running away from the plate. He wasn't staying put in the box and he wasn't staying with the pitch. He looked like a jumping jack in the box and his .192 batting average on May 1 looked awful.

Lanier was a deeply depressed young man at this period. But he did something about it. He had become a switch-hitter because he had seen what success Don Kessinger, the Cub shortstop, had with switch-hitting.

DURING THE first meeting of 1969 between the Giants and Cubs, Lanier asked Kessinger to look at his swing. Kessinger suggested a more level swing. Lanier achieved this by positioning his left elbow parallel to the ground. That was on May 9. A five-game hitting streak followed.

Kessinger's suggestion and the resulting five-game hitting streak certainly improved Lanier's mental attitude. But even before he received Kessinger's tip, Lanier was working himself out of his hitting problems. For one thing, he conquered his unconscious habit of jumping around in the batter's box. And he began to stay with pitches, waiting for them instead of lunging at them.

AS KING said, anyone who works as hard as Lanier does for success deserves it.

Beardall Wins Novato Race

The Marin Athletic Club put its personal stamp on the annual Novato Ridge Run last Saturday.

Daryl Beardall of the Marin Athletic Club took top individual honors, winning the 6.87-mile race in 37.07.5, to beat his old mark by a full minute, and the Marin Athletic Club took team honrs with 41 points, quite a bit ahead of runnerup Olympic Club, which had 78 points.

Mike Daley of the Redwood City Striders finished second in 37:49.0.

High school division honors went to Novato's Don Makela who finished eighth overall in 39:06.0.

Braves Reserves Do The Job

By ASSOCIATED PRES

Ift here's anything wrong with the Atlanta Braves' bench it must be termites in the wood.

It can't be the folks sitting on it, for there reclining in the Atlanta dugout last night were Hank Aaron, Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou while the regular bench-warmers were out on the field mauling Houston 6-2 and 8-4 in a twi-night doubleheader.

Aaron, who played in all of the Braves' first 58 games, and Cepeda, who missed only one, never budged, except for a few trips to the water cooler. Alou, who has been sidelined with a fractured hand, saw action late in each game for defensive purposes.

"I've always said we had a good bench and I think they proved that tonight," said manager Luman Harris after the Braves boosted their lead in the National League West to 2½ games over Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Elsewhere in the N.L., San Diego edged the Dodgers 3-2 in 13 innings, Concinnati outslugged the Giants 8-6, Pittsburgh nipped the Chicago Cubs 9-8 and St. Louis blanked Montreal 3-0. The New York Mets and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

While Aaron and Cepeda were enjoying the view as spectators, right fielder Mike Lum collected four hits and drove in a run and first baseman Tommie Aaron, Hank's kid brother, singled home a run in the first game and slammed his first homer of the season in the nightcap.

The key blows, however, were struck by Tony Gonzalez, acquired in a trade with San Diego over the weekend. Gonzalez smacked two home runs and drove in three runs in the opener as Phil Niekro became the major leagues' first 11-game winner.

Then, he drilled a two-run single that put Atlanta ahead in the second inning of the nightcap and before the side was out eight runs had crossed the plate. Rico Carty belted a three-run homer and Tommie Aaron's homer accounted for the final run.

Rookie Van Kelly, who went from Atlanta to San Diego in the Gonzalez deal, did the Dodgers in with a two-out, run-scoring double in the 13th, his first major league hit. Ed Spiezio and Ollie Brown homered for the Padres while Ken Boyer of the Dodgers sent the contest into overtime with a two-out pinch single in the ninth.

Rookie Al Oliver's two-run homer capped a three-run Pittsburgh rally in the eighth that enabled the Pirates to lick the Cubs. The Pirates took a 6-2 lead in the first but the Cubs battled back and went ahead 7-6 on Randy Hundley's two-run homer in the seventh. They scored again in the ninth before Steve Blass fanned rookie Rich Bladt with runners on second and third.

Nelson Briles spaced 10 hits and stranded 10 Montreal baserunners as the Cardinals made the most of four hits, including Vada Pinson's fourth homer and Julian Javier's third.

Tigers' McLain Wins His 10th

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Denny McLain, tough-talking 31-game winner of 1968, is taking as much pleasure in his 10-5 record this year as his 11-2 mark a year ago.

"What burns me is that so many guys, even in Detroit, said I might be a 5-10 pitcher at this stage of the season," said McLain, after pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 3-2 win over the New York Yankees last night. "I want to shove it down their throats."

McLain, who scored the 100th victory of his career, was touched for a first-inning run on two singles and a balk and a ninth-inning run on a double by Roy White and a single by Gene Michael.

TWO-RUN HOMER

The big blow in the Tigers' victory, which saddled Fritz Peterson with his seventh defeat, was a two-run homer by Al Kaline in the fourth inning.

The Minnesota Twins beat the California Angels, 8-2, as Rod Carew tied an American League record by stealing home for the sixth time in one season, the Chicago White Sox downed the Seattle Pilots, 8-3, the Boston Red Sox topped the Cleveland Indians, 8-5, and the Kansas City Royals scored a 12-inning victory, 3-2, after losing the first game to the Oakland Athletics, 7-5, in 13 innings.

Carew, who has been given the right to steal at will by Manager Billy Martin, executed consecutive double steals with Tony Oliva in the first inning as the Twins whisked off to a 3-0 lead. Carew's six steals of home equal the A.L. record set by Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers in 1915 and equalled by Bob Roth of the Cleveland Indians in 1917. Carew is one short of the major league mark set by Pete Reiser of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1946.

PERRY GOES ROUTE

Jim Perry went the route to pick up his fifth victory of the season for the Twins.

Billy Wynne allowed eight hits and hit a two-run single during a five-run third inning as the White Sox snapped a four-game losing streak. Luis Aparicio and Gail Hopkins each had two hits for the White Sox while Mike Hegan and Don Mincher had two each for the Pilots.

Reggie Smith hit a three-run homer in the seventh off Juan Pizarro and a solo homer in the ninth off Mike Paul to rally the Red Sox to their victory at Cleveland. Carl Yastrzemski hit his 18th homer for the Red Sox while Ken Harrelson drove in two runs for the Indians with a homer and a double.

Chinese Soccer Fans In Riot

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong Chinese soccer fans set rubbish fires, smashed car windows, and scuffled with police last night as England's touring Football Association team beat a Hong Kong Football Association eleven 6-0.

Hong Kong riot police, armed with batons and carrying woven bamboo shields, moved into the area and brought the trouble under control in about 40 minutes.

A police spokesman said one Hong Kong European resident was briefly hospitalized with "not too serious injuries" when attacked by several members of the mob, apparently irritated by the one-sided victory.

Upsets In NCAA Tourney

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The most form-shattering tournament in the 23-year history of the NCAA baseball College World Series headed toward the decisive stages today with dark-horses Tulsa and New York University the only teams remaining undefeated.

BEAT TEXANS

The Hurricanes, Missouri Valley Conference champions making their first tournament appearance, cooled off Texas 4-2 last night behind the two-hit pitching of Steve Rogers and Cliff Whitaker, who drove in four runs with a homer and single.

NYU, which is making its third tourney appearance but has never finished higher than fourth, unleashed a 12-hit attack to bury Massachusetts 9-2 in the other winners' bracket game.

The two unbeatens collide at 3 p.m. today, with the winner then sitting back to await the team that emerges from the losers' bracket.

TWO MORE

Two more teams were to be eliminated today.

Mississippi, which provided another shocker yesterday when it ousted top-ranked Southern Illinois University 8-1, took on Texas while Massachusetts played Arizona State in losers' games today which would sideline two more and reduce the field to four clubs.

Heavy Hitting In Rec Softball

Heavy hitting dominated the scene in San Rafael Recreation Department softball action yesterday at Albert Field.

In a 16-inch slow pitch game, Cliff's Chevron blasted Cal's Steakhouse, 10-4 on a 12-hit attack and the Marin Supply Company routed Stan's, 13-8, in a C division game that produced 23 hits.

SPORTS SHORTS

Moody Jumps Up On Money List

NEW YORK (AP) — Orville Moody leaped from 26th to eighth place on the Professional Golfers' Association's money winning list, thanks to his victory in the U.S. Open.

According to statistics released yesterday by the PGA, Moody's $30,000 Open first prize raised his earnings so far this year to $67,921. Before the Open, the former Army sergeant was 26th on the money list with $37,921 in 22 tournaments. He had finished in the top five in four events but had never won a tournament until the Open, the biggest of them all.

Moody, a graduate of the 1967 PGA player school, earned $12,950 last year and wound up 103rd on the annual list.

Gene Littler continued to lead the weekly dollar derby with $102,137.

The first seven positions were unchanged after the Open Sunday from the previous week's standings.

Lee Trevino is in second position with $83,942 followed by Gary Player, $80,156; Billy Casper, $79,254; Miller Barber, $75,361; Dave Hill, $73,725; George Archer, $69,557; Moody; Bruce Devlin, $67,614 and Deane Beam, $64,608.

CINCINNATI — Kathy Whitworth boosted her lead to nearly $6,000 int he Ladies Professional Golf Association money standings by winning the Patty Berg Classic Sunday.

TENNIS

LONDON — Seven of the world's top tennis stars announced they have formed an international association aimed at getting a say in whether South Africa competes in the Davis Cup tournament.

LONDON — Australia's Rod Laver defeated British Davis Cupper Peter Curtis, 6-4, 6-2 in the opening round of the Queen's Club tourney.

Junior Olympics Fund Campaign In Mill Valley

John Garber, recreation supervisor for the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department, announced yesterday the starting of a drive for $500 to send 50 Marin County boys and girls to Junior Olympic Track and Field Championships in Reno, Nev.

First three places in each age group event last Saturday at the Marin County Junior Olympics qualifies for the Reno meet, scheduled July 12-13.

William Kilday of San Rafael was the star of last Saturday's meet, setting a national record in boys age 12-13 division of the half mile in 2 minutes, 19.8 seconds.

Garber said persons wishing to contribute to the fund should get in touch with him at the recreation department office.

A Slow Start For Marin's Ken Johnson

Ken Johnson, three-time All-Marin County Athletic League baseball pick from Redwood High School, is having another one of his slow starts.

Johnson, who traditionally has trouble getting under way with his bat early in the season, is in his second year with the New York Yankee organization, batting a cool .143 with Ft. Lauderdale in the Florida A League. He got his first two hits last week.

Meanwhile, Nick Willard of Novato saw no action for Bakersfield in the California League last week. He's batting .238 on the season.

Pitcher Bill Lee of Terra Linda is doing well in Pittsfield, Mass., in the Eastern AA League. He's got a 1.89 earned run average in eight games, having won four and lost two.

IMPORTED WINDSOR
Supreme CANADIAN Whisky

Introducing
The smoothest whisky ever to come out of Canada!
Compare Windsor with your usual American or Canadian whisky. Once you do, you'll never settle for less, or pay more!

Tonight, make the comparison: make one drink with your "usual," the other with Windsor. You'll be amazed at the sippin' smoothness of this remarkable new import. That's because only Windsor is made from hardy Canadian prairie grains and pure, clear glacial waters. And only Windsor is aged in Canada's mile-high, dry Rocky Mountain air. All this, yet Windsor is priced right in line with leading domestic whiskies because we import it, then bottle it here.

Very Remarkably Priced

BUNDLE OF JOY, IN TRIPLICATE

The population of Tiburon and the James P. Luther family of 98 Reed Ranch Road jumped in a hurry last night as Mrs. Barbara Luther gave birth to triplets in Marin General Hospital. The first of the triplets, all girls, arrived at 7:29 p.m., followed by the others at 7:35 and 7:38 p.m. Weights of the girls were four pounds, 11 ounces; four pounds, 5 ounces and four pounds, 10 ounces. The Luthers have two other children, both teenagers. Names have yet to be selected for the trio. They were delivered by Dr. Robert Conner.

Sabella Verdict: Guilty

By MARY LEYDECKER

A Marin Superior Court jury of seven men and five women yesterday found Daniel-Thomas Stathos and Kenneth Lee Harnal, both 22, guilty of kidnaping and robbing restaurant owner Luciano A. Sabella last November.

Stathos of Pacifica was also convicted of taking part in the armed robbery of the Greenbrae Lanes in October.

The jury found the pair guilty of being armed when carrying out the Sabella crime, which eliminates the possibility of probation for the convicted men.

During the two-week trial a former confederate of Stathos and Harnal, Walter John Hoefler, a one-time Larkspur doughnut baker, who is now serving a sentence at San Quentin, testified that Stathos and Harnal of San Francisco carried out the Sabella crime with him.

He also described the armed robbery of the bowling alley, which he said he and Stathos committed.

Although Stathos, who acted as his own attorney during most of the trial, and public defender. Jerome C. Durham, who represented Harnal, tried to convince the jury that testimony by Hoefler and his wife, Darlene, was not believable, the jury evidently disagreed.

Also testifying at the trial in Judge Samuel W. Gardiner's courtroom was Sabella, who identified Harnal and said that he thought Stathos was the man who entered his house wearing a stocking over his head.

The three men forced their way into the Sabella home in Peacock Gap at gunpoint and after spending several hours with Sabella and his terrified wife, handcuffed her to a piano leg and forced Sabella to drive to the restaurant with them.

The trial was halted Friday when Stathos apparently took an overdose of drugs and could not be awakened. Later in the day he was taken from the jail to Marin General Hospital where he was treated in the intensive care unit until regaining consciousness.

Judge Gardiner told the jurors when they returned the verdict after five hours of deliberation and having testimony reread to them that both Stathos and Harnal had wanted to plead guilty at different times during the trial.

He had not allowed them to do so, he said, because of fear of prejudicing the jury against the other man.

Judge Gardiner set sentencing for Stathos and Harnal for June 30.

President Backs Elected Leaders

By BONNIE BARD

Sonoma State College President Ambrose R. Nichols Jr. today defended newly elected student government officers who are ex-convicts, but promised a crackdown on the "offensive" student newspaper.

The election which saw James G. Gillette, Black Student Union leader elected student body president, was validated by Nichols on June 6. Many students had complained of irregularities in voting and asked Nichols to declare the election void.

In the final election, Gillette, 35, defeated Jon Owen of Novato, who had won the previous general and runoff elections which were invalidated by the student board of directors. All other previous winners were also defeated in the final balloting.

Nichos said he had not found sufficient evidence of improprieties and declared Gillette the official winner.

Gillette, of Cotati, served a prison term for smuggling marijuana from Nogales, Mex., and is now on parole. He also served a term for non-support of a former wife and children. Nichols said that Gillette is attending college with the sanction of his probation officer.

Irwin T. Moore, newly elected student body vice president, also has an arrest record, although the president did not report on the exact charges.

"Since before their involvement in student government, the college has sought to encourage and assist Mr. Gillette, Mr. Moore and other minority and disadvantaged students to obtain a college education," Nicholas said.

"It is the position of the college that such students must have the same rights and opportunities as all other students to engage in student activities, including student government. It is the hope of the college that all the new student officers will only be judged on their performance," Nichols said.

Students who lost in the final election are reportedly considering court action to overturn the vote or may organize a recall election when the fall semester begins in September.

16,000 To Other Bases In Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 16,000 soldiers and Marines being withdrawn from Vietnam will be redeployed to Okinawa, Hawaii and Japan, the Pentagon announced today.

Another 8,000 soldiers, including 2,000 mobilized National Guard and reservists, will be returned to the United States to be disbanded and 1,200 Navy men will be distributed throughout the Pacific Command and the United States.

The Pentagon said the 8,000-man Ninth Marine Regimental Landing Team will move to Okinawa, the 7,400-man First Brigade of the Ninth Infantry Division and the division headquarters will go to Hawaii, and a Marine fighter squadron of about 400 men will be sent to Iwakuni, Japan, in July and August.

DETAILS PLANS

The new announcement completed details of the 25,000-man troop withdrawal announced by President Richard M. Nixon at Midway 10 days ago.

At the same time, the Pentagon identified the 20 Army reserve and National Guard units being brought home for demobilization. They are support type outfits from 17 states. None are from California.

Posting of two-thirds of the 25,000 troops being withdrawn on Okinawa, Hawaii and Japan will serve to replenish the reserve of U.S. forces in the Pacific which was depleted starting in 1965 to fight the war in Vietnam.

That reserve is normally held in readiness for emergencies anywhere in the Far East, including Korea and Thailand.

There were reports a small force of Marines already had arrived in Okinawa.

OKINAWA BOUND

Daniel Z. Henkin, the Pentagon's top spokesman, said he did not know whether those Marines were the advance guard of the withdrawal, but added: "I wouldn't be surprised to see some small advance parties go to both Okinawa and Hawaii" to prepare for the larger movement.

Henkin said that, according to general guidelines, Army units being returned from Vietnam

Tax Credit Repeal Move In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee voted today to recommend outright repeal of the 7 per cent investment tax credit and moved on to consider extension of the income tax surcharge.

Acting Chairman Hale Boggs, D-La., told newsmen that—as President Richard M. Nixon recommended — the investment credit repeal was voted without exceptions.

However, Boggs said the committee wrote into the bill a special fast depreciation provision to encourage investment in equipment to abate air and water pollution.

A vote on the surtax was again predicted late today. There has been a strong push in the committee to extend it for less than a year. Nixon's recommendation was to continue the surcharge at 10 per cent for six months from the June 30 expiration date, then another six months at 5 per cent.

Boggs' report indicated that committee members seeking to continue some investment credit for small businesses and elements of the transportation industry had lost.

The credit permits businesses to recover up to 59.7 per cent of their investment in equipment.

The committee also voted for the relatively noncontroversial proposal to postpone for a year reduction of excise taxes on automobiles and telephone service, Boggs said.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said meanwhile that the President has received assurance of both Republican and Democratic leaders in the House—and he believes in the Senate—that they will go all out to get an extension of the surtax.

Upton Successor Wins Full Support

JACK G. NIXON
To planning commission

Jack G. Nixon, San Rafael insurance man who lives in Marinwood, will succeed Dr. William F. Upton on the Marin County Plannning Commission.

The long awaited decision came today on a motion by Supervisor chairman John F. McInnis, a second by Supervisor Louis H. Baar and by a unanimous vote of the supervisors.

Supervisors Michael Wornum and Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. said they "find it difficult to vote against Dr. Upton" but explained they would abide by the recommendation of McInnis since the appointment is in his supervisorial district (first district).

"This is not a vote against Dr. Upton," said McInnis. He explained the only reason he did not reappoint Dr. Upton is that "I wish to bring a younger person for a perhaps more vigorous approach and in my opinion representative of the newer element in Marin County."

McInnis had asked various organizations from Santa Venetia to Lucas Valley to recommend someone to replace Dr. Upton. The organizations had favored the retention of Dr. Upton, but submitted two other names at the request of McInnis — architect William B. Reiner and management consultant Edward M. Lewis of Los Ranchitos.

McInnis said he had hoped to name Lewis, but during the past two weeks, Lewis withdrew because of the pressure of his work.

McInnis said this left Nixon as his only choice. Reiner's name did not even come up during this morning's dicussion.

Nixon was one of McInnis' key campaign leaders in his 1966 supervisorial race, in which

Diver Vanishes At Stinson Beach

A young San Francisco skin diver disappeared and apparently drowned last night about 300 yards off Stinson Beach when he presumable became entangled in heavy kelp beds.

The Marin County Sheriff's Department searched today for the body of Gerry Allen Brey, 26, who disappeared about 6:30 p.m.

Brey's wife, Carla, told deputies that she was watching her husband from the shore when he dove in the vicinity of the kelp beds and then didn't surface.

Warren's Rules Bid Turned Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court justices have turned down a bid by Chief Justice Earl Warren that they bind themselves immediately to stiff new rules on off-bench activities.

A majority of the justices decided, instead, to defer action until October when the court will meet with a new chief justice at the helm.

Warren reported, in a 113-word statement, the results of his efforts to have the justices comply with the new rules. He said he took up the subject with them at a conference in the Supreme Court last Friday.

The new rules, laid down June 10 by the U.S. Judicial Conference, forbid all federal judges except members of the Supreme Court to accept outside fees. The rules also require all federal judges—again with the exception of the Supreme Court justices—to file beginning next year annual reports of their investments and other assets.

Warren called a judicial committee into action to work on the rules on May 16, the day after Justice Abe Fortas quit the court under fire for having considered a $20,000 annual fee from the Wolfson Family Foundation.

Warren was understood to be deeply interested in having the code imposed quickly and before his service as chief justice ends early this summer.

Nixon Going On TV And Radio

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Richard M. Nixon will hold a television-radio news conference Thursday at 7 p.m. EDT, the White House announced today.

The question and answer session, the first such to be broadcast live since April 18, will follow a meeting tomorrow of the National Security Council to discuss "certain aspects" of planned talks with the Soviet Union on limitation of strategic arms.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon planned to make no opening statement at the news conference, to be held in the East Room of the White House.

Park Backers Brand Reagan As 'Fascist'

BERKELEY (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan employed "the big lie in the style of Hitler" in his comments about the controversial People's Park issue, several angry young men asserted yesterday.

"He's trying to say, as they did in fascist Germany, that the whole issue is law and order," said Art Goldberg.

Goldberg appeared at a news conference with four other members of the People's Park Negotiating Committee in response to statements Reagan made Friday before the Commonwealth Club of California in San Francisco.

"He's trying to isolate the young and their struggle from the rest of the people in the state," Goldberg said of Reagan.

"And in the process he has radicalized and unified students everywhere and has created the nation's most powerful student movement, here in California."

Goldberg is a former University of California law student and was active in the 1964 Free Speech Movement.

He also was a spokesman for dissidents during mass marches following a bloody confrontation May 15 after the university put up a fence around U.C. land that young people tried to claim for a park. More than 130 were injured, one fatally.

Goldberg disputed Reagan's assertion that those in the park movement were not productive members of the community.

"Reagan feels that to be productive you can't be creative, such as in planting music and those other things the young consider important," Goldberg declared.

Another committee member, Frank Bardacke, outlined what he said were "big lies:"

"He said police were caught in the crossfire. Nonsense. No demonstrators carried guns."

"He said there is no shortage of parks in Berkeley. Well, there are none in the area south of the campus."

"He said a cop was being stoned to death. The media and I didn't see that."

"He said sheriff's deputies had to walk over fallen bodies of Berkeley policemen. No one reported that.

"He said a mail truck was commandeered and its mail tossed out by the marchers. I checked with the post office, and they had no report of such an incident."

Cranston Urges A Flexible Approach To U.S. Diplomacy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Alan Cranston today pushed for a more flexible approach for diplomatic recognition of nations—including Red China—since a "lost signal, a missed statement of intention, a simple misunderstanding might well lead to a devastated planet."

The freshman Democrat from California testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the resolution he is co-sponsoring that says:

"It is the sense of the Senate that when the United States has recognizes a foreign government and exchanges diplomatic representatives with it, this does not imply that the United States necessarily approves of the form, ideology or policy of that foreign government."

Committee chairman Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., endorsed the resolution when it was introduced May 27, saying the measure could open the way for eventual recognition of Communist China.

In his prepared testimony, Cranston, reviewed U.S. recognition doctrine from Jefferson's time—"whether or not a country existed"—through Wilson's criterion of the Democratic legitimacy for recognition to Dulles' suggestion that recognition implys moral approval.

Cranston—he does not favor recognition of Red China at this time—argued in addition that "this resolution does not necessarily lead to close and intimate cooperation with a particular foreign government." Also:

"The evidence is overwhelming that withholding recognition from governments of which we disapprove, and with whom our relations are particularly hostile, has failed totally to advance our values or to achieve any other significant and enduring purposes.

"It prevents us not only from exerting influence, but from gaining insight . . . It is," he went on, "a matter of crucial importance in the years ahead for our country to develop a recognition policy which will improve communications with those who would be our enemies —not to make communication more difficult."

Gun Purchase Bill Endorsed

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill that would allow Californians to buy rifles and shotguns in the adjacent states of Oregon, Nevada and Arizona was endorsed today by the Senate Judiciary Committee and sent to the floor.

The Assembly-passed measure by Assemblyman Floyd L. Wakefield, R-South Gate, would allow Californians to bring the guns back into the state.

Federal law forbids out-of-state gun buying, except if the legislatures of bordering states grant approval. The three other states have already approved the arrangement with California.

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

The Old Days Revisited; Fish Still Bite The Same

In the old days of the Richmond ferries and the docks and pilings down there off Point San Quentin, stripers used to be all around that area through May, June and July. Trolling the pilings at both the ferry pier and the Marin Rod and Gun Club pier was tops at times.

I used to fish the incoming tides, starting at the low. Minus tides were best. We used bugeye jigs — reds, yellows, whites and greens usually two on a spreader leader. I think that attorneys Bill Weissich and Roger Garety and Warden H. O. Teets all caught their first limits of bass there, and Sam Knoles used to come down, satisfied to go after the others came in, and he mostly limited, too.

I went down there a few days ago on a minus tide and trolled exactly like we used to. A minus .9 tide, incoming water, the jigs, the whole bit. You know, we caught three fish that hit exactly like they used to. No other boats were out. What's happened to Barney Piambo, Duane from the Western and all the others? I did see Andy Pedroli, one of the old timers, come along, make two passes and then head up the bay. It should be good this week, and you don't have to get there early either.

I TOOK an early morning trip (5 a.m.) down to Fort Cronkhite and Lime Point the other day. Watched four fishermen take four bass, nothing too big.

It looked like Frank Allen out in a boat fly casting. Frank is one of the good anglers you don't hear much about. He never come in! I know he caught two fish, but when the tide changed, he took off out through the Golden Gate to try for salmon, I guess.

One morning a few years ago I went to the Richmond Bridge at low tide, about a half hour before legal fishing time. There was a boat anchored and a guy with a fly rod sitting there. He wasn't fishing, just waiting for the right time to arrive. I walked out on the bridge above him, said "hello," and after we talked awhile I told him I was a game warden. He was glad that he hadn't fished, and you know that fish were boiling all over the place. Later he caught three, released two of them and gave me one. He was fishing for fun! That's how I met Frank.

I WENT OVER to San Pablo Bay Saturday and ran into Ernest "Smiley" Eddings of Santa Venetia who had just come in from the pumphouse area with Bob Keefer and Mike LaFevre. Ernest was smiling, too; he had just landed a 34½-pound striper and a 30-pound sturgeon, and his two buddies had a sturgeon each and a 14-pound striper.

Maisie Martin of Santa Venetia was there, too, and seeing these fish she immediately left for home to get her husband, Manny, and their new "Thunderbird" boat in shape. I came by there the next day just as they were getting ready to leave. They had picked up two other customers by this time, Jeanne and Don Carter from Tampa, Fla., two green peas if I ever saw any.

Maisie, who invites everyone around to go fishing, then talked me into going for a couple of hours, too. After much persuasion, I went along to assist the new comers. You won't believe it, but, Jeanne, who talks like a "southern belle," started it out by saying, "Al, would you all bait my hook for me, please?" Oh Boy! With the crowd so thick in the back of this boat, I ended up baiting all the hooks except Manny's. He fished up forward, out of a hole in the canvas top of the boat. I think that from now on he won't let more than three people on his boat!

Anyway, the southern belle in five minutes hooked an 18-pound bass. You should have seen the action! She never put the rod down after that. I caught a 40-pound sturgeon on a new fly rod that didn't break; then Maisie hooked a big sturgeon. (Her biggest fish to date was 46 pounds.) Well this one, after Maisie shivered and her knees shook, was finally landed. It weighed 76 pounds on the Buck's Landing scales. And then Don hooked up wigh a 22-pound sturgeon which he soon landed.

Manny? He was up front, head up through the hole, and the wind blowing about 25 knots. You think he got a fish? Nope! The guy who owns the boat usually never gets anything. Last thing I heard, Manny was going fishing alone this week. "Friends? Ha, they can get their own boat." Those were his last words!

Scholarship For Drake Ace

Dave Alvarado, recent graduate of Drake High School and now serving a five-month hitch in the U.S. Coast Guard, stationed in Alameda, has been named Marin County winner of the Big Hand Scholarship.

It's the second scholarship won by Alvarado, a letter-winner in three sports at the San Anselmo school. Prior to his Big Hand athletic scholarship he had won a California State Academic scholarship.

SANTA CLARA-BOUND

Planning to attend University of Santa Clara in September after his release from active duty, Alvarado will get $500 per year for four years for the Big Hand aid, and approximately $1,300 per year for the academic scholarship.

The 18-year-old athlete played football, basketball and baseball at Drake. In addition to excelling in athletics, Dave has been in the Honor Society for four years and a member of the California Scholarship Federation two years. He was recently voted Outstanding Citizenship Award by the Drake High School faculty. He was also the Drake High School nominee for the Senior Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame award.

The Big Hand scholarship program was open only to San Francisco students in the past, but this year winners from Marin and Alameda counties have been added.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Iraqi government has confiscated the properties and possessions of nine Iraqis accused of spying for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, the Iraqi News Agency reported today.

Among the nine was a Lebanon-based Iraqi millionaire, Lutfi Obeidi, charged with operating a chain of business firms in the middle East and Africa as a cover for the CIA.

Tourist Killed

TEL AVIV (AP) — Iraqi shellfire killed one American woman tourist and wounded another today along the Israeli-Jordanian ceasefire line, the Israeli army reported.

A spokesman identified the woman killed as Shirley Anderson, 25, New York City.

The woman wounded was identified as Eileen Bonnet of Lodi. Miss Bonnett received a broken arm in the attack.

Officials said a 122mm shell fired by Iraqi troops in Jordan hit a taxi which the tourists took to Kallia, a tourist and health resort near the Dead Sea, 15 miles east of Jerusalem.

Hippies Reign

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Some 500 hippies and University of Michigan students took over a street of Ann Arbor yesterday and enjoyed an evening of dancing, drinking, fireworks and motorcycle stunt riding.

The young people banded together when a policeman tried to ticket a motor cyclist for stunt riding, and, once together, decided to take over the whole block.

Within minutes the uniformed policeman retreated and the street was theirs — barricades were thrown up and wine was passed around.

The top police official there, Ann Arbor Det. Lt. Eugene Staudenmeier, watched the affair in relative calm.

Fall In Tomb

SEGOVIA, Spain (AP) — Three women fell in a tomb today when a marble gravestone collapsed under them as they were watching the burial of 13 victims of Sunday's restaurant collapse near Madrid. The women were pulled out uninjured. Fifty-two persons were killed in the restuarant cave-in. The others were buried in their hometowns across Spain.

West German Auto Deaths Off

BONN — Fatal traffic accidents in the Federal Republic of Germany have dropped for the first time in twenty-five years, the Inter Nations Press Service reports.

A total of 16,698 persons died in 1968 as a result of injuires suffered in highway accidents, compared to 17,084 in 1967.

This downward trend has continued this year despite the growing number of vehicles on German roads.

Transportation Minister Georg Leber is confident that new legislation, to go into effect August 1, will further reduce highway deaths.

Applicants for drivers' licenses will be required to take special post-accident training which includes marking the scene of the accident, reducing the injured and providing first aid.

Applicants for truck licenses will have to pass the German Red Cross' first aid test.

Splitting Of State Favored

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — This city's governing body is in favor of splitting California in half.

By an 8-3 vote yesterday the board of supervisors favored a bill setting up two states — Northern California and Southern California.

However, nearly all the supervisors agreed the proposal had little chance of passing the Legislature.

"There is a serious question raised here," said Supervisor Jack Morrison. "In the long run, I think, the idea of splitting the state would work to the disadvantage of San Francisco.

"Our community of interest is with the large cities, such as Los Angeles."

Officer Keeps Mum On Collision

SUBIC BAY, Philippines (UPI)—The officer in charge of the USS Frank E. Evans when it collided with an Australian aircraft carrier refused today to testify before a board of inquiry without "full constitutional rights."

Lt. (j.g.) Ronald C. Ramsey, 24, of Long Beach, informed the board of his decision through his legal counsel, Lt. Frederick F. Tilton of Mariemont, Ohio, on the eighth day of hearings into the cause of the crash that killed 74 Americans.

Tilton said he advised Ramsey not to testify because his requests to see the testimony of previous witnesses, to recall witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses had been denied.

"Mr. Ramsey, after careful consideration of this advice, declines to make a statement at this time, reserving, of course, the right to testify before any board or formal board hereinafter convened which has the authority to grant him his full constitutional rights," Tilton said.

The board of three U.S. Navy and three Australian Navy officers, called to determine the facts and not guilt adjourned for a closed meeting. A spokesman said no more witnesses would be called today.

The board on Saturday said it did not have the authority to grant Ramsey's requests and warned him he was suspected of "negligently hazarding" the Evans in the collision.

Ramsey was within his rights in refusing to testify. The fact-finding board cannot force him to give his account of what happened in the minutes before the June 3 tragedy in the South China Sea.

Albania Move

TOKYO (AP) — Albania, Communist China's staunchest ally in Europe, has recognized the Viet Cong's provisional revolutionary government in South Vietnam, Hanoi's official Vietnam New Agency reported today.

Explosion Vigil At Berkeley Lab

BERKELEY (AP) — Police and firemen stood by a chemistry laboratory for more than 12 hours waiting for an explosion that never came.

They were summoned when an experiment at a University of California lab went awry last night, posing a threat of an explosion with the force of a half-stick of dynamite.

At 3 a.m. firemen reported the chance of an explosion "about nil," and all except campus police were withdrawn. Firemen said air whipping in through open doors and windows had apparently cooled the flammable boron compound involved.

About 20 persons in the lab, on the fifth floor of Latimer Hall, and several hundred persons in the building were evacuated when trouble developed in the experiment.

Francis Wang, 30, a doctor of philosophy candidate from Formosa, was working with 50 grams of diaborane, a highly flamable jet fuel, when a crack developed in a glass pipe and a small fire was ignited, authorities said.

Sacramento's Oak Park Area Is Calm

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Oak Park District, scene of sniper attacks and gun fights Sunday, was calm last night after the area's young Negroes were urged by two elected Negro officials to "cool it."

Squads of shotgun-armed police stood by several blocks away in case trouble broke out. But up to midnight there had been none of the violence which characterized Sunday's clashes.

More than a dozen persons were struck by shotgun pellets and bullets Sunday night but only two were seriously wounded. Police using tear gas raided the Oak Park headquarters of the Black Panther party.

Police Capt. J. B. Guthrie said Negro Assemblyman Willie Brown Jr. D—San Francisco, and Negro City Councilman Roy McGhee toured Oak Park yesterday asking for calm. They worked independently of police, Guthrie said.

Antiwar Protests Appear Not To Alarm Mrs. Nixon

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) Pat Nixon received a generally warm welcome at the start of her West Coast tour and appeared not to notice three antiwar demonstrations.

She went to street gardens, classrooms and the edge of the Negro slums yesterday to salute volunteer workers at the start of her initial official trip as First Lady.

There was a paper shower of protest from antiwar demonstrators at upstairs windows of a building which houses FISH, a 24-hour emergency help center Mrs. Nixon came to visit.

The paper ships read: "If this was napalm you would be dead."

Some of the demonstration participants, from the Portland Resistance, have been volunteers at the emergency center themselves and have their headquarters in the same 100-year-old church building.

While Mrs. Nixon heard from the emergency center leaders how hundreds of volunteers help their neighbors with food, fuel and all sorts of aid, a printed banner was waved in back of the room, saying:

"How many people will be fed today by your visit? How many people will still be allowed to starve? 70 million a day spent on Vietnam. Why?"

Samantha Egger Is Sued For Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tom Stern, American actor-producer, has sued Samantha Eggar, British actress, for divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty.

In his complaint filed yesterday, Stern, 37, asked custody of their children, Nicholas, 3, and Jenna Louise, 2. He described Miss Eggar, 30, as an unfit mother and said she had threatened to take the children abroad and hide them. The petition said she had cached $500,000 in European banks.

Marines Drive Off Attackers

SAIGON (AP) — Three hundred North Vietnamese troops firing rifles, machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades attacked a U.S. Marine base camp near Da Nang early today for the third time in a week. Like the other two times they were repulsed.

Field reports said the North Vietnamese hit the night camp of a 5th Marine regiment unit 22 miles southwest of Da Nang despite a 7,000-man allied sweep in the area. Thirty-one North Vietnamese were reported killed while Marine casualties were one dead and 49 wounded.

The Marines called for artillery help and an Air Force twin-engine plane armed with three machine guns spewed out 18,000 rounds a minute on the attackers.

"No enemy were reported to have penetrated the perimeter," a spokesman for the U.S. Command said. Two North Vietnamese soldiers were captured, he added.

The camp came under similar attack last Tuesday and again last Thursday, costing the North Vietnamese 58 men killed. Marine casualties were three killed and 31 wounded in those two attacks.

The camp is near An Hoa, one corner of a 200-square mile triangle where 7,000 U.S. and South Korean Marines and South Vietnamese rangers and infantrymen have been conducting a sweep called Operation Pipestone Canyon for the past three weeks.

The Caspian Sea is the largest inland salt lake in the world.

Call For Unity In Fighting Of Imperialism

MOSCOW (AP) — The international Communist conference held in the Kremlin since June 5 ended today with official acceptance of a call for Communist unity against imperialism.

An announcement did not disclose how many of the 75 parties attending the meeting had signed a 42-page final document.

It said the parties of Australia, Italy, San Marino and the French island Reunion had expressed full support for only that section of the document dealing with the struggle against imperialism. They withheld support for other sections analyzing the problems of communism and the world.

It also said the party of the Dominican Republic, which complained during the conference that the document was not revolutionary enough, had declined to sign.

Japan Fund Shares Quoted Two Ways

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I noticed that Japan Fund has been hitting new highs while the rest of the market was declining. I can't seem to find much information on the company. Have you any? — R. P.

A. Japan Fund, a closed-end investment company, as of March 31, had more than half of its assets invested in electronics and construction companies. These two areas of the Japanese economy are expected to show the greatest percentage of growth in the next five years. The shares are trading at about a 27 per cent premium over net asset value. Since the first of the year, shares have moved up about 60 per cent primarily, reflecting new all-time highs in the Tokyo Stock Market.

In purchasing these shares you should take note of the fact that they are quoted two ways. Shares which are accompanied by American ownership certificates are not subject to the Interest Equalization Tax. The lower quotes are on foreign shares which are subject to the tax.

Q. I am retired with ample income. Two holdings, in spite of stock dividends, are off considerably from my purchase price. Should I hold or sell Cerro Corp. and Ronson Corp.? — R. D.

A. The future of Cerro Corp., because of its involvement in Peru and the attendant uncertainty of the political situation there, is clouded. Company President Koenig in an optimistic statement at the annual meeting predicted higher earnings for 1969 and a more favorable climate for foreign investment. I would be inclined to wait it out until nearer the year-end before possibly taking a tax-loss.

Ronson's President Aronson has predicted a record year for his company with sales reaching $102 million. Several very promising consumer products, absence of nonrecurring charges and greater efficiency from plant consolidation should also boost earnings. Five new consumer products, electric and flame, will be introduced in the last half of 1969. Gradual lomg-term growth should result in higher trading levels. Hold.

Skyscraper Will Keep Its Spire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Transamerica Corp. has shortened the height of its projected skyscraper here, but it still is designed to become one of the largest structures west of the Mississippi. A 220-foot spire is planned for the 45-floor building, which has been scaled down from 55 stories.

The change actually will increase the rentable area in the building, which will contain more than one half million feet of floor space.

The city planning commission has set June 26 for hearing a request by Transamerica to close a section of Merchant St. for access to the building by pedestrians only.

Bank Clearings Up In Marin

Marin County bank clearings for May were up substantially from 1968 figures for the fifth consecutive month this year.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reported unadjusted debits of $229,039,000, compared with $189,455,000 in May, 1968. Unadjusted deposits increased to $99,248,000 from $95,054,000 a year ago.

Seasonally adjusted debits, deposits and turnover ratios are not yet reported for Marin County.

Nine Businessmen Get Chamber Posts

Nine local businessmen have been elected directors of the Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau: Frank Bosl, Irving D. Chapman Sr., Jack Eddy, J. Galen Foster, Carlos R. Freitas, George Higgins, Edwin Johnson, T. J. McCall and E. Douglas Roberts. They will replace those on the 35-member board whose terms have expired.

Newly elected directors will be installed at the chamber's annual luncheon meeting June 19 at Holiday Inn, Terra Linda. Guest speaker at the meeting will be Leland L. Levinger, president of the Redwood Empire Association.

Three Florida Papers Change Hands

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — Universal Marion Corp. has announced it has exercised options to purchase three Florida weeklies and an automated printing plant.

The three papers are the Home News and the News Shopper, both in the Hialeah-Miami Springs area, and the Florida Business Leader.

Market Trading Is Active As Stocks Fall Off Again

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks sold off sharply today in active trading.

Concern over tight money weighed heavily on the list as Wall Street awaited the outcome of a vote by the House Ways and Means Committee on President Richard M. Nixon's request to extend the income tax surcharge beyond its June 30 expiration date.

Among the weakest issues were steels, chemicals, oils and electronics.

Superior Oil, down more than 5 yesterday, continued to work lower, losing several points.

The steel setback partially reflected a slowup in industry ordering. Motors and chemicals generally lost fractions.

Several airline stocks also backtracked after switching higher yesterday on possibility of a second round of fare increase this year.

ICC Approves Bekins Split

LOS ANGELES (BW) — The Bekins Co. (formerly Bekins Van & Storage Co.) has announced that the Interstate Commerce Commission has approved a 2-for-1 split in the outstanding shares of common stock.

Company shareholders and directors authorized the change in the stock structure of the company at the annual meeting on April 14, but approval by the ICC was required before the stock could be split.

The record date for the split is June 28.

A Trip To Mexico Inspired New Hub Store: Suede Imports

A new store, Suede Imports, has opened at 747 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, and will retail both suede and other leather goods, mainly from Guadalajara.

Proprietor Milton Mason, who owns the property here and lives at the rear of the building, said this is a new venture for him, decided upon after making a trip to Mexico recently and seeing the high-grade leather goods available. His stocks are 80 per cent men's wear (jackets, shirts and vests) but he intends to build up the women's department. His ultimate goal is to develop a mail order business for this type of merchandise.

Assisted in the store by his son Milton Jr., he will also take some art objects to sell on consignment. Hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. The store is closed Sundays and Mondays.

SIX RESOURCEFUL San Rafael High School students (all girls), faced with a prospect of little or no summer employment, have ventured into business for themselves and opened a store in downtown San Rafael.

Their shop at 918 B Street, called Harvest, opened yesterday after several weeks of preparing merchandise to sell. Stocks, all hand-crafted items, include dresses and junior clothing, jewelry, candles, paintings, leather goods, wall hangings and stitchery.

The girls, either new seniors or new graduates of San Rafael High, are Kristy Allan, Tina Little and Debbie Epperson of San Rafael; and Terri Trombley, Karen Clipenger and Sandy Dugan of Terra Linda. They will fabricate some articles to order and keep store hours from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays.

THE REALTY FIRM of Nipper and Marchant has moved to its recently completed building at the corner of Second and E streets, San Rafael, closing out previous offices at 1340 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael and 208 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo. The office employs 13 salespeople besides Hugh G. (Bud) Marchant and A. N. (Al) Nipper themselves.

Along with another nearby building now under construction for Moore's Stationery, this may start a new business or professional trend for the area, which heretofore has been noted more for its service stations than anything else commercially.

ANOTHER AUTOMOBILE DEALER, Marin Bay Lincoln-Mercury, San Rafael, has taken on the Japanese Subaru minicar agency. Previously we announced an agency acquisition by Larry Brink Motors, Mill Valley.

Marin Bay has several models on hand and is especially featuring Subaru's mini-van in the 360 series.

BACK IN HOME CONSTRUCTION is Reuben Kaehler (formerly of Kaehler-Farrar Co.), now in the process of building 37 new dwellings in Santa Venetia in the $27,950-$28,950 range. Homes have three and four bedrooms, underground utilities and a number of new-style interior appointments.

The development is located about one and one-half miles out North San Pedro Road from the Highway — past the Santa Venetia Shopping Center. A furnished model home at 1635 Vendola Drive is open daily from noon to 6 p.m. Bernie Kerns, with Gallagher-Sturiale Realtors is the exclusive agent. The tract is known as Estancia Estates.

ROBERT F. WILLIAMS of Tiburon has been named Northern California regional vice president of Wofac Co., San Francisco, North American operations divison of Science Management Corp., a management consulting firm. From 1966 to 1968 he was a vice president with the Detroit Bank of the Commonwealth and before that he was 27 years with Ford Motor Co.

Nongraded Classes Pact Is Reached

Mill Valley's controversy over nongraded classes at Old Mill School ended in a compromise last night.

More than 200 persons crowded into Park School auditorium for what could have turned out to be a heated debate over the issue.

Supt. James R. Collins of the Mill Valley School District took most of the steam out of the session when he reported his plan to have both graded and nongraded classes at the school in 1969-70.

Parents opposing the 1968-69 system of having "multiaged and multilevel groupings," presented a petition with 118 signatures asking for an alternative program.

They asked for "a more structured classroom method of teaching where children are instructed directly in an academic curriculum which stresses English grammar and composition, spelling and reading and mathematics and science."

Collins explained at the meeting of the district board that there would be graded classes, kindergarden through fifth grade, at the school with basic curriculum.

He conceded there have been dissatisfactions "on the part of some people in the Old Mill School area regarding the organization of the school program." He also reported that the program has "wide support," and hoped that the "plan would prevent any further polarization."

Parents were urged to notify the Old Mill School office which program they preferred for their children.

Several speakers felt this was the fairest method, both for those who want "structured classrooms" and those who want "less structured classrooms."

One woman asked: "What if the district doesn't have enough kids for a structured class?"

Collins said there probably will be some cases where parents who chose the nongraded program "won't get it," but the nongraded classes will be based on an "individualized approach."

Another woman said she hoped the parents who make the selections, "will consult with their children first."

One woman called for expanding the nongraded system throughout the district, but Collins said he wouldn't "rush into a districtwide program" without more knowledge and teacher support for such a move.

Collins reported that by latest count 62 families favored the nongraded program and 42 the graded program, and Trustee John K. Robinson noted that only one quarter of the parents have responded to date. Apparently, he said, there "are many to whom this is not a great issue."

Collins reported that he had received 29 letters supporting the nongraded system, and Mrs. Ann K. Jenks, who presented the petition, said it represented 71 families.

Mill Valley Trustees Eye Budget Drop Of $85,659

Mill Valley School District trustees, cut off at the pockets by voters two weeks ago, last night looked at a reduced budget for next year and thought about cuts.

Voters rejected the district's bid for a 75-cent increase in the district's general purpose tax rate limit, and the backlash showed up in the budget.

Supt. James A. Collins presented a tentative 1969-70 budget of $2,902,666, as compared to $2,988,325 last year, a drop of $85,659.

He noted the proposed budget dropped the single-session kindergarden program, one teacher to a class, and restored the double-session plan, one teacher to two classes.

Board president Joseph E. Bodovitz said all steps weren't backward, since the district didn't plan to increase class sizes and would keep reading specialists.

There was some sentiment from the audience to cut bus service, and Trustee William L. Clark suggested that proponents of such a move "see what support" they could get in the community.

Bodovitz, painting a gloomy financial picture for the next school year, 1970-71, suggested the board appoint a citizens committee to study finances.

Collins said there could be an increase in override taxes, but the district's general purpose tax rate is limited to $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation. (The district's total tax rate for 1968-69 is $3.135.)

Collins pointed out that the budget doesn't include filling two vacancies for librarians, a vacancy for a foreign language teacher or a vacancy for a principal.

There wouldn't be any sabbatical leaves or consultants or in-service eduacation for teachers, he said.

The largest single cut, $76,000, would be in kindergarten.

Collins listed possible cuts totaling $396,700, and said $130,000 in cuts were required.

The proposed budget includes a proposed 4 per cent cost-of-living raise in the teachers' salary schedule and full health insurance for their dependents, a matter still under negotiation, with teachers asking 6 per cent.

Three In Theft Ring Sentenced

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three truck drivers, convicted as members of a waterfront theft ring which stole $250,000 in servicemen's home-bound packages, have drawn federal prison terms.

U.S. District Court Judge William Sweigert yesterday sentenced Carl Mitchell, 23, Mountain View, and Lawrence Saros, 32, San Francisco, to three-year terms, and because of "less involvement," Robert Visser, 23, San Bruno, to one year.

George Campusano, 27, goes on trial today on the same charges. Robert Caravelli, 29, Grass Valley, earlier had pleaded guilty and was given a one-year sentence.

The five were employed by a private trucking firm which hauled mail under contract from the water front to postal facilities.

Agreement Is Still Lacking On Salaries

The Mill Valley School District board and the teachers' negotiating council have been unable to agree on a salary schedule raise for the 1969-70 school year.

Teachers are seeking a 6 per cent cost of living increase while the board is offering 4 per cent, Supt. James A. Collins reported last night.

Any increase would be in addition to automatic annual step raises.

The board also is offering health insurance for teachers' dependents, the equivalent of a 1.5 per cent pay hike, he said.

Negotiations, previously conducted between Collins, as the board's representative, and the teachers' negotiating council in closed session, were aired at an open board session last night.

Origianlly the teacters sought an 8 per cent increase, Collins reported.

The Mill Valley School District board also:

PRINCIPALS — Approved assignment of Robert DeVilbiss, principal at Strawberry Point School, as principal of Tamalpais Valley School to succeed Gene W. Bradford, who resigned, and assignment of Logan Miles, principal of Homestead School, as principal of both Homestead and Strawberry Point Schools for the 1969-70 school year.

HIRING — Approved hiring of four intern teachers for Edna Maguire School, Marita Hayhurst, Keith Wilson, Stacia Horn and Laurie Kirk, at $6,000 a year; Calvin Nicholson, custodian at Edna Maguire School, $483 a month and 41 teachers and 55 teacher aides for summer school.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation of William Mancebo, custodian at Tamalpais Valley School, who is retiring after 13 yars with the district.

LEAVES — Granted leaves for 1969-70 to Carol Cunningham, kindergater teacher at Marin Terrace School, and Joyce Blesi, foreign language teacher at Edna Maguire School.

WATER MAIN — Approved paying $14,000 as its share of the cost of a water main and fire plugs to serve the site of the new middle school site at Project 17.

AUDITOR — Hired Sleezer and Eckhoff, certified public accountants, of San Rafael for the district's 1968-69 audit at a cost of $950.

FUND TRANSFERS — Approved the transfer of $29,780 from undistributed reserve to cover various expenditures during the year, including emergency repairs leaving $24,666 in the reserve.

MORAL GUIDELINES — Announced there wouldn't be any discussion of the moral guidelines received by the state Board of Education, until the guidelines, which haven't been accepted by the state board, have a formal status.

Relocating Utililty Lines Wins Approval

The Rohnert Park City Council last night approved plans for relocating utility lines on the west side of Highway 101 so the state Division of Highways can begin work on the new freeway interchange.

City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan said wood utility poles would be relocated along an easement of the new freeway right-of-way obtained by the state. Under the plan, high voltage lines would remain on poles, but primary and secondary power lines would be undergrounded along the new frontage road now under construction.

Relocation costs will be paid by the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and by Sonoma County using state funds.

The Rohnert Park City Council Also:

HORSES — Heard continued opposition to a proposed ordinance prohibiting horses, cows and sheep on public streets. Horse owners complained that it is often necessary to bring animals from pasture for grooming. Other residents complained that animals on streets create a nuisance. The council will review a revised ordinance at the June 30 meeting.

SUBDIVISION — Heard a report that Young America Homes plans a new subdivision of single-family homes, apartments and townhouses in the El Colegio area east of the railroad. The plans will be reviewed at an adjourned council meeting Monday at 8 p.m.

COMMISSION — Reappointed all seven members to one-year terms on the recreation commission. They are Ronald E. Rasmussen, J. Hayes Hunter, Edward Bishop, Elmer Hamann, Dr. Willard Peterson, Nore Thiesfeld and Michael Crowley.

Hub Board To Hear Report Card Report

The San Anselmo School District board will hear a report on a proposed primary grades report card at its 7:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow at Red Hill School. Now rather brief in its detail, the proposed card is to be similar to those given out in grades four through six.

The board will also consider adoption of 1969-70 salary schedules.

TWO MEN SAY THEY STILL WANT TO PAY

Mill Valley School District may have the start of an innovation in school financing — voluntary taxation.

Supt. James A. Collins reported to the district board last night that two residents, Robert E. Burton of 114 Hazel Avenue and Johnathan Sharp of 141 Cascade Drive, are willing to donate $35 each, the amount they would have been taxed if the district's tax rate measure had passed two weeks ago.

Board President Joseph E. Bodovitz said the board is getting legal advice on exactly how such donations should be handled.

Trustees also received a letter from a resident proposing that people pay school taxes in proportion to the number of children they have in schools.

Homes Entered

Three Rohnert Park homes were burglarized yesterday afternoon apparently the work of youngsters, Police Chief Robert Dennett said. Small change totaling $3 was taken from homes on Alma and Adele drives and on Burton Avenue.

Rock Concert Friday Night

A rock concert will be held at the Unitarian Center in Terra Linda Friday to raise funds for a new coffee house program for youth.

Youth Power, a Marin youth service organization, will sponsor the rock concert from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the center, 240 Channing Way.

Jeffrey De Lone, publicity chairman, announced a working blues band from Terra Linda, called "Rush," and "Annie's Little Band" from Belvedere will provide the music. They will be joined by other rock groups.

"We're trying to get matching funds for the $375 that the county supervisors set aside for Youth Power," said De Lone. "We hope to re-open a coffee house somewhere in the Terra Linda area."

The coffee house at the Unitarian Center, which met on Wednesday nights, folded about two months ago.

Council Studies Novato Budget

The Novato City Council last night juggled maintenance positions, saving approximately $500, and then added $20,000 to the street overlay program during its second study of the public works budget for fiscal 1969-70, according to City Mgr. Charles A. Brown.

The manager had requested a maintenance supervisor for eight months of the fiscal year, figuring that it would take four months to recruit one. The council cut out this position, but approved hiring a maintenance man for Pioneer Memorial Park. The difference in the salaries would subtract about $500 from the parks maintenance budget of $31,645, making it $31,145.

The budget contains $137,200 in street overlay from gasoline tax money. It also contains $25,000 for additional street overlay, the funds to come from unallocated reserved. The council added another $20,000 to this last night, making $45,000 for street overlay from the reserves.

The council discussed, but took no action on increasing the tax rate by approximately 11 cents per $100 assessed valuation to raise an additional $55,000 for street overlay, Brown reported.

The council adjourned to 8 p.m. today in the community house to study the parks and recreation budget. It has scheduled the first public hearing on the budget for 8 p.m. tomorrow at the community house.

One-Year Term For Drug User

James A. Sprague, 24, of San Rafael, who has a long history of arrests on drug charges, yesterday was ordered to serve one year in the county jail by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court.

Sprague had earlier pleaded guilty to possession of marijuana and being under the influence of heroin.

The judge also placed him on three years probation.

Two City Men Are Arraigned

Delbert C. Clark, 29, and Richard L. Givens, 28, both of San Francisco were arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on various charges stemming from their arrest Sunday by the California Highway Patrol.

Givens was charged with auto theft and Clark with possession of methamphetamine, a hypodermic needle and another person's credit card.

Their cases were continued until today for entry of plea.

Interest Again For Alcatraz

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The city's board of supervisors is expressing interest in taking over Alcatraz, a former prison in San Francisco Bay.

The supervisors were prepared to adjourn yesterday's meeting without taking action until Mayor Alioto's deputy for development, John H. Tolan, pointed out that the federal government has asked for a definite sign of official interest.

At his request the supervisors adopted a resolution saying they are "seriously considering acquisition" of Alcatraz.

Five Marinites Set For Training

Five Marin and southern Sonoma County students are among the 79 ROTC cadets at the University of California, Davis, who will receive six weeks training this summer at Fort Lewis, Wash.

They are: John D. Bradley, Roby K. W. Fenz and Barry V. Kaufman of San Rafael; David C. Budde and Charles Cavalier II of Petaluma.

Hungry Thieves

Hungry thieves, who helped themselves Friday to ice cream goodies from the freezer at the home of Maurice D. Worley at 20 Sunnyoaks Drive, Santa Venetia, made off with a transistor radio, a gold ring and a diamond ring, deputies said today.

McInnis defeated Dr. Upton and two others.

The supervisors this morning also named a Mexican-American and a Yurok Indian to the Marin County Human Rights Commission.

The Indian is Harry D. Williams of 10 Cypress Drive, Fairfax, who is the famed Stanford mascot, Prince Lightfoot. The Mexican-American is Anthony Medrano, instructor at Tamalpais High School.

Wornum was the lone dissenter on the choice of Williams, who preferred to hold the position open for an appointment of a candidate recommended by Marin City organizations or to consider a representative of the hippie element in the county as suggested by Margaret V. Azevedo, president of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs.

However, Baar moved for both Williams and Medrano and got a 4-1 vote, with Wornum explaining he favors Medrano but wanted the other post held open.

Two other human rights commissioners, James Quiett of Marin City and Charles B. Weers of Novato, were reappointed by unanimous vote.

The supervisors this morning held firm on their decision not to increase county supplementation for welfare recipients on grounds that the state should provide more aid since the courts have knocked out the residency requirement for welfare aid.

Vereena d'Angeli, vice president of the Social Workers Union, and Lottie Hall, co-chairman of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children Task Force, protested that the county supplementation is badly needed. They were backed by Randall Serrurier, field representative for the Social Workers Union Local 535, AFL-CIO, and several mothers.

Two Burglaries In Mill Valley

Mill Valley police today reported two residential burglaries.

A camera, four lenses and a portable radio; valued at $1,035, were taken between Friday and yesterday from the residence of Barbara A. Allen of 329 Ethel Avenue.

In a burglary yesterday, a television set valued at $120 was stolen from the residence of Stanley Kronquest of 116 Corte Madera Avenue.

Innocent Plea To Pot Growing Charge

A Cotati man pleaded innocent to a charge of possession of marijuana yesterday in Central Sonoma Municipal Court and bail was set at $1,000.

Warren A. Johnson, 29, of 8160 Arthur Avenue, was set for a hearing tomorrow in which he will be considered for release on his own recognizance. He was arrested Saturday by Cotati police after being stopped for speeding.

Prisoner Admits Having Narcotics

A San Quentin inmate serving sentences for kidnapping and armed robbery yesterday pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to having marijuana, heroin and cocaine at the prison.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson sentenced Donald Bowman to sentences to run concurrently with ones he is already serving.

Guilty Plea Entered In Marijuana Case

William Norman Roberts pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court to having marijuana in his San Geronimo home on May 5, 1968.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson set sentencing for July 28.

Jensen Hospitalized

Fred E. Jensen, San Rafael city councilman, has entered Marin General Hospital for treatment of ulcers. Doctors had not yet decided today whether surgery would be necessary.

Marin Man Still Held In Tokyo

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese narcotics officials said today they were still holding a Mill Valley music teacher for questioning about marijuana they said was found in his possession four days ago.

The officials said Thompson V. Chesnut, 50, of 129 Eldridge Avenue, was taken into custody Friday at Tokyo International Airport after custom agents found about 2.2 ounces of marijuana, worth about $147 locally, in his luggage.

They said preliminary investigations had been completed and they were preparing to interrogate Chesnut.

Chesnut, who arrived from Hong Kong, described himself as a music teacher on a round-the-world tour, the officials said. They said he told them he obtained the marijuana in Tanzania.

Chesnut is former music director of the Ross School District and also taught at the College of Marin.

per, Cossack Steppes, Nichols labled the recent copies filled with four letter words and nudes as "offensive."

"It is evident that a major conflict exists between the attitudes of an element of the student body that has been involved in the newspaper and those of the majority of the rest of us on campus," he said.

He promised that in the future, steps will be taken to insure that the newspaper is more responsive and responsible without threatening the rights of students to express their convictions through the newspaper.

Tiburon Board Denies Variance

The Tiburon Board of Adjustments yesterday denied a request from Lawrence Olin for a variance to reduce required setbacks for several lots at Reedlands Woods unit one.

The board first gave partial approval for a variance on one lot, then, after Olin demanded action on another 10, refused to take action, reported development administrator Phil V. Scott.

The board after reconsidered and denied the variance request because no plot plans were submitted and Olin was seeking a "blanket variance," Scott said.

Scott said Olin sought the denial to permit him to appeal to higher city agencies.

Innocent Plea To Drug Possession

Ronald Joseph Campagna, 21, of San Anselmo pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to raising marijuana at his home at 47 Rosemont Avenue. A preliminary hearing was set for July 10.

The case of a co-defendant, Terry Eugene Elliott, 19, has been transferred to Marin Juvenile Court.

South City Youth Held In Car Theft

Joseph Steven Minshall, 19, of South San Francisco was arrested this morning in San Rafael and charged with the theft of a 1965 Volkswagen owned by Eleanor Kelley of South San Francisco.

Minshall is being held in lieu of $1,200 bail and is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

$36 Stolen

Burglars entered the home of Carma R. Holland at 512 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda Friday by removing a louvered window shutter, and took $36, sheriff's deputies said today.

for inactivation will include men who have nearly completed their one-year war tours or whose service obligation is expiring.

The Second Brigade of the Ninth Division and some non-divisional Army units are coming home to be taken off the active rolls of regular Army outfits.

The Third Brigade of the Ninth Infantry Division will remain in Vietnam.

The equipment of the units to be inactivated will be left in Vietnam, mostly for the South Vietnamese forces, Henkin indicated.

The Marine regiment going to Okinawa will leave Vietnam with virtually all its present men, Henkin said. This suggested a much smaller turnover in the Marine regiment than in the Army brigades being brought out.

The 18 Army reserve units and two National Guard outfits leaving Vietnam will move initially to an Army post near their home station for processing, then to their home armory or reserve center for demobilization.

All members of the 20 units, whether or not they went with the unit to Vietnam, will be released from active duty at the same time as their unit, the Pentagon said.

Withdrawal of the 2,000 Army guardsmen and reservists by the end of August will leave about 10,000 mobilized citizen-soldiers still in the war zone.

The Air Force virtually completed the return from Vietnam and Korea of six National Guard fighter squadrons called to active duty after last year's enemy winter offensive and the North Korean seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo.

All of the 38,000 Army, Air Force and Navy Reserve and National Guard troops called to active duty last year will be out of uniform by Christmas according to plans.

Marin City Woman Charged

Alice Faye Grinner, 20, of Marin City was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on charges of possession of a check with intent to defraud, credit card forgery, possessing lost property, possessing marijuana and resisting arrest.

Miss Grinner was arrested Friday after a struggle in a Sausalito clothing shop which ensued when she allegedly tried to pay for clothing with someone else's credit card.

Her case was continued until Monday for entry of plea.

No Complaint; Teen Realeased

No complaint was issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court pending further investigation by the district attorney's office against a young man arrested Saturday on suspicion of possessing stolen property.

Released was Tim Mark O'Brien, 18, of San Rafael. He had been accused of trying to sell a Mill Valley woman stereo equipment stolen last week.

Plea Monday On Two Drug Charges

Edward T. Chorovsky, 23, of San Francisco was arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on felony charges of possession of marijuana and benzedrine. His case was continued until Monday for entry of plea.

Chorovsky was arrested Sunday by the California Highway Patrol after they investigated his stopped auto on Highway 101 near Ignacio.

One Apartment Pldn Is Liked

The Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee yesterday approved plans for one apartment development but rejected a second because its plans were "amateurish."

The committee approved plans for a 10-unit development by Herman Bauer at 79 Ethel Avenue subject to submission of plans for lighting and landscaping. The committee lauded Bauer for superior planning.

At the same time, the committee rejected plans for a seven-unit project just outside the city limits on East Blithedale Avenue. The proposed development by Lawrence Lok, referred to the committee by county planners, was turned down because of a lack of adequate drawings and "amateurish" plot and building plans, according to the Mill Valley Planning Commission office.

Hashish Case Hearing Is Set

A preliminary hearing was set yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for July 17 for two of the men arrested May 27 in a raid on a house near Inverness where drug agents said they confiscated over $100,000 worth of hashish.

Eric Gerald Monde, 21, and Craig Ritchie Westling, 22, both of Inverness entered innocent pleas of possession of the drug for sale yesterday and had a preliminary hearing set.

The cases of James Willard Clapp, 21, of La Habra, and John Brad McCall, 22, of Mill Valley, accused of sale of hashish, have not been set yet.

A fifth defendant, Joann Myers, 19, of San Francisco, was told to return to court June 20 to see if her case will be accepted by juvenile court.

Bill On Finances To Senate Floor

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee today unanimously endorsed a bill requiring full disclosure of the financial worth by nearly every public official in California.

The measure by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh was sent to the full Senate, where a final vote could be taken as early as next week.

Committee Passes Cigarette Ban Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to ban all cigarette advertising in California was approved by the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee today.

The measure by Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, was sent to the floor of the Senate on a unanimous voice vote.

New Chairman Due For Commission

The Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commission will elect a new chairman at its 8 p.m. meeting Thursday at Tiburon City Hall.

The panel also will receive reports on a proposed park site and a drug abuse workshop and consider action on the Paradise Drive sidewalk.

Pleads Innocent

Andrew Lawrence Stitch, 18, of San Rafael pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to stealing a $350 guitar from a San Rafael music store on May 21.

A preliminary hearing was set for June 30.

Historic Sanctuary

Paper Discloses New Minuteman Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — An additional $400 million order has been placed for the same, substandard Minuteman II guidance system with the same firm that produced the device in the first place, the Washington Post said in its editions today.

The system, produced by the Autonetics Division of North American Rockwell, does not perform as long as it was supposed to, and some officials said the only solution was to order additional units to take up the slack, the newspaper reported.

The units guide the missiles to their targets 6,000 to 7,000 miles away.

In each silo the missile guidance system is to run continuously so that there can be an instant firing. How long each device should operate is classified, but sources indicated the Autonetics product did not even come close to Air Force standards.

In the spring of 1967, the Pentagon estimated the "brains" of the missile were breaking down more than four times as quickly as planned. Each unit costs about $1 million.

A. Ernest Fitzgerald, the Air Force deputy for financial management, said in a memo last week that his private consulting firm turned up "technical trouble" in the units as early as September 1963.

One task force formed to tackle the problem and propose solutions said, in part, that financial cuts in the Minuteman budget had damaged Autonetics' performance.

However, in a letter Dec. 15, 1967, Fitzgerald wrote to Lt. Gen. J. W. O'Neill, commander of the Air Force Space and Missile System Organization, saying:

"Attributing the Autonetics quality problem to a shortage of money is, in my opinion, deceitful and hypocritical. In actuality, the experience illustrates the shallowness of substance inherent in the unlimited funds theory. The real problem lies in quality of people and organization and in management discipline."

As far as is known, four attempts to launch Minutemen from their home silos have failed. One failure was blamed on guidance problems. However, the Air Force has test-fired the Minuteman successfully numerous times from Vandenberg Air Force Base, California.

Final Plans Adopted For Boat Launch

The Petaluma City Council last night approved final plans for the Petaluma River boat launching facility.

City engineer David Young estimated the cost of the project at $136,000 and said the state Department of Harbors and Watercraft would pay the full amount, but that the city would be responsible for construction of the new access road on Petroleum Avenue off Lakeville Highway. He estimated road construction at $32,300.

Young said bids would be received by City Clerk Lillian Nommsen on July 16. He hoped the contract could be awarded next month so that all heavy earth work could be finished before the rainy season begins.

The launch ramp, located south of the Highway 101 river overcrossing, will be built to allow boat launching at extreme low tide. Young said the launch will be 36 feet long and would permit four boats to be launched at one time.

Also included in the project is a parking lot, restrooms and boat washing facilities. A float will be located at one side, but Young said if the bids are low enough, the state would approve the placement of a second float on the other side of the launch.

The Petaluma City Council also:

DRAINAGE — Received letter from the Bernard E. Eldredge School Parents and Teachers Together group, complaining about a drainage problem on Maria Drive. Youngs said plans are under way to prevent sidewalks from being covered during the rainy season.

PLAN LINES — Received a request from attorney Robert W. Mackey for action on plans by Sonoma Ventures to build a subdivision on Keokuk Street. The council determined the plans could not be weighed until plan lines for the widening of Keokuk and Liberty streets and Magnolia Avenue are adopted. A public hearing for that purpose was set for July 21 at 7:30 p.m.

AMBULANCE — Received a letter from William C. McCulloch suggesting that ambulance service provided by the city be replaced with a private service. Councilmen Albert L. Battaglia, David W. Brainerd and John W. Cavanagh Jr. were asked to investigate.

PARADE — Granted the request of the chamber of commerce to hold the annual Sonoma-Marin Fair parade at 1 p.m. on June 29 from Fifth and D streets to the fairgrounds.

GIFT — Receive a gift of $50 from the Petaluma Garden Club to be used for city beautification.

BUDGET — Reviewed brieflv the water department budget and set extended talks for tomorrow at 4 p.m.

Autobahn Set For Lengthening

BONN (GF) — West Germany's famous expressway networks, the Autoban—now about 2,800 miles long is to be doubled in length by 1985.

The decision, recently announced in Bonn, foresees expenditures of $22.5 billion for the massive project which will be carried out in the framework of three five-year plans. Taxes on petroleum products are expected to cover about half of the construction costs.

The Autobahn was begun during the 1930s and has been continuously increased since the end of World War II. But traffic is so heavy today that Bonn's transport ministry has announced trucks will not be able to use it on most weekends during the coming summer school vacation when tourist travel will be heaviest.

John L. Lewis In Resting Place

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The remains of union leader John L. Lewis were buried early today in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Springfield.

Lewis was buried next to his wife, with only family members attending.

Oak Ridge Cemetery also is the site of Abraham Lincoln's tomb.

Lewis, who headed the United Mine Workers of America for some 40 years, died June 11 in Washington, D.C. He was 89.

Tam Fire Board Passes Budget

The Tamalpais Fire District board adopted a final 1969-70 budget of $177,698 last night, an increase of $21,299 over last year.

Salaries accounted for $125,156 of the total, compared to $88,000 last year. Chief Richard K. Oswald said district employees will get a 5 per cent raise in July and another 5 per cent in January, bringing the district pay scale closer to parity with the other four Southern Marin fire departments. The district also has hired two more men for a total of 11 firefighters compared to nine last year.

Other figures in the new budget are $35,450 for maintenance, $9,902 of capital improvements with $8,000 in reserve.

The board also accepted the resignation of Director Morris Batz, who is leaving the district. The board will seek applications from Tamalpais Valley residents to succeed Batz, chairman Carl H. Modell siad.

The Tamalpais Fire Protection District board also:

HIRING — Hired two teenagers as summer employees to augment the staff during fire season. They are Glenn C. Phillips of 761 Bay Road and David H. Irving of 511 Shasta Way, both 17.

LEAVE — Granted a 60-day leave of absence to fireman Larry Robinson.

RADIO — Was told the department's base radio has been relocated on Vernal Hill for better radio coverage of the district.

Novato Parks Priorities Set

The list of park priorities and a possible bond issue were discussed last night by the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission, reported Edward W. Adams parks and recreation director.

The commission has listed priorities in this order: Pioneer Memorial Park, Novato Creek Park, Olive School playground park, Mc Clay Road Park, second swimming pool, Lions Park and San Marin Park.

The city council had asked the commission for a suggested park and recreation bond issue to be submitted to the voters. The commission did not agree on it last night but decided further study would be necessary, Adams said.

Commissioner Martin White said, "It takes 34 per cent to defeat us and they (34 per cent) are dedicated to the firm principle of progress at no cost.

Adams reported on the progress of pioneer Memorial Park. He said completion of the first phase was set for the middle of September.

Powell Plans To Take 'Pulse'

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell said today he expects to confer with the Democratic congressional leadership to "feel the pulse" following the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on his exclusion from the House.

Powell told newsmen he was to go to Washington today and meet with the leadership tomorrow. He has no appointments, he said, "But I'm sure we can get together."

Powell said "there was dancing in the streets last night in Harlem," after the court ruled the U.S. House of Representatives violated his constitutional rights in denying him a seat in Congress in 1967.

Petaluma Man To Be Sentenced June 23

Sentencing for Johnny Slaughter Jr., 19, of Petaluma, who pleaded guilty to burglarizing a San Rafael doctor's office April 10, has been set for June 23 in Marin Superior Court.

Friday Slaughter asked Judge Joseph G. Wilson to place him in jail in the meantime as he had no place to stay.

Park Suspect

Richard Elmer Coffman, 40, of 508 Petaluma Boulevard South, Petaluma, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of child molesting after adults in the area of Mc Near Park told police they saw Coffman holding several young girls on his lap on a park bench at 11:30 a.m.

He was scheduled for arraignment today in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court.

Mayors Seek Better System On Taxation

Mayors and representatives of 10 of Marin's 11 cities agreed unanimously by straw vote yesterday that the sheriff's patrol division costs of $960,472 should be borne solely by the unincorporated area taxpayers.

They also agreed unanimously in favor of a possible fire district for the unincorporated area in which structural fire tax would be levied according to relative benefits.

They voted 6 to 4, with the City of Tiburon representative absent, favoring a plan whereby the cities would chip in $31,000 on a prorated basis toward county animal control.

Voting yes were San Rafael, Novato, Corte Madera, Larkspur, Sausalito and Belvedere. Voting no were Mill Valley, Ross, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Corte Madera Town Council last night approved appropriation of $1,400 as the town's share.

All agreed that cities and towns are victims of double taxes and went on record to request the City-County Services Committee, meeting last night, and the board of supervisors to "work diligently" toward correcting city-county tax inequities.

"All we can do is keep hammering away," said Larkspur Mayor Neil R. Brixon who called the special meeting held at Corte Madera's Edgewater Inn.

Brixon said the views do not legally constitute the reflection of cities as a whole but that he hopes a vote may be taken at the June 25 meeting of the Marin County Council of Mayors and Councilmen to be carried to the supervisors.

Novato City Mgr. Charles A. Brown won support on a suggestion that the council meet each year with the supervisors prior to budget session to discuss county budget items that affect cities.

Sausalito Councilman George C. Hoffman said the public must be educated about city-county tax inequities and Brixon proposed the inequities be spelled out and a complete history be made available to the press.

"We're not being an effective lobby," said Mayor Dean N. Meyer of Mill Valley who claimed that the supervisors represent the city as well as the county dweller with 80 per cent of their constituents living in cities.

The board of supervisors on June 4 approved a total county fire department budget of $665,657. Of this, the county administrator recommended that $395,057 be designated "structural fire protection" and this be borne by unincorporated areas not covered by city or fire districts. This would have meant about 58 cents in a tax rate for the unincorporated areas instead of this year's 20 cents.

The supervisors decided this would be too much and, instead of $395,057, designated $200,000 as the "structural fire protection" portion — or about 30 cents on the tax rate.

Bids Opened For Lighting

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Sonoma County supervisors yesterday opened bids on lighting for the Petaluma War Memorial Building and approved plans for improvements to Adobe and Frates roads near Petaluma.

Apparent low bidder for the installation of new parking lot lights at the memorial building was Petty and Mapes Electrical Co. of Santa Rosa with $4,644. Second of the four bids was the Standard Electric Co. of Santa Rosa with $4,800.

Bids for the widening of Frates Road between state Highway 116 and Adobe Road and for the widening of Adobe Road near Frates Road will be opened on July 15 at 3 p.m. The project was estimated to cost $190,000.

James Meredith Found Guilty

NEW YORK (AP) — James Meredith, a Negro prominent in civil rights campaigns, has been found guilty of harassing the white tenants of an apartment building he owns in an attempt to force rent increases.

Meredith, whose enrollment in the University of Mississippi in 1962 led to rioting and federal troop intervention, was not in court yesterday when the conviction was registered. He could be sentenced to a $250 fine or 15 days in jail.

Tenants testified that Meredith cut off hot water and elevator service in the six-story building to enforce a demand for a 15 per cent rent hike.

New "Sleep + Aspirin" tablets help you pop right off to Sound Safe Sleep

WITHOUT HABIT-FORMING SLEEPING PILLS

(Special)...A New York chemist has perfected a remarkable "Asper-Sleep" formula which unites in one small tablet 3 safe aids to sound, refreshing sleep. No other sleeping tablets offer more comfort . . . yet are not habit-forming!

Never before has there been such a combination to help you relieve the problem of sleeplessness — to bring restful sleep without habit-forming drugs. No prescription is needed — just ask for "Asper-Sleep Tablets". For 100% safe sleep take as directed.

The reason you can fall asleep so fast and sleep like a log is that each Asper-Sleep tablet contains these 3 ingredients:

(1) An anti-histamine which (in a test by doctors) proved as effective as a usual dose of phenobarbitol...yet Asper-Sleep is mild, safe.

(2) A sedative with gentle soothing properties — to help you relax from simple everyday nervous tensions.

(3) Last but not least, Asper-Sleep contains analgesic, pain-relieving aspirin. This curbs the miseries of common headaches, colds and minor arthritis, rheumatism, muscular and menstrual aches and pains—to help you sleep when these disturbances are keeping you awake.

So get your sleep tonight without the depressing after-effects of habit-forming drugs. Asper-Sleep contains no barbiturates. You pop off to sleep, wake up "bright-eyed and bushy-tailed" not dull or dopey. During the night you are relaxed yet responsive to emergencies.

Money back guarantee: Unless Asper-Sleep brings you better, faster sleep than any sleeping tablet you have ever taken . . . return the partly used bottle and get all your money back. Ask for Asper-Sleep tablets at druggists. 89¢.

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Film Star Omar Sharif Is Player Of Daring Quality

Everybody knows that contract bridge favors agressive bidders, but not everybody has the courage to practice what we all preach. Film star Omar Sharif is said to approach a bridge hand as though it were a girl (they say that courage and a healthy bank balance are useful in this sport also, but what does a poor bridge columnist know about this?), and perhaps his daring bid in today's hand proves the allegation.

RIGHT GUESS

Who has the nerve to bid three no-trump when vulnerable against a vulnerable opponent who has opened with two no-trump? If you've guessed that Sharif did it, you're right.

The scene was an international bridge tournament in Beirut, recently, and Sharif knew that his partner had a long club suit for his overcall of three clubs. Sharif had 11 high-card points, expected his partner to hold 8 or 9, and knew that West needed all the remaining high cards of the deck for his opening bid of two no-trump. East would never get in to make any embarrassing leads through the South hand.

GOOD CLUBS

If North had really good clubs, Sharif would be able to run about seven club tricks as the nucleus of his game in no-trump. If North's clubs were ragged he would surely have a couple of side cards, and West would be unable to develop the setting trick in a hurry.

WORKS AS EXPECTED

It worked as Sharif expected. West's opening lead of the jack of diamonds went to dummy's king, and Sharif led a low club to the ace. When the jack dropped, Sharif knew that the suit would run since West would not have opened two no-trump with a singleton in clubs.

Sharif switched to a low spade, and West could take only his three aces. Sharif took the rest, making his game with an overtrick. Faint heart ne'er won three no-trump.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ A J
♥ A Q J 7
♦ A J 10 8 3
♣ Q J

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one diamond.

The hand is a trifle light for an opening bid of two no-trump, and the doubleton Q-J of clubs is a doubtful holding for such a bid. Avoid making a bid that is doubtful on two counts. (In the recent international tournament in Beirut, West actually bid 2 no-trump, but he lived to regret it — and so might you.)

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, June 17, the 168th day of 1969 with 197 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1775 a group of 3,500 British soldiers attacked one thousand American patriots on Bunker Hill near Boston. The British lost more than 1,000 men, the Americans 441.

In 1928 Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly across the Atlantic. The plane was piloted by Wilmer Stultz.

In 1967 Red China announced it had exploded a hydrogen bomb.

In 1968 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that an 1866 law bars the color line in housing sales and rentals.

A thought for the day: Sir John Suckling said: "Women are the baggage of life: they are troublesome, and hinder us in the great march, yet we cannot be without them."

Demo Meeting Is Postponed

The monthly meeting tonight of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee has been postponed to 8 p.m. next Tuesday in Room 206 of the County Courthouse, San Rafael.

Committee secretary J. Michael Anthony said the meeting was postponed because several members were planning to work today in the special assembly election in Monterey County.

Sausalitans Face A Tax Rate Hike

With only a few major items left to be discussed — one of them administrative salaries — Sausalito School District taxpayers currently face a 35-cent tax rate hike based on a tentative working budget studied last night by district trustees.

The budget, prepared by Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato, included a 7.5 per cent pay raise for all district employees even though administrative salaries have not been discussed in budget sessions.

The working budget currently is $1,429,926 and, if adopted, would carry a $3.39 per $100 assessed valuation tax rate, up 35-cents from this year's $3.04.

Trustees will meet again next Monday in special session to discuss administrative salaries. The district's teachers and classified personnel have already accepted the 7.5 per cent salary increase.

One administrator has indicated he probably won't accept a 7.5 per cent increase.

James T. Toliver, Jr., who serves as a sepcial assistant to the principal of the Martin Luther King School, has told the board by letter that he wants a $2,500-a-year increase.

Toliver is currently paid $12,500 a year. He told the board that the minimum he would accept for next year would be $14,000 on a 9.5 month scale and $15,000 on an 11-month schedule.

"Next year the Martin Luther King School will have a new principal. I can easily visualize an increase in my duties and job responsibilities until he has settled in," Toliver wrote the board.

The board took no action on Toliver's request, but asked him to meet in closed session with the trustees next Monday night.

(Discussion of Toliver's salary in closed session would be in violation of the Ralph M. Brown Act, which says that salaries must be discussed in public sessions and is not proper cause for a closed session.)

Amato said today it was his understanding the board was going to discuss Toliver's salary in public session but would discuss his job responsibilitites and his position in the chain-of-command at the Martin Luther King School during closed session.

(The Brown Act says that closed sessions may be held only to hire, fire or hear charges against an employee or to instruct salary negotiators.)

Panther Breakfast Assault Dies

What began as another full-blown assault on Black Panther breakfasts withered and died quickly last night after Sausalito School District board chairman Bruce E. Woelfel limited discussion because he was "tired of hearing criticism from persons who offered no positive alternatives."

The Black Panther breakfasts were not an agenda item, but Woelfel opened the matter up for discussion because the board received 19 letters from district residents protesting the Panthers' presence on school grounds.

About 35 persons attended the meeting, but only five or six spoke in opposition tot he Panther breakfasts. An equal number supported them and urged the board to allow them to continue next year when school resumed.

COMPLAINTS

Woelfel allowed opponents of the breakfasts to speak once and then cut off discussion, after they voiced previously aired complaints that no political group should be allowed to use school facilities.

"We have formed a committee to study the breakfasts and any of you who have suggestions or want to help the committee are urged to do so," Woelfel told the audience.

"The Panthers have indicated they want out of the breakfasts and want it taken over by the community, so you who are opposed tot he Panthers being on campus should be eager to help get the community involved sot hey (the Panthers) can get out," Woelfel said.

Trustee Martha Freebairn-Smith, who heads the committee, said it had not met but would do so during the summer and have recommendations ready before the beginning of next school year.

SENTIMENT

Several persons in the audience suggested that the 19 letters which the board received represented a "letter campaign" and therefore were not indicative of true public sentiment on the issue.

Several others, however, insisted that the letter writers were "sincere individuals concerned about intimidation of their children in the schools."

All of the letters came in during a three-day period, June 9-12. All protested the use of school facilities on a continuing basis by any political party.

Judge Refuses Immunity For Black Panthers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A federal judge refused yesterday to grant members of the Black Panther Party immunity from testifying before a grand jury investigating activities of the militant Negro group.

The decision by U.S. District Judge Oliver J. Carter could mean that the Black Panthers must testify after the grand jury reconvenes tomorrow in San Francisco.

Carter said he "will enter an appropriate order" following another hearing on the matter at 10 a.m.

U.S. Attorney Cecil Poole has already asked the court to order the witnesses to answer questions which they had sought to avoid by asking immunity.

60-Day Sentence In Assault Case

Clarence Ronnie Striplin, 20, of Marin City yesterday was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court for assaulting a policeman and possessing stolen property.

Striplin will be eligible for work furlough, Judge Wilson said, so that he may keep the job he has had for several months with the county.

The youth had last month pleaded guilty to hitting Sausalito patrolman Stephen M. Willis on Sept. 25, 1968 during a fracas at a Sausalito coffee shop. He also admitted having stolen credit cards with him when arrested.

Marin Girls In Honor Band

Two San Rafael High School students will be members of an 80-piece California Honor Band that will tour Europe this summer under sponsorship of the World Horizons Institute.

The two are Shelley Hodgen, clarinet, and Linda Soares, bassoon. Together with the other honor musicians chosen on the basis of technical proficiency in statewide competition, they will study and play concerts in Rome, Florence, Vienna and Paris.

An 84-piece honor orchestra will also go to Europe for study and concerts under the same sponsorship.

Bid Fails In Lowering Density For Apartments

The San Rafael City Council last night refused to rezone a lot on Picnic Avenue to lower density to prevent construction of 40 apartment units.

The matter was before the council on appeal from the planning commission, which had rejected the rezoning 7-0. The concil simply refused to act, leaving the commission's decision to stand. All four members present (Fred E. Jensen) was absent) spoke against the rezoning.

MANY SPEAKERS

A parade of speakers for and against appeared before the council. Many Picnic Valley residents and some from other parts of the city urged the rezoning, contending that the development would create major traffic hazards, congestion, and a burden on Laurel Dell primary and intermediate schools.

Appearing against the change were Glenn Adair, secretary-manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce; Carl S. Brown, executive vice president of Associated Home Builders of Marin; Louis Del Valle, a nearby resident; N. C. Green, president of the Building and Construction Trades Council; Norman Traverso, executive secretary of the Marin Property Owners Association; Robert A. Roumiguiere, real estate broker, Norman Campbell, a Bret Harte resident, and Edmund T. Ghirardo, applicant for the apartment permit. All stressed that to change zoning that has stood for 10 years after plans have been submitted for development would be unethical and make it impossible for land buyers to rely on zoning in San Rafael.

Adair read a letter from Stanley S. Goldsmith, chamber of commerce president, reporting "a letter from one of the home owners which can only be considered as threatening" because the chamber opposed the rezoning before the planning commission.

Councilmen Fred C. Robbins Jr. and John A. Miskimen both said they thought the zoning for 40 units on the lot was improper and would not approve such density if it came before the council as a new matter, but neither could they justify changing the zoning under the circumstances.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini told the zoning advocates he could see no justification for the change, pointing out that the 40-unit zoning has been well known, was adopted originally without protest, and was the basis of several plans approved without protest (none of which, however, resulted in building) before Ghirardo's application. Councilman Harry A. Barbier posed the question, "How could anyone come in and look at zoning on a piece of property and buy it" if zoning were subject to change in such manner?

UP IN AIR

The decision left Ghirardo's application somewhat up in the air. Originally, he could have gone ahead with 40 units under one roof with only architectural approval by the plannning commission. He chose instead a plan for a cluster development, requiring a use permit. The council last month denied the use permit, and City Atty. David Menary said the same plans could not be resubmitted.

Mayor Bettini advised Ghirardo to try to work out some plan changes to meet part of the neighbors' objections and start a new application on its way.

SAN RAFAEL COUNCIL SETS BUDGET TALKS

San Rafael city councilmen will be meeting every Monday night for the next four weeks as they tackle the fiscal 1970 city budget.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen reported last night the preliminary budget is at last almost ready and "I'll have it in your hands by the end of the week."

Mayor C. Paul Bettini then set budget meetings for Monday and July 14 at 7:30 p.m. One June 30 at 8 p.m., the council will meet with the county board of supervisors for further discussion of city purchase of the courthouse square. July 7 and 8 p.m. will be a regular council meeting.

Pay raises for city employees will be taken up first at next Monday's budget session.

Woman Says She Kicked Drug Habit

A 20-year-old woman who said she has broken her drug habit during 53 days in jail was given a chance yesterday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court to prove it.

He sentenced Ray Lynn Dozier to time served and placed her on two years probation.

The young woman, who pleaded guilty last month to forging a stolen welfare check, had a history of drug use.

Still awaiting trial on a similar charge of forging a money order are Juanita Litteral and Eugene Rudnick, 19, of 103 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael.

Miss Dozier was told by Judge Wilson to stay away from the Litterals and to make restitution for the amount of the check.

He ordered her released to take a job in Burlingame.

The check and money order figuring in the two cases were both allegedly received from former mailman Warren Sielsky, who has pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court to a charge of mail embezzlement in connection with the theft of more than 3,000 pieces of mail.

Sielsky lives with the Litteral family at 9 Taylor Street, San Rafael.

Final Mutiny Trial Is Going

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The final trial in the Presidio mutiny case may be over by late Friday.

Various defense motions were to be argued today in the trials of Pvts. Michael E. Murphy, 19, Concord, and Lawrence J. Zaino, 21, Toledo, Ohio. They were among 27 GIs who were charged with mutiny following a sit-down demonstration in the Presidio stockade last Oct. 14.

Three defendants escaped and are believed to be living in Canada. The other 22 defendants were convicted at four separate trials.

The current defendants were separated when Zaino was ordered to tke a sanity test and Murphy was hospitalized with hepatitis.

Architect Hired To Plan Three Projects

The San Rafael City Council last night hired an architect to do preliminary planning for three city projects and go ahead with final plans for relocation of the city corporation yard.

On suggestion of Mayor C. Paul Bettini, architect Robert W. F. Severin was hired at $1,500 to do preliminary plans for a new firehouse, a recreation center, and the corporation yard. The council then authorized City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen to have Severin proceed on final plans for the corporation yard as soon as his preliminary work is completed.

Mayor Bettini said all councilmen except John A. Miskimen, who was absent at the time, agreed earlier that the corporation yard should be relocated on the unsold part of the city's Francisco Boulevard-canal property. About half the property has been sold to two automobile dealers.

The mayor also revived another project — the proposed 18-hole municipal golf course north of the Civic Center. Four consultants had sumbitted proposals for feasibility studies.

Councilman Harry A Barbier said, "First we should decide whether we are going to put it to a vote of the people." However, other council members said the study should come first, and Barbier went along in unanimous approval to hire EBS Management Consultants (a subsidiary of Ebasco Services) to make the study at a fee not to exceed $3,000. Ebasco Services (itself a subsidiary of Electric Bond & Share) made the preliminary study on location and design of the present city hall.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

STREET RESURFACING — Awarded a contract for resurfacing of various city streets to Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, lowest of five bidders at $37,124. Bids ranged upward to $46,830 by Reichhold & Jurkovich of Santa Rosa. The low bid was below the city engineer's estimate.

STREET ABANDONMENT — Abandoned a portion of the land set aside for Northgate Drive to realign access to the Holiday Inn.

PARKING VARIANCE — Granted Sanford L. Harris Jr. permission to remodel his garage at 224 Humboldt Avenue into living space, parking his car in the yard. The request was unusual in that it had strong support from Harris's neighbors, and no opposition.

OVERNIGHT PARKING — Heard Harold Barling of 1543 Fourth Street complain that the city's ordinance against overnight parking "is being enforced only in the downtown area" and should either be repealed or enforced uniformly. City Clerk W. C. Cornwell said he had had many phone calls on the matter. Discussion of repeal or revision was put on the agenda for the July 21 council meeting.

REZONING — Adopted ordinances rezoning two lots on East Crescent Avenue; zoning three previously unclassified lots on Oakmont Drive and Oakmont Court for single-family homes, and changing the zoning ordinance to give the city clerk power to set public hearings.

OPPORTUNITY COUNCIL — Put over until July 7 appointment of a city representative on the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council

BID CALL — Called for bids on road materials for next fiscal year, to be opened July 7.

PENSION INCREASE — Approved a cost-of-living increase in the pensions of retired city employees, made possible by new legislation. Cost to the city will be $1,796, reported James H. McCown, finance officer.

ABATEMENT — Adopted a resolution for razing the former Dexter Rambler building at Fourth and H streets, condemned as a public nuisance, and called for bids on the demolishing to be opened July 7. Cost will become a lien against the property.

TAPE RECORDER — Authorzied City Clerk Cornwell to purchase a tape recorder for the planning commission.

POLITICAL SIGNS — Noting that two defeated city council candidates have not yet removed all their political signs, instructed City Manager Andersen to put pressure on them to do so.

EMPLOYEES — Hired Jesse Wiles as police patrolman at $670 per month, and promoted Harry A. Barbier Jr. from dispatcher to radio telephone operator in the police department at $551. Councilman Barbier, the young man's father, absented himself during this vote.

All actions were unanimous by the council members present. Fred E. Jensen, who is ill, was absent.

Message Linking Sugar To Heart Disease Is Hit

BERKELEY (UPI) — The controversial message of British nutritionist John Yudkin is decidedly sour — sugar may be the main dietary cause of coronary heart disease.

Yudkin, a researcher at the University of London, theorized at a nutritian seminar yesterday at the University of California that coronary heart disease appears to be an affliction of affluence.

He said man has not been able to adapt to the metabolic changes resulting from a sugar-rich diet. Experiments show, Yudkin said, humans on a diet of high refined sugar consumption increase by a third the level of insulin in the blood.

Other specialists at the conference called Yudkin's theory "extremely controversial."

While diet probably plays a major part in developing heart disease, they said, so do cigarette smoking, obesity, stress and heredity. They believe the only diet factor scientifically established as being of importance is the consumption of saturated fats and cholesterol.

Profits Sent To Washington

The profitw of two Marin bake sales, $266, have been sent to the National Park Service to be used for acquisition of more land for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

The sales were held in April and May by a group headed by two girls from San Rafael High School, Tami Patterson of Inverness and Newtza Cornelius of San Rafael.

Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, reported yesterday the check was sent to Rep. Roy A. Taylor, D—N. C., chairman of a subcommittee on National Parks and Recreation of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs.

The subcommittee thanked the group for its donation and forwarded it to the National Park Service.

Bussing Costs Hiked 5 Cents

OAKLAND (UPI) — Crossing the bridge from Oakland and the East Bay to San Francisco will cost a nickel more for Alameda-Contra Costa bus riders effective July 1.

The transit district's board of directors voted last night to raise the transbay bus ride fare to 55 cents.

Local fares will remain at 25 cents, but tokens and ticket books will go to four for $1 instead of the current five for $1.

Election In Offing In Annexation Fuss

Corte Madera town councilmen at a public hearing last night listened to Paradise Drive residents object to annexation to the Corte Madera Sanitary District, then made it plain that an election was certainly in the offing for one group of them and very likely for another.

Sitting as the sanitary district board, the councilmen were weighing two annexations: one involving 49 property owners in the unincorporated Ranch Road area between Paradise Keys and Corte Madera town limits lying between Paradise drive and the bay; the other, involving 66 property owners uphill from Paradise Drive and within Tiburon city limits.

Annexation of the first group to the sanitary district having been made conditional on annexation to the City of Tiburon by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission, the district took that matter under submission after advising the property owners that an election would take place when and if they became part of Tiburon.

The second group was advised that an election on its annexation to the sanitary district would be called for at the district board's meeting July 7, at which time Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis is to report on whether the matter shall be put to voters now in the district as well as to the annexation-area voters.

Property owners' objections were based on claims that existing septic tanks were adequate, that cost estimates of sewering were too vague and that the expense would probably prove to be a crushing burden.

Maurice Scott of the Marin County Health Department told the residents that "sewage is running all over the place up there." He said that however adequate some septic tanks may be, there are at any given time several tanks failing. He called the situation a health hazard and cited a recent outbreak of hepatitis in Tomales, which he said was due to septic tank failure.

Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher, citing "very preliminary estimates" by the consulting firm of Brown and Caldwell, told the residents that the cost of sewering, varying somethat from property to property, might range from $3,500 in the unincorporated area to around $2,100 in the Tiburon section. There would also be annexation fees of about $250 and a $156 connecting fee, he said. Payment would be over a 15-year bonding period, he said.

Protests in the unincorporated area came from 12 of 49 owners, or 14 of 56 registered voters, with land valued at $32,996 out of a total assessed valuation of $174,812.

In the Tiburon area, there were 13 protesters among 66 property owners, or 18 of 72 registered voters, with land worth $53,159 out of a total of $264,476.

The protests amounting to 25 per cent or more of the voters prevented the sanitation district ordering the annexations without a vote.

Drugs Dealer Gets Probation

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court has placed a Fairfax man who pleaded guilty for the second time to drug sales on three year probation, noting he had already served 18 months in prison.

Oren Reginald Williams Jr., who had been described as a "big wheel trafficker in heavy drugs," had been granted a new trial by an appellate court which ruled that his earlier guilty plea had been coerced.

Before the second trial began this week, Williams admitted selling marijuana and amphetamine. Two additional counts of each offense were dismissed.

Vandals Hit Novato High School

Three 17-year-old youths were arrested last night shortly after Novato High School was entered and windows were smashed, fires set and a quantity of class pins stolen, police said.

Cited to juvenile authorities on suspicion of burglary and arson were Jeffry Wilson of 757 Diablo Avenue, Gary Radvany of 5 Shon Court and Richard Kenney of 15 Kristy Court, all Novato. They were released to their parents custody.

Officer Albert F. Anderson stopped the three at 2 a.m. after their car ran a red light at Highway 101 and Diablo Avenue. He said he found a large quantity of Novato High School class pins in the car.

A search of the school showed that 16 plate glass windows valued at more than $1,000 had been broken with beer bottles. The door to the associated student body room was broken and contents of files set afire inside cabinets and outside the administration building. Also set ablaze were papers on the bulletin board. All the fires went out, police said.

A spray can of black paint was used to paint obscenities on the school walls, police reported.

Golf Cart Stolen

The theft of a nelectric cart from the Indian Valley Golf Club was reported Sunday to the sheriff's department, officers said today.

Luggage Firm Billboards Doomed Along Highway 101

Two Corte Madera landmarks — the billboards of H. Koch and Sons, which dominate the Highway 101 approach to the town — were given their lumps last night by the Corte Madera Town Council, and their days appear numbered.

Stephen Dedina, attorney for the luggage manufacturing firm, argued to no avail that the billboards were needed, because smaller signs would cause drivers seeking the plant to slow down, thus endangering others on the freeway.

Equally unsuccessful was the argument that the town planning commission should not have made removal of the billboards a condition of approval of plans for a 72,000-square foot expansion of the plant.

Councilman Holmes B. Norville noted that billboards are illegal im Corte Madera, that these had been standing too long as it was, and that the power of the planning commission to impose conditions was often the most economical tool the town had to secure compliance.

Other councilmen agreed, but deferred action till their next meeting, July 7. They indicated they might then allow the billboards to remain a specified time after the council either adopts or rejects a revised sign ordinance currently being developed.

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

FIFER PUMP STATION — Acting as the Corte Madera Sanitary District board, accepted grant deeds and easements permitting the district to maintain and operate facilities serving Redwood High School and Fifer Industrial Park.

RETIREMENT FUND — Approved payment by the sanitary district of a lump sum of $18,867 into the city's retirement fund to bring four district employees into the city's fund, they having become city employees with the takeover of the district by the town.

SALARIES — Adopted a resolution setting sanitary district employees' pay as previously approved in budget sessions.

ZONING HEARING — Set for 7:30 p.m. July 7, a public hearing on an amendment to the zoning ordinance pertaining to conditional uses in residential districts.

BICYCLES — Referred recommendations of the town parks and recreation commission on bicycle paths to the town planning commission.

CELEBRATION — Accepted a report from the town police department that additional help might be needed in connection with Independence Day celebrations and agreed to spend up to $200 for such help.

TAMALPAIS DRIVE — Discussed briefly the esthetics of planting on the center strip of Tamalpais Drive, currently being improved, and indicated a preference for whatever would least interfere with views of Mount Tamalpais.

SOLICITORS ORDINANCE — Adopted an ordinance establishing permit procedures for transient vendors and setting forth circumstances under which door-to-door selling would be a nuisance.

BUSINESS FEES — Introduced an ordinance establishing a base $45 business license fee, plus $6 per employee in excess of five, and carrying a 5 per cent cost-of-living excalation clause.

CONSULTANT — Approved the Marin County Board of Supervisors selection of the firm of Stone and Youngsberg as financial consultants to the Corte Madera branch library.

PERSONNEL — Approved a three-year contract with Cooperative Personnel Services, a state agency, for conducting tests of town personnel and applicants for town jobs at a base cost of $35 per test.

SALARIES — Adopted an ordinance to permit a $30,000 blanket bond for town employees and $75,000 for town treasurer; to permit reimbursement of town officials and councilmen for meals taken within Marin while on official business; to pay time-and-a-half overtime to public works department employees.

MEETING — Appointed Councilman Byron D. White to represent the council at a meeting of the Marin County Housing Authority at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at San Rafael City Hall when the county's leased housing program will be discussed.

Red Expert To Teach Course

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (UPI) Herbert Aptheker, a leading Communist Party theoretician, will teach a course in Afro-American history at Bryn Mawr College in September.

Aptheker, as a visiting lecturer in the history department, will cover events from the 15th Century to the present, stressing the "intertwining of this history with the United States and world history."

The college catalogue said the course will concentrate on the "experiences, concepts, organizations and struggles of the black people in the United States."

SOUTHERN SONOMA

No fire calls.

Housing Plans To Be Aired

Proposed expansion of Marin low-rent and leased housing programs will be considered by the Marin County Housing Authority when it meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael City Council chamber.

The housing authority will consider resolutions authorizing an application for a 400-unit assistance program instead of the present 200, and to allow leasing 20 per cent instead of the present 10 per cent of units in apartment buildings or in a neighborhood.

The authority also will hear a report on the county fire department in Marin City.

San Francisco Opposes Bay Bills

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Board of Supervisors yesterday voted 10-1 to oppose two bills, one would grant the Bay Conservation and Development Commission extensive controls over shoreline property, and one that would allow the Association of Bay Area Governments to appoint directors of a strong regional government agency.

Because the proposal doesn't call for direct election of office holders by the public, Suprevisor James Mailliard said, "Its decisions could have disastrous effects on San Francisco."

Marin Women

Twenty Years Of Historical Digging Lead To Marin Book

By ANNE BARDWELL

A need for reference points and just plain curiosity led Tiburon's Louise Teather into a life of historical research.

The latest result of Mrs. Teather's quest for knowledge of past times is a new book, "Island of Six Names," the history of Belvedere Island from 1834 to 1890. Available through the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the book profits will go to the society.

THE BOOK, which Mrs. Teather insists on calling a booklet — not because of its content but rather because of its 48 pages and soft cover — particularly focuses on Israel Kashow, an early Belvedere settler who had the entire island at his disposal from 1855 until 1885 when John Reed's heirs finally reclaimed it.

The story told in "Island of Six Names" is based on two years of research, much of it original, by Mrs. Teather in such dusty places as old newspaper files at the San Francisco Library, the Bancroft Library at the University of California at Berkeley, and the Marin County Recorder's office.

"I've always had a difficult time remembering dates," Mrs. Teather says. "I suppose that is one of the things that whetted my interest in research . . to learn it for myself and be able to tell the story to others."

MRS. TEATHER believes everyone looks for reference points, thing that connect what they are doing or where they are living, for example, with past events. The retelling of history, particularly if the story recounts some little known fact or unusual anecdote, provides these reference points — and a great deal of satisfaction to Mrs. Teather.

A modest person, she is not used to the sometimes attendant glories of authorship, such as autograph parties, even though she has published many articles and booklets, in her 20 year career in journalism.

Born in Kentucky, Mrs. Teather worked for several years as women's page editor on a paper in Toledo, Ohio. After the paper folded, she came west and settled into public relations work in San Francisco where she met her husband, David H. Teather, a contractor who is also a Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commissioner. They have one son, Jeff, who attends Sonoma State College.

She also has edited a San Francisco wine magazine, written free lance articles for various newspapers and magazines and served as the Tiburon Peninsula correspondent for the Independent-Journal from 1952 to 1957.

IN 1949 she started her search into the little known history of Southern Marin, particularly the Tiburon Peninsula. In the course of her studies she has pieced together and published the history of the Tiburon Oceanographic Center, the Northwestern Pacif-c Railroad in Tiburon, Main Street, Old St. Hilary's Church and, of course, Belvedere.

In her home on Paradise Drive overlooking Angel Island, Belvedere, Tiburon, the bay and San Francisco, Mrs. Teather keeps files containing miscellaneous bits of information on any number of other subjects she thinks someday might be of interest.

She is generous with her research, always willing to share her knowledge with others searching for some obscure fact for a project or just for curiosity's sake.

Her story of Belvedere came out of such a collaboration. In 1966, Mrs. Teather and others, particularly Suzanna Dakin, concerned that the only history of the Tiburon Peninsula, "Shark Point, High Point," written by the 1954-58 students at Reed School, was out of print with its type destroyed, agreed to collaborate on a new history of the area.

EACH OF THE participants was to concentrate on one aspect of history and Mrs. Teather was assigned early settlers. The project was delayed when Mrs. Dakin was killed in an airplane crash in December, 1966, but Mrs. Teather continued with her research, became fascinated with Israel Kashow and ended up with her new "booklet."

She has no specific plans for future historical projects. Rather, "I'll just wait and see what I start being curious about next." And, whatever it is, those also interested in Marin's history know that it will eventually produce a fascinating story.

DIGGING THROUGH the dusty files of old newspapers, records and early day maps, Mrs. David H. Teather has written a history of Belvedere Island titled "Island of Six Names." Available through the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the book profits will go to the society.

French First Lady One Of Paris Chic

By RODNEY ANGOVE

PARIS (AP) — France's new first lady is a willowy blonde of aristocratic tastes who looks at least 10 years younger than her age, 57. And is regarded as one of the best-dressed women in Paris.

Claude Pompidou, the wife of newly elected President Georges Pompidou, is expected to bring a big change to the austere Elysee Palace.

The stiff, formal dinner parties given by President Charles de Gaulle and his wife Yvonne are likely to give way to a more relaxed atmosphere. Young artists and intellectuals are among Claude Pompidou's close friends and undoubtedly will become frequent guests.

THE CHANGE is expected to be similar to that in the White House in 1961, when Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower were replaced by John and Jacqueline Kennedy. Pompidou gave some indication of this when he told a recent interviewer: "We do not believe in too much protocol. We'll let other people worry about that."

Claude married Georges in 1935 while he was a schoolteacher in Marseille.

Always considered a strong-willed and ambitious woman, she is credited by friends as one of the driving forces behind her husband's rapid rise to prominence.

Claude was born in Chateau Contier, a small country town in western France. Her father, Dr. Pierre Cahour, was general practitioner there, an outwardly irascible man with a heart of gold who habitually refused all payment from his poorer patients.

DR. CAHOUR was an agnostic and free-thinker who raised Claude and her younger sister Jacqueline with an iron hand. Their mother died in the catastrophic influenza epidemic of 1919, when the girls were not yet in their teens.

Dr. Cahour sent them to Paris University, arguing that since he was too poor to provide them with a dowry they could at least study to earn their own living— a rare attitude in rural France before World War II.

One of Claude's fellow students was a brilliant young African from Senegal, then a French colony. The friend, Leopold Sedar Senghor became his country's first president when it achieved independence in 1958.

Claude and Senghor were constant companions for a while and their colleagues assumed they intended to marry. But Senghor had another friend, Georges Pompidou.

ONE SUNDAY he invited Pompidou for a country outing with the two sisters. Jacqueline was Georges' blind date, but it was with Claude that he fell in love.

Senghor has remained one of their closest friends. Sometimes they jokingly recall that Claude might have become first lady of Senegal in 1958.

It took Pompidou four years

Boning Up On Parliamentary Rules For Smoother Meetings Come Fall

By BETTY FROST

In Britain's Parliament in the 13th Century a member pleaded, "My lord, I move you to consider." Another member added, "I, too, move you to consider."

Thus, according to the legend, related by Price Hall of El Verano, Sonoma County, to his class on "Organization and Procedure in Public Meetings," began the tradition of the motion and the second to the motion used in orderly meetings.

FOURTEEN MEN and women are attending the sessions, given as a public service by Hall, in the conference room of the Tiburon Branch of the Franciscan Savings and Loan Co., of which Hall is manager.

They meet from 10 to 11 a.m. Monday mornings and represent a variety of organizations including the League of Women Voters, State Employees Association, the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society, the Baptist Theological Seminary, the Toastmistress Club, a professional women's group and the Sausalito Woman's Club.

At the last session, the third in the current series, officers for a non-existent organization, the "Beach Road Regulars," were elected. In the workshop those attending learned to nominate, second the nomination, establish voting rules and function in the various offices.

From a very tentative beginning, with the students shyly standing by, waiting for their neighbors to make the first move, the session wound up in lively participation, with interested questions to the instructor about procedures.

PURPOSES FOR the course, Hall said, are to explain the reasons for and use of rules of order, duties of officers and organizational procedures.

"I also think it would be helpful to untangle the web of confusion enmeshing the many ramifications and translations of Robert's Rules of Order which leave many excellent ideas unexpressed at public and organization meetings," he said.

The instructor brings to his class past experience as Toastmaster president, Optimist

MRS. BARNEY NORWITT

Mrs. Barney Norwitt Tops Easter Seal Unit

The Marin Easter Seal Auxiliary will begin its fourth year of operation with Mrs. Barney Norwitt of Tiburon as president. A charter member, she has contributed much to the success of the comparatively new organization, having served as vice president, treasurer and fund-raising chairman.

A Marin resident for 13 years, Mrs. Norwitt is also second vice president of the Mannequin League of Marin. Tennis, painting, collecting antiques and gourmet cooking are among the many interests of Barbara Norwitt.

Her husband is active in land development in Marin and in the automotive business in San Francisco. One son, 16-year-old Bruce, attends Redwood High School.

Barbara is already making plans for the year's fund-raising events. There will be a beauty booth at the Fairfax Fair on Sept. 20 and 21, and a "Day at the Races" in March.

The Marin Easter Seal Auxiliary, with 24 members, has in three years contributed almost $2,000 to the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Marin. The money has been used for speech therapy scholarships, camperships and the purchase of equipment for the speech and language department of the Easter Seal Society.

Other officers elected are Mmes. Ronald Fein, vice president; Stephen Spelman, secretary; Martin Vermuellen, treasurer; Esther Wagner, corresponding secretary, and Emmett Stevenson, historian.

Weight Control Classes Planned In North Marin

A summer weight control class has been scheduled by the Marin County Heart Association for homemakers of Northern Marin.

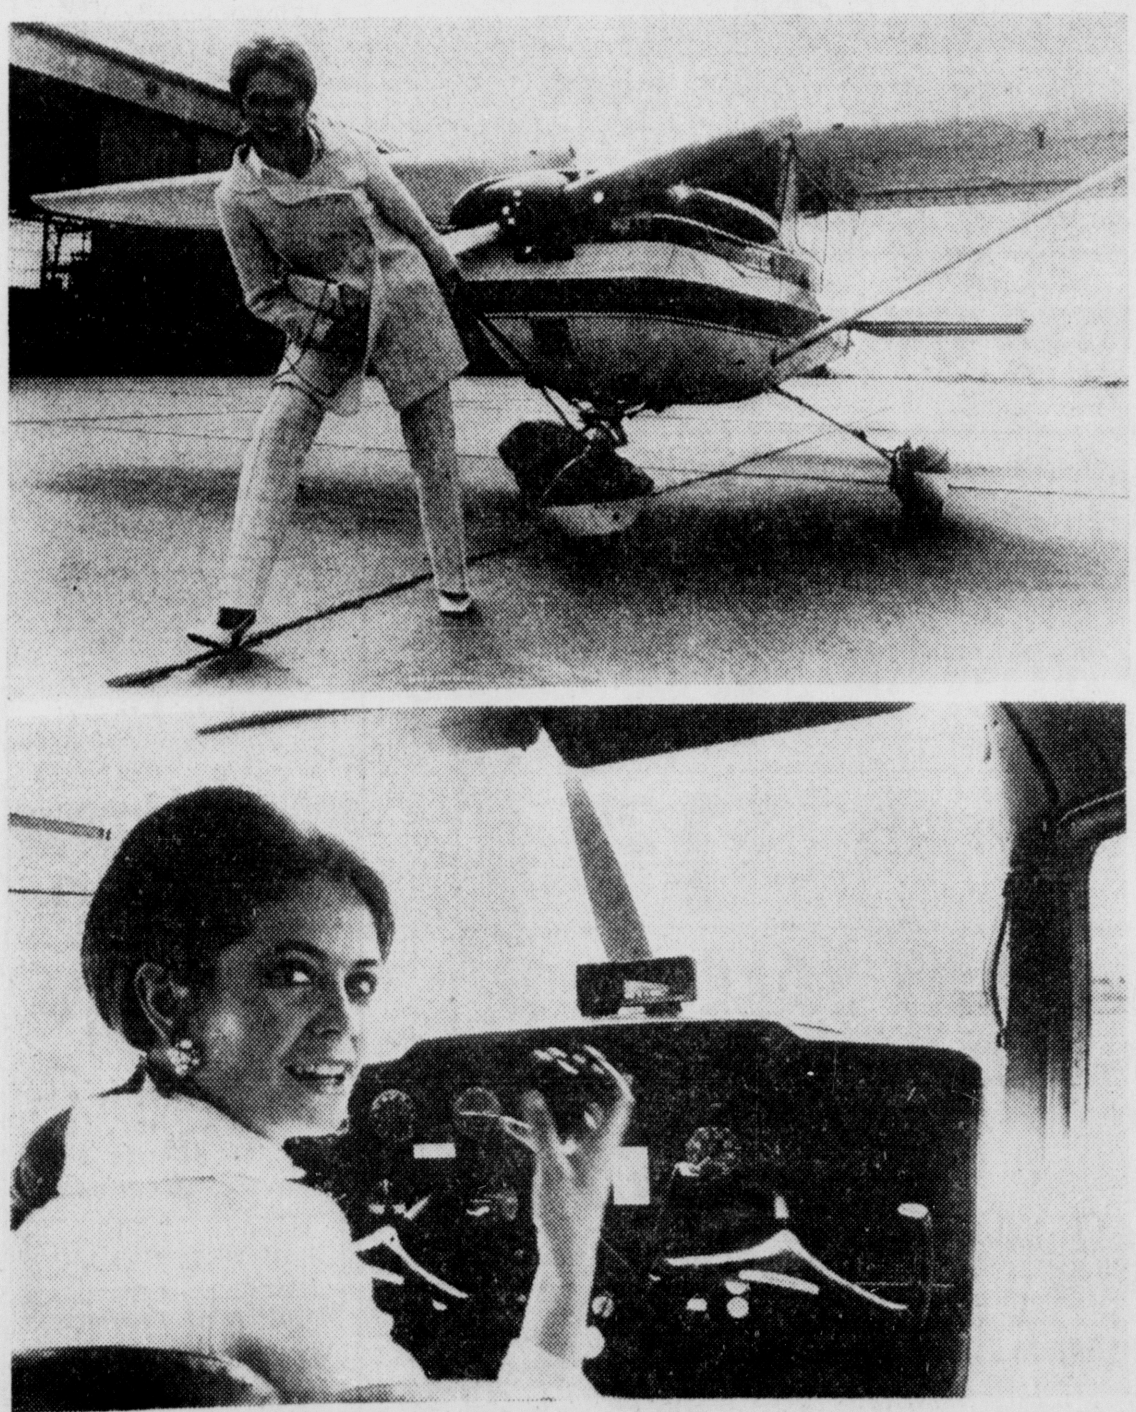
The Grace Lutheran Church in Novato will be setting for the weight classes during the eight-week course, starting June 26 and continuing on Thursday mornings from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Instruction will focus on food preparation around the whole meal pattern, and learning to adapt recipes for appealing meals while holding to low calorie count.

The 1200-calorie base used in the weight control series instructed by Mrs. Pamela Gilroy, dietitian, requires written physician approval.

Classes are open to both men and women. Class members will weigh in and chart progress throughout the eight-week course. Anticipated weight loss is 1½ pounds per week.

Advance registrations can be made with the Marin County Heart Association in San Rafael, or upon class opening.



NORWEGIAN FILM starlet Wencke Myhre is learning to fly an airplane so it will be easier for her to keep her worldwide appointments. She is training at Hamburg airport and is among a large group of women working for pilot licenses in West Germany. The female pilots are criticizing domination of flying by men and demand that women be allowed to participate in the 1970 European championships.

Equality Is Sought In Skies

HAMBURG, Germany (GF) — West Germany's organized lady pilots are demanding equality in the skies. At the first annual meeting of their German Association for Women Pilots 35 of the country's 280 females with pilot licenses sternly criticized domination of flying by men.

The women recalled their sex is allowed to participate in only one major competitive rally in all Europe — an annual event held in Hanover which receives second-rate attention.

Headed by two German lady pilot world record holders Hanna Reitsch, 57, and Elly Beinhorn, 61, the group demanded women be allowed to take part in the 1970 European championships.

Meanwhile, the ranks of women working for their pilot licenses in the country is increasing—and even foreign girls are among them. One of the latest is Norwegian film starlet Wencke Myhre, who'd like to learn to fly in order to facilitate keeping her worldwide appointments.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Why Should Girls Continue To Write Unanswered Letters?

DEAR HELEN:

I read about all the "Dear John" letters fellows in Veitnam are getting. But how about the Janes who write faithfully and never receive an answer?

I had a crush on this guy four years ago but never got to know him because he was married. Then we met accidentally, and I heard he was divorced. We dated until he went overseas. He asked me to write.

I've sent him about 25 letters, cookies, candy, cakes, a ring, puzzles and a color picture of me, which he asked for in one of the three letters he wrote to me. He hardly ever writes to his family — maybe once every four months — so I guess I am selfish to complain, but don't you think he should at least thank me for the gifts or let me know he got them? I haven't heard from him now in over eight months. His last letter said if I really care for him as I say, maybe we could work something out.

Now I hear that he has extended his stay in Vietnam for six more months. He's 24, I'm 22 and very much in love. Should I keep hoping — and writing?—T.Y.

DEAR T:

No. This man is either inconsiderate or disinterested, and either way, he's a poor risk. I'll bet his ex-wife agrees with me.

Why not, instead, write to someone who will appreciate you? See below. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Our company over here in 'Nam receives very little mail. It would sure boost our morale if some of your readers would write to us. We'd like to know we aren't forgotten. Some of us don't have too many people at home, and I guess you know how bad mail call can be, when you aren't called.

Would you please ask people to write:

TO THE TIGERS,
Company C, 3d Battalion
21st Infantry
196th Infantry Brigade
American Division
APO San Francisco, Calif., 96256

Letters will be distributed to all the men in our company, and we promise to answer them. Thank you. — R. W. S.

DEAR READERS:

Okay girls, start writing. The Tigers need your support. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I used to have a great boy friend. He was honest, kind, generous and just plain good. But my Mom didn't like him.

Anyway, he came over one day, and Mom told him I was pregnant. He never spoke to me again. How can I prove my innocence when my own mother lies about me? You might say "Time will," but not these days. She mentioned abortion too. — LIED ABOUT

DEAR L. A.:

I can't believe any mother would be so low. Before I make a judgment I'd like to hear her side of the story. Surely there's something you've left out. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I was amused by the girl who made a Voodoo doll in the image of her girl friend, stuck pins in it and broke out in measles. What she did was nonsense, but when properly employed, by a skilled practitioner, the power of Voodoo is not to be scoffed at. A victim of Voodoo wanga gets acute psychological grilling, intensified by his belief in magic and the many death warnings he receives — usually dead birds or animals. The pressure mounts until he actually wills himself to die. This girl should leaf through William Seabrook's "Magic Island" (about Haiti) and she will find that it takes much more than she thinks to practice the art of Great Spirit. — A MEMBER OF THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE OF AMERICA.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

McCall-Goecker Vows Said In Marin Church

Ens. and Mrs. Stephen McCall Lind (Terry Ann Goecker) are on a wedding trip driving through Canada and the eastern United States to their first home in Pensacola, Fla. The couple were wed Saturday at Holy Innocents Episcopal Church in Corte Madera.

Laura Louis Goecker was her sister's maid of honor. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Clark Goecker of Berkeley; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John Lanham of Kirkland, Wash,; and Karen Cichy of Larkspur were bridesmaids.

Thomas Leach of Olympia, Wash., was best man, and Donald Sampson of Salem, Ore., Lt. John Lanham and Clark Goecker ushered guests to their seats.

A reception at the Elks Club in San Rafael followed the ceremony.

Terry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Goecker of Greenbrae. She was graduated from Redwood High School and College of Marin. Her grandparents are Mrs. Gustav Barth of Walnut Creek, Louis A. Pacheco of San Anselmo and Jess A. Prince of Burlingame.

The bridegroom's parents are Capt. and Mrs. Irving L. Lind of Olympia, Wash. He is a graduate of San Rafael Military Academy and the U. S. Naval Academy and has been assigned to flight training in Pensacola.

Judith Cox Bride Of William Kelley

At home in San Francisco following their June 7 marriage and a wedding trip to the Grand Tetons in Wyoming are Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kelley Jr. (Judith Ann Cox). The wedding was performed at St. Paulus Lutheran Church in San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Cox of Novato, and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. William T. Kelley of San Rafael.

Pat Brugman of San Francisco was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sisters, Sue Kelley of Berkeley and Pat Kelley of San Jose, and Suzanne Montali of San Francisco were bridesmaids.

Peter Wall of Manhattan Beach was best man, and Tom Wule of San Francisco, Bill Jensen of San Ramon and Jack Rainey of San Rafael ushered.

A reception at the Officers Club at Ft. Mason in San Francisco followed the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from high school in South Plainfield, N. J., and Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N. J. She is employed by McKinsey and Company Inc. in San Francisco. E. Randolph Cox of Novato is her brother.

A graduate of Ventura High School and San Jose State College, the bridegroom is employed by Dean Witter and Company in San Francisco. Steve Kelley of San Rafael is his brother and Sue, Pat and Debbie Kelley are his sisters.

League Elects New President

Travel, cooking, bridge, swimming and tennis are what the new president of the Family Service League enjoys most. She is Mrs. Robert Verner Dermott of San Rafael, a five-year member of the league, which is an auxiliary to the Family Service Agency.

Nancy Dermott has served as the league's membership, hospitality and Christmas card chairman and has also been chairman of the Marin A.M. Series, a morning program of speakers. The series will begin its second year in the fall. Speakers next year will include Winston S. Churchill, Betty Furness and Philip Burton. Memberships in the 1969-70 A.M. Series for the six programs are now being sold, she says.

The league also operates a thirft shop in Mill Valley.

The new president is active in the Parent-Teacher Association, Women's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society and the Children's Hospital Auxiliary. She and her husband, a physician, have lived in Marin 10 years. They have a daughter, Corrine Ann, 9, and a son, Jeffrey Michael, 6 years old.

Nancy Dermott also enjoys sewing and gardening — and golf, when she gets the chance.

MRS. ROBERT DERMOTT

Gilardi-French Nuptials Planned At Mission San Luis Rey Aug. 30

Mrs. Richard Lockhart French of Fallbrook has announced the engagement of her daughter Cindy to Dennis Andrew Gilardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Noah Gilardi of Larkspur.

Cindy is the daughter of the late Richard L. French and sister of Mrs. Robert Burton and Shelly and Richard French Jr., all of Fallbrook, and Mrs. Thomas Cole of Piedmont. Mrs. Shelton French of San Francisco is her grandmother.

Dennis is the brother of Richard Gilardi of San Rafael, Stephen Gilardi Jr., with the Army in Germany, and Joan Gilardi of Larkspur.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Redwood High School. She attended Palomar College in San Marcos and Bay Cities College in San Francisco. Marin Catholic High School, College of Marin and St. Mary's College are the future bridegroom's schools. He will enter Santa Clara University School of Business in the fall to study for a master's degree.

The couple plan an Aug. 30 wedding at Mission San Luis Rey.

ON THE AGENDA

Bethel 48 Job's Daughters Will install Lynn Prosser Saturday

Lynn V. Prosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Prosser of Terra Linda, will be installed honored queen of Bethel 48, International Order of Jobs Daughters, on Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple in San Rafael.

Installing the honored queen will be Susan Owens, assisted by Jonna Peden, Ellen Ostern, Elizabeth Denison, Virginia Tabor, Verna Easom, Diana Bertch and Mrs. Barbara Kriletcih.

LYNN PROSSER

Other selected officers to be installed are Nanette Hedrick, senior princess; Susan Holman, junior princess; Patricia Eklund, guide; and Pamela Holman, marshal.

Appointive officers are Kathy Heaney; Debbie Linde, treasurer; Becky Mishler, recorder; Shirley Peck, musician; Priscilla Bertch, librarian; Helen Castle, senior custodian; Carol Newman, junior custodian; Janice Eikington, inner guard; Katy Wiechert, outer guard; and Beth Thompson, Debbie Burns, Kathy Burke, Cindy Morrill and Claudia Woodland, messengers.

Members of the bethel choir are Krissy Adamson, Lynn Burton, Cheryl Cazneaux, Kathy Connell, Toni Collins, Anne Cooper, Debbie Daunt, Pat Dodge, Quannah Dodge, Melanie Fickbohm, Colleen Heaney, Diane Inman, Tia Kant, Sandra Koenig, Jayne Leedy, Karen Riley, Sharon Vinvilione, Cynthia Weichert und Darlene Weitbrecht.

Mrs. Thelma Tabor is guardian of Bethel 48 and Henry Aubel is associate guardian.

A reception and dance will follow the installation.

RETIRING DEPUTY Mrs. Jack Benz, member of St. Anselm's Young Ladies Institute, will be honored Thursday evening, at a party following the 8:15 p.m. meeting of Rosarium Institute 175, Young Ladies' Institute, in St. Patrick's Center, Larkspur.

Mrs. Edward Albertoni, chairman of the evening, and her committee, Mrs. Ralph Astengo and Mrs. David Miller Jr., will welcome all institute members.

THE SAUSALITO Yacht Club Women's Auxiliary will sponsor a San Francisco Ice House tour tomorrow as a benefit for the club's junior sailing program.

The Ice House, located on the corner of Union and Sansome streets, is a renovated old San Francisco building on the city's historic waterfront. It has been called the most beautiful showcase of decorative furnishings in the world.

Chairman for the tour, which will be limited to 100 people, is Mrs. Joseph Fontana.

Those wishing to join a car pool will meet at the Sausalito Yacht Clubhouse at 9:30 a.m. and the tour of the Ice House will start at 10 a.m. Cocktails and canapes will be served.

Auxiliary president Mrs. S. C. Stapp, 49 Cloudview Road, Sausalito, is reservations chairman.

THE MONTHLY luncheon meeting of the Marin County Association of Delta Gamma Alumnae will be held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Harry T. Magill, 450 Ridge Road in Novato. Swimming will begin at 11 a.m. and at noon there will be a talk by Dick Ford, dance instructor.

Mr. Ford recently completed a pilot dance program for visually handicapped teenagers. Delta Gamma Alumnae funds were used to finance the pilot program and the discussion will include an analysis of the project.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Magill.

MRS. WALTER LONG, retiring president of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley, will entertain her board of directors at a noon luncheon at her home in Greenbrae on Thursday.

Mrs. Long was honored by her board of directors at a luncheon on June 5 given at the Mill Valley home of her vice president, Mrs. George Gustafson.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S Club of Marin will meet Friday at 11:45 a.m. at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera. Mrs. Margaret Williams will demonstrate the choice and use of fragrances.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Paul S. Allen, wife of a retired college president. Special music will be by Carol Tomlinson, a junior high school student and violinist with the honor orchestra.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Werner Erhard in Corte Madera or Mrs. Donald Wernstrum in Novato.

THREE MARINITES are on the committee for the La Fiesta Queso y Vino to be held by the San Francisco Bay Area Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta sorority Saturday.

Mmes. E. Gordon Foster of Tiburon, Robert O'Neill of Sausalito and James D. Fritz of Novato are working on the wine and cheese tasting party, set for 4 to 6 p.m., and followed by a Mexican dinner.

The event will be held at the Woodside estate of the Robert Ericksons. A mariachi group will entertain after the dinner.

Others attending will be Miss Andree Mola of Corte Madera and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Souza of Tiburon.

Graduates Of Tomales Are Married

Church of the Assumption in Tomales was the setting June 7 for the marriage of Cheryl A. Crawford and William A. Crayne.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Crawford of Lagunitas, and the bridegroom is the son of the Donald Craynes of Tomales.

Denise Williams of Petaluma was maid of honor, and the bridegroom's brother, Richard Crayne of Tomales, was best man.

A reception in Occidental followed the ceremony.

Cheryl and William are both graduates of Tomales High School. She attended College of Marin, and he was enrolled at Santa Rosa Junior College before joining the Navy.

Darryl L. and Carryl A. Crawford are the bride's brother and sister.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the couple will live in Davisville, R.I., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Navy Sea Bees.

Parliamentary Classes

Club lieutenant governor for a four-county district, county and state committeeman of major political parties and extensive convention participation.

The group will consider parliamentary protocol for meetings ranging in size from small board meetings to national conventions.

"AFTER MORE than 30 years of experience in political meetings, I have noted the importance of procedures and the interchange of respect where meetings are conducted by the rule," Hall said. "The lack of discipline in the 'hey, how about' approach also means less interest than when a motion is made by a member which immediately involves everyone attending."

With the number of women's organizations holding regular meetings in Marin County, it is not surprising that in this first course in parliamentary procedure ever given in Tiburon there are 11 women attending with three men enrolled.

A second course in September will be considered, Hall indicated, if the response warrants it. There is no fee for the series.

A $4.7 Million Budget Proposed For Marin Muni Water District

A 1969-70 budget of $4.7 million, with capital expenditures cut back drastically, was proposed for the Marin Municipal Water District yesterday by William R. Seeger, district general manager.

At the same time, he told the district board it would take $10 to $15 million to rehabilitate the district's present system and $30 million to bring in future water supplies to Marin from the Russian River area.

Details of the budget will not be presented until the board's next meeting June 25, Seeger said, but he did reveal that a major project to bring in added water from San Geronimo to the Fairfax-San Anselmo area will be put off for at least a year.

No rate increase will be asked, Seeger said, but he warned that a future rate increase along with a major bond issue probably will be needed in the near future to meet water needs of Marin.

The district's expenditure budget for the current year is $4.5 million.

Seeger said he anticipates a 4 per cent increase in revenues in the fiscal year beginning July 1, but he also expects a boost of 7 per cent in operating expenses.

The major casualty of the resulting belt-tightening will be a major new water line from White's Hill to the Hub to supply added water from Kent Lake and Nicasio Reservoir.

The $1 million project originally was slated to begin in fiscal 1970, which starts next month, with half of the project being done then and half the following year. Seeger indicated the project now may be done all in one year, but the starting date will depend on the future money situation.

He advised the board that the district should revert to short-term loans instead of new bond issues to finance necessary improvements in facilities, partly because of the public's apparent reluctance to approve any bond issues and partly because of the tightening money market.

Seeger also told the board he is preparing a major report — due in several months — on the district's future needs. The installation of the White's Hill-Hub line should give the district a respite of at least two years before the district has to begin purchasing water from the North Marin County Water District, a tie-in that would cost an estimated $1.5 million.

A bond issue to finance piping water in from the Russian River is at least three years away, and possibly longer, he said. He estimated that the first phase of importing water from the north would cost $6 million.

Marin Municipal Water District Board Also:

SIERRA CLUB — Denied, over the objection of director William C. Herup, a request by the Sierra Club to hold moonlight hikes on district land on Mount Tamalpais June 21 and 26. Seeger recommended rejection chiefly because of increased fire hazards.

PAYMENT — Approved semi-final progress payment and accepted a completion notice on three rehabilitation programs in San Anselmo and Fairfax to Maggiora and Ghilotti, Inc. of Corte Madera.

TV — Granted a request by the San Francisco Archdiocese for space in the district's radio shack on Mount Tamalpais and installation of a whip antenna on the district's television broadcasts to Catholic schools in San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

PIPELINE — Approved the $11,979 pipeline extension agreement with the Pell Development Co. for the Pell Apartments in Larkspur and agreed to pay the $3,500 cost of increasing the size of the pipeline from eight to 12 inches.

LEASE — Renewed a greens cutting lease with Western Evergreen Co. for a fee of $1,000 for operations in the Kent Lake area.

BIDS — Accepted bids fo $9,159 from the Thatcher Body Co. for a crane and two-yard dump body and $350 plus $80 installation from McPhail's Inc. for a furnace in the district's Lagunitas keeper's house.

VARIANCE — Denied a request for a time extension on a water project at Forest Way, near Marin Avenue, in Tamalpais Valley by Bette W. Roberts.

Two Men Hurt On Bridgeway

Two men received minor injuries yesterday in a collision on Bridgeway near Pine street, Sausalito police said.

Richard D. Blacow, 39, of 1219 Bridgeway, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a scalp cut. Fragdi Zeitoun, 29, of 115 Elinor Avenue, Mill Valley, was treated for a cut chin.

Police said the accident occurred at 12:05 a.m. when Blacow, operator of Rico's Restaurant, pulled onto Bridgeway from Rico's driveway into the path of Zeitoun's car.

Discussion Set On Examinations For County Jobs

Should examinations for county employment be tailored so that minorities and other disadvantaged applicants will have a better chance of qualifying?

This is one of the questions that will be discussed by the Marin County Personnel Commission at its meeting Thursday at 3 p.m. in Room 426 at the Civic Center.

The commission, headed by Bella Aaron, will also discuss the county's grievance procedure and how it applies to employee organizations that enter into collective bargaining agreements with the county.

The commission's updated rules and regulations will come up for official adoption.

Personnel Director Maren Rinne will report on the present status of the collective bargaining negotiations with the Social Workers and Probation Workers Union, Local 535, AFL-CIO. Of the five employee groups, the social workers and the probation workers are the only ones who have not yet signed a contract for 1969-70 fiscal year.

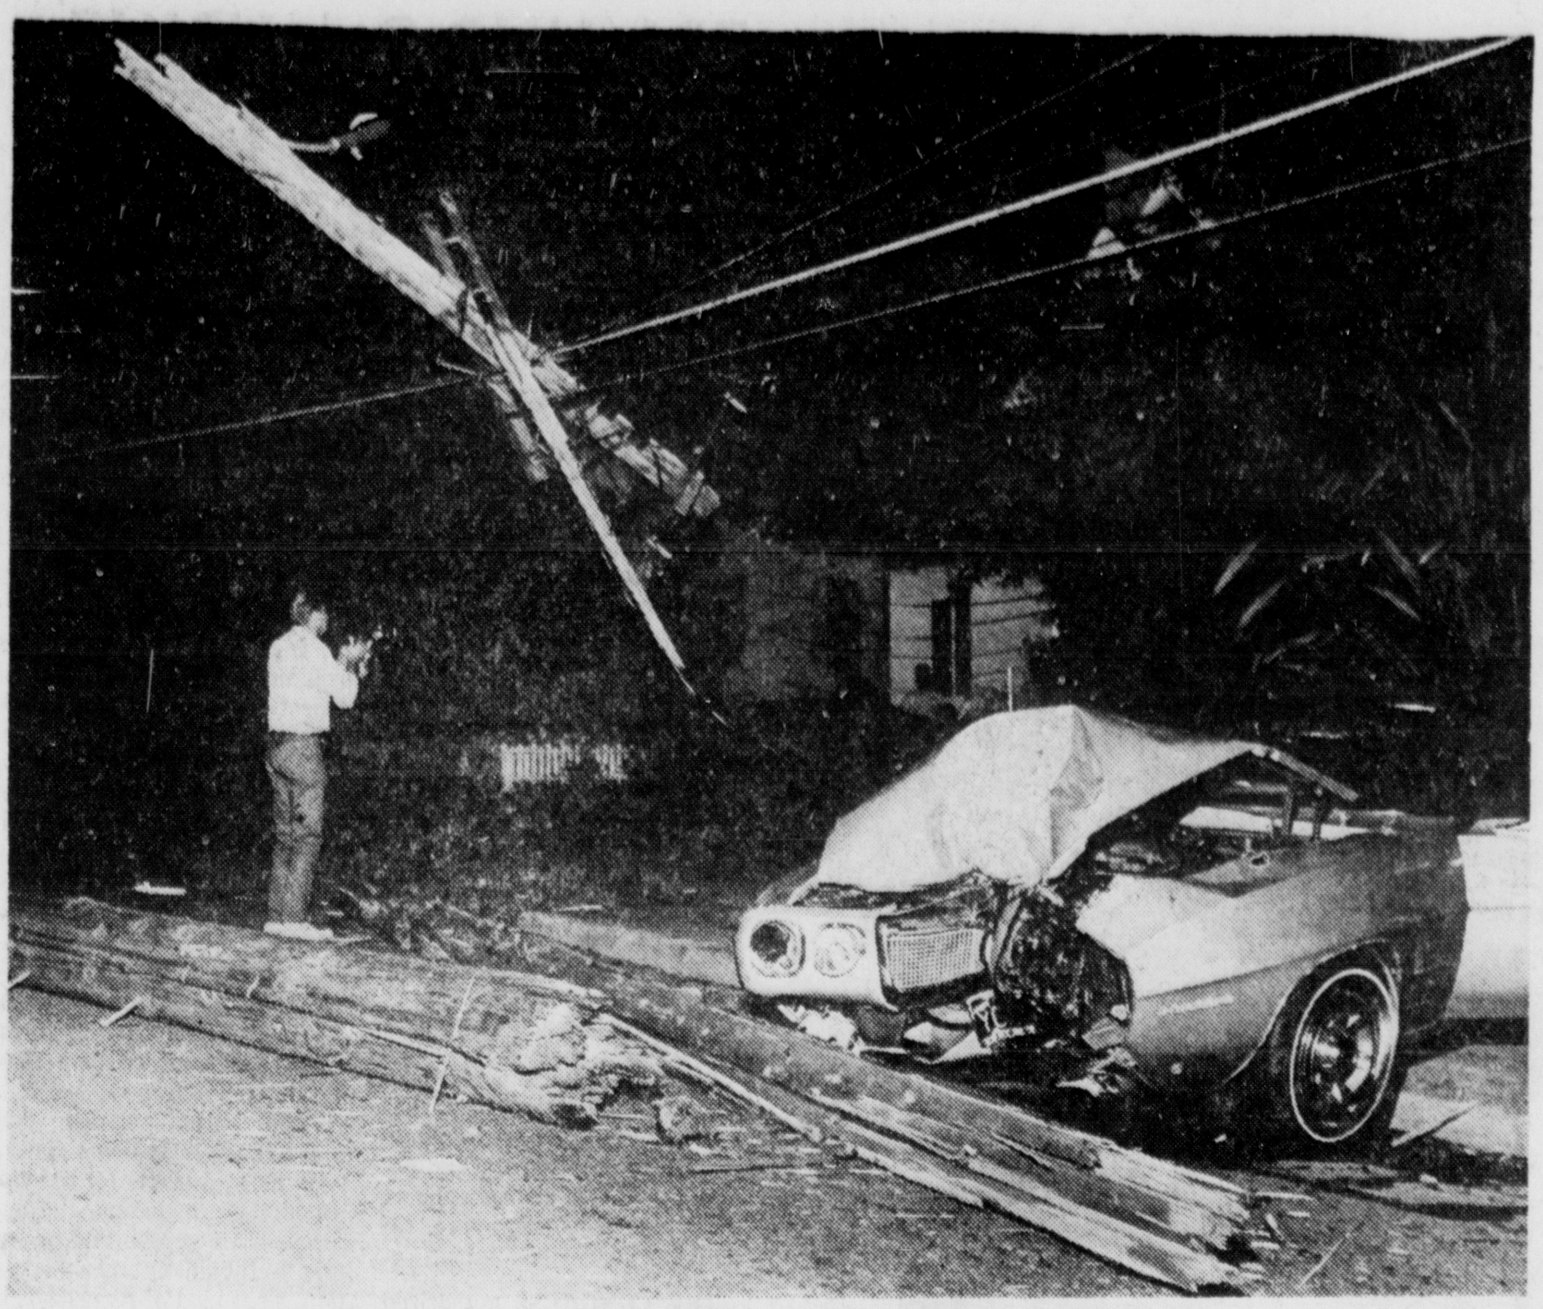
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY
THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1969



TWO INJURED, POLE SNAPPED

Two persons were injured about 10:30 p.m. yesterday when their 1969 Pontiac ran into a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. pole on Fifth Avenue just west of Scenic Avenue in San Rafael. The driver, Henry K. W. Fincher, 19, of 722 Drake Avenue, Marin City and a student at the College of Marin, was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts. Donna Marie Tarabella, 20, of 201 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, suffered a concussion and a broken back and is listed in fair condition today at Marin General. San Rafael police had no details of the accident. A PG&E worker in the background inspects the damaged pole and hot electrical lines on the ground. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Kentfield Sets Vote On Tax Hike

An election to increase the tax rate in the Kentfield School District will be held Oct. 7, the district board decreed last night.

The amount of the increase will be set at a meeting at 8 p.m. July 7 in Wolfe Grade School, said Dist. Supt. Anthony G. Bacich. The district tax rate, including overrides, is now $3.34 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Bacich said the extra funds will be needed to maintain the present school program for the 1970-71 year. Trustees have adopted a preliminary 1969-70 budget of $1,331,171, which sharply reduces maintenance costs and eliminates nearly all capital outlay items.

CONTRACT

In other business last night, trustees approved raises for six district administrators, including Bacich, who was given a new four-year contract at $20,700 a year. Bacich's present four-year contract, which has a year to run, calls for an annual wage of $20,000.

Other pay raises approved were: Roy L. Smith, principal at Greenbrae School, $16,600 from $16,000; Gene L. Hendsch, Wolfe Grade School principal, same; Dr. Robert E. Shore, principal of the seventh and eighth grades at Adeline E. Kent School, $16,000 from $15,800; Warren English, principal of kindergarten through sixth grade at Kent School, $14,800 from $13,500, and Jack D. Williams, district guidance counselor, $17,000 from $16,400.

The Kentfield School District board also:

NONGRADED — Approved extension of the nongraded program to Greenbrae and Wolfe Grade schools with provision for periodic review.

MUSEUM — Renewed an agreement with the Louise M. Boyd Marin Museum of Science for use of its materials and facilities.

TEACHER— Hired Gloria Fan Wong as a teacher at $7,865 a year.

A TRUSTEE'S VIEWS

College Unrest Not Red-Linked

What colleges are experiencing today is not a worldwide conspiracy inspired and financed by the Communists.

Rather, "it is a movement made difficult by a most articulate minority which lashes out in its fury and frustrations and seeks to destroy the very establishments of society that make possible their right to protest and dissent."

Elizabeth M. Deedy, Marin Junior College District trustee, asserted these views at a breakfast talk today to an audience of about 100 before the Marin County Real Estate Board.

She continued, saying, "they (the minority students) strike out in anger on conditions that should be changed. They rebel at the academic requirements for which they cannot see immediate need."

She said that in many cases these young people do not know where they want to go nor what they want to achieve in life.

Campuses face problems in developing and using procedures to avoid disruption while allowing rightful, legal dissent, Mrs. Deedy commented.

Deedy told the brokers: "We hear from the extreme right. We hear from the extreme left. Now we need to hear from the majority."

She said the district needs financial help for construction of its second campus at Novato and facilities on the Kentfield campus; for district operation and for financial aid to students.

She asked the brokers for greater support on an annual basis to help students saying, "Education is still the most effective and lasting way to build America better."

Speaking on the topic, "To Hell With Glocca Morra — How Are Things At College of Marin?" Mrs. Deedy ended her address saying, "I hope you will never say 'To hell with the College of Marin'."

Teachers Threatening Sanctions Over Pay

Novato teachers and Novato Unified School District Board today are deadlocked over salary and fringe benefits for the coming year with the teachers threatening sanctions against the district, according to Supt. James G. Bunker.

In a closed meeting last night, the board rejected the latest proposal of the teachers, who in turn, through their negotiating council, today rejected the counter-proposal made to them after the closed meeting, Bunker said.

The Novato Teachers Association, an affiliate of the California Teachers Association, is considering an imposition of sanctions against the district, said Donald White, NTA president.

The school board had offered an across-the-board salary schedule increase of 4 per cent for certificated personnel and $15 per month fringe benefits. The fringe benefits average 1.5 per cent, Bunker said. The schedule increase would be in addition to the automatic annual step increases built into the schedule.

The NTA accepted this proposal but in its acceptance, said that any further income to the district over the preliminary budget estimate should be divided 70 per cent for certificated salaries and 30 per cent to restore items cut from the budget to provide the 4 per cent hike.

This was rejected by the board.

The counter-proposal of the board last night was that it would add another 1 per cent to the 4 per cent, if additional money came to the district after it has restored $135,000 in cuts to the budget.

The NTA said that their last request was in direct line with an agreement made last fall in which teachers' salaries would have first priority in the budget this year, according to White.

The board last night granted the nonteaching personnel a 5 per cent across-the-board pay increase and $10 fringe benefits.

Speaking on the teacher requests, Bunker said that this was the board's final offer, so there will not be any further negotiations.

Arson Check In $22,000 House Fire

Fire last night destroyed the $22,000 newly built but unoccupied home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Angress on Shoreline Highway, two miles north of Marshall in West Marin.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said this morning that there is a storng possibility of arson since the vacant building does not have electricity or gas yet.

The blaze was first spotted about 11:15 p.m. by a neighbor's child and almost simultaneously by Angress from his ranch home on Shoreline Highway. Mrs. Angress said she and her husband had been working at the new house until about 9 p.m.

The exterior of the wood-frame house had been completed with only interior work remaining. The contractor for the two-level home which had been under construction for about three weeks was Ed Vaccha of Point Reyes. The new house was more than half destroyed when firemen arrived. Two trucks and two men responded from the Tamalpais station and the same from the Point Reyes station. There are no nearby homes. Firemen tried to control the spread of fire to grassy areas.

Mrs. Angress said that she and her husband discovered a pack of cigarettes this morning near the site. Neither she nor Angress smokes.

Sirhan's Mother Visits Again

Mary Sirhan, mother of convicted assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan, today completed her third visit in as many days with her son at San Quentin.

The tiny, white-haired woman said Sirhan was "not happier" at San Quentin but that he "had more freedom and got along better with officials" than at Los Angeles County Jail where he was held for a year.

Mrs. Sirhan was expected to return today to Los Angeles.

Prisoners are allowed four visits per month from relatives. With Mrs. Sirhan was her son Munir, 21.

Fairfax Asks 'How' On Teen Interest

By SUZANNE WOOD

The people of Fairfax apparently want greater youth participation in city government, but the problem may be getting the young people interested in the idea.

About 25 adults and one conspicuously lonely young person turned out for a meeting last night at the Fairfax Women's Club to discuss establishing a youth commission for the city.

The meeting, unlike the lively and much larger gathering there last week, was calm and all present seemed to agree that youth participation in city government—not just recreational planning — may be a needed and desirable thing.

Ideas in the 90-minute meeting ranged from establishing a youth commission to the suggestion of a teen-age voice on the city council. But all the discussion ultimately revolved back to the same point: Do the youth want more participation and how?

But only 15-year-old Steve Jensen, of San Anselmo and coordinator of the rather small and loosely structured Fairfax Teen Club, was present to answer, and he was put on the spot several times in trying to speak for all the youth.

Jensen, who is promoter of the teen dances held in the Fairfax Pavilion, has had his share of city problems since Memorial Day when trouble, stemming from overcrowded conditions, broke out and caused the dance to be shut down.

Various ways of creating youth participation were suggested.

"Why don't we involve them in city government by putting one on the council?" asked W. M. Cummings of 165 Frustruck Avenue, adding that there was little that occurred which wouldn't "profit by the view of a young person."

"They been listening to me all their lives and now I'd like to listen to more of their views," Cummings continued. He noted the young person would not be expected to carry a vote on the council because of the legality involved with age.

Cummings' suggestion brought no real opposition, but some like audience member Priscilla Grey seemed to think the routine business of city council "would bore the kids."

Jensen said he had received a better perspective of the operation of city government by his attendance lately of several meetings, but he later quipped he'd rather be on the parks and recreation commission than the city council.

"The purpose (of a young person on the council) is not just to learn about city government but to provide for them a position from which they can be more effectively heard," Cummings told the group.

Then the group moved on to what would create youth interest in the idea and what was relevant to them. Jensen said that a present recreational activities are their primary concern.

Joseph Kriegel of 351 Olema Drive suggested that a representative on the school board might hold more interest for students than the city council.

Mayor Francis J. O'Connell said the timing was bad since school had closed but he suggested a town meeting which would be well publicized to young people who could express their feelings about greater youth participation. No definite meeting was set.

Meanwhile, however, the park and recreation commission will discuss the topic at its next meeting July 1.

Teens Face Charges On Drug Passing

Two young men, who attempted to smuggle narcotics into Marin County Jail during the weekend, face new charges and will be arraigned today in Municipal Court on various drug counts.

David Brian Dennison, 19, of San Rafael, who is serving a sentence for burglary, tried to bring hashish tablets into jail after returning from a doctor's appointment Saturday, jailors said.

During a routine skin search the tables wrapped in cellophane were discovered in a body cavity, according to deputies.

Dennison will be charged with two felony counts of possession of drugs and smuggling them into jail.

On Sunday, Kevin Wiley Good, 18, of Mill Valley, who is spending weekends in jail for a traffic offense, reported to the jail carrying a package of cigarettes in which a marijuana cigarette wa shidden among the regular ones, deputies said.

Good will be charged with possession of marijuana and attempted smuggling, according to the district attorney's office.

Clothes, Bike Are Stolen

San Rafael police today reported a theft in the parking lot of the Bermuda Palms, 737 Francisco Boulevard Saturday night.

Police say clothes at an undetermined value were stolen from the car of Douglas E. Mounton of Alberta, Canada after the window was pried open with the radio aerial.

Police also reported the theft of a 20-inch bike belonging to Kevin J. Holtziner of 14 Anchorage Court, San Rafael. The bike, valued at $45, was reported stolen Saturday from outside Longs Drug Store at Northgate Shopping Center.

Practical Nurse's Trial Opens

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Trial opened today in Sonoma County Superior Court of Vera Mae Walsh, former Fairfax practical nurse, charged with involuntary manslaughter and forgery.

The trial was transferred yesterday to the court of Judge Joseph P. Murphy Jr. after Mrs. Walsh, through attorney Albert Rizzo, disqualified Judge Lincoln F. Mahan.

Mrs. Walsh, 42, is accused of killing her patient, Mrs. Gloria Giannis, who died Jan 5. from an overdose of drugs at the women's Santa Rosa apartment.

She is also accused of forging Mrs. Giannis's name after her death to two checks totaling $135.

John W. Hawkes, Sonoma County assistant district attorney, said he expects the trial to last two weeks.

Mrs. Walsh is to be sentenced June 30 in Marin Superior Court for the theft of valuables from the home of a Fairfax couple by whom she was employed.

Brawling Case Counts Halted

Seven juveniles arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon were released yesterday in Central Sonoma Municipal Court and no complaints filed against them.

The youngsters had been arrested Saturday after three Cotati men were stabbed in a brawl at the Seahorse Tavern, 7665 Old Redwood Highway, Cotati.

Released were Fred Gilbert, 18; Melvin J. Hearne, 18; Letonia Leaks, 18; Marzette Gilbert, 17; Leon O. Wiggins, 19, all of San Francisco; and Rose May Smith, 20, and Olie May Smith, 18, both of Santa Rosa.

Tam High Board Approves 5 Pct. Salary Increase

The Tamalpais High School District board last night, over protest of several teachers, approved a 5 per cent across-the-board salary schedule raise for district employees for 1969-70.

The action means an approximate $600 per year increase per person plus the automatic annual step raise. It increases the salary range from the current $6,770 to $13,900 schedule to $7,370 to $14,500.

Trustees also increased medical and dental insurance benefits.

William B. Wilkinson, chairman of the teachers' negotiating council, asked the board to defer action on salaries to June 30 in order to allow more discussion but the board rejected this proposal.

The board, reported administrative assistant Edward J. Neumeir, said it must act as it did in order to balance the budget and maintain the necessary reserve.

Trustees also adopted a tentative 1969-70 budget of $9,142,561, a drop of $38,775 from the current budget of $9,181,336. The board also agreed that its goal is to maintain a $1.3 million reserve over the next two years to avoid deficit financing.

A publication budget hearing was set for 8 p.m., July 7 at the district office at which time trustees expect to cut the budget.

The Tamalpais High School District board also:

NEW PRINCIPAL — Deferred to July 7 action on selection procedure for a permanent principal at Tamalpais High School.

DISCIPLINE STUDY — Accepted a discipline study committee report from chairman Ellen Bickley and said action would be counsidered after review by the district's administrative council.

NUMERICAL CONTROL — Awarded a $8,334 contract to BHS Machinery Co., South San Francisco, for numerical control equipment for Redwood High School.

DEAN OF BOYS — Named Norman L. Cady, Tamalpais High physical education teacher and coach, acting dean of boys at Tamalpais for 1969-70, to succeed Henry A. Marshall who will be acting assistant principal.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE — Granted a medical leave of absence to Adrian Cobb, Sir Francis Drake High science teacher, and maternity leave to Sandra Gariffo, Tamalpais High English teacher, both for 1969-70.

EMPLOYED — Hired Jess M. Payan to teach physical education, Redwood High School, $13,165; Kenneth D. Peterson, Opportunity School teacher, $9,160; Burton H. Greene, Opportunity School teacher, $9,065; Marilee E. Ruta, Opportunity School teacher, $8,355; Jess Racines, physical education, Tamalpais; no salary determined, and Roland L. Carr, mathematics teacher, Tamalpais, $12,720.

WORKSHOP MEETING — Set 8 p.m. Monday to meet in the district office to discuss a management evaluation report prepared by Arthur B. Little Co. of San Francisco.

Bridge Widening Bid Of $39,215

Widening of Sutro Avenue bridge in Novato will cost just under $40,000, according to bids opened yesterday at the Civic Center.

Mountain States Construction Co. of Concord offered to do the job for $39,215, the lowest of three bids which ranged to a high of $49,454.

A concrete culvert will be built as an extension of the existing Sutro Avenue Bridge over Novato Creek, between Novato Boulevard and Center Road.

The bid was to be considered by the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

Another project to be considered today was the addition of 16 parking spaces and overlay of the existing parking lot at Marin Juvenile Hall in Lucas Valley. William K. McLellan of San Anselmo, lowest of six bidders, would do the work for $4,057.60.

Hub Variance Requests Denied

An application by Tor J. Nielsen for a variance to build a carport within the required front and sideyard setback at his home at 20 Tamalpais Avenue was denied by a 6-0 vote of the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night.

Also rejected, by a 5-1 vote, was an application by John C. Poppy of 462 Laurel Avenue for a variance to construct a storage room in his garage. Commissioner Allen J. Creighton dissented.

The commission approved the serving of beer in a Mexican restaurant in a remodeled building at 330 San Anselmo Avenue.

The resignation of Commissioner Joseph Gue, who is moving to Sleepy Hollow, was announced last night.

Novato Man Is Arraigned

William Harvey Koontz, 23, of 1000 Eighth Street, Novato, was arraigned yesterday in Marin Superior Court on a charge of possessing marijuana.

His case was continued until June 30 for entry of plea.

Koontz was arrested March 18 by the California Highway Patrol.

Terra Linda Services Tax Rate May Climb

The Terra Linda Community Services District tax rate, which is 84 cents this year, may go up to 90 cents per $100 of assessed valuation because the fiscal 1970 budget is up about $3,000 to $63,000.

This was disclosed last night at a meeting of the CSD board of directors. Chairman Neal D. Harding announced that a public hearing on the budget will be held at 9 p.m. June 26 in the Terra Linda firehouse.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

It's Blackmail To Most Of Us, But To Some . . .

The New York State Investigation Commission, probing infiltration of the Mafia into legitimate businesses, recently explored the affairs of Nylo-Thane Plastics Corp. of Farmingdale, N. Y.

Maurice Minuto, head of Nylo-Thane, testified that one day in August, 1967, he received an after-hours office visit from a half-dozen thugs, armed with knives and a silencer-equipped pistol. They forced him to hand over $25,000 in company funds, he said.

MINUTO DID NOT call the police. Instead, next day he called "Gentleman John" Masiello, a Mafia big shot. Gentleman John told him to go to Royal National Bank of New York and borrow $50,000.

Minuto did as he was told. Then Gentleman John instructed him to turn over $49,000 to Setmar Holding Corp., a company which Gentleman John controlled. Minuto did. Presumably he got to keep $1,000 for himself.

Since Minuto now was aware of how things were done, it was not necessary to have thugs call on him with knives and pistols any more. But during the next few months, he paid more than $240,000 to Gentleman John, to Gentleman John's son, John Masiello Jr., and to ANR Leasing Corp., which Gentleman John controlled. All this money was borrowed from Royal National Bank, which apparently found Minuto and Nylo-Thane Plastics very good risks.

THIS TESTIMONY, along with similar testimony from other New York businessmen, has put both state and federal investigators to work trying to build cases not only of extortion but of illegal lending practices and other peccadillos. It has also brought down the wrath of the House Banking Committee.

Nobody has made Maurice Minuto a hero for paying blackmail.

THERE IS LITTLE discernible difference between what Minuto did and what a score or more of college and university presidents across the nation have done during the academic year just closed. Faced by demands accompanied by threats, they have granted what the blackmailers dictated, from separate black studies departments to discontinuance of ROTC to admission of unqualified students.

Strangely, these presidents have in most cases received wide acclaim from so-called "liberals" for paying this blackmail.

PERHAPS THE COLLEGE presidents saw nothing wrong in it; they may be believers in a philosophy espoused by one of their own coterie, Dr. Donald R. Cressley, professor of sociology at University of California at Santa Cruz.

In his recent book, "Theft of the Nation," Cressley, commenting that "a little cold-blooded appeasement is not necessarily a bad thing, especially when our side is losing," suggested that federal and state officials should make deals with the Cosa Nostra (he didn't call it paying blackmail) to keep it out of legitimate business (like Nylo-Thane Plastics, for instance).

It is, wrote Cressley, "not inconceivable that the Cosa Nostra would give up its political involvements and its illegal operation of legitimate businesses . . . if it could be assured that it would be permitted to keep the profits, after payment of taxes, on bet-taking."

THIS, WE SUPPOSE, is "the new morality."

Mr. Minuto, meet Dr. Cressley!

AN EDUCATOR'S VIEW

'New Left' Gets Its Lessons From Old Leftists On Faculties

By JOHN W. GILBAUGH
Professor of Education
San Jose State College

The eyes of the nation continue to be focused on the University of California at Berkeley. And well they should be, for what happens at Berkeley could occur anywhere. The People's Park struggle provides the current vehicle for radical student confrontation, and another test for an innovative revolutionary procedure. Berkeley has served as the proving grounds for techniques of revolution. After the "bugs" are removed the procedures are then applied on other campuses across the country.

The student uprisings are not spontaneous. They have been in the planning stages for years. Let us take a look at some statements made by one Dr. James O'Connor, an associate professor of economics at San Jose State College. On May 20, Dr. O'Connor addressed between 400 and 500 students at the University of California's Santa Cruz campus. According to Mel Baughman, a Santa Cruz Sentinel staff writer who covered the meeting, O'Connor told the students, "The struggle over People's Park in Berkeley establishes precedent for building a socialist revolution in the future."

Baughman further stated that O'Connor told the audience of the spread of Marxist economists, sociologists, and philosophers in colleges and universities and high schools across the land.

"THIS MEANS," O'Connor said, "that it's going to be a different ball game in the 1970s. . . .

The ruling class in the United States is no longer fit to rule because they no longer have any ideas. They have no concept of how to use society to advance human values . . . The ruling class can't save America, and by America, I mean us. Only we in the movement can save us." He quoted statements by Fidel Castro during the Communist revolution in Cuba to make his point, Baughman reported.

"We need a socialist blueprint for the future that will end the United States an an imperialist and capitalistic country. We must get rid of the capitalistic mode of production in the United States . . .This is an ideological struggle," O'Connor said, "and we must fight in day-to-day confrontations in every conceivable way to make this struggle succeed."

BUT O'CONNOR is not a Johnny-Come-Lately in the "movement." Alice Widener, publisher of U.S.A. Magazine, in covering the second annual conference of Socialist Scholars in 1966, provided a detailed account on Socialist ideology as advocated by leaders of the movement. And she supplied a roster of names which reads like a "Who's Who Among Socialist Scholars in American Colleges and Universities." On the Widener list, which contained 54 names of "official" participants in the conference, were several from California colleges and universities. They were Franz Schurmann and James Petras from the University of California, Berkeley, and Dr. James O'Connor from San Jose State College. Dr. Nathan Hare, who was listed as attending from Howard University, has since moved to San Francisco State College.

Widener reported:

HOW DO FACULTY members like O'Connor get appointed to public, tax-supported colleges and university faculties? This writer served as dean of the college at San Jose State College when O'Connor was recommended by the department of economics faculty for appointment. After a thorough investigation which verified O'Connor's philosophy, I vetoed his proposed appointment. Nevertheless, with the same information at his disposal, Dr. Robert D. Clark, president of San Jose State College, appointed O'Connor and giving him two salary increments above the normal appointment level.

Withholding Tax Skilfully Laid Trap

You're so right, Mr. (William T.) Bagley. We must mechanize the collection of taxes. Your crafty system of picking our pockets works beautifully and painlessly. In certain states, for example, it's not only Washington, but the state and the city also that withhold. Works like a charm. And it makes the raising of taxes so simple — right?

I've written Governor Reagan supporting his one-man stand against this deceptive system. He'd like to hear from the rest of us who recognize this plot for what it is — the politician's dream of the perfect state. The money just rolls in, every month, with every employer an income tax collector.

The politicians' most effective argument for withholding: "But there are so many who don't pay any tax, don't you want every one to pay? Why, we'll pick up another $20 million." (Or is it $200 million?) The implication: we who do pay will get a reduction.

A skilfully laid trap.

Children Watch Lewd Film Previews

The other evening my husband and I took our four children to the Auto-Movies drive-in theater in Petaluma.

We were both absolutely shocked at what we saw on the screen for the coming attractions. I was always under the impression there was a law on pornography. It does not seem as though this law is being enforced these days.

One of the pictures was "The Killing of Sister George" and the other was "Vixen." The management of this theater suggested these pictures be seen by no one under 16 years of age. Yet they showed the previews for these films to an audience of mostly children. . .

I do not consider myself to be old fashioned or a Puritan of any kind, but these pictures are nothing but obscene and leave nothing to the imagination.

I feel that if they are allowed to show these things on the screen, that soon we will have no morals left and that nothing about love and marriage (will be) sacred.

What do you think may happen to the emotions of a couple of 16 or 17 year old kids out on a date after seeing these type films? . . .

I feel there must be many other parents who feel the same, and would like to see something done about the way our moral codes are decaying.

School Spending Without Discussion

I am very concerned about procedures followed on money items at San Rafael Board of Education meetings. Appalled, more closely approximates my feelings. The largest single item on your tax bill was to be voted into effect without prior hearing or examination by the board. I am referring to the proposed salary increases and health benefit increases. Even more appalling, after delaying adoption one week, the board and administration did not discuss the increases, and how they were arrived at. No wonder the taxpayers take out their frustrations at the polls (until 1971 when AB 272 takes that away from you too).

Did you know that the proposed health plan for each San Rafael school employee will cost $33 per month, up from $21.50 this year and $10.50 last year? Is your health plan paid by your employer as generous?

Did you know that the top teacher salary now is not the talked-of $12,600, but $13,450 (plus additional for department heads, extra duty, etc.)? School year is 179 teaching days. The proposed schedule goes to $14,296 (plus). The increase for any teacher, not at the top of any scale, is not 6 per cent but 10 per cent. For example, a teacher at $8,600 this year would receive $9,450, next, or approximately 10 per cent. . .

Another puzzling aspect: If the board and administration are so concerned about the cost of living, why will non-teaching employees, most of whom receive substantially less than teachers, receive a 5 per cent increase, compared to the teachers' 6 per cent?

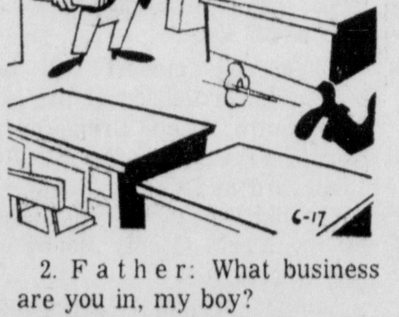
TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

JOEY ADAMS tells of a boss who went on an efficiency kick and tacked up signs all over the office reading "Do It Now." Within four hours, the cashier absconded with the money in the safe, the secretary eloped with the boss' son, the office boy threw a bottle of ink into the electric fan, and the entire office staff went off to the ball game.



HOW MUCH has college humor changed in the past four or five decades? The following jokes appeared in the Columbia Jester and the Penn Punch Bowl in the '20s and '30s:

1. Judge: You admit you hooked the overcoat and now you request that I reduce the fine. What are your grounds?

Prisoner: It cost me eight bucks to have the sleeves shortened.

2. Father: What business are you in, my boy?

Suitor: After I marry your daughter, sir, I plan to go into your business for myself.

3. Cop (to man speeding by stop sign): Can't you read?

New driver: I can read all right, officer — but I can't stop!

Education Cuts Show How Priorities Are Out Of Line

Americans have understood the values of education as the foundation of economic advancement and the bulwark of freedom. Because of this understanding, we moved early to establish universal, free and compulsory public education at the elementary and secondary level. Later we incorporated features of public education in colleges, universities and technical training programs beyond the high school.

As state and local budgets have been squeezed by larger numbers of students and increased educational costs, the national government has responded with grant-in-aid legislation covering educational programs from Headstart through graduate school. Federal aid to education, which was once a major source of controversy, is now accepted as essential to better quality education. Unfortunately, the education budget request submitted by the Nixon administration for the fiscal year beginning July 1 do not support the kind of commitment we need for quality education.

THE CONGRESS authorized $8.9 billion for education programs next year. The U.S. Office of Education cut its request to $4.6 billion. The administration trimmed it further to $3.2 billion — less than half the estimated need.

Cuts in individual programs are even worse. The estimated annual need for construction of higher education facilities is about $4 billion, half of which could be met as a federal share under the Higher Education Act. The Congress authorized one billion dollars for fiscal year 1970 for two and four year colleges and graduate facilities. The amount contained in the revised budget is $65,850,00 — less than 5 per cent of the authorization. No construction funds are provided for four-year undergraduate facilities. No funds are provided for graduate facilities.

The administration has crippled library service programs in its budget request. Support for library services in public and private elementary and secondary schools has been eliminated; general support for public library services have been cut in half and funds for construction of public libraries have been cut out.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S arguments for budget cuts for education are geared to the debate over inflation. Construction funds are being "deferred." But educational opportunities cannot be deferred. Poor schools, inadequately trained teachers and a lack of books are lost opportunities for children and young people — lost opportunities which may not be regained. Cheating students out of the kind of educational opportunities they need is false economy.

The administration has made much of national security in its arguments for defense production, including the expensive, dangerous and uncertain anti-ballistic missile system. That kind of security is of dubious value in the face of our growing need for well trained and well educated young men and women.

The education budget cuts provide another example of our distorted national priorities. We can send men to the moon, but we cannot spare enough money to educate young people to live in the society which makes moon travel possible. We can pour billions into complicated weapons systems, but we cannot afford to provide books for those who must develop the wisdom to avoid war and preserve freedom. Slowly, but steadily, the issue of national priorities is advancing as one of the major tests of the Nixon administration and the Congress. In my view, those priorities must be revised, soon.

Sihanouk Not Deceived, But Takes Devious Course

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

". . . short of being mentally deranged, a prince and former king must be well aware that the first concern of the Communists is to get rid of the king and natural elite of any country they succeed in laying hands on . . . I have no particular liking for Communism . . ."—Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia, July, 1958.

DESPITE a reputation as an erratic weathervane, the Cambodian chief of state never has had illusions about Communism or its ambitions.

But as he announced discovery of various plots against his regime, laying them one time to the U.S. Counter-Intelligence Agency (CIA) and another to the Communists, he also believed the Viet Cong were winning the battle for South Vietnam. For this, he blamed U.S. policy.

In September, 1963, he declared in an interview:

"The fate of South Vietnam appears to me to be sealed. That of my own country certainly will be also some time later."

HIS ANNOUNCED decision last week to renew the diplomatic relations he broke with the United States on May 3, 1965, marks another zig in the zig-zag course he has followed throughout the years of the Vietnam conflict, and it still must be viewed with reservations.

He announced a similar decision last April 16 only to reverse himself two weeks later, apparently under Communist pressure.

It was in early fall of 1968, late September and October, that Sihanouk first admitted what American military commanders had been saying for years, that the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were using Cambodia as a sanctuary.

IN A SPEECH Sihanouk declared that the Communists were disregarding their pledges to recognize the integrity of Cambodia's frontiers and were sending their troops into the northern provinces of Ratanakiri and Mondulkiri. His secretary of state for national security added a third, Svayrieng province.

The first two are thinly populated states opposite South Vietnam's central highlands. The third embraces the so-called parrot's beak which juts into South Vietnam less than 40 miles from Saigon.

At the same time, reports multiplied of increased activity of native Khmer Communists in provinces to the west close to Thailand. Sihanouk said they were financed from Peking and Hanoi.

SIHANOUK once described Cambodia as "like a stack of hay placed between two other stacks already set on fire."

These are the fires which threaten him now. American helicopter gunships attack Communist bases in Cambodia with no protest from Sihanouk. Cambodian recognition of Communist East Germany is an attempt to gain support from the Soviet Union against the threat from his neighbors. And renewal of relations with the United States is a backfire against broken promises.

"I've seen a lot of self-made men who ought to deny it."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

The Dedication That Wasn't; The Fiesta That Got Too Big

What happened to the proposed dedication of Novato's Pioneer Memorial Park?

The Novato Civic Foundation has spearheaded the work on the park. Members of the foundation were holding a fund raising event at the park on June 7. They planned ahead that it would be a good time for dedication of the park.

Jack Holsclaw, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, said the commission confirmed that dedication date at least a month ahead of time.

Edwin V. Grundstrom, past president of the foundation, said that Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director, on June 2 told him that all arrangements had been made.

On Tuesday before the proposed dedication, the city council had not been asked to the affair. Mayor Harley A. McAskill, who was supposed to make the dedicatory address, had not been asked.

Later the program was changed to an open house fund raising event, without the dedication.

HOLSCLAW LAST WEEK thought that the park had been dedicated, because he had been out of town on June 7 and did not know about the last-minute change.

David Price Jones, president of the civic foundation, said that apparently no one had been placed in charge of it, so the plans had not been carried out.

The dedication has now been set for about Sept. 20 when the first phase of the park will be completed.

"This may be better because people can then see the park as it is going to be," Jones said. He added that the civic foundation raised nearly $1,000 for the park at the open house anyway and has purchased all the pipe necessary for the water system at a great reduction from Johns Manville Co.

IT IS TOO EARLY to fully evaluate this year's Western Weekend country fair celebration in Novato. Much depends on the success of this for future celebrations.

The Western Weekend celebration started as a parade by Novato Horsemen's Association members to their arena on Bugeia Lane for an amateur rodeo.

Then the Jaycees took over the celebration. The parade grew and other events added. The celebration grew until the Jaycees could no longer handle it and participating civic organizations went together to form a nonprofit corporation for it.

The celebration attracted crowds from all over the Bay Area, with the parade being the biggest drawing card. It also attracted some undesireable elements, such as the Gypsy Jokers motorcycle club.

This posed such a police problem that attendance dropped off because of feared trouble with the motorcyclists.

So this year, the format was changed into a country fair type celebration with that added to the name. It was hoped to make it more of a family type community celebration again.

If this succeeds as hoped, the pattern is set for the future. If not, it will be interesting to see what the leaders can find for a community celebration.

Language School Elects Officers

Gerhard Schmidt-Petersen of Santa Venetia has been re-elected president of the German Language School of Marin.

Other officers elected are:

Joseph Augustin of Petaluma, first vice president; Horst Krueger of Petaluma, second vice president; Mrs. Joachin Scholz of San Rafael, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Herbert Knappe of Fairfax, financial secretary; Vinzenz Hake of San Rafael, treasurer, and Mrs. F. Henning Bauer of Mill Valley, chairman of the parent advisory board.

The German Language School of Marin holds classes for ages three through adult on Saturday mornings at the Santa Venetia Middle School, North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia.

Sentence Date Set For Kentfield Man

Bart J. Bruno, 23, of Kentfield will appear in Marin Superior Court next Monday for setting of a sentencing date. He has pleaded guilty to possessing marijuana in his car on April 26.

Bruno was arrested when he stopped on Shoreline Highway to pick up a hitchhiker and a sheriff's deputy told him to move his car off the road. While making a license check, the deputy noticed marijuana in the glove compartment.

What To Do About Teddy When Mama Keeps Calling Up?

WASHINGTON — The problem of what to do about Teddy Kennedy is still haunting the Republicans. The strategy to hit him head-on almost worked. But what they failed to count on was Mrs. Rose Kennedy, Senator Kennedy's mother.

When Senator Dirksen attacked Kennedy on the floor of the Senate for Kennedy's remarks about the Vietnamese war, Dirksen received a telephone call from Mrs. Kennedy thanking him for "the gracious and temperate" tone of his speech.

The unflappable Dirksen became flapped and after exchanging some kind words walked out into the hall and told Senator Kennedy, "Your mother just called me to thank me for my speech."

LAST WEEK Senator Kennedy and Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina had a bitter exchange on the floor over Justice Douglas. As of this writing Mrs. Kennedy hasn't called Senator Thurmond, but I can imagine how the conversation will go when she does.

"Hello Senator Thurmond. This is Mrs. Rose Kennedy, Teddy's mother."

"How do you do, Mrs. Kennedy."

"I just wanted to thank you for the nice way you treated Teddy on the floor of the Senate the other day."

"You're very kind, but I'm afraid I lost my temper and said some mean things."

"GRACIOUS, NO. I thought you were very temperate. You did bring up the business at Harvard when Teddy was a student and had someone else take his test, but I thought you did it in a very nice way, and then you dropped it. A more petty man might have stayed with the subject for a long time."

"Well, I'm not a mean man, Mrs. Kennedy, but Teddy really got me riled when he corrected my pronunciation of Jose Figueres, former president of Costa Rica."

"Teddy's always doing things like that. I've told him since he was a little boy that people pronounce Spanish words differently in different parts of the country, but he seems to forget. Your pronunciation is beautiful, senator, and I'm going to speak to Teddy about it."

"THAT'S VERY kind of you, Mrs. Kennedy. I hope you realize there was nothing personal in our exchange. I was just trying to make a point about Justice Douglas' association with a private foundation and Teddy kept interrupting me on the floor."

"If I've told Teddy once, I've told him a hundred times not to interrupt when somebody else is speaking. I assure you he didn't learn that habit at home."

"I appreciate that, Mrs. Kennedy, and I must say in the heat of battle we do lose our tempers. I wasn't questioning Justice Douglas' character. I was dealing with the issues of the foundations."

"I know you weren't. I told Teddy you would never make a vicious attack on anybody. It's not in your nature as a southern gentleman."

"THAT'S MIGHTY kind of you to say that, ma'am. I do pride myself on my kindness."

"Of course, you've got to understand Teddy's problem. Everybody is picking on him, and he's very sensitive to the way people criticize him. Thank goodness for men like you and Senator Dirksen who refuse to get on the bandwagon."

"I don't know what to say, Mrs. Kennedy. I'm all choked up."

"You don't have to say anything. I know you will never say anything about Teddy that would hurt his mother."

"No, ma'am. You can be assured of that."

Thurmond hangs up and calls Senator Dirksen and says, "Everett, we've been had."

Teen Faces Sentence On Drug Charge

Sentencing for Robert Andrew Enos, 18, who has pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to being in a place where narcotics were used, has been set for July 11.

Enos earlier had been accused of a felony charge of possessing marijuana in a car on April 14. He was arrested after Larkspur police noticed a strong odor of the weed coming from the car.

Bennett Wins Fight Against Gas Company

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former California Public Utilities Commissioner William M. Bennett has won his lonely fight against the El Paso Natural Gas Co. and a couple of states

The Supreme Court ruled yesterday by a 4-2 count that El Paso must get rid of its Northwest division by immediate cash sale, instead of the stock transfer that El Paso had proposed to use for selling the facilities to Colorado Interstate Gas Co.

It thus upheld Bennett's single-handed appeal to the high court, which he took after the Justice Department and other participants backed out.

Bennett, a resident of Kentfield, appointed to the utilities commission by Gov. Edmund G. Brown and replaced by Gov. Ronald Reagan, filed the suit, he said, in an attempt to generate more competition and create the effect of lowering natural gas prices in northern California.

Bennett said here after yesterday's verdict that "it's a victory for the people of the State of California, and a great euphoria of happiness to me."

The fight was over some gas wells in the northwest and Canada and a pipeline that goes through Washington, Oregon, and the mountain states. Bennett hopes that the pipeline can be brought into California and put under control of an aggressive company to get competition going between the Northwest firm and El Paso, which now supplies most of California's gas.

Other government agencies consented to the sale of the line to Colorado Interstate, but Bennett objected and spoke to the court as a consumer spokesman.

He asserted Colorado Interstate has shown it is not an aggressive firm and that under the sale, it would have a monopoly position in the Mountain States similar to El Paso's in the Southwest.

Senate Demos Will Delay ABM Action For Reactions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders have decided to postpone Senate action on the controversial Safeguard missile defense system until members can reassess home-state sentiment during a July 4 recess.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, a Safeguard supporter, suggested the postponement yesterday. He told colleagues privately that when he brings a military procurement bill before the Senate containing Safeguard authorization he wants to keep it there without a break until there is a showdown vote.

Concurring in this, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, a Safeguard critic, said in an interview he thinks it would be a mistake to bring the bill up and then to have to lay it aside for the holiday, which starts July 3.

What effect the delay in Senate action on the ABM might have on the trend of public opinion remains to be seen.

Mansfield conceded that a week of appearances in Montana left him confused about public reaction. Montana has been designated as one of the two sites for the ABM installations.

"There is more interest among the people of my state in farm prices, with wheat selling below corn, and they are jittery about what the new 8.5 per cent interest rate is going to do to them," Mansfield said. "ABM comes in about third in their interests.

"I have had about 500 letters on ABM, 450 of them opposing it. But on the other hand a recognized polling agency reports that the people of Montana are two to one in favor of ABM."

Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., said he came away from a recent visit to North Dakota, which would house the other missile site, with the impression that 75 per cent of the people favor ABM. He is an ABM backer.

A free booklet to answer your questions about Annuities

There comes a time in most men's lives when a guaranteed income is more important than the hope of capital gain.

And that's exactly what annuities from Manufacturers Life offer. They provide an automatic, guaranteed income for life.

People have asked us many questions about annuities in the past. Important questions such as: Can I arrange for some of the money to be returned to my estate if I die early? Is there an annuity that will transfer the income to my wife if she outlives me? How do annuities affect my income tax? Is an annuity a practical way of supplementing Social Security and other retirement income?

To provide you with the answers we have published an easy-to-read, easy-to-understand booklet called "Annuities . . . the key to a golden age." It's yours for the asking, without obligation. Just fill in and return the coupon below. And if you would like to discuss annuities with someone, you couldn't find a better person to talk to than the Man from Manufacturers.

A Most Dramatic World

A magnificent 30 ft. long elevated L. Rm. A towering 28 ft. high ceiling trussed with select timber. Seated behind the doweled railings of the cantilevered art-gallery-balcony (12x13), an orchestra recently entertained the owner's cocktail guests. Never before have we seen so custom a designed "A" frame home. The lava rock floor-to-ceiling frplc. is recessed below the floor-level of the L. Rm. with an adjacent full-sunken D. Rm. 3 Bdrms., or, 2 + a library-den which is adj. to the Mstr. Bdrm., 2 Baths. The kitch. w/dinette & custom BBQ is a delightful dream. An extra large, level lot, 133x90, with a variety of fruit trees. This could be a very fine home — it has all the features. Large living room with fireplace. Formal dining room. Tile bathroom, large bdrms., and hardwood floors thruout. The full basement has an extra bathroom with a stall shower and 3 extra rooms that are not completed. This home needs a little clean-up work, but is very sound structurally, with an excellent foundation. The low price of $25,900 more than allows for the little work needed to make this an outstanding property. Close to commute and school.

Compromise On Tax Rate Ceilings

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A compromise that would keep ceilings on school tax rates until 1973 unless they were replaced by a new system of state controls on school spending emerged without recommendation last evening from the Assembly Education Committee's subcommittee on school finance.

The subcommittee reported out an amended version of AB 5 by Assemblyman Robert H. Burke, R-Huntington Beach.

Burke's original bill was the same as SB 35 by Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, repealing 1967 legislation which removes all ceilings from school tax rates as of June 30, 1971. Another Assembly education subcommittee buried it and Schmitz's bill (which passed the Senate) by 4-3 vote early this month.

The amendments, proposed by Assemblyman James W. Dent, R-Concord, chairman of both subcommittees, provide: Date of expiration of ceilings would be changed from 1971 to June 30, 1973; the legislative analyst would be instructed to make recommendations by next January for legislation to change the controls from ceilings on tax rates to ceilings on expenditures per pupil.

The amended version now goes to the full Assembly Education Committee.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Governor

Dental—Signed a bill which establishes a procedure by which certain foreign-trained dental graduates will be permitted to take the state dental examination.

The Senate
Concurred in Assembly Amendments

Smut—Sets up a pandering concept in determining obscene advertising for pornographic publications. (SB63—Lagomarsino, R-Ojai. 25-0. To governor.)

Concurred in Conference Committee Amendments

Pornography—Sets up a separate standard to decide whether material is pornographic for children and adults. (SB62—Lagomarsino, R-Ojai. 25-0. To governor.)

Passed

Indians—Permits Indians to receive federal funds without subtracting the sum from any state public assistance they may have coming. (SB870—Moscone, D-San Francisco. 28-2. To Assembly.)

Employes—Provides that a state college professor who "resigns" by being absent 5 days without leave shall not be rehired for two years unless the resignation prescribed by law is set aside. (SB765—Schmitz, R-Tustin. 26-2. To Assembly.)

The Assembly
Rejected

Education — Authorizes the state to underwrite a student's education with a loan that he would repay after he graduated and began earning an income. (AB75—Collier, R-Los Angeles. 31-29.)

Wilson Pledge On The Market

EASTBOURNE, England (London Express) — A big new thrust to take Britain into the Common Market got under way yesterday with an open pledge from Prime Minister Harold Wilson of determination to "make up for lost time" now that General Charles De Gaulle no longer blocks British entry.

The prime minister's enthusiastic words came at the Socialist International's Eastbourne conference within 24 hours of the election of Georges Pompidou as France's new president, and they were in rapid response also to pleas made earlier in the day from the conference rostrum from two influential foreign ministers—Willi Brandt (West Germany) and Pietro Nenni (Italy) for immediate action to achieve British entry.

Grandt called for immediate talks between diplomats to pave the way for a "summit" conference between ministers of Britain and the six Common Market countries and Nenni insisted, "We must each of us know that the time for vetoes is over and cannot begin again."

One Acquitted In Slaying

LOS ANGELES (AP)—George Jordan Jr., 26, one of three men once accused of murder in the fatal stabbing of a University of Southern California freshman, has been acquitted.

Superior Court Judge George Dell ruled yesterday there was reasonable doubt that Jordan was an accomplice in the death of Brian Clay, 18, of Chicago, outside a fraternity house last Dec. 9.

George Williams, 21, was convicted of second-degree murder May 29 in the stabbing and will be sentenced tomorrow. A third defendant was released previously.

SMOULDERING ISSUE

Taco Bell Plans Spark Exchange

The Mill Valley City Council, arguing its way through a four-hour-and-15-minute meeting and only about a third of its agenda, last night approved a major road project and once again failed to settle the now six-months-old Taco Bell issue.

Left hanging at the marathon meeting were final action on the city's 1969-70 budget, a potentially touchy "anti-hippie" ordinance and a probably controversial appointment to the city human rights commission.

The council sputtered to a halt at 12:16 a.m. today after an occasionally testy meeting during which it voted to improve the East Blithedale Avenue-Camino Alto intersection and to upgrade Camino Alto to a four-lane road between Blithedale and Miller avenues.

The actions came after nearly two hours of discussion during which city engineer Stanley M. Bala justified the project with projected traffic figures as well as current traffic loads on the roads in and out of the city.

Councilman George Wickham voted for the improvement of the intersection, but opposed four-laning Camino Alto because he felt two lanes are sufficient.

No price tag was put on either project although Bala said federal funds are being sought for the intersection improvement.

In another lengthy debate, the council split 2-2 on whether to uphold its planning commission's denial of a use permit for a Taco Bell restaurant at 497 Miller Avenue.

In the occasionally heated discussion, Taco Bell's planned building was described by Ivan S. Poutiatine, chairman of the architectural advisory committee, which has repeatedly opposed the proposed drive-in, as "hokey pokey imitative architecture which purports to be imitative of early California." He said the firm's plan was a "travesty."

At another point, Councilman Jerome C. Hauke described Taco Bell representative Gary Graham of Los Angeles as "the most obnoxious of applicants I've ever seen." He opposed granting permission to build.

Earlier, Graham had told the council that Taco Bell would not change its building style, saying: "That is something that has to remain . . . as a corporate policy."

The architectural advisory committee, the planning commission and some of the council also objected to Taco Bell's plan for development of the rest of the site as not appropriate to the area.

Poutiatine told the council that Taco Bell repeatedly had been asked since its first application six months ago to come up with a master plan for the site but all the firm has produced has been "doodles . . . little squares on blue pieces of paper."

He added: "This business of 'we can't change our building' is some kind of corporate syndrome that Mill Valley doesn't have to accept." Finally, the council split on the proposed restaurant, with Hauke and Mayor Dean N. Meyer voting to uphold the planning commission.

The council then instructed Harvey E. Bragdon, planning director, to meet with Taco Bell representatives to see if a new design might be possible.

This sparked two testy exchanges. After Poutiatine said this was "not very smart" because "Mill Valley shouldn't provide free design services," Councilman Robert H. Andresen, who made the suggestion, and Meyer had a brief exchange during which Andresen said he fully expected Taco Bell to consult its own planners.

Graham, obviously angry, then began a statement during which he accused a "minority . . . some of them apparently not from Mill Valley" of keeping Taco Bell out of Mill Valley. He was unable to expand on the charge because he was gaveled to silence by Meyer despite his protest that Poutiatine had "been popping up" frequently during the meeting to give opposing views.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

MEETING — Set a special meeting to clean up its agenda, including action on the budget, for 8 p.m. Monday at the golf clubhouse.

APPEAL — Granted an appeal by Gene Addleman from denial of a variance to waive the required two off-street parking spaces on five lots on Cascade Way near the Dipsea Trail. The council was advised by its attorney that the city could not legally deny the variance because the lots were subject to legally nonconforming uses.

REZONING — Delayed until July 21 consideration of an ordinance rezoning the Gulf Oil Co. property at the corner of East Blithedale and Camino Alto to general commercial and to grant a use permit to Gulf.

SUBDIVISION — Approved a minor subdivision for Alvin Corkland of 630 West Blithedale Avenue.

EXTENSION — Approved paying an estimated $5,245 as the city's share of a new 10-inch water main along the Sycamore Avenue extension, the remainder being paid by the Marin Municipal Water District and the Mill Valley School District.

PARCEL — Approved a minor subdivision for Bank of America to subdivide a parcel containing 31.37 acres on Highway 101 frontage road into four lots and granted an exception to the requirements of the commercial-recreation district zoning to permit subdivision prior to submittal of a planned unit development.

Gov. Reagan Rescues Girl From His Swimming Pool

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Reagan pulled a seven-year-old girl from the swimming pool at his home after she submerged in water over her head, the governor's office said today.

Reagan, a lifeguard in his youth, jumped fully clothed into the pool Sunday to rescue Alicia Berry, daughter of Mrs. Marlene Murphy, a file clerk in the governor's office.

Mrs. Murphy and her daughter were among some 200 persons attending a governor's office staff party at the Reagan home.

Mrs. Murphy said Alicia, who doesn't swim, was at the side of the pool and reached to get on a plastic raft. Someone apparently got there first and Alicia went down in four feet of water, Mrs. Murphy reported.

A source in the governor's office confirmed that Reagan rescued the girl, but added, "We're not looking for any publicity . . . It was just something he did because he felt it needed to be done."

Mrs. Murphy said she didn't see the actual rescue because "it just happened so fast."

"He dived in clothed and all," Mrs. Murphy said of the governor.

She said her daughter came out "just gasping and spitting water," but wanted to go right back in. Reagan advised that Alicia should return to the pool, Mrs. Murphy said, so the girl wouldn't develop a fear of water.

Reagan was a lifeguard at a river park in Illinois during summers while he went to high school and college.

BCDC To Hear Platform Bid

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — An application to construct a platform in Suisun Bay for gas well operation will be considered by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission at 2 p.m. Thursday in Room 1194 of the State Building, 455 Golden Gate Avenue.

The platform, proposed by Standard Oil of California and Shell Oil Company, would serve two wells drilled within the last year under a lease from the State Lands Commission. Their application also is for permission to connect the wells to an existing pipeline approximately 800 feet south of Ryer Island, which is in Solano County, via an underwater pipe.

The platform would be about 1,200 feet west of the island.

The platform has the approval of the Army Corps of Engineers, and would require approval by the State Lands Commission if approved by the BCDC.

Prisoners Face Trial In August

Trials for two San Quentin inmates who allegedly fled while out of prison on the institution's new work furlough program yesterday were set in Marin Superior Court for the week of Aug. 14.

Charged with escape are William Jackson Arrowsmith, 25, and David Ralph Clutts, 31. Both pleaded innocent yesterday.

Apartment Burglary

Burglars pried open the front door of the apartment of Patricia Kielb at 777 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, Friday, and stole a portable television set, radio and a platinum wedding ring, sheriff's deputies said today.

Two Youths From Petaluma To Boys' State

Boys from two Petaluma high schools will be attending the 32nd annual Boys' State in Sacramento next week.

Chosen were Marc Nelson, a senior at Petaluma High School, and Steven Johnson, incoming student body president at St. Vincent De Paul High School.

Also active in school government, Nelson is a member of the track and football teams. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Nelson, 627 Baker Street.

Johnson is a member of the St. Vincent football and basketball teams in addition to his student government activities. He makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, 22 Burlington Drive, Petaluma.

Nelson and Johnson will represent the Petaluma American Legion Post No. 28 at the week-long activities.

Auto Air Bags For Collisions

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit firm has developed a new auto safety device, an air bag that inflates almost instantaneously when a vehicle is in a front-end collision.

The inflated bag presses the riders into their seats, preventing them from being thrown against the dashboard or other portion of the car interior.

The first generation device is intended only to protect passengers during head-on collisions, but the developer says more sophisticated devices could be built to protect passengers in cars hit from the side or rear.

October Trial Set In Credit Card Case

George Edward Taylor, 22, of Santa Venetia pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to two charges of signing another person's name to a credit card with intent to defraud.

A jury trial was set for the week of Oct. 20.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Cancer May Be Genetic Disease With Hidden Virus As Cause

VAN DELLEN

Cancer may be a genetic disease. Something changes the makeup of a cell from a peaceful, productive structure to a lawless malignant invader that multiplies.

In time, it grows large enough to form a tumor. Viruses are blamed because these are the only things known that can inject new coded information into a cell thus changing its growth pattern.

WE DO NOT KNOW what virus is responsible for cancer nor when it gets into the body to begin its dirty work. Does the virus carry the cancer gene and transmit it from parent to offspring? Does this type of virus exist? And if it does, must it emerge from hiding at a later date producing a tumor?

This may occur when the tissues are irritated (as by smoke) or changes occur in the hormonal or chemical composition of the body.

Others believe that the virus enters after birth.

IF AND WHEN the cancer virus is found, there is good possibility it will not be an ordinary critter. It must be unique to lie dormant in man for a long time. Viruses are implicated on the genetic level because they consist of a shell of protein enclosing a core of hereditary-containing material (DNA and RNA).

Scientists believe that a virus capable of causing leukemia or solid tumors enters a normal cell and passes along its genetic code so that the invaded cell will reproduce leukemic or cancer cells.

All of this is theoretical, but plausible enough to stimulate studies in this direction. Researchers may culture bacteria and viruses from an infection, but never from a malignancy.

ON THE OTHER HAND, many viruses induce leukemia and other cancers when injected into mice. But in most instances these critters cannot be recovered from the mice. Virus particles have been found in the blood of mice prior to the spontaneous development of leukemia.

Many authorities believe that only a few cancers will prove to be or viral origin. We hope not, because a viral cause may, perhaps, lead us to a preventive vaccine.

CURE IN THE OFFING

A reader writes: I've had rheumatoid arthritis for two years. Now for the first time the sedimentation rate is normal, although my hands and knees still bother me some. What would you say my chances are of conquering this disease and getting back to work?

REPLY

Excellent. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on this form of arthritis.

SUNBATHING DURING PREGNANCY

Mrs. J. writes: Is it safe for someone who is pregnant to lie in the sun for two hours every day?

REPLY

Yes, provided the skin is conditioned to this much sun and she is relaxed and comfortable. No need worrying about the offspring; he is in the shade.

BURSITIS AND CALCIUM

A. G. writes: Is bursitis of the shoulder caused by too much or too little calcium?

REPLY

Neither. Injury and infection are the most common causes. Calcium, the by-product of the irritation, is deposited in the affected area as part of the healing process.

WEARING RUBBER GLOVES

G.R. writes: Is it harmful to the skin to wear rubber gloves eight hours a day?

REPLY

Trial and error will answer this question. As a rule, wearing the gloves is less harmful than subjecting the hands to powerful irritants.

GENETIC COMBINATIONS

Mrs. S. writes: In a family we know, the daughter is unusually bright and the son is slightly retarded. How could this happen if both children have the same genes?

REPLY

Siblings do not have the same combination of genes. We have all heard the expression, "Susie (or John) inherited all the brains and John (or Susie) got left." The brain can also be damaged during pregnancy or at birth.

INHERITED PRESSURE

J. writes: My mother has low blood pressure and my father has hypertension. On which road am I likely to go?

REPLY

Your guess is as good as mine. A clew might come from your temperament—whether you resemble father or mother. Keep in mind that hypertension is more serious in men than women.

Today's Health Hint—

A high noise level may lead to irritability.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Assembly Approves Bill On Teacher Credentials

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly has approved a streamlined system of licensing school teachers in California.

It cleared to the Senate yesterday on a 43-14 vote a measure which rewrites the Fisher Act of 1961 under which the state established a complicated set of requirements of courses and credits for a teaching credential.

The bill by Assemblyman Leo Ryan, D-Burlingame, reduces the number of credentials available from 340 to four and transfers from the state Board of Education to a commission the issuance and renewal of credentials. The commission would be named by the governor.

Ryan told the Assembly that since the Fisher Act was established, the process of credentialling teachers had grown into a huge bureaucracy in the state Department of Education.

Ryan said his bill, drafted by a joint Senate-Assembly committee the past two years, would save $600,000 in salary costs.

CAMPUS PACKAGE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly's legislative package dealing with campus disturbances was before the Ways and Means Committee today.

The Assembly Education Committee approved yesterday an omnibus bill amending the education code. Its major provision would suspend for two years any state financial aid to students convicted after a hearing by school officials of disturbing peaceful conduct on campus.

The proposals parallel some of the legislation requested by Gov. Ronald Reagan to deal with campus unrest but in general are not as harsh as a series of bills that passed the Senate.

EXOTIC ANIMALS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Senate yesterday voted to ban importation into California of certain exotic wild animals which fail to pass physical examinations by local boards of health.

The measure by Democratic Sen. Walter W. Stiern, a Bakersfield veterinarian, was cleared to the Assembly on a 27-2 vote.

LOADED GUNS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill permitting retired police officers, FBI agents or district attorney investigators to carry loaded guns ran into difficulty yesterday on the Senate floor.

However, the upper house unanimously cleared to the Assembly another bill which allows zookeepers and animal control officers to carry loaded weapons.

Both measures were authored by Sen. Robert S. Stevens, R-Los Angeles.

PROPERTY TAX

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—County supervisors, fearing the Legislature will "get their fingers in our pie", have voted to oppose a statewide collection of property taxes.

But the Supervisors Association Tax Committee yesterday endorsed other proposals in a $1 billion tax reform plan devised by a bi-partisan panel of six assemblymen.

The supervisors voiced concern a statewide property tax would limit their power. Counties now impose and collect the property tax.

Hitler Held Drug Addict By Britisher

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) — Nazi dictator Adolf Hitler suffered from heart disease and was a cocaine addict but was neither a victim of Parkinson's disease nor sexually impotent as legend has persisted, a British author said today.

David Irving wrote a report on Hitler's medical history and it appeared in the West German magazine Stern.

"He was addicted to medicaments and swallowed incredible quantities of pills and received injections and thereby incurred strychnine poisoning," Irving said.

The medical report was based on the papers of Hitler's personal physician Dr. Theodor Morell.

"On the basis of these contemporary documents a number of persistent rumors and legends can be quashed," Irving said.

"Hitler was neither venereally diseased nor impotent nor sexually abnormal in any way. Also, he did not suffer from Parkinson's disease (nervous paralysis). He also was neither paranoid (suffering from persecution complex) or schizoid (split) personality," Irving said.

Irving said Hitler was a narcotics (cocaine) addict.

As for Hitler's relations with women, they were "wholly normal," Irving said.

More Winners At Western Weekend Fair

More winners in Novato's Western Weekend Country Fair contests were reported yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce which sponsored the contests.

The Jaycees proved to be the stronger, pulling Chamber of Commerce members into Novato Creek in a tug-of-war. Both sides sat down in surprise when the rope suddenly broke, but it was tied and the contest resumed.

In the decorated horse and rider contest, Ann Sorum won first, Gayle Sorum, second and Carol Craft and Kathy Coffman, third. All were from Novato. The event drew 11 entries.

In the costumre parade Mrs. Charlotte Wagner and family of San Rafael won first Terry Bucher of Novato, second and Gae Mac Pherson, also of Novato, third.

The Edward B. MacGuire family of 33 Brown Drive, Novato, won a pony as a gate prize.

The Novato Fire Department won the waterball fight over Kentfield by a score of 7 to 3.

No Progress In Bus Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Federal mediator Roger Randall met for three hours yesterday with Greyhound bus line officials and striking mechanics, but reported no progress in settling their weeklong dispute.

Randall recessed the meeting without scheduling further discussions. He planned to meet today with Teamster garage employees, who aso have struck Greyhound's local maintenance garage.

The company said service was continuing, although the local Machinists Union sent pickets to garages in other cities, where buses are being serviced.

SNIFF AND BUY

Osmics, or odor engineering, has become another marketing trick. Bread is wrapped in wax paper scented with a freshly baked odor; mouse-traps are scented with cheddar cheese; a blend of banana oil, glue, leather, rubber, gasoline, plastic makes a car smell new.

WATER IS CHEAPER AT HOME

The new "old fashioned" soups may be nostalgic in flavor, but not in cost. "With water" soups are priced 2 to 3 times more than condensed soups, and contain only one-half the servings.

CHEESE QUIZ

1.—Soft cheeses like cream, cottage, Neufchatel and ricotta should be used within a week or two.
2.—Soft, well aged Cheddar melts more readily than less ripened cheese.

ANSWERS

1.—False. Soft cheese is the most perishable and should be used within a few days after purchase.
2.—True.

Confusing Marin Football Schedule For 1969 Season

College of Marin will be "home" at Marin Catholic High School, Redwood High will be "home" at Tamalpais and Drake will be "home" at San Rafael High.

Sound confusing?

It's just what the football schedule for Marin County will be like in the fall.

College of Marin's stadium, scene of most of Marin County's football action in past years, is being leveled for construction of a science building. Marin's new athletic facilities will not be completed in time for the 1969 football season.

In the meantime, Tars' home games will be played at Marin Catholic High in Kentfield, less than two miles from the College of Marin campus.

As is the case of College of Marin, construction of new athletic facilities — football and baseball fields and a track — is going on at Marin Catholic. But unlike the situation at College of Marin, the Wildcats' playground is expected to be finished in another two months.

"We're confident it will be completed by the end of August," said Marin Catholic athletic director Gary Hughes. The bleachers used for the baseball and football fields are the same that came out of College of Marin's stadium, purchased from the college. Spectator capacity for football will be 2,000, and about 800 for baseball, said Hughes.

Marin Catholic, like Tam, Drake and Redwood, used the Marin college's stadium in past years.

"They've helped us so many years with the use of their facalities we are glad to be able to help them," said Hughes.

Marin Catholic and College of Marin games will be daylight affairs, as no lights are planned for installation.

San Rafael High School has the only lighted field available for football, and will get its share of use. Bob Muster, coach at San Rafael High, said there were 11 varsity football games played on the field last season, and there are 18 games planned so far this season.

Terra Linda High has been playing its "home" games on the San Rafael Bulldogs' field. Drake High of San Anselmo will be playing "home" games there too. Five, and possibly six, of Drake's games are planned under lights.

In addition to regular Marin County Athletic League games held on the San Rafael turf, the Kiwanis North-South All-Star game Aug. 21 will be played at the 4,500-seat capacity stadium.

Tamalpais High will be sharing its new field with Redwood, all those games daylight affairs as the Mill Valley school has no lighting facilities for 1,700 at Tam, with temporary bleachers of 500 capacity planned to be erected.

Novato and San Marin high schools will continue to use the Novato Hornets' field for their home games.

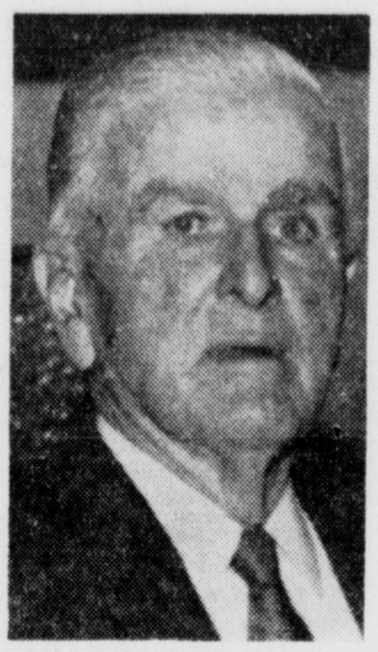
Walter Mails Incident In Canada Recalled

The display of the Canadian flag over Candlestick Park in honor of the Montreal Expos' weekend visit to San Francisco rekindled some old memories for Giants publicist Walter "The Great" Mails.

The former pitching hero, known as "Mighty Mouth" for his prolific after-dinner speaking engagements after his playing career, really put his foot in his mouth many years ago in Vancouver and, as a result, had to be escorted by police out of British Columbia.



WALTER MAILS

It happened in the 1920's when Mails was pitching for Seattle of the Pacific Coast League and the Rainiers were playing an exhibition game in Vancouver. As the team approached the ballpark, the impish Mails observed the British Flag flying over the stadium and quipped: "Hmm, this club must have won the pennant last year."

Well, everyone laughed and laughed execpt a young eavesdropper who took the remark as an insult to His Majesty's flag and who also just happened to be a cartoonist for the local daily.

Everyone had forgotten the incident until the next morning when the paper was delivered to Mails' hotel room and there, on the front page, he was flabbergasted to see himself stomping on the British flag in a not-so-funny cartoon.

Naturally, the local citizenry was so incensed that Walter The Great had to make a premature departure back to the friendly U.S.

Didn't Return Until 1950s

Mails avoided Vancouver for several years until the 1950s when a business commitment ended his exile. When a Vancouverite confronted him with the time-yellowed newspaper cartoon, the quick-thinking Mails laughed: "Aw, that was my father who said that."

SEVERAL SPORTS-MINDED individuals will huddle at Drake High School in San Anselmo tomorrow evening to discuss the feasibility of a sports complex in Marin County.

Carl J. Brown and Bob Fitzhenry of the Drake faculty, who are trying to get a ball rolling, envision a centrally-located stadium for a multitude of activities plus a championship swimming pool and tennis courts.

With only one lighted football stadium in the county (San Rafael High's), a new stadium would facilitate every school, not to mention numerous other functions.

Carney Campion of San Rafel, chairman of the Marin Athletic and Recreation Sponsors (MARS), which is seeking ways and means of promoting a swimming-tennis complex, will be on hand tomorrow night to coordinate his group's ideas with those of Brown and Fitzhenry.

Anyone else who'd like to chip in with some suggestions should attend the meeting at Room 104 at Drake High, 7 o'clock.

THOSE SOPHISTICATED and powerful Formula A cars that will headline this weekend's Continental Championship series at Sears Point Raceway will start arriving at the Sonoma County track tomorrow for some test runs over the tricky 12-turn, 2.5-mile circuit.

A's Green Happy To Return

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Second baseman Dick Green is happy to return to Kansas City but the fans would appreciate it more if his clutch fielding and hitting didn't come at the wrong time for the hometown Royals.

Green was one of the most popular players among local fans before the A's shifted operations from Kansas City to Oakland and despite the opposing uniform, he's still well liked.

But last night he robbed Jerry Adair of a hit in the ninth inning of the first game of the A's-Royals twi-night doubleeader, possibly taking away the winning run.

WINNING RUNS

Then, he smashed a double in the 13th to score Sal Bando and Danny Cater with what proved to be the winning Oakland run in the 7-5 contest.

The Royals won the nightcap 3-2 in 12 innings.

Chuck Dobson, 6-5, goes for Oakland and Dick Drago, 3-5, for the Royals in tonight's contest.

Green had two hits and drove in three runs in the opener and banged a solo homer in the second game for the A's only run in regulation play.

36 PLAYERS

Oakland's manager, Hank Bauer, used 19 players including six pitchers in the opening game while Joe Gordon of the Royals used 17 players including four pitchers.

Reggie Jackson slammed his 24th homer of the season in the third inning of the opener, his fourth in five games.

Cater led the A's 14-hit at-

A's Sign 4 Rookies For Minor Leagues

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Athletics announced the signing of four rookies yesterday and said they would be sent to various farm clubs.

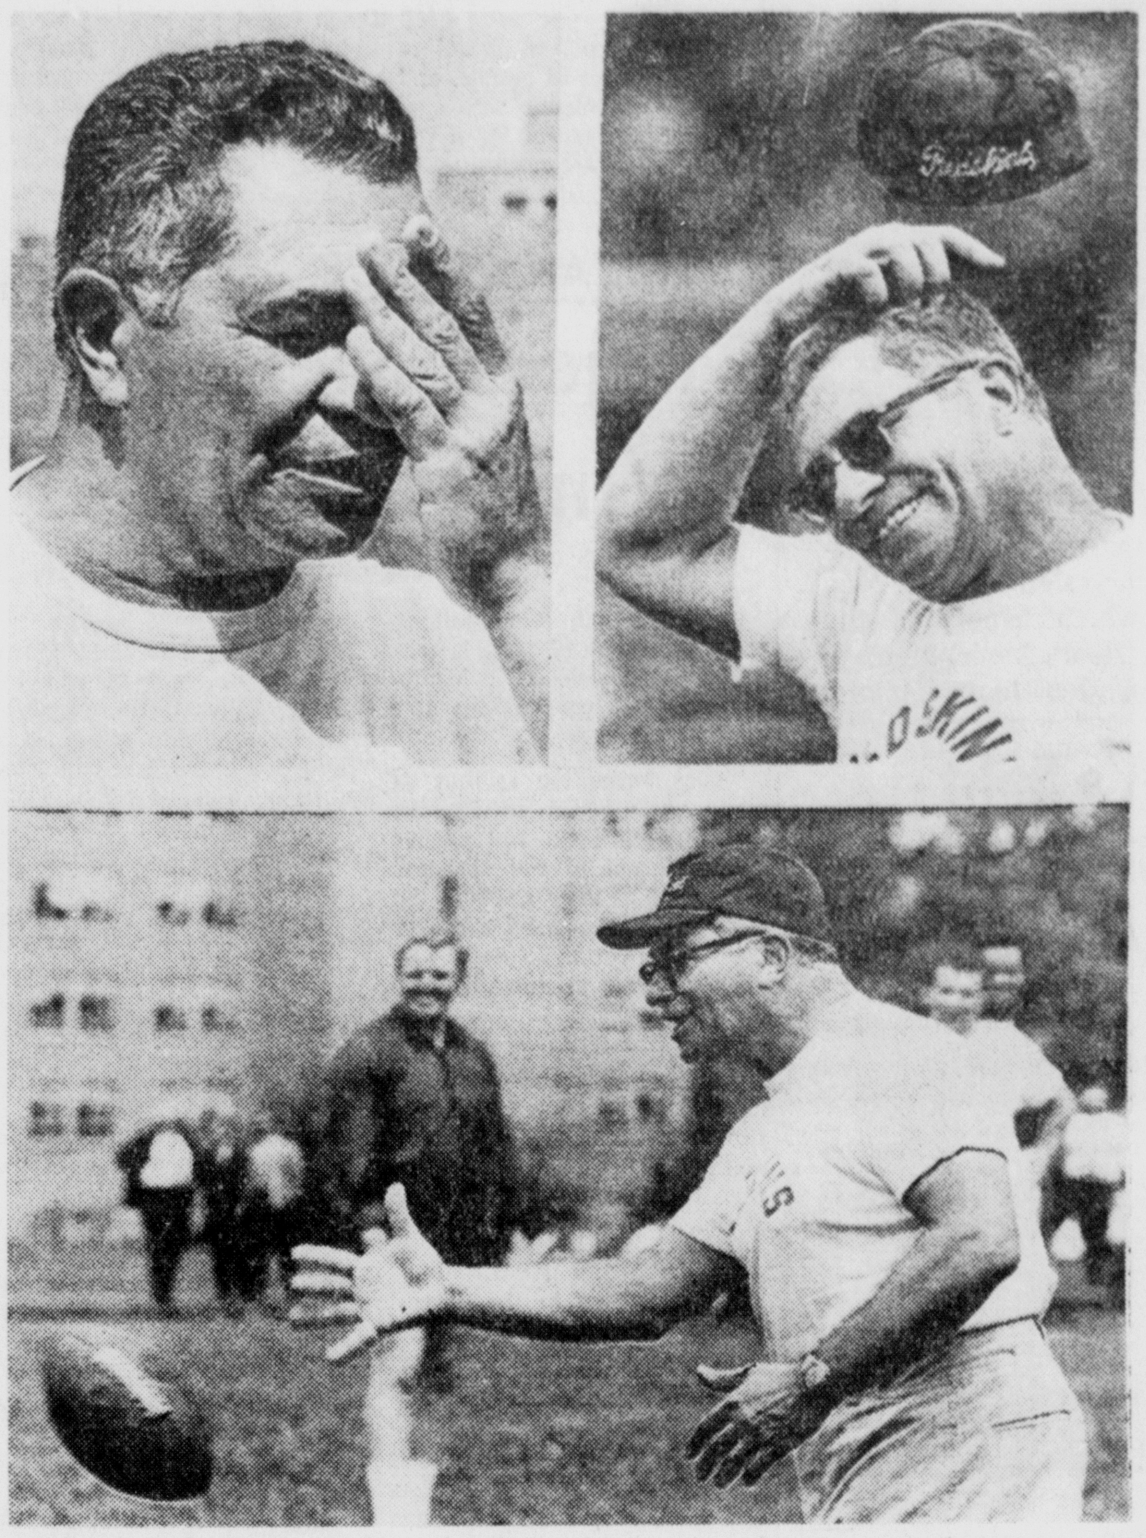
Bill Fitzgerald, a 6-4, 190-pound right handed Tulane University catcher from Metairie, La., was signed at a "substantial bonus" and will be sent to the Class AA Southern League team at Birmingham, Ala. Fitzgerald, 22, was captain and most valuable player on Tulane's 1969 team and batted .350.

Russell Almquist, of Northridge, Calif., and Bill Linehan of Peabody, Mass., both left handed pitchers, will be sent to the Northwest League's Tri-Cities team at Kennewick, Wash. Almquist, 19, attended Pierce Junior College and struck out 100 batters in 59 innings of American Legion League play. Linehan, 18, bats right but throws left handed and had a 10-2 record at Peabody High.

Joe Lasorsa, a 21-year-old right handed pitcher from Alston, Mass., struck out an average of 13 batters for every 9 innings he pitched for Boston University where he was named the most valuable player in the greater Boston College League. He will be sent to the Burlington, Iowa, Midwest League team.

Softball Schedule

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo, idle in softball wars for eight days, returns to action tomorrow night in a Santa Rosa League doubleheader against Windsor Merchants and Rose Bowl. The Treemen have a 24-17 won-lost record this season.



HE'S BACK WITH A SMILE

Vince Lombardi was back as an active coach yesterday as he greeted more than 50 of his Washington Redskins to four days of skull sessions at Georgetown University. Lombardi, who guided the Green Bay Packers to two Super Bowl triumphs, looked happy to be back as he demonstrated his version of the handoff while Washington quarterback Sonny Jurgenson looked on with a grin. (UPI Telephotos)

Terra Linda's Payan Moves To Redwood

The familiar sideline growl of Terra Linda High School football aide Jess Payan will have a new theater of operations next fall.

JESS PAYAN
Coach switches

Payan has moved to Redwood High School as head frosh grid coach and interim track coach. His hiring was confirmed last night at a meeting of the Tamalpais High School District.

He replaces young Gary Shaw, who has accepted a position as head track and cross-country coach at Hartnell Junior College in Salinas.

Payan has coached at Terra Linda for the past four years, acting as assistant varsity football coach and head baseball coach. He was unable to perform his baseball duties this spring because of illness after leading the Trojans to a Marin County Athletic League title in his first year as head coach in 1968.

Payan's forceful presence may bolster Redwood's football fortunes, which have not been up to past years of success, although the Giants did hand Terra Linda its only loss last year.

Terra Linda athletic director and head football coach Don Lucas expects the positions left vacant by Payan's departure to be filled soon. He also announced that Bob Pollitt has been moved from frosh grid coach up to head junior varisty grid coach.

Shaw, a rapidly-rising 24-year-old, was at Redwood for only a year but brought the Giants to another MCAL track and field title after two years at Santa Rosa Junior College.

Shaw replaces Ed Adams at Hartnell, who retired as track coach and athletic director.

RICK DENNING ON ALL-STAR NORTH TEAM

Rick Denning, three-times All-Marin County Athletic League player, has been added to the North Roster for Saturday's North-South All-Star baseball game at Candlestick Park.

The Marin Catholic High School graduate will be replacing shortstop Stan Papi of Fresno who signed a professional contract with the Houston Astros.

Also added to the North roster was outfielder Ken Robinson of Oakland High, replacing Ed Siracusa of Los Gatos, who is now under contract with Kansas City.

The game Saturday will be pitting the top players from Northern and Southern California high schools. Redwood High School coach Al Endriss is one of the North coaches.

Four Marin Players On Pro Draft List

Two Marin County high school seniors and a pair of collegiates who did their prep playing at Novato High were among the 1,147 players picked in the recent baseball draft.

Latest edition of the St. Louis Sporting News listed the draft picks, all 1,147 of them.

Highest to go was Russ Dillon, Novato High's southpaw pitcher, picked No. 4 by the Atlanta Braves for their Twin Falls farm club.

Mike Timmel, Terra Linda right-handed pitcher, was No. 15 pick by the St. Louis Cardinals, for Cedar Rapids team of Midwest League.

John Dolinsek, former Hornet now playing for Arizona State in the NCAA championships, was picked No. 8 by the Houston Astros, for the Cocoa team in the Florida State League.

In the special phase of the draft, for players who were previously drafted but didn't sign, former Novato star third baseman Tom Thomas was picked in the special phase second round by Chicago White Sox for Tucson of the Pacific Coast League. Thomas played for Menlo College last season, and was previously tabbed in the winter draft by California Anges.

THE GREAT SHIFT

McCovey Just Laughs It Off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"If I hit the ball out of the park," says Willie McCovey, "no shift will help unless they stack the outfielders on top of each other."

That was McCovey's whimsical approach to a shift devised by Cincinnati manager Dave Bristol in the Red's 8-6 victory over the San Francisco Giants yesterday.

The drastic alignment has shortstop Darrel Chaney shifting to left-center and third baseman Tony Perez playing near second base. McCovey faced it five times, walking twice and collecting a run-scoring single in the ninth.

FEAR

"We've been thinking about it for a while," explained Bristol, who plans to use the four-man outfield against McCovey tonight, when Juan Marichal 7-2 opposes George Culver, 4-4, in the second game of the series.

"I'd give McCovey four bunt singles before the game starts if he promises not to swing," said Bristol. "He hits the ball so hard, the percentages are with us to have four men in the outfield, trying to prevent an extra base hit."

McCovey, who leads the National League with 21 homers and is batting .353, shrugs off such attention.

NO BUNTS

"I wasn't watching the outfielders," offers McCovey. "I have enough trouble worrying about the pitchers. "And I'm not out to get four bunt singles—I've got to drive in runs for us to win."

The strategy worked in the eighth inning when McCovey ripped a liner to right fielder Bobby Tolan, standing near the foul line. The Giants followed with three straight singles, yet couldn't score.

McCovey's run-scoring single in the ninth, however, probably would have been an out under normal circumstances. It rolled softly up the middle and helped the Giants make it a tight finish with two runs scored in the inning.

13 HITS

While McCovey commanded much of the Reds' attention, Cincinnati's powerful batting order collected 13 hits to give ex-Giant Jack Fisher, 2-0, the victory over reliever Ron Kline, 1-4, making his first San Francisco appearance.

Alex Johnson led the way with four hits, boosting his average to .362. Johnson's two-run triple highlighted a three-run eighth-inning rally that gave reliever Clay Carroll an 8-4 cushion entering the bottom of the ninth.

Cincinnati overcame a 4-2 Giants' lead with a three run uprising in the sixth. Pete Rose's second run-scoring single of the game prefaced a two-run double by Tolan, which placed the Reds ahead for good.

BONDS, HUNT HR'S

The Giants collected 12 hits, three by Dave Marshall. Bobby Bonds and Ron Hunt belted solo homers for San Francisco. Caroll needed Wayne Granger's ninth-inning relief to nail down the victory.

Heart Attack Kills Driver

CALISTOGA (UPI) — Popular veteran race driver Dave Logan died of a massive heart attack, not injuries, just before his car crashed during a sprint race at the Napa Fairgrounds Saturday night.

An autopsy, revealed yesterday, pinpointed the cause of death of the 32-year-old driver from Clayton, Calif. He slumped over the steering wheel on the last lap during the featured race and the car smashed through a fence and clipped a tree.

Logan was found dead in the wreckage. He was the fourth driver to die on the half-mile fairgrounds track since sanctioned sprint car races started there in 1949.

Braves Reserves Do The Job

By ASSOCIATED PRES

Ift here's anything wrong with the Atlanta Braves' bench it must be termites in the wood.

It can't be the folks sitting on it, for there reclining in the Atlanta dugout last night were Hank Aaron, Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou while the regular bench-warmers were out on the field mauling Houston 6-2 and 8-4 in a twi-night doubleheader.

Aaron, who played in all of the Braves' first 58 games, and Cepeda, who missed only one, never budged, except for a few trips to the water cooler. Alou, who has been sidelined with a fractured hand, saw action late in each game for defensive purposes.

"I've always said we had a good bench and I think they proved that tonight," said manager Luman Harris after the Braves boosted their lead in the National League West to 2½ games over Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Elsewhere in the N.L., San Diego edged the Dodgers 3-2 in 13 innings, Concinnati outslugged the Giants 8-6, Pittsburgh nipped the Chicago Cubs 9-8 and St. Louis blanked Montreal 3-0. The New York Mets and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

While Aaron and Cepeda were enjoying the view as spectators, right fielder Mike Lum collected four hits and drove in a run and first baseman Tommie Aaron, Hank's kid brother, singled home a run in the first game and slammed his first homer of the season in the nightcap.

The key blows, however, were struck by Tony Gonzalez, acquired in a trade with San Diego over the weekend. Gonzalez smacked two home runs and drove in three runs in the opener as Phil Niekro became the major leagues' first 11-game winner.

Then, he drilled a two-run single that put Atlanta ahead in the second inning of the nightcap and before the side was out eight runs had crossed the plate. Rico Carty belted a three-run homer and Tommie Aaron's homer accounted for the final run.

Rookie Van Kelly, who went from Atlanta to San Diego in the Gonzalez deal, did the Dodgers in with a two-out, run-scoring double in the 13th, his first major league hit. Ed Spiezio and Ollie Brown homered for the Padres while Ken Boyer of the Dodgers sent the contest into overtime with a two-out pinch single in the ninth.

Rookie Al Oliver's two-run homer capped a three-run Pittsburgh rally in the eighth that enabled the Pirates to lick the Cubs. The Pirates took a 6-2 lead in the first but the Cubs battled back and went ahead 7-6 on Randy Hundley's two-run homer in the seventh. They scored again in the ninth before Steve Blass fanned rookie Rich Bladt with runners on second and third.

Nelson Briles spaced 10 hits and stranded 10 Montreal baserunners as the Cardinals made the most of four hits, including Vada Pinson's fourth homer and Julian Javier's third.

Giants Convinced Lanier Best Shortstop In N.L.

Hal Lanier established himself as the best shortstop in the National League last year. His fielding average of .979 led all shortstops in 1968. He handled 795 chances with only 17 errors.

This year Lanier is ranging the short patch from deep in the hole to behind second base. Some of his throws from the hole have been incredible. And his off-balance throws from behind second must be seen to be believed.

"Until I came to the Giants," said Clyde King, rookie manager of the team, "I used to think Gene Alley was the league's best shortstop. Now I know Lanier is."

KING HAS nothing but admiration for the way Lanier works at his job, especially Lanier's never-ending efforts to become as good a hitter as he is a fielder.

"Anybody who works as hard as he does has to succeed," said King who has used one or more starting players at every position except shortstop where Lanier has started every game, the only member of the team to play in every game.

SEVERAL TIMES King has sent pitch batters to the plate for Lanier but not recently. Lanier hit .438 (14-for-32) over a nine-game stretch May 28-June 8, boosting his season batting average from .207 to .250. During his nine-game streak he drove in four runs, his first RBIs since May 22.

A couple of years ago Lanier, a natural right-handed hitter, began hitting left-handed. After a brief experiment with switch-hitting, he abandoned it. Last July 28 he began switch-hitting again. This time he stuck with it and by September he looked comfortable from both sides of the plate. In September last season he hit .316.

THIS SPRING in the Cactus League exhibition games Lanier hit a creditable .267 with 15 RBIs. But after the season opened, he definitely was overanxious in the batter's box. He was swinging at bad pitches and he was running away from the plate. He wasn't staying put in the box and he wasn't staying with the pitch. He looked like a jumping jack in the box and his .192 batting average on May 1 looked awful.

Lanier was a deeply depressed young man at this period. But he did something about it. He had become a switch-hitter because he had seen what success Don Kessinger, the Cub shortstop, had with switch-hitting.

DURING THE first meeting of 1969 between the Giants and Cubs, Lanier asked Kessinger to look at his swing. Kessinger suggested a more level swing. Lanier achieved this by positioning his left elbow parallel to the ground. That was on May 9. A five-game hitting streak followed.

Kessinger's suggestion and the resulting five-game hitting streak certainly improved Lanier's mental attitude. But even before he received Kessinger's tip, Lanier was working himself out of his hitting problems. For one thing, he conquered his unconscious habit of jumping around in the batter's box. And he began to stay with pitches, waiting for them instead of lunging at them.

AS KING said, anyone who works as hard as Lanier does for success deserves it.

Beardall Wins Novato Race

The Marin Athletic Club put its personal stamp on the annual Novato Ridge Run last Saturday.

Daryl Beardall of the Marin Athletic Club took top individual honors, winning the 6.87-mile race in 37.07.5, to beat his old mark by a full minute, and the Marin Athletic Club took team honrs with 41 points, quite a bit ahead of runnerup Olympic Club, which had 78 points.

Mike Daley of the Redwood City Striders finished second in 37:49.0.

High school division honors went to Novato's Don Makela who finished eighth overall in 39:06.0.

Tigers' McLain Wins His 10th

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Denny McLain, tough-talking 31-game winner of 1968, is taking as much pleasure in his 10-5 record this year as his 11-2 mark a year ago.

"What burns me is that so many guys, even in Detroit, said I might be a 5-10 pitcher at this stage of the season," said McLain, after pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 3-2 win over the New York Yankees last night. "I want to shove it down their throats."

McLain, who scored the 100th victory of his career, was touched for a first-inning run on two singles and a balk and a ninth-inning run on a double by Roy White and a single by Gene Michael.

TWO-RUN HOMER

The big blow in the Tigers' victory, which saddled Fritz Peterson with his seventh defeat, was a two-run homer by Al Kaline in the fourth inning.

The Minnesota Twins beat the California Angels, 8-2, as Rod Carew tied an American League record by stealing home for the sixth time in one season, the Chicago White Sox downed the Seattle Pilots, 8-3, the Boston Red Sox topped the Cleveland Indians, 8-5, and the Kansas City Royals scored a 12-inning victory, 3-2, after losing the first game to the Oakland Athletics, 7-5, in 13 innings.

Carew, who has been given the right to steal at will by Manager Billy Martin, executed consecutive double steals with Tony Oliva in the first inning as the Twins whisked off to a 3-0 lead. Carew's six steals of home equal the A.L. record set by Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers in 1915 and equalled by Bob Roth of the Cleveland Indians in 1917. Carew is one short of the major league mark set by Pete Reiser of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1946.

PERRY GOES ROUTE

Jim Perry went the route to pick up his fifth victory of the season for the Twins.

Billy Wynne allowed eight hits and hit a two-run single during a five-run third inning as the White Sox snapped a four-game losing streak. Luis Aparicio and Gail Hopkins each had two hits for the White Sox while Mike Hegan and Don Mincher had two each for the Pilots.

Reggie Smith hit a three-run homer in the seventh off Juan Pizarro and a solo homer in the ninth off Mike Paul to rally the Red Sox to their victory at Cleveland. Carl Yastrzemski hit his 18th homer for the Red Sox while Ken Harrelson drove in two runs for the Indians with a homer and a double.

Chinese Soccer Fans In Riot

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong Chinese soccer fans set rubbish fires, smashed car windows, and scuffled with police last night as England's touring Football Association team beat a Hong Kong Football Association eleven 6-0.

Hong Kong riot police, armed with batons and carrying woven bamboo shields, moved into the area and brought the trouble under control in about 40 minutes.

A police spokesman said one Hong Kong European resident was briefly hospitalized with "not too serious injuries" when attacked by several members of the mob, apparently irritated by the one-sided victory.

Upsets In NCAA Tourney

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The most form-shattering tournament in the 23-year history of the NCAA baseball College World Series headed toward the decisive stages today with dark-horses Tulsa and New York University the only teams remaining undefeated.

BEAT TEXANS

The Hurricanes, Missouri Valley Conference champions making their first tournament appearance, cooled off Texas 4-2 last night behind the two-hit pitching of Steve Rogers and Cliff Whitaker, who drove in four runs with a homer and single.

NYU, which is making its third tourney appearance but has never finished higher than fourth, unleashed a 12-hit attack to bury Massachusetts 9-2 in the other winners' bracket game.

The two unbeatens collide at 3 p.m. today, with the winner then sitting back to await the team that emerges from the losers' bracket.

TWO MORE

Two more teams were to be eliminated today.

Mississippi, which provided another shocker yesterday when it ousted top-ranked Southern Illinois University 8-1, took on Texas while Massachusetts played Arizona State in losers' games today which would sideline two more and reduce the field to four clubs.

Heavy Hitting In Rec Softball

Heavy hitting dominated the scene in San Rafael Recreation Department softball action yesterday at Albert Field.

In a 16-inch slow pitch game, Cliff's Chevron blasted Cal's Steakhouse, 10-4 on a 12-hit attack and the Marin Supply Company routed Stan's, 13-8, in a C division game that produced 23 hits.

SPORTS SHORTS

Moody Jumps Up On Money List

NEW YORK (AP) — Orville Moody leaped from 26th to eighth place on the Professional Golfers' Association's money winning list, thanks to his victory in the U.S. Open.

According to statistics released yesterday by the PGA, Moody's $30,000 Open first prize raised his earnings so far this year to $67,921. Before the Open, the former Army sergeant was 26th on the money list with $37,921 in 22 tournaments. He had finished in the top five in four events but had never won a tournament until the Open, the biggest of them all.

Moody, a graduate of the 1967 PGA player school, earned $12,950 last year and wound up 103rd on the annual list.

Gene Littler continued to lead the weekly dollar derby with $102,137.

The first seven positions were unchanged after the Open Sunday from the previous week's standings.

Lee Trevino is in second position with $83,942 followed by Gary Player, $80,156; Billy Casper, $79,254; Miller Barber, $75,361; Dave Hill, $73,725; George Archer, $69,557; Moody; Bruce Devlin, $67,614 and Deane Beam, $64,608.

CINCINNATI — Kathy Whitworth boosted her lead to nearly $6,000 int he Ladies Professional Golf Association money standings by winning the Patty Berg Classic Sunday.

TENNIS

LONDON — Seven of the world's top tennis stars announced they have formed an international association aimed at getting a say in whether South Africa competes in the Davis Cup tournament.

LONDON — Australia's Rod Laver defeated British Davis Cupper Peter Curtis, 6-4, 6-2 in the opening round of the Queen's Club tourney.

Junior Olympics Fund Campaign In Mill Valley

John Garber, recreation supervisor for the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Department, announced yesterday the starting of a drive for $500 to send 50 Marin County boys and girls to Junior Olympic Track and Field Championships in Reno, Nev.

First three places in each age group event last Saturday at the Marin County Junior Olympics qualifies for the Reno meet, scheduled July 12-13.

William Kilday of San Rafael was the star of last Saturday's meet, setting a national record in boys age 12-13 division of the half mile in 2 minutes, 19.8 seconds.

Garber said persons wishing to contribute to the fund should get in touch with him at the recreation department office.

A Slow Start For Marin's Ken Johnson

Ken Johnson, three-time All-Marin County Athletic League baseball pick from Redwood High School, is having another one of his slow starts.

Johnson, who traditionally has trouble getting under way with his bat early in the season, is in his second year with the New York Yankee organization, batting a cool .143 with Ft. Lauderdale in the Florida A League. He got his first two hits last week.

Meanwhile, Nick Willard of Novato saw no action for Bakersfield in the California League last week. He's batting .238 on the season.

Pitcher Bill Lee of Terra Linda is doing well in Pittsfield, Mass., in the Eastern AA League. He's got a 1.89 earned run average in eight games, having won four and lost two.

The Old Days Revisited; Fish Still Bite The Same

In the old days of the Richmond ferries and the docks and pilings down there off Point San Quentin, stripers used to be all around that area through May, June and July. Trolling the pilings at both the ferry pier and the Marin Rod and Gun Club pier was tops at times.

I used to fish the incoming tides, starting at the low. Minus tides were best. We used bug-eye jigs — reds, yellows, whites and greens usually two on a spreader leader. I think that attorneys Bill Weissich and Roger Garety and Warden H. O. Teets all caught their first limits of bass there, and Sam Knoles used to come down, satisfied to go after the others came in, and he mostly limited, too.

I went down there a few days ago on a minus tide and trolled exactly like we used to. A minus .9 tide, incoming water, the jigs, the whole bit. You know, we caught three fish that hit exactly like they used to. No other boats were out. What's happened to Barney Piambo, Duane from the Western and all the others? I did see Andy Pedroli, one of the old timers, come along, make two passes and then head up the bay. It should be good this week, and you don't have to get there early either.

I TOOK an early morning trip (5 a.m.) down to Fort Cronkhite and Lime Point the other day. Watched four fishermen take four bass, nothing too big.

It looked like Frank Allen out in a boat fly casting. Frank is one of the good anglers you don't hear much about. He never come in! I know he caught two fish, but when the tide changed, he took off out through the Golden Gate to try for salmon, I guess.

One morning a few years ago I went to the Richmond Bridge at low tide, about a half hour before legal fishing time. There was a boat anchored and a guy with a fly rod sitting there. He wasn't fishing, just waiting for the right time to arrive. I walked out on the bridge above him, said "hello," and after we talked awhile I told him I was a game warden. He was glad that he hadn't fished, and you know that fish were boiling all over the place. Later he caught three, released two of them and gave me one. He was fishing for fun! That's how I met Frank.

I WENT OVER to San Pablo Bay Saturday and ran into Ernest "Smiley" Eddings of Santa Venetia who had just come in from the pumphouse area with Bob Keefer and Mike LaFevre. Ernest was smiling, too; he had just landed a 34½-pound striper and a 30-pound sturgeon, and his two buddies had a sturgeon each and a 14-pound striper.

Maisie Martin of Santa Venetia was there, too, and seeing these fish she immediately left for home to get her husband, Manny, and their new "Thunderbird" boat in shape. I came by there the next day just as they were getting ready to leave. They had picked up two other customers by this time, Jeanne and Don Carter from Tampa, Fla., two green peas if I ever saw any.

Maisie, who invites everyone around to go fishing, then talked me into going for a couple of hours, too. After much persuasion, I went along to assist the new comers. You won't believe it, but, Jeanne, who talks like a "southern belle," started it out by saying, "Al, would you all bait my hook for me, please?" Oh Boy! With the crowd so thick in the back of this boat, I ended up baiting all the hooks except Manny's. He fished up forward, out of a hole in the canvas top of the boat. I think that from now on he won't let more than three people on his boat!

Anyway, the southern belle in five minutes hooked an 18-pound bass. You should have seen the action! She never put the rod down after that. I caught a 40-pound sturgeon on a new fly rod that didn't break; then Maisie hooked a big sturgeon. (Her biggest fish to date was 46 pounds.) Well this one, after Maisie shivered and her knees shook, was finally landed. It weighed 76 pounds on the Buck's Landing scales. And then Don hooked up wigh a 22-pound sturgeon which he soon landed.

Manny? He was up front, head up through the hole, and the wind blowing about 25 knots. You think he got a fish? Nope! The guy who owns the boat usually never gets anything. Last thing I heard, Manny was going fishing alone this week. "Friends? Ha, they can get their own boat." Those were his last words!

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. BOWLING TIPS

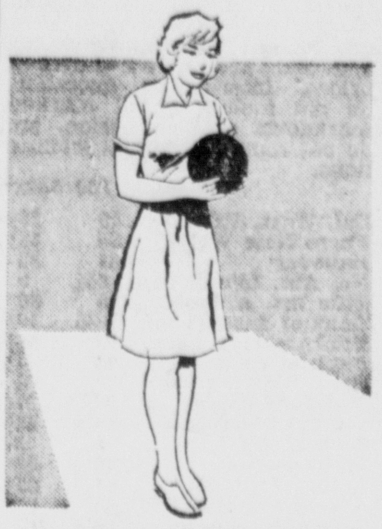
By MARION LADEWIG



As you stand in your starting position, allow your muscles to relax. A deep breath and very slow exhale might help. Tension has ruined many a bowler. Don't let it happen to you.

Drake Basketball Loop Under Way

Drake Summer League basketball action got under way yesterday with three adult league games at Drake High School.

In the top game of the set, San Rafael Travel nicked A and E Garage, 59-57, behind Dan O'Brien's 19 points. Dave Lee had 22 points for the losers.

In other games, the Olympic Club routed McArthur Brothers, 61-34, and Paradise Pharmacy whipped Taveggi-Brusati, 75-50, on Bob Heany's 16 points.

Marin Stars In National Net Tourney

A flock of Marin County tennis hopefuls will be entered in the 11th annual National Men's 35 hardcourt championships at the Mill Valley Tennis Club, set to start tomorrow at 9 a.m.

Two of them will clash in the second match of the day when Fred Brylka of San Rafael and John Williams of Mill Valley go at it at 9 a.m. Also playing at 9 a.m. will be Art Foff, Pete Werner and Larry Goldbeck, all of Mill Valley.

Going at 10 a.m. are John Olmsted, Keith Klussman, and Stan George of San Rafael and Ron Stuart of Corte Madera.

BIG TASK

George Hambruch of Tiburon gets the unenviable task of facing second-seeded Don Gale of Mountain View at 11 a.m. Competing at noon are George Husa of Terra Linda and Robert Seymour of Mill Valley.

Jack Barone and Leon Malherbe, both of Mill Valley, are involved in 1 p.m. matches.

Competition on opening day of the five-day tournament will continue through 5 p.m. with 40 matches scheduled.

Ickx Uninjured In Highway Crash

CHARTRES, France (AP) — Jackie Ickx of Belgium, who was a co-driver of the winning Ford GT in the LeMans 24-hour automobile race on Sunday, escaped uninjured from an accident as he was driving toward Paris yesterday. But his new car was badly damaged.

Ickx was forced to veer sharply to the right to avoid another car and ran into an electrical pole.

Scholarship For Drake Ace

Dave Alvarado, recent graduate of Drake High School and now serving a five-month hitch in the U.S. Coast Guard, stationed in Alameda, has been named Marin County winner of the Big Hand Scholarship.

It's the second scholarship won by Alvarado, a letter-winner in three sports at the San Anselmo school. Prior to his Big Hand athletic scholarship he had won a California State Academic scholarship.

SANTA CLARA-BOUND

Planning to attend University of Santa Clara in September after his release from active duty, Alvarado will get $500 per year for four years for the Big Hand aid, and approximately $1,300 per year for the academic scholarship.

The 18-year-old athlete played football, basketball and baseball at Drake. In addition to excelling in athletics, Dave has been in the Honor Society for four years and a member of the California Scholarship Federation two years. He was recently voted Outstanding Citizenship Award by the Drake High School faculty. He was also the Drake High School nominee for the Senior Scholar-Athlete Hall of Fame award.

The Big Hand scholarship program was open only to San Francisco students in the past, but this year winners from Marin and Alameda counties have been added.

Japan Fund Shares Quoted Two Ways

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I noticed that Japan Fund has been hitting new highs while the rest of the market was declining. I can't seem to find much information on the company. Have you any? — R. P.

A. Japan Fund, a closed-end investment company, as of March 31, had more than half of its assets invested in electronics and construction companies. These two areas of the Japanese economy are expected to show the greatest percentage of growth in the next five years. The shares are trading at about a 27 per cent premium over net asset value. Since the first of the year, shares have moved up about 60 per cent primarily, reflecting new all-time highs in the Tokyo Stock Market.

In purchasing these shares you should take note of the fact that they are quoted two ways. Shares which are accompanied by American ownership certificates are not subject to the Interest Equalization Tax. The lower quotes are on foreign shares which are subject to the tax.

Q. I am retired with ample income. Two holdings, in spite of stock dividends, are off considerably from my purchase price. Should I hold or sell Cerro Corp. and Ronson Corp.? — R. D.

A. The future of Cerro Corp., because of its involvement in Peru and the attendant uncertainty of the political situation there, is clouded. Company President Koenig in an optimistic statement at the annual meeting predicted higher earnings for 1969 and a more favorable climate for foreign investment. I would be inclined to wait it out until nearer the year-end before possibly taking a tax-loss.

Ronson's President Aronson has predicted a record year for his company with sales reaching $102 million. Several very promising consumer products, absence of nonrecurring charges and greater efficiency from plant consolidation should also boost earnings. Five new consumer products, electric and flame, will be introduced in the last half of 1969. Gradual lomg-term growth should result in higher trading levels. Hold.

Skyscraper Will Keep Its Spire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Transamerica Corp. has shortened the height of its projected skyscraper here, but it still is designed to become one of the largest structures west of the Mississippi. A 220-foot spire is planned for the 45-floor building, which has been scaled down from 55 stories.

The change actually will increase the rentable area in the building, which will contain more than one half million feet of floor space.

The city planning commission has set June 26 for hearing a request by Transamerica to close a section of Merchant St. for access to the building by pedestrians only.

Bank Clearings Up In Marin

Marin County bank clearings for May were up substantially from 1968 figures for the fifth consecutive month this year.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reported unadjusted debits of $229,039,000, compared with $189,455,000 in May, 1968. Unadjusted deposits increased to $99,248,000 from $95,054,000 a year ago.

Seasonally adjusted debits, deposits and turnover ratios are not yet reported for Marin County.

Nine Businessmen Get Chamber Posts

Nine local businessmen have been elected directors of the Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau: Frank Bosl, Irving D. Chapman Sr., Jack Eddy, J. Galen Foster, Carlos R. Freitas, George Higgins, Edwin Johnson, T. J. McCall and E. Douglas Roberts. They will replace those on the 35-member board whose terms have expired.

Newly elected directors will be installed at the chamber's annual luncheon meeting June 19 at Holiday Inn, Terra Linda. Guest speaker at the meeting will be Leland L. Levinger, president of the Redwood Empire Association.

Market Trading Is Active As Stocks Fall Off Again

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks sold off sharply today in active trading.

Concern over tight money weighed heavily on the list as Wall Street awaited the outcome of a vote by the House Ways and Means Committee on President Richard M. Nixon's request to extend the income tax surcharge beyond its June 30 expiration date.

Among the weakest issues were steels, chemicals, oils and electronics.

Superior Oil, down more than 5 yesterday, continued to work lower, losing several points.

The steel setback partially reflected a slowup in industry ordering. Motors and chemicals generally lost fractions.

Several airline stocks also backtracked after switching higher yesterday on possibility of a second round of fare increase this year.

ICC Approves Bekins Split

LOS ANGELES (BW) — The Bekins Co. (formerly Bekins Van & Storage Co.) has announced that the Interstate Commerce Commission has approved a 2-for-1 split in the outstanding shares of common stock.

Company shareholders and directors authorized the change in the stock structure of the company at the annual meeting on April 14, but approval by the ICC was required before the stock could be split.

The record date for the split is June 28.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

A Trip To Mexico Inspired New Hub Store: Suede Imports

A new store, Suede Imports, has opened at 747 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, and will retail both suede and other leather goods, mainly from Guadalajara.

Proprietor Milton Mason, who owns the property here and lives at the rear of the building, said this is a new venture for him, decided upon after making a trip to Mexico recently and seeing the high-grade leather goods available. His stocks are 80 per cent men's wear (jackets, shirts and vests) but he intends to build up the women's department. His ultimate goal is to develop a mail order business for this type of merchandise.

Assisted in the store by his son Milton Jr., he will also take some art objects to sell on consignment. Hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays. The store is closed Sundays and Mondays.

SIX RESOURCEFUL San Rafael High School students (all girls), faced with a prospect of little or no summer employment, have ventured into business for themselves and opened a store in downtown San Rafael.

Their shop at 918 B Street, called Harvest, opened yesterday after several weeks of preparing merchandise to sell. Stocks, all hand-crafted items, include dresses and junior clothing, jewelry, candles, paintings, leather goods, wall hangings and stitchery.

The girls, either new seniors or new graduates of San Rafael High, are Kristy Allan, Tina Little and Debbie Epperson of San Rafael; and Terri Trombley, Karen Clipenger and Sandy Dugan of Terra Linda. They will fabricate some articles to order and keep store hours from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays.

THE REALTY FIRM of Nipper and Marchant has moved to its recently completed building at the corner of Second and E streets, San Rafael, closing out previous offices at 1340 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael and 208 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo. The office employs 13 salespeople besides Hugh G. (Bud) Marchant and A. N. (Al) Nipper themselves.

Along with another nearby building now under construction for Moore's Stationery, this may start a new business or professional trend for the area, which heretofore has been noted more for its service stations than anything else commercially.

ANOTHER AUTOMOBILE DEALER, Marin Bay Lincoln-Mercury, San Rafael, has taken on the Japanese Subaru mini-car agency. Previously we announced an agency acquisition by Larry Brink Motors, Mill Valley.

Marin Bay has several models on hand and is especially featuring Subaru's mini-van in the 360 series.

BACK IN HOME CONSTRUCTION is Reuben Kaehler (formerly of Kaehler-Farrar Co.), now in the process of building 37 new dwellings in Santa Venetia in the $27,950-$28,950 range. Homes have three and four bedrooms, underground utilities and a number of new-style interior appointments.

The development is located about one and one-half miles out North San Pedro Road from the Highway — past the Santa Venetia Shopping Center. A furnished model home at 1635 Vendola Drive is open daily from noon to 6 p.m. Bernie Kerns, with Gallagher-Sturiale Realtors is the exclusive agent. The tract is known as Estancia Estates.

ROBERT F. WILLIAMS of Tiburon has been named Northern California regional vice president of Wofac Co., San Francisco, North American operations divison of Science Management Corp., a management consulting firm. From 1966 to 1968 he was a vice president with the Detroit Bank of the Commonwealth and before that he was 27 years with Ford Motor Co.
